Departure of Officer

On May 28, 2019, Avis Budget Group, Inc. (the “Company”) announced the planned departure of Larry D. De Shon, President and Chief Executive Officer, after a 13-year career with the Company, effective as of the Company’s appointment of a successor. Mr. De Shon will also resign from the Board of Directors of the Company at such time. Mr. De Shon will continue to be employed by the Company until December 31, 2019. The Board of Directors has formed an Executive Search Committee to identify a successor to Mr. De Shon.

Separation Agreement

Mr. De Shon has entered into a Separation and Consulting Agreement with the Company dated May 26, 2019 (the “Separation Agreement”). The Separation Agreement provides for cash severance in the amount of $7,500,000 and continuation of certain specified perquisites for two years as well as certain health benefits and tax services related to Mr. De Shon’s assignment in the United Kingdom from 2011-2015. Consistent with Mr. De Shon’s employment agreement with the Company, the Separation Agreement provides that stock-based awards scheduled to vest by the two-year anniversary of the separation date will immediately vest following the separation date; provided that any such awards that vest based on the achievement of specific objective performance goals will not vest in full, but will remain outstanding and become vested or forfeited at such time(s) as provided in accordance with the terms and conditions of the applicable award agreement. As a result, 105,112 performance-based restricted stock units granted in 2019 will be forfeited. Under the terms of the Separation Agreement, 23,359 time-based restricted stock units, granted to Mr. De Shon in 2019, will vest upon separation, and certain obligations will be imposed on Mr. De Shon, including non-disparagement obligations.

The Separation Agreement also provides for a one-year post-employment consulting arrangement with aggregate consulting fees of $1.0 million. Mr. De Shon’s consulting fees will be paid in full if the consulting arrangement is terminated by the Company for any reason other than for “cause” or due to death or disability.

A copy of the Separation Agreement is attached hereto as an exhibit and is incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing description of the Separation Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Separation Agreement.

SEPARATION AND CONSULTING AGREEMENT

This Separation and Consulting Agreement (the “Agreement”) is by and between Larry D. De Shon (the “Executive”) and Avis Budget Group, Inc., a Delaware Corporation (the “Company”).

WHEREAS, the Executive and the Company are party to that certain Employment Agreement dated as of September 15, 2015 (the “Employment Agreement”);

WHEREAS, the Executive will separate from his position as Chief Executive Officer, President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company effective as of the Transition Date and as an employee of the Company effective as of the Separation Date (each, as defined below); and

WHEREAS, the Company desires to retain the Executive as a consultant from the Separation Date through the end of the Consulting Period (as defined below);

NOW, THEREFORE, for the promises and covenants set forth herein and for such other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Executive and the Company enter into this Agreement on the following terms and conditions:

1. Transition; Separation. The Executive will continue to be employed as the Chief Executive Officer, President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company from the date of this Agreement through the earlier of (i) December 31, 2019 and (ii) the date on which the Company has hired a new Chief Executive Officer (such earlier date, the “Transition Date”). To the extent that the Transition Date occurs prior to December 31, 2019, following the Transition Date, the Executive will continue to be employed by the Company as a full-time employee of the Company, and a Senior Advisor to the Chief Executive Officer through December 31, 2019 (unless earlier terminated by the Company for “Cause” (as defined in the Employment Agreement) or by the Executive) (the date of the Executive’s actual termination of employment with the Company, the “Separation Date”). For the avoidance of doubt, prior to the Separation Date, the Executive’s employment with the Company will continue to be governed in all respects with the terms and conditions set forth in the Employment Agreement, provided that, (i) the change in the Executive’s duties and responsibilities from the Transition Date through the Separation Date shall in no event constitute a “Constructive Discharge” for purposes of the Employment Agreement or any other agreement or arrangement by and between the Executive and the Company or any of its affiliates, and (ii) in the event of the Executive’s death or Disability (as defined in the Employment Agreement) prior to the Separation Date, and provided the Second Release Effective Date occurs, the Executive (or his estate or spouse (for Section 3(b))) shall be entitled to the payments and benefits set forth in Sections 2(b), 3(a), 3(b), 3(c), 3(d) and 4 of this Agreement in addition to (and not in lieu of) the payments and benefits otherwise provided to the Executive (or his estate) under Section VI of the Employment Agreement (including equity vesting and pro rata bonus). Effective as of the Transition Date (unless otherwise mutually agreed by the parties to reflect the economic intent of this Agreement), the Executive will resign (and will be deemed to have resigned without any further action by the Executive) from his position as the Chief Executive Officer, President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company, and, except as expressly provided in this Section 1, from all of the Executive's positions with the Company and its affiliates (and as a fiduciary of any benefit plan of the Company and its affiliates), including, without limitation, as a member of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board"). Effective as of the Separation Date, (i) the Executive's employment with the Company will terminate, and (ii) the Executive will commence his service as a consultant to the Company pursuant to the terms of Section 4 of this Agreement. The Executive shall execute such additional documents as requested by the Company to evidence the foregoing resignations.

