WHAT ARE FELINE PRIDES?

FELINE PRIDES consist of Income PRIDES and Growth PRIDES.

Income PRIDES contain two components:

- (1) A purchase contract under which the investor agrees to purchase shares of our common stock, $0.01 par value per share, on February 16, 2001. The purchase contract also includes unsecured contract adjustment payments of 1.05% of $50 per year paid quarterly.
- (2) A trust preferred security under which the investor will be paid 6.45% of $50 per year through and including February 15, 2001 and at the reset rate after that date, but which will be pledged to us to secure the investor obligations under the purchase contract. On February 16, 2001 the investor will have two options:
 - o Pay cash to settle the purchase contract for $50 and release the pledged trust preferred securities, whose rate will have been reset at that time, or
 - o Pay cash to settle the purchase contract by allowing the trust preferred securities to be sold on its behalf in a remarketing process.

Growth PRIDES contain two components:

- (1) A purchase contract under which the investor agrees to purchase shares of our common stock, $0.01 par value per share, on February 16, 2001. The purchase contract also includes unsecured contract adjustment payments of 1.3% of $50 per year paid quarterly.
- (2) A zero-coupon treasury security which is a 1/20th undivided beneficial interest in a zero-coupon U.S. treasury security (CUSIP No. 912833 CD 0) with a principal amount at maturity equal to $1,000 and maturing on February 15, 2001. The zero-coupon treasury security will be pledged to us to secure the investor's obligations under the purchase contract.

WHAT ARE CURRENT FELINE PRIDES?

The current FELINE PRIDES were issued under a prospectus and prospectus supplement, dated February 23, 1998, and February 24, 1998, respectively. The current FELINE PRIDES have been trading on the NYSE since February 25, 1998. Current FELINE PRIDES consist of current Income PRIDES, NYSE symbol "CDPrI," and current Growth PRIDES, NYSE symbol "CDPrG."

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN CURRENT FELINE PRIDES AND ADDITIONAL FELINE PRIDES AND NEW FELINE PRIDES?

The additional FELINE PRIDES have the same terms as the current FELINE PRIDES. Holders of rights will be given priority in purchasing additional PRIDES, which we have agreed will be sold by us no later than 1999. Since the additional FELINE PRIDES will be offered at a price determined by a formula, which is expected to be below the market price of the securities today, we expect that all of them will be purchased by holders of rights and used to exercise the rights.

Each new FELINE PRIDES, which will be issued only upon the exercise of rights, will have the same terms as each current FELINE PRIDES except with respect to the settlement rate and anti-dilution provisions for each purchase contract. The settlement rate for each purchase contract relating to a new FELINE PRIDES will be _____ shares of Cendant Common Stock, while the settlement rate for the current FELINE PRIDES is between 1.0395 and 1.3514 shares of Cendant Common Stock, depending on the average of our closing stock prices on each of the 20 consecutive trading days ending on the third trading day preceding February 16, 2001. The anti-dilution provisions of each purchase contract relating to a new FELINE PRIDES will be identical to those attaching to the current FELINE PRIDES, except in the event that prior to , 1999, we issue or agree to issue more than one million shares of common stock or any other security conferring the right to our common stock, other than for cash at fair value or as consideration for an acquisition of a business or business assets, and that agreement causes a decline in the market value for the common stock, in which case, the settlement rate for the new FELINE PRIDES may be subject to greater adjustment.

WHAT ARE THE RIGHTS?

Under the settlement, we will issue up to rights. The stated value of each right will be approximately $11.71. The rights will be distributed, initially, to class members who held current FELINE PRIDES at the close of business on April 15, 1998, in exchange for the release of any claims arising from the purchase of FELINE PRIDES on or before April 15, 1998. You may use the rights to exchange current FELINE PRIDES or additional FELINE PRIDES for new FELINE PRIDES. If you exchange three rights together with two current Income PRIDES or two additional Income PRIDES, you will receive two new Income PRIDES. If you exchange three rights together with two current Growth PRIDES or two additional Growth PRIDES, you will receive two new Growth PRIDES.

WILL THE RIGHTS BE LISTED ON AN EXCHANGE?

We have applied to list the rights on the NYSE under the symbol subject to official notice of issuance and satisfaction of the NYSE minimum distribution requirements and, if listed, the rights will trade on the NYSE until February 14, 2001.

WILL THE RIGHTS BE DTC ELIGIBLE?

The rights will be issued only in physical certificated form until the date that we announce that the rights are DTC eligible.

HOW DO I EXERCISE THE RIGHTS?

In order to exercise the rights, no later than February 14, 2001, you must deliver the rights to Bank One Trust Company, N.A., as rights agent, with the notice of exercise on the reverse side filled in completely, together with the appropriate number of current FELINE PRIDES or additional FELINE PRIDES being used to exercise the rights. Since the FELINE PRIDES are book entry only, they must be delivered to the Rights Agent by February 14, 2001. The address of the Rights Agent is 1 Bank One Plaza, Suite ILL-0126, Chicago, IL 60670-0126. If the new FELINE PRIDES are to be issued to a person other than the person in whose name the current FELINE PRIDES are held, the person exercising rights must also submit to the rights agent payment of any applicable transfer taxes.

We will issue two new Income PRIDES to any person who, prior to the close of business on February 14, 2001, delivers to us three rights together with two current Income PRIDES, or two additional Income PRIDES. We will issue two new Growth PRIDES to any person who, prior to the close of business on February 14, 2001, delivers to us three rights together with two current Growth PRIDES, or two additional Growth PRIDES.

AM I ENTITLED TO EXCHANGE CURRENT FELINE PRIDES OR ADDITIONAL FELINE PRIDES FOR NEW FELINE PRIDES?

Any person holding three rights and two current FELINE PRIDES or two additional FELINE PRIDES is entitled to exchange for two new FELINE PRIDES. The rights will originally be issued only to persons who owned FELINE PRIDES at the close of business on April 15, 1998 who do not exclude themselves from the settlement and who file a timely proof of claim. However, the rights will be freely tradeable on the NYSE until February 14, 2001, enabling any person to purchase them and execute the exchange.

WHAT PAYMENTS AM I ENTITLED TO AS A HOLDER OF INCOME PRIDES?

Holders of Income PRIDES will be entitled to receive total cash distributions at a rate of 7.50% of $50 per year, payable quarterly in arrears. These cash distributions will consist of cumulative cash distributions on the related trust preferred securities or on the treasury portfolio, as applicable, payable at the rate of 6.45% of $50 per year through and including February 15, 2001, and contract adjustment payments payable by us at the rate of 1.05% of $50 per year, subject, in the case of both the distributions on the trust preferred securities and of the contract adjustment payments, to our right to defer the payment of these amounts.

WHAT PAYMENTS AM I ENTITLED TO AS A HOLDER OF GROWTH PRIDES?

Holders of Growth PRIDES will be entitled to receive quarterly cash distributions of contract adjustment payments payable by us at the rate of 1.3% of $50 per year, subject to our rights of deferral. In addition, original issue discount ("OID") will accrue on each related treasury security.

WHAT CONTRACT ADJUSTMENT PAYMENTS AM I ENTITLED TO?

Contract adjustment payments will be fixed at a rate per year of 1.05% of $50 per purchase contract in the case of Income PRIDES, and 1.3% of $50 per purchase contract in the case of Growth PRIDES.

DO WE HAVE THE OPTION TO DEFER CURRENT PAYMENTS?

We have the right at any time, and from time to time, limited to a period not extending beyond the maturity date of our debentures, due February 16, 2003 and initially bearing interest at 6.45% per year, to defer the interest payments due on the debentures (each, an "extension period"). As a consequence of the deferral, the corresponding quarterly distributions to holders of trust preferred securities and Income PRIDES would be deferred. During any period of deferral, these distributions would continue to accrue, compounded quarterly, at the rate of 6.45% per year through and including February 15, 2001, and at the reset rate thereafter. We also have the right to defer the payment of contract adjustment payments on the related purchase contracts until no later than February 16, 2001. However, any deferred contract adjustment payments would continue to accrue at the rate of 7.5% per year until paid, compounded quarterly.

WHAT ARE THE PAYMENT DATES FOR THE SECURITIES?

The current payments described above in respect of the Income PRIDES and Growth PRIDES will be payable quarterly in arrears on February 16, May 16, August 16 and November 16 of each year (each, a "payment date"), commencing to holders of record on the business day preceding the payment dates. With respect to contract adjustment payments, the payments will be payable through and including the earlier of February 16, 2001 or the most recent quarterly date on or before any early settlement of the related purchase contracts. In the case of trust preferred securities that are components of Income PRIDES, the payments will be payable through and including the most recent quarterly date on or before the earlier of February 16, 2001 and the date the liquidation amounts of the trust preferred securities together with all accumulated and unpaid distributions are paid in full. All of these payments are subject to the deferral provisions described below.

WHAT IS THE SETTLEMENT RATE?

The settlement rate is the number of newly issued shares of common stock we are obligated to sell and you are obligated to buy upon settlement of a purchase contract on February 16, 2001.

The settlement rate for each purchase contract related to additional FELINE PRIDES, subject to adjustment under certain circumstances, will be identical to the settlement rate for each purchase contract related to the current FELINE PRIDES. The settlement rate will be as follows:

- (a) If the applicable market value is equal to or greater than $48.10, the settlement rate will be 1.0395 shares of our common stock per purchase contract.
- (b) If the applicable market value is less than $48.10 but greater than $37, the settlement rate will be equal to $50 divided by the applicable market value.
- (c) If the applicable market value is less than or equal to $37, the settlement rate, which is equal to $50 divided by $37, will be 1.3514 shares of our common stock per purchase contract.

Unlike the settlement rate for the additional FELINE PRIDES and current FELINE PRIDES, which depends on the applicable market value, the settlement rate of the new FELINE PRIDES is . At the settlement date of each purchase contract relating to a new FELINE PRIDES, we will issue a holder of new FELINE PRIDES shares of common stock per each purchase contract relating to a new FELINE PRIDES, regardless of the market price of the shares.

WHAT IS REMARKETING?

The trust preferred securities of Income PRIDES holders who have failed to notify Bank One Trust Company, N.A., as agent of the holders of the FELINE PRIDES in its capacity as the purchase contract agent, on or prior to the fifth business day before February 16, 2001 of their intention to pay cash to satisfy their obligations under the related purchase contracts will be remarketed on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001.

The remarketing agent will use its reasonable efforts to remarket those trust preferred securities (bearing the reset rate) on that date for settlement on February 16, 2001. The remarketing agent will use its best efforts to obtain a price of approximately 100.5% of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of those trust preferred securities, plus any related accrued and unpaid distributions, including deferred distributions.

The portion of the proceeds from the remarketing equal to the total stated liquidation amount of those trust preferred securities will be automatically applied to satisfy in full those Income PRIDES holders' obligations to purchase our common stock under the related purchase contracts. The remarketing agent will deduct as a remarketing fee an amount not exceeding 25 basis points (.25%) of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the remarketed trust preferred securities from any amount of those proceeds in excess of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the remarketed trust preferred securities plus any accrued and unpaid distributions, including any deferred distributions. The remarketing agent will remit the remaining portion of the proceeds, if any, for the benefit of that holder.

WHAT HAPPENS IF THE REMARKETING AGENT DOES NOT SELL THE TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES?

We will exercise our rights as a secured party to dispose of the trust preferred securities in accordance with applicable law and to satisfy in full, from the proceeds of that disposition, your obligation to purchase common stock under the related purchase contracts if

- o the remarketing agent cannot remarket the related trust preferred securities, other than to us, of your Income PRIDES at a price not less than 100% of the total stated liquidation amount of those trust preferred securities plus accrued and unpaid distributions, including deferred distributions, if any, or
- o if the remarketing has not occurred because a condition precedent to the remarketing has not been fulfilled.

IF I AM NOT A PARTY TO A PURCHASE CONTRACT, MAY I STILL PARTICIPATE IN A REMARKETING OF MY TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES?

Holders of trust preferred securities that are not components of Income PRIDES may elect, in the manner described below, to have their trust preferred securities remarketed by the remarketing agent.

BESIDES PARTICIPATING IN A REMARKETING, HOW ELSE WILL MY OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE PURCHASE CONTRACTS BE SATISFIED?