2. Accrued Obligations; Survival of Rights and Obligations.

(a) Accrued Obligations. Within ten (10) business days following the Separation Date (or such earlier time as may be required by applicable law), the Company shall pay the Executive any base salary earned but unpaid through the Separation Date and any unused vacation days plus any unreimbursed business expenses entitled to reimbursement, all in accordance with the Company's policies. The Executive shall also receive his vested and accrued benefits pursuant to the terms of any applicable Company employee benefit plans.

(b) Severance. Provided that the Second Release Effective Date occurs, and subject to the Executive's compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Company agrees to pay to Executive, on the sixty-first (61st) day following the Separation Date, a lump-sum amount equal to $7,500,000. Payment will be made by direct deposit into the same bank account that the Executive's salary has been paid into while he was employed with the Company.

(c) Pro-Rata Bonus. If the Executive does not remain employed through December 31, 2019 (other than as a result of a termination for "Constructive Discharge" (as defined in the Employment Agreement and as modified herein)), provided that the Second Release Effective Date occurs, and subject to the Executive's compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Company agrees to pay the Executive a pro-rata portion of the Executive's annual bonus for the 2019 fiscal year based on actual results for such year (determined by multiplying the amount of such bonus which would be due for the full fiscal year by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days during the 2019 fiscal year through the Separation Date and the denominator of which is 365), and payable at the same time bonuses for the 2019 fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Executive remains employed through December 31, 2019 (or terminates employment for Constructive Discharge (as defined in the Employment Agreement and as modified herein)), the Company shall pay the Executive his annual bonus for the 2019 fiscal year based on actual results for such year, and payable at the same time bonuses for the 2019 fiscal year are paid to other senior executives of the Company. Individual performance goals applicable to the Executive's annual bonus for the 2019 fiscal year shall be treated as achieved at not less than target, and all other performance goals applicable to such annual bonus shall be adjusted in the same manner as such goals are adjusted for other Company senior executives in the event of any events resulting in adjustments to such performance goals.

(d) Equity Incentive Awards. Provided that the Second Release Effective Date occurs, and subject to the Executive's compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, (i) all outstanding unvested stock-based awards granted to the Executive that vest solely based on continued service will immediately vest in full as of the Separation Date, and (ii) all outstanding unvested stock-based awards granted to the Executive that vest based on continued service and the achievement of specified objective performance goals that, in each case, are scheduled to vest in accordance with their original vesting schedule by the two (2)-year anniversary of the Separation Date will not vest in full, but will remain outstanding and become vested or be forfeited at such time(s) as provided in accordance with the terms and conditions of the applicable award agreement based on actual achievement of the performance goals applicable for purposes of vesting such awards. Any other outstanding unvested stock-based awards granted to the Executive shall be canceled as of the Separation Date. The Executive's outstanding stock-based awards shall be treated in the same manner as those held by other Company senior executives in the event of a Change in Control of the Company, and, any performance goals applicable to any such awards shall be adjusted in the same manner as such goals are adjusted for other Company senior executives in the event of any events resulting in adjustments to such performance goals. For the avoidance of doubt, solely the following outstanding stock-based awards shall be subject to vesting under this provision as set forth below:

(e) Payments due to the Executive under this Section 2 shall be in lieu of any other severance benefits otherwise payable to the Executive under the Employment Agreement or any severance plan or policy of the Company or its affiliates.