- o through the early delivery of cash to the purchase contract agent in the manner described below ("early settlement")
- o in the case of Income PRIDES, by settling the related purchase contracts with separate cash on the third business day prior to February 16, 2001 with prior notification to the purchase contract agent
- o upon the termination of purchase contracts.

WHAT ARE THE TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES?

The trust preferred securities represent undivided beneficial ownership interests in the assets of the trust.

WHAT DISTRIBUTIONS WILL I RECEIVE ON THE TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES?

Distributions on the trust preferred securities that are components of Income PRIDES will constitute a portion of the distributions on the Income PRIDES. Distributions will be payable initially at the annual rate of 6.45% of the liquidation amount of $50 per trust preferred security to, but excluding, February 16, 2001. If any trust preferred securities remain outstanding on and after February 16, 2001, the distributions on these trust preferred securities will be at the reset rate from February 16, 2001 to, but excluding, February 16, 2003.

WHEN WILL I RECEIVE DISTRIBUTIONS ON THE TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES?

Distributions will be payable quarterly in arrears on each February 16, May 16, August 16 and November 16, commencing , to holders of record on the business day preceding each date.

WHAT IS THE RESET RATE?

The reset rate is the interest rate on the debentures, and therefore the distribution rate on the trust preferred securities, following February 16, 2001. Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated in its capacity as the reset agent will determine the reset rate that the trust preferred securities should bear in order for a trust preferred security to have an approximate market value of 100.5% of $50 on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, except that we may limit the reset rate to be no higher than the rate on the two-year benchmark treasury plus 200 basis points (2%).

WHEN WILL THE INTEREST RATE ON THE DEBENTURES BE RESET?

Unless a tax event redemption has occurred, the interest rate on the debentures will be reset on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001. The debentures, and, thus, the trust securities, which include the trust preferred securities and the common securities representing undivided beneficial interests in the assets of the trust, are redeemable at our option, in whole but not in part, upon the occurrence and continuation of a tax event under the circumstances described to constitute a tax event.

WHAT ARE THE DEBENTURES?

The debentures will be our senior unsecured obligations and will rank on a parity with all of our senior unsecured obligations.

WHAT ARE THE FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES RELATED TO THE INCOME PRIDES, GROWTH PRIDES AND TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES?

The purchase of additional FELINE PRIDES and automatic exchange of those additional FELINE PRIDES and rights for new FELINE PRIDES should be treated as a purchase of new FELINE PRIDES in exchange for cash and rights. Investors, if any, that purchase additional FELINE PRIDES and continue to hold the additional FELINE PRIDES may be considered to have received consideration to assume the obligations under the related purchase contract and to have paid that amount, in addition to the purchase price, for the related trust preferred securities or treasury securities, but those investors should consult their tax advisors concerning the tax consequences associated with the acquisition of the additional FELINE PRIDES. The exchange of current FELINE PRIDES or additional FELINE PRIDES and rights for new FELINE PRIDES (other than the required delivery of additional FELINE PRIDES and rights immediately following the purchase of additional FELINE PRIDES pursuant to this offering) should be treated as a taxable exchange of both the rights and the purchase contracts related to those current FELINE PRIDES or additional FELINE PRIDES.

The debentures may be issued with OID, in which case a beneficial owner of Income PRIDES or trust preferred securities will be required to include gross income its proportionate share of such OID on a constant yield to maturity basis. In addition, a beneficial owner of Income PRIDES and trust preferred securities will include in gross income its proportionate share of the stated interest on the debentures when that interest income is paid or accrued in accordance with the beneficial owner's regular method of tax accounting. We intend to report the contract adjustment payments as income to holders of FELINE PRIDES, but holders should consult their tax advisors concerning the possibility that the contract adjustment payments may be treated as loans, purchase price adjustments, rebates or option premiums rather than being includible in income on a current basis. A beneficial owner of Growth PRIDES will be required to include in gross income any OID with respect to the treasury securities as it accrues on a constant yield to maturity basis. If a tax event redemption has occurred, a beneficial owner of Income PRIDES will be required to include in gross income its allocable share of OID on the treasury portfolio as it accrues on a constant yield to maturity basis.

HOW DO I BUY ADDITIONAL PRIDES?

Any person who receives this prospectus may provide to Merrill Lynch & Co., as information agent, at , an indication of his or her interest in purchasing additional FELINE PRIDES. Indications of interest do not constitute a commitment to purchase any securities. No later than , 1999, we will instruct Merrill Lynch, as calculation agent, to determine the offering price of the additional PRIDES in accordance with the formula described in this prospectus. If this formula were used with the closing price of the common stock as of , 1999, the offering price for the additional Income PRIDES would be $ and the offering price for the additional Growth PRIDES would be $, while the closing prices of the Income PRIDES and the Growth PRIDES on the New York Stock Exchange on that date were $ and $, respectively.

After the offering price is determined, we will issue a press release and file a prospectus supplement and will contact those persons who have given indications of interest. In filling orders, we will give priority to persons as follows :

- (1) Holders of rights who received them as part of the original distribution.
- (2) Any other holder of rights.
- (3) The public.

In order to purchase additional PRIDES, holders of rights must submit their rights for exercise and their preferential allocation will be limited to the number of Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES necessary to exercise all such rights. In addition, in making allocations, we may make adjustments so as to satisfy the NYSE listing criteria for the listing of the new FELINE PRIDES.

We will allow persons belonging to the first two groups to purchase up to two additional FELINE PRIDES for each right held by that person. However, the purchase of the additional FELINE PRIDES by persons belonging to the first two groups is subject to their consenting to immediately exchanging the additional FELINE PRIDES and rights for new FELINE PRIDES. Allocation will be limited to the number of Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES necessary to exercise all these Rights. If we sell all the additional FELINE PRIDES to one group, we will not sell any additional FELINE PRIDES to a group of a lesser priority. If the first two groups oversubscribe we will issue the additional FELINE PRIDES proportionately among the subscribers. In addition, in making allocations, we may make adjustments so as to attempt to satisfy the NYSE listing criteria for the listing of the new FELINE PRIDES, including the requirement that there be at least 400 holders having, in the aggregate, one million or more new FELINE PRIDES with a market value of at least four million U.S. dollars.

We will not sell any additional FELINE PRIDES to the public unless members of the first two groups as a whole acquire at least $100,000,000 face amount of additional FELINE PRIDES.

We will not sell you any additional Growth PRIDES unless (1) you received rights as part of the original distribution and you were a beneficial owner of Growth PRIDES on April 15, 1998, or (2) we otherwise elect to issue additional Growth PRIDES.

The following diagrams demonstrate some of the key features of the purchase contracts, the new Income PRIDES, the additional Income PRIDES, the new Growth PRIDES, the additional Growth PRIDES, the 6.45% trust preferred securities, the transformation of Income PRIDES into Growth PRIDES and trust preferred securities and the transformation of rights and current FELINE PRIDES or additional FELINE PRIDES into new FELINE PRIDES.

FELINE PRIDES PURCHASE CONTRACT

- o Income PRIDES and Growth PRIDES both include a purchase contract under which the investor agrees to purchase shares of our common stock, $0.01 par value per share, on February 16, 2001. In addition, the purchase contracts include unsecured contract adjustment payments shown in the diagrams on the following pages.

- (1) For each of the percentage categories shown, the percentage of shares to be delivered at maturity to an investor in additional Income PRIDES or additional Growth PRIDES is determined by dividing the related number of shares to be delivered, as indicated in the footnote for each category, by an amount equal to $50 divided by $37.
- (2) The number of shares to be delivered will be calculated by dividing $50 by $37.
- (3) The number of shares to be delivered will be calculated by dividing $50 by the applicable market value.(6)
- (4) The number of shares to be delivered will be calculated by dividing $50 by $48.10.
- (5) The reported sales price of the common stock listed on the NYSE for February 24, 1998.
- (6) The applicable market value means the average of the closing price per share of common stock on each of the twenty consecutive trading days ending on the third trading day immediately preceding February 16, 2001.

INCOME PRIDES

- o Income PRIDES consist of two components as described below:

[GRAPHIC OMITTED]

- o The investor owns the trust preferred security but will pledge it to us to secure its obligations under the purchase contract.

GROWTH PRIDES

- o Growth PRIDES consist of two components as described below:

[GRAPHIC OMITTED]

- o The investor owns the zero-coupon treasury security but will pledge it to us to secure its obligations under the purchase contract. A "treasury security" is defined as a 1/20th undivided beneficial interest in a zero- coupon U.S. treasury security (CUSIP No. 912833 CD 0) with a principal amount at maturity equal to $1,000 and maturing on February 15, 2001.

TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES

- o Trust preferred securities have the terms described below:
[GRAPHIC OMITTED]

- o The holder of trust preferred securities that are components of Income PRIDES has an option on February 16, 2001 to either:
 - o Pay cash to settle the purchase contract for $50 and release the pledged trust preferred securities whose rates have been reset on February 16, 2001, or
 - o Pay cash to settle the purchase contracts by allowing the trust preferred securities to be included in the remarketing process.

- o The holder of trust preferred securities that are separate and not components of Income PRIDES has the option on February 16, 2001 to either:
 - o Continue to hold the trust preferred securities whose rate has been reset on February 16, 2001, or
 - o Deliver the trust preferred securities to the Chase Manhattan Bank, in its capacity as our custodial agent, to be included in the remarketing process.

TRANSFORMING INCOME PRIDES INTO GROWTH PRIDES AND TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES

- o To create a Growth PRIDES, the investor separates an Income PRIDES into its components—the purchase contract and the trust preferred security—and then combines the purchase contract with a specific zero-coupon treasury security that matures concurrently with the maturity of the purchase contract.
- o The investor owns the zero-coupon treasury security but will pledge it to us to secure its obligations under the purchase contract.
- o The zero-coupon treasury security together with the purchase contract constitute a Growth PRIDES. The trust preferred securities, which are no longer a component of the Income PRIDES, are tradeable as separate securities.

[GRAPHIC OMITTED]

- o The investor can also transform Growth PRIDES and trust preferred securities into Income PRIDES.
- o The transformation of Income PRIDES into Growth PRIDES and trust preferred securities, and the transformation of Growth PRIDES and trust preferred securities into Income PRIDES, require minimum amounts of securities.
- o An investor who tenders three rights together with two current Income PRIDES or two additional Income PRIDES will receive in exchange two new Income PRIDES. An investor who tenders three rights together with two current Growth PRIDES or two additional Growth PRIDES will receive in exchange two new Growth PRIDES.

RISK FACTORS

Your investment in the FELINE PRIDES will involve risks. You should carefully consider the following discussion of risks as well as other information contained in this prospectus.

DISCOVERY OF ACCOUNTING IRREGULARITIES AND RELATED LITIGATION AND GOVERNMENT INVESTIGATIONS

We were created in December 1997, through the merger of HFS Incorporated into CUC International with CUC surviving and changing its name to Cendant Corporation. On April 15, 1998, we announced that in the course of transferring responsibility for our accounting functions from Cendant personnel associated with CUC prior to the merger to Cendant personnel associated with HFS before the merger and preparing for the reporting of first quarter 1998 financial results, we discovered accounting irregularities in some of the CUC business units. As a result, we, together with our counsel and assisted by auditors, immediately began an intensive investigation.

As a result of the findings of the investigations, we restated our previously reported financial results for 1997, 1996 and 1995 and the six months ended June 30, 1998 and 1997.

Since the April 15, 1998 announcement of the discovery of accounting irregularities in the former CUC business units, and prior to October 13, 1999, 70 lawsuits claiming to be class actions, two lawsuits claiming to be brought derivatively on our behalf and several individual lawsuits and arbitration proceedings have been filed against us and, among others, our predecessor, HFS, and several current and former officers and directors of Cendant and HFS. These lawsuits assert, among other things, various claims under the federal securities laws including claims under sections 11, 12 and 15 of the Securities Act of 1933 and sections 10(b), 14(a) and 20(a) of and Rules 10b-5 and 14a-9 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and state statutory and common laws, including claims that financial statements previously issued by us were false and misleading and that these statements allegedly caused the price of our securities to be artificially inflated.