3. Continuation of Health Benefits and Perquisites.

(a) Provided that the Second Release Effective Date occurs, and subject to the Executive's compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to continued access to company car usage and financial planning expense reimbursements in accordance with Company policy and as provided below. For the avoidance of doubt:

(i) Financial Planning. The Executive shall be entitled to continued access to financial planning benefits for a period of two years following the Separation Date (the "Continuation Period"), which shall include tax preparation.

(ii) Company Car Usage. The Executive's entitlement to continued access to company car usage shall include: (1) a $20,000 per annum stipend payable on a bi-weekly basis during the Continuation Period; (2) continued participation in the Company's other company car programs, which do not result in any incremental cost to the Company, on the terms and conditions related to such programs, until such time as the Executive's cars included in such programs as of the Separation Date are sold or otherwise removed from such programs; and (3) car rental and other benefits on a basis no less favorable than as provided to any other former executive of the Company; it being understood that such car rental benefits shall be principally for personal use and booked through the Company's Chairman's Club (or any higher level of future ABG program).

(iii) Accountants. The Company shall continue to cause Price Waterhouse to (x) handle, at the Company's expense (and on a tax-reimbursed basis to the Executive), any audits related to federal taxes or to states with respect to which the Executive is required to report income from the Company or related to the UK (as a result of the Executive performing services in the UK for the Company), and (y) file foreign bank account documents for the remainder of the executive's tenure as Chief Executive Officer.

(b) Executive (and his spouse, including following the Executive's death) shall remain eligible to continue to participate in Company-sponsored health, vision and dental plans (as they may be modified from time to time with respect to all senior executive officers) until the Executive (or his spouse, as applicable) becomes eligible for coverage under Medicare or any other government-sponsored medical insurance plan which is a replacement for Medicare or until the Executive becomes eligible for comparable coverage under the medical plans of a subsequent employer, if earlier (the "Continuation of Health Benefits")

Period”). The Executive shall be required to make contributions for health plan participation during the Continuation of Health Benefits Period that are substantially equal to the contributions required of active employed executives of the Company. If Executive is not permitted to be covered under the Company’s plans for the entire Continuation of Health Benefits Period, the Company will be permitted to alter the manner in which health benefits are provided to the Executive pursuant to this Section 3(b); provided the after-tax cost to the Executive of such benefits shall not be greater than the cost applicable to active employed executives of the Company (and the coverage for Executive (and his spouse) shall not be less favorable than the coverage applicable to active employed executives of the Company (and their spouses)).

(c) Outplacement services offered to other salaried employees who are terminated by the Company shall be made available to the Executive, upon request, for a period of up to one year following the Separation Date on a basis no less favorable than as provided to any other similarly situated executive of the Company; it being understood that any type of coaching will not be covered by this provision.

(d) Provided that the Second Release Effective Date occurs, and subject to the Executive’s compliance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Executive shall be entitled to retain the Executive’s Company-issued iPhone and iPad, subject to the Company’s verification that the Executive has removed all confidential information from those devices within five days of the Separation Date and provided that from and after the Separation Date, the Company shall have no responsibility to maintain, extend or bear any financial responsibility for any phone, data or other plan for any such device.

4. Consulting. The Company shall retain the Executive pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, and the Executive shall provide counsel and advice to the Company and the Executive’s successor as Chief Executive Officer of the Company as may be reasonably requested from time to time and solely with respect to matters relevant to such successor as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, for a one-year term commencing on the Separation Date and ending on the one-year anniversary of the Separation Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive or the Company may terminate the consulting arrangement hereunder at any time and for any reason (or no reason) during the Consulting Period (as defined below) by providing the other party with at least thirty (30) days’ advance written notice of such termination, provided, however, if the Company terminates the Consulting Period for any reason other than for “Cause” (as defined in the Employment Agreement) or the Consulting Period terminates as a result of the Executive’s death or “Disability” (as defined in the Employment Agreement), subject to the Executive’s (or his estate’s) timely execution and non-revocation of a release of claims substantially in the form as set forth in Section 6 of this Agreement, the Company shall pay to the Executive (or his estate) any theretofore unpaid portion of the Consulting Fee no later than thirty days following the date of such termination. The period of time between the Separation Date and the termination of the Executive’s service relationship with the Company hereunder shall be referred to herein as the “Consulting Period.”

The parties hereby acknowledge that the Executive's employment relationship with the Company shall terminate for all purposes on the Separation Date. The parties hereto reasonably anticipate that the level of bona fide services that the Executive is to perform during the Consulting Period will not exceed more than 20% of the average level of bona fide services that the Executive performed for the Company and its subsidiaries over the immediately preceding 36-month period, and are not otherwise expected to exceed ten (10) hours per week. The Executive may engage in other employment or services during the Consulting Period so long as the Executive is not in violation of Section VIII of the Employment Agreement (and, consistent with the terms of Section VIII of the Employment Agreement, informs the Chief HR Officer of the Company prior to commencing any such employment or other services). During the Consulting Period, the Company shall pay the Executive a monthly retainer based on a rate of $1,000,000 per annum (the "Consulting Fees"), payable in cash on a monthly basis on the last business day of each month during the Consulting Period. In addition, during the Consulting Period, the Company shall upon presentation of appropriate documentation, reimburse the Executive, in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policy, for all reasonable business expenses approved in advance by the Company in its discretion.

5. No Other Compensation. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that the payments provided pursuant to this Agreement are in full discharge of any and all liabilities and obligations of the Company and its affiliates to the Executive, monetarily or with respect to employee benefits or otherwise, including, but not limited to, any and all obligations arising under the Employment Agreement, any alleged written or oral employment agreement, policy, plan or procedure of the Company and its affiliates and/or any alleged understanding or arrangement between the Executive and the Company.

6. Release.

(a) In consideration for the payment and benefits to be provided to the Executive pursuant to this Agreement, the Executive, for the Executive and for the Executive's heirs, executors, administrators, trustees, legal representatives and assigns, forever release and discharge the Company and its past, present and future parent entities, subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates and related entities, successors and assigns, assets, employee benefit plans or funds, and any of its or their respective past, present and/or future directors, managers, officers, fiduciaries, attorneys, agents, trustees, administrators, employees and assigns, whether acting on behalf of the Company and its affiliates or in their individual capacities (collectively, the "Released Parties") to the extent provided below.

(b) Except as provided in Sections 6(d) and 6(e) below and except for the provisions of the Employment Agreement which expressly survive the termination of the Executive's employment with the Company, the Executive knowingly and voluntarily (for himself, his heirs, executors, administrators, trustees, legal representatives and assigns) releases and forever discharges the Company and the other Released Parties from any and all claims, suits, controversies, actions, causes of action, cross-claims, counter-claims, demands, debts, compensatory damages, liquidated damages, punitive or exemplary damages, other damages, claims for costs and attorneys' fees, or liabilities of any nature whatsoever in law and in equity, both past and present (through the date that this Agreement becomes effective and enforceable) and whether known or unknown, suspected, or claimed against the Company or any of the Released Parties which the Executive, his spouse, or any of his heirs, executors, administrators, trustees, legal representatives or assigns, may have, (i) from the beginning of time through the date upon which the Executive signs this Agreement and/or re-executes this Agreement (as applicable), (ii) which arise out of or are connected with his employment with the Company through the date upon which the Executive signs this Agreement and/or re-executes this Agreement (as applicable), (iii) which arise out of or are connected with his separation or termination from the Company no later than the Separation Date; and/or (iv) which arise out of or connected with any agreement with any Released Parties and/or any other awards, policies, plans, programs or practices of the Released Parties that may apply to Executive or in which Executive may participate, other than as set forth in this Agreement, and, in each case, through the date upon which the Executive signs this Agreement and/or re-executes this Agreement (as applicable), including, but not limited to, any allegation, claim or violation, arising under: Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; the Civil Rights Act of 1991; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended (including the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act); the Equal Pay Act of 1963, as amended; the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990; the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993; the Worker Adjustment Retraining and Notification Act; the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974; any applicable Executive Order Programs; the Fair Labor Standards Act; or their state or local counterparts; or under any other federal, state or local civil or human rights law, or under any other local, state, or federal law, regulation or ordinance; or under any public policy, contract or tort, or under common law; or arising under any policies, practices or procedures of the Company; or any claim for wrongful discharge, breach of contract, infliction of emotional distress, defamation; or any claim for costs, fees, or other expenses, including attorneys' fees incurred in these matters) (all of the foregoing collectively referred to herein as the "Claims").