In addition, the SEC and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey are conducting investigations relating to the accounting issues. While our management has made all adjustments considered necessary as a result of the findings of the investigations and the restatement of our financial statements for 1997, 1996 and 1995, and the first six months of 1998, we can provide no assurances that additional adjustments will not be necessary as a result of these government investigations.

Other than with respect to the portion of the PRIDES litigation which is discussed below, we do not believe that it is feasible to predict the final outcome or resolution of these proceedings and investigations or to estimate the amount or potential range of loss with respect to the resolution of these proceedings and investigations. In addition, the timing of the final resolution of these proceedings and investigations is uncertain. The possible outcomes or resolutions of these proceedings and investigations could include judgments against us or settlements and could require substantial payments by us. Our management believes that adverse outcomes in the proceedings and investigations or any other resolutions, including settlements could have a material impact on our financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

INVESTMENT IN FELINE PRIDES REQUIRES HOLDERS TO PURCHASE COMMON STOCK RESULTING IN THE RISK OF DECLINE IN EQUITY VALUE

Although as a holder of FELINE PRIDES you will be the beneficial owner of the related trust preferred securities, treasury portfolio or treasury securities, you have an obligation under the purchase contract to buy our common stock. We cannot assure you that the market value of the common stock you will receive on February 16, 2001 will be equal to or greater than the $50 stated amount per FELINE PRIDES held by you.

Prior to February 16, 2001, unless you pay cash to satisfy your obligation under the purchase contract or the purchase contracts are terminated due to our bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization, the proceeds derived from the remarketing of the trust preferred securities or the principal of the related treasury securities, or the appropriate applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio, when paid at maturity, as the case may be, will automatically be used to purchase a specified number of shares of our common stock on your behalf. As a holder of additional FELINE PRIDES, if the applicable market value of the common stock is less than $, the aggregate market value of the common stock issued to you under each purchase contract on February 16, 2001 will be less than the price you paid for the additional FELINE PRIDES and the market value per share of that common stock will be less than the effective price per share paid by you for such common stock on that date, in which case you will suffer an economic loss as of February 16, 2001. Accordingly, you assume the risk that the market value of the common stock may decline, and that decline could be substantial.

LIMITATIONS ON OPPORTUNITY FOR EQUITY APPRECIATION

Your opportunity for equity appreciation afforded by investing in the additional FELINE PRIDES is less than your opportunity for equity appreciation if you directly invested in the common stock. This opportunity is less because the market value of the common stock to be received by you under the purchase contract on February 16, 2001, assuming that the market value is the same as the applicable market value of such common stock, will only exceed the price you paid if the applicable market value of the common stock exceeds $, which represents an appreciation of approximately % over $. Moreover, in such event, you would receive on February 16, 2001 only approximately %, the percentage equal to $ divided by $, of the shares of common stock that you would have received if you had made a direct investment in the common stock on that date. Therefore you would receive on February 16, 2001 only approximately % of the appreciation in the value of the common stock in excess of $.

FACTORS AFFECTING TRADING PRICES

The trading prices of Income PRIDES and Growth PRIDES in the secondary market will be directly affected by the trading prices of the common stock, the general level of interest rates and our credit quality. It is impossible to predict whether the price of our common stock or interest rates will rise or fall. Trading prices of the common stock will be influenced by our operating results and prospects and by economic, financial and other factors, including the remaining class action litigation against us. In addition, general market conditions can affect the trust preferred securities markets generally, therefore affecting the price of our common stock, including the level of, and fluctuations in, the trading prices of stocks generally and sales of substantial amounts of common stock by us in the market after the offering of the FELINE PRIDES or the perception that those sales could occur. Fluctuations in interest rates may give rise to arbitrage opportunities based upon changes in the relative value of the common stock underlying the purchase contracts and of the other components of the FELINE PRIDES. The arbitrage could, in turn, affect the trading prices of the Income PRIDES, Growth PRIDES, trust preferred securities and common stock.

LIMITED RIGHTS INCLUDING LIMITED VOTING RIGHTS

If you hold trust preferred securities you will not be entitled to vote to appoint, remove or replace or to increase or decrease the number of trustees of the trust, and generally will have no voting rights except in limited circumstances. If you hold FELINE PRIDES you will not be entitled to any rights with respect to the common stock, including, without limitation, voting rights and rights to receive any dividends or other distributions on the common stock. You will only be entitled to rights as a holder of the common stock if we deliver shares of common stock for FELINE PRIDES on February 16, 2001 or as a result of early settlement and only if the applicable record date, if any, for the exercise of these rights occurs after that date. For example, if an amendment is proposed to our articles of incorporation or by-laws and the record date for determining the stockholders of record entitled to vote on that amendment occurs prior to the delivery, you will not be entitled to vote on that amendment.

DILUTION OF THE COMMON STOCK MAY AFFECT THE SETTLEMENT RATE AND THE FELINE PRIDES TRADING PRICES

The number of shares of common stock you are entitled to receive upon the settlement of your purchase contract and the trading prices of Income PRIDES and Growth PRIDES may be adversely affected due to dilution of our common stock resulting from the issuance of additional common stock or other equity interests.

The number of shares of common stock that you are entitled to receive on February 16, 2001 or as a result of early settlement of a purchase contract is subject to adjustment for certain events arising from stock splits and combinations, stock dividends and other actions by us that modify our capital structure. We will not adjust the number of shares of common stock that you are to receive on February 16, 2001, or as a result of early settlement of a purchase contract, for other events, including most offerings of common stock for cash by us or in connection with acquisitions. We are not restricted from issuing additional common stock during the term of the purchase contracts and have no obligation to consider your interests for any reason; except, that, in case of an agreement to issue more than one million shares of common stock or any other security conferring that the right to receive our common stock, other than for cash at fair value or as consideration for an acquisition of a business or business assets, and that agreement causes a decline in the market value for the common stock. In that event, the settlement rate of the new FELINE PRIDES may be adjusted, as described elsewhere in this prospectus.

If we issue additional shares of common stock, the price of the common stock may be materially and adversely affected and, because of the relationship of the number of shares to be received on February 16, 2001 to the price of the common stock, these events may adversely affect the trading price of Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES.

POSSIBLE ILLIQUIDITY OF THE SECONDARY MARKET

We are unable to predict how the new FELINE PRIDES and the additional FELINE PRIDES will trade in the secondary market or whether this market will be liquid or illiquid.

We will have applied to list the new Income PRIDES and the new Growth PRIDES on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance and satisfaction of the NYSE minimum distribution requirements. The NYSE will not list the new FELINE PRIDES unless there are 400 holders having, in the aggregate, one million or more new FELINE PRIDES with a market value of at least four million U.S. dollars. The new FELINE PRIDES are issued in the framework of a class action settlement. We cannot predict how many persons will choose to participate in the settlement and exercise the exchange rights provided in the settlement. The exchange rights may be exercised until February 14, 2001. In addition, we can neither predict at which point in time the holders of rights will choose to exercise their exchange rights. The liquidity of the new Income PRIDES and new Growth PRIDES depends on the number of people who elect to execute their exchange rights and on the point in time in which they do so. We can, therefore, provide no assurance as to the liquidity of any market that may develop for the new FELINE PRIDES, your ability to sell these securities and whether a trading market if it develops will continue.

Moreover, if you were to substitute treasury securities for trust preferred securities, or trust preferred securities for treasury securities, thereby converting your Income PRIDES to Growth PRIDES or your Growth PRIDES to Income PRIDES, the liquidity of Income Prides and Growth PRIDES could be adversely affected. We can provide no assurance that the new FELINE PRIDES will meet the minimum distribution requirements for listing on the NYSE. We cannot provide assurance that the NYSE will not delist or suspend the new FELINE PRIDES. The NYSE may delist or suspend the new FELINE PRIDES should you elect to (1) create new Growth PRIDES or Income PRIDES by substituting collateral. This could cause the number of Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES to fall below the requirement for listing securities that at least 1,000,000 new Income PRIDES and new Growth PRIDES be outstanding at any time.

THE RIGHTS WILL BE ISSUED INITIALLY IN PHYSICAL CERTIFICATED FORM UNTIL THE DATE THAT WE ANNOUNCE THAT THE RIGHTS ARE DTC ELIGIBLE

The rights will be issued initially in physical certificated form until the date that we announce that the rights are DTC eligible.

Therefore, if any of your rights certificates are mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed, we may in our discretion issue, and the rights agent shall deliver, in exchange and substitution for and upon receipt and cancellation of the mutilated rights certificate, or in lieu of and substitution for the rights certificate lost, stolen or destroyed, a new rights certificate of like tenor and representing an equivalent number of rights, but only upon receipt of evidence satisfactory to us and the rights agent of the loss, theft or destruction of the rights certificate and indemnity or bond, if requested, also satisfactory to us and the rights agent. You may also be required to pay any other reasonable charges as we or the rights agent may prescribe.

PLEGDED SECURITIES ENCUMBERED

Your rights to the trust preferred securities, treasury portfolio or treasury securities (together, the "pledged securities"), as applicable, will be subordinated to our security interest. Although you will be the beneficial owners of the applicable pledged securities, those pledged securities will be pledged with Chase Manhattan Bank, in its capacity as our collateral agent, to secure your obligations under the related purchase contracts. Additionally, notwithstanding the automatic termination of the purchase contracts, if we become the subject of a case under the Bankruptcy Code, the delivery of the pledged securities to you may be delayed by the imposition of the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code.

POSSIBLE DISSOLUTION OF THE TRUST DUE TO AN INVESTMENT COMPANY EVENT

The dissolution of the trust due to an investment company event may affect the Income PRIDES' market prices.

If an investment company event occurs, we will dissolve the trust, except in the limited circumstances described below, and distribute the debentures to you in a total principal amount equal to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of any trust preferred securities that you may hold. We will only dissolve and distribute the debentures to you if we are unable to avoid the investment company event within a 90-day period by taking some ministerial action or pursuing some other reasonable measure that will have no adverse effect on the trust, us or you, and will involve no material cost to us. In addition, we will have the right to dissolve the trust at any time.

There can be no assurance as to the impact on the market prices for Income PRIDES if we dissolve the trust and distribute the debentures to you in exchange for your trust preferred securities. Because Income PRIDES will consist of debentures and related purchase contracts, if we dissolve the trust as a result of an investment company event or otherwise, you are also making an investment decision with regard to the debentures if you purchase Income PRIDES and should carefully review all the information regarding the debentures contained in this prospectus.

TAX EVENT REDEMPTION

The occurrence of a tax event redemption, described below, may affect the market prices of Income PRIDES, due to the substitution of the treasury portfolio for the redeemed trust preferred securities as collateral for your obligations under the related purchase contract.

We have the option to redeem the debentures and, thus, the trust securities, on not less than 30 days or more than 60 days prior written notice, in whole but not in part, at any time before February 16, 2001 if a tax event occurs and continues under the circumstances described below. If a tax event occurs, we will redeem the debentures at a redemption price per trust security equal to the redemption amount plus accrued and unpaid interest, including deferred interest, if any. If we redeem all of the debentures, the trust must redeem all of the trust securities and pay the redemption price in cash to the holders of the trust securities.

If the tax event redemption occurs before February 16, 2001, the redemption price payable to you due to liquidation of any interest you may have in the trust as a holder of Income PRIDES will be distributed to the collateral agent, who in turn will apply an amount equal to the redemption amount of the redemption price to purchase the treasury portfolio on your behalf.

We will substitute the treasury portfolio for the trust preferred securities and pledge the treasury portfolio with the collateral agent to secure your obligations to purchase our common stock under the purchase contracts related to the Income PRIDES. If you do not hold trust preferred securities in the form of Income PRIDES you will receive redemption payments directly. There can be no assurance as to the impact on the market prices for the Income PRIDES if we substitute the treasury portfolio as collateral in replacement of any trust preferred securities so redeemed. A tax event redemption will be a taxable event to the beneficial owners of the trust preferred securities.

RIGHT TO DEFER CURRENT PAYMENTS

If we chose to exercise our right to defer payments on the purchase contracts and on the trust preferred securities, you may also be adversely affected by (1) the United States federal income tax consequences, (2) the impact on your receipt of distributions on the trust preferred securities and (3) the effect on the market prices of trust preferred securities associated with the deferral of distributions on the trust preferred securities.