(c) The Executive represents that the Executive has made no assignment or transfer of any right, Claims, demand, cause of action, or other matter covered by Section 6(b) above.

(d) The Executive agrees that this Agreement does not waive or release any rights or Claims that the Executive may have under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 which arise after the date the Executive executes this Agreement or re-executes it (as applicable); provided, however, that the parties have agreed that the Executive's employment with the Company is terminating no later than the Separation Date. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that the Executive's separation from employment with the Company is in compliance with the terms of the Employment Agreement and shall not serve as the basis for any claim or action (including, without limitation, any claim under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967).

(e) Notwithstanding the above, the Executive further acknowledges that the Executive is not waiving and is not being required to waive any right that cannot be waived by private agreement under applicable law, including the right to file an administrative charge or participate in an administrative investigation or proceeding with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or similar state agency; provided, however, that the Executive disclaims and waives any right to share or participate in any monetary award resulting from the prosecution of such discrimination charge or investigation or proceeding and represents and warrants that Executive is not aware of any matter that would give rise to such a charge, investigation or proceeding. Additionally, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Executive retains and is not waiving (i) any rights to which the Executive is entitled under Sections 2, 3 or 4 of this Agreement, (ii) any claim or right relating to or under the Company's directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage or any right of indemnification under the Company's organizational documents, the Employment Agreement or otherwise, (iii) the Executive's rights as an equity or security holder in the Company or its affiliates, (iv) the Executive's rights under the Company's deferred compensation plan and/or (v) the Executive's rights to vested benefits, including the Executive's benefits under the Company's 401K Plan.

(f) In signing this Agreement, the Executive acknowledges and intends that it shall be effective as a bar to each and every one of the Claims hereinabove mentioned or implied. The Executive expressly consents that this Agreement shall be given full force and effect according to each and all of its express terms and provisions. The Executive acknowledges and agrees that this waiver is an essential and material term of this Agreement and that without such waiver the Company would not have agreed to the terms of this Agreement.

(g) The Executive further agrees that in the event the Executive should bring a Claim seeking damages against the Company, or in the event the Executive should seek to recover against the Company in any Claim brought by a governmental agency on the Executive's behalf, this Agreement shall serve as a complete defense to such Claims to the maximum extent permitted by law. The Executive further agrees that he is not aware of any pending claim of the type described in Section 6(b) above as of the execution of this Agreement.

(h) The Executive agrees that neither this Agreement, nor the furnishing of the consideration for this Agreement, shall be deemed or construed at any time to be an admission by the Company, any Released Party or the Executive of any improper or unlawful conduct.

(i) Nothing in this Agreement or any other policies of the Company shall prohibit or restrict the Executive or his attorneys from: (x) making any disclosure of relevant and necessary information or documents in any action, investigation, or proceeding relating to this Agreement, or as required by law or legal process, including with respect to possible violations of law; (y) participating, cooperating, or testifying in any action, investigation, or proceeding with, or providing information to, any governmental agency or legislative body, any self-regulatory organization, and/or pursuant to the Sarbanes-Oxley Act; or (z) accepting any U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission awards. In addition, nothing in this Agreement prohibits or restricts the Executive from initiating communications with, or responding to any inquiry from, any regulatory or supervisory authority regarding any good faith concerns about possible violations of law or regulation. The parties acknowledge and agree that, in connection with the Executive's separation from the Company, the Company has requested that he fully and truthfully disclose to the Company any violations of law or regulatory requirements, or material breaches of contract by the Company or any of the other Released Parties, about which he is aware or believes in good faith to have occurred. The Executive hereby confirms that he has disclosed all such instances (if any).

(j) The Executive acknowledges that he may hereafter discover claims or facts in addition to or different than those which the Executive now knows or believes to exist with respect to the subject matter of the release set forth in Section 6(b) above and which, if known or suspected at the time of entering into this Agreement, may have materially affected this Agreement and the Executive's decision to enter into it.

(k) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement shall not relinquish, diminish, or in any way affect any rights or claims arising out of any breach by the Company or by any Released Party of this Agreement after the date upon which the Executive signs this Agreement or re-executes this Agreement (as applicable).

7. Return of Company Property. All correspondence, records, documents, software, promotional materials, and other Company property (other than as provided under Section 3), including all copies, which came into the Executive's possession by, through or in the course of Executive's employment, regardless of the source and whether created by the Executive, are the sole and exclusive property of the Company, and immediately upon the Separation Date, or any time at the Company's request, the Executive shall return to the Company all such property of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Executive may retain his contacts and calendar.

8. Publicity. The Executive shall not issue, without consent of the Company, any press release or make any public announcement with respect to this Agreement. Following the effective date of this Agreement and regardless of any dispute that may arise in the future, (a) the Executive agrees that he will not disparage, criticize or make statements which are negative, detrimental or injurious to the Company to any individual, company or client, including within the Company and (b) the Company agrees that it will instruct its executive officers and the members of the Board not to disparage, criticize or make statements which are negative, detrimental or injurious to the Executive and it shall not make any official statements which disparage, criticize or are negative, detrimental or injurious to the Executive. The provisions in the immediately preceding sentence shall not be violated by truthful statements in response to or in connection with legal process, required governmental testimony or filings, or administrative or arbitral proceedings (including, without limitation, depositions in connection with such proceedings) or to rebut inaccurate or false statements made by the Executive or by the Company (or any of its executive officers or members of the Board), and the foregoing limitation on executive officers or the members of the Board shall not be violated by statements that they in good faith believe are necessary or appropriate to make in connection with performing their duties and obligations to the Company.

9. No Assignments; Binding Effect. Except as provided in this Section 9, no party may assign or delegate any rights or obligations hereunder without first obtaining the written consent of the other party hereto. The Company shall assign this Agreement to any successor to all or substantially all of the operations and/or assets of the Company. As used in this Agreement, the term "Company" shall mean the Company and any successor to its operations and/or assets, which assumes and agrees to perform the duties and obligations of the Company under this Agreement by operation of law or otherwise. This Agreement is binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the parties and their respective heirs, executors and administrators (including the Executive's estate, in the event of the Executive's death), and their respective permitted successors and assigns.

10. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed and enforced in accordance with, the laws of the State of New Jersey, without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of law thereof.

11. Arbitration.

(a) Any controversy, dispute or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach hereof which cannot be settled by mutual agreement (other than with respect to the matters covered by Section VIII of the Employment Agreement for which the Company may, but shall not be required to, seek injunctive relief) shall be finally settled by binding arbitration in accordance with the Federal Arbitration Act (or if not applicable, the applicable state arbitration law) as follows: Any party who is aggrieved shall deliver a notice to the other party setting forth the specific points in dispute. Any points remaining in dispute twenty (20) days after the giving of such notice may be submitted to arbitration in New York, New York, to the American Arbitration Association, before a single arbitrator appointed in accordance with the arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association, modified only as herein expressly provided. After the aforesaid twenty (20) days, either party, upon ten (10) days' notice to the other, may so submit the points in dispute to arbitration. The arbitrator may enter a default decision against any party who fails to participate in the arbitration proceedings.

(b) The decision of the arbitrator on the points in dispute shall be final, unappealable and binding, and judgment on the award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the arbitrator shall be authorized to apportion its fees and expenses and the reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses of any such party as the arbitrator deems appropriate. In the absence of any such apportionment, the fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by each party, and each party shall bear the fees and expenses of its own attorney.

(d) The parties agree that this Section 11 has been included to rapidly and inexpensively resolve any disputes between them with respect to this Agreement, and that this Section 11 shall be grounds for dismissal of any court action commenced by either party with respect to this Agreement, other than post-arbitration actions seeking to enforce an arbitration award. In the event that any court determines that this arbitration procedure is not binding, or otherwise allows any litigation regarding a dispute, claim, or controversy covered by this Agreement to proceed, the parties hereto hereby waive any and all right to a trial by jury in or with respect to such litigation.

(e) The parties shall keep confidential, and shall not disclose to any person, except to their respective counsel and as may be required by law or valid subpoena, the existence of any controversy hereunder, the referral of any such controversy to arbitration or the status or resolution thereof, provided, however, that the Executive may also disclose such information to his immediate family and tax and financial advisors.

12. Entire Agreement; Restrictive and Other Covenants.