We have the option to defer the payment of contract adjustment payments on the purchase contracts until February 16, 2001. Any deferred contract adjustment payments will bear additional contract adjustment payments at the rate of 7.5% per year, compounding on each succeeding payment date, until we pay them to you. If the purchase contracts are settled early or terminated due to our bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization, the right to receive contract adjustment payments and deferred contract adjustment payments, if any, will also terminate.

If we defer the payment of contract adjustment payments on the purchase contracts until February 16, 2001, you will receive a number of shares of common stock equal to the total amount of deferred contract adjustment payments payable to you, divided by the applicable market value.

We will also have the right under the indenture to defer payments of interest on the debentures by extending the interest payment period at any time, and from time to time, on the debentures. As a consequence of that extension, quarterly distributions on the trust preferred securities, held either as a component of the Income PRIDES or held separately, would be deferred. Any such deferrals would continue to accrue at a rate of 6.45% per year through and including February 15, 2001, and at the reset rate afterwards, compounded quarterly. Our right to extend the interest payment period for the debentures will be limited and may not extend beyond February 16, 2003.

During any extension period, we will not declare or pay dividends on, make distributions with respect to, or redeem, purchase or acquire, or make a liquidation payment with respect to, any of our capital stock except in the following five situations:

- o to purchase or acquire our own capital stock in order to satisfy any obligations that we may have under any employee benefit plans or to satisfy any obligations that we may have under any contract or security outstanding on the date of that event requiring us to purchase our own capital stock;
- o as a result of any reclassification of our capital stock or the exchange or conversion of one class or series of our capital stock for another class or series of our capital stock;
- o to purchase fractional interests in shares of our capital stock under the conversion or exchange provisions of our capital stock or the conversion or exchange of that security;
- o to pay dividends or distributions in our capital stock, or rights to acquire our capital stock, or to repurchase or redeem our capital stock solely from the issuance or exchange of capital stock; or
- o to redeem or repurchase any rights outstanding under a shareholder rights plan or to declare a dividend of rights in the future.

During any extension period, we also will not make any guarantee payments with respect to the above, other than payments of distributions and specific redemptions out of monies held by the trust and payments on liquidation of the trust (the "guarantee") or payments of the obligations of the trust with respect to the common securities (the "common securities guarantee"). Before the termination of any extension period, we may further extend the interest payment period. However, we may not extend the extension period beyond February 16, 2003. Upon the termination of any extension period and the payment of all amounts then due, we may commence a new extension period, subject to the above requirements.

We do not currently intend to defer payments of stated interest on the debentures and we currently believe that the likelihood of our doing so is remote. Therefore, the debentures should not be considered to have been issued with OID for United States federal income tax purposes as a result of our right to defer payments of stated interest on the debentures unless and until we actually exercise that deferral right. There can be no assurance that the IRS will agree with our position.

Should we exercise our right to defer payments of interest by extending the interest payment period, a U.S. holder of trust preferred securities held either as a component of the Income PRIDES or held separately would be required to include its proportionate share of the stated interest on the debentures in gross income, as OID, on a daily economic accrual basis, regardless of that U.S. holder's method of tax accounting. As a result, a U.S. holder of trust preferred securities would recognize income for United States federal income tax purposes in advance of the receipt of cash attributable to that income, and would not receive cash from the trust related to that income if that holder disposed of the trust preferred securities prior to the record date for the date on which distributions of such amounts were made.

In addition, as a result of our right to defer interest payments, the market price of the trust preferred securities, which represent undivided beneficial ownership interests in the assets of the trust, might be more volatile than the market price of other securities that are not subject to the deferral. Should we exercise that right in the future, the market price of the trust preferred securities likely would be adversely affected. If you were to dispose of your trust preferred securities during an extension period, therefore, you might not receive the same return on your investment as if you had continued to hold your trust preferred securities.

No statutory, judicial or administrative authority directly addresses the treatment of the FELINE PRIDES or instruments similar to the FELINE PRIDES for United States federal income tax purposes, or of the exchange of rights and current FELINE PRIDES or additional FELINE PRIDES for new FELINE PRIDES. As a result, some United States federal income tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of FELINE PRIDES are not entirely clear.

PURCHASE CONTRACT AGREEMENT NOT QUALIFIED UNDER TRUST INDENTURE ACT; LIMITED OBLIGATIONS OF PURCHASE CONTRACT AGENT

You, as a holder of FELINE PRIDES, will not have the benefits of the protection of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939.

The purchase contract agreement between us and the purchase contract agent will not be qualified as an indenture under the Trust Indenture Act and the purchase contract agent will not be required to qualify as a trustee under the Trust Indenture Act, although the trust preferred securities constituting a part of the Income PRIDES will be issued pursuant to the declaration, which will be qualified under the Trust Indenture Act. Accordingly, if you hold FELINE PRIDES you will not have the benefit of the protections of the Trust Indenture Act. The protections generally afforded the holder of a security issued under an indenture that has been qualified under the Trust Indenture Act include:

- o disqualification of the indenture trustee for conflicting interests.
- o provisions preventing a trustee that is also a creditor of the issuer from improving its own credit position at the expense of the security holders immediately prior to or after a default under the indenture.
- o the requirement that the indenture trustee deliver reports at least annually with respect to specific matters concerning the indenture trustee and the securities.

RIGHTS UNDER THE GUARANTEE

Except as described below, you as a holder of trust preferred securities, will not be able to exercise directly any other rights with respect to the debentures.

The guarantee will be qualified as an indenture under the Trust Indenture Act. The Wilmington Trust Company will act as indenture trustee under the guarantee in its capacity as the guarantee trustee for the purposes of compliance with the provisions of the Trust Indenture Act. The guarantee trustee will hold the guarantee for your benefit if you hold any of the trust preferred securities.

If you hold any of the trust preferred securities, the guarantee will guarantee you, generally on a senior unsecured basis, the payment of the following:

- o any accrued and unpaid distributions that are required to be paid on the trust preferred securities, to the extent the trust has funds available for this purpose.
- o the redemption price, including all accumulated and unpaid distributions to the date of redemption, of trust preferred securities that we may have redeemed upon the occurrence of a tax event redemption, to the extent the trust has funds available for this purpose.
- o upon a voluntary or involuntary dissolution of the trust, other than in connection with the distribution of debentures to you, the lesser of (a) the total of the liquidation amount and all accrued and unpaid distributions on the trust preferred securities to the date of payment to the extent the trust has funds available for this purpose or (b) the amount of assets of the trust remaining available for distribution to holders of the trust preferred securities in liquidation of the trust.

The holders of a majority in liquidation amount of the trust preferred securities will have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the guarantee trustee or to direct the exercise of any trust or power conferred upon the guarantee trustee under the guarantee. Notwithstanding the above, but only under limited circumstances, holders of the trust preferred securities may institute a legal proceeding directly against us to enforce their rights under the guarantee without first instituting a legal proceeding against the trust, the guarantee trustee or any other person or entity.

If we were to default on our obligation to pay amounts payable on the debentures or otherwise, the trust would lack funds for the payment of distributions or amounts payable on redemption of the trust preferred securities or otherwise, and, in that event, holders of the trust preferred securities would not be able to rely upon the guarantee for payment of these amounts. Instead, they would rely on the enforcement

- o by the institutional trustee of its rights as registered holder of the debentures against us pursuant to the terms of the indenture and the debentures or

- o by that holder of the institutional trustee's or that holder's own rights against us to enforce payments on the debentures.

The declaration provides that each holder of trust preferred securities, by its acceptance, agrees to the provisions of the guarantee and the indenture.

ENFORCEMENT OF SPECIFIC RIGHTS BY HOLDERS OF TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES

Except as described below, you, as holder of trust preferred securities, will not be able to exercise directly any other rights with respect to the debentures.

If a declaration event of default were to occur and were continuing, holders of trust preferred securities would rely on the enforcement by the institutional trustee of its rights as registered holder of the debentures against us. In addition, the holders of a majority in liquidation amount of the trust preferred securities would have the right to direct the time, method, and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the institutional trustee or to direct the exercise of any trust or power conferred upon the institutional trustee under the declaration, including the right to direct the institutional trustee to exercise the remedies available to it as the holder of the debentures.

The indenture provides that the debt trustee must give holders of debentures notice of all defaults or events of default within 30 days after occurrence. However, except in the cases of a default or an event of default in payment on the debentures, the debt trustee will be protected in withholding the notice if its responsible officers in good faith determine that withholding of the notice is in the interest of such holders.

If the institutional trustee were to fail to enforce its rights under the debentures in respect of an indenture event of default after a holder of record of trust preferred securities had made a written request, such holder of record of trust preferred securities may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, institute a legal proceeding against us to enforce the institutional trustee's rights under the debentures. In addition, if we were to fail to pay interest or principal on the debentures on the date that interest or principal is otherwise payable, and this failure to pay were continuing, holders of trust preferred securities may directly institute a proceeding for enforcement of payment of the principal of or interest on the debentures having a principal amount equal to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of your trust preferred securities (a "direct action") after the respective due date specified in the debentures. In connection with a direct action, we would have the right under the indenture to set off any payment made to that holder by us.

LIMITED RIGHTS OF ACCELERATION

The institutional trustee, as holder of the debentures, may accelerate payment of the principal and accrued and unpaid interest on the debentures only upon the occurrence and continuation of a declaration event of default or an indenture event of default. A declaration event of default or indenture event of default are generally limited to payment defaults, breaches of specific covenants and specific events of bankruptcy, insolvency and reorganization relating to us and specific events of dissolution of the trust. Accordingly, there is no right to acceleration upon default of our payment obligations under the guarantee.

TRADING PRICE OF THE TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES

The trust preferred securities may trade at a price that does not fully reflect the value of accrued but unpaid interest with respect to the underlying debentures. If you are an accrual basis taxpayer and dispose of your trust preferred securities between record dates for payments of distributions you will be required to include accrued but unpaid interest on the debentures through the date of disposition in income as ordinary interest income, i.e., interest or, possibly, OID, and to add that amount to your adjusted tax basis in your proportionate share of the underlying debentures deemed disposed of. The same situation would arise to the extent, if any, that there is OID on the debentures underlying the trust preferred securities following any payment extension. To the extent the selling price is less than your adjusted tax basis, you will recognize a loss.

We operate in four principal divisions: travel related services, real estate related services, alliance marketing related services and other consumer and business services. Our businesses provide a wide range of complementary consumer and business services, which together represent nine business segments.

- o The travel related services businesses facilitate vacation timeshare exchanges, manage corporate and government vehicle fleets and franchise car rental and hotel businesses.

- o The real estate related services businesses franchise real estate brokerage businesses, provide home buyers with mortgages and assist in employee relocation.
- o The alliance marketing related services businesses provide an array of value driven products and services.
- o Our other consumer and business services include our tax preparation services franchise, information technology services, car parks and vehicle emergency support and rescue services in the United Kingdom, credit information services, financial products and other consumer-related services.

As a franchisor of hotels, residential real estate brokerage offices, car rental operations and tax preparation services, we license the owners and operators of independent businesses to use our brand names. We do not own or operate hotels, real estate brokerage offices, car rental operations or tax preparation offices, except for certain company-owned Jackson Hewitt offices which we intend to franchise. Instead, we provide our franchisee customers with services designed to increase their revenue and profitability.

MATTERS RELATING TO THE ACCOUNTING IRREGULARITIES AND ACCOUNTING POLICY CHANGE

ACCOUNTING IRREGULARITIES

On April 15, 1998, we announced that in the course of transferring responsibility for our accounting functions from Cendant personnel associated with CUC prior to the merger to Cendant personnel associated with HFS before the merger and preparing for the reporting of first quarter 1998 financial results, we discovered accounting irregularities in some of the CUC business units. As a result, we, together with our counsel and assisted by auditors, immediately began an intensive investigation. In addition, our audit committee engaged Willkie Farr & Gallagher as special legal counsel and Wilkie Farr engaged Arthur Andersen LLP to perform an independent investigation into these accounting irregularities.

On July 14, 1998, we announced that the accounting irregularities were greater than those initially discovered in April and that the irregularities affected the accounting records of the majority of the CUC business units. On August 13, 1998, we announced that Cendant's investigation was complete. On August 27, 1998, we announced that our audit committee had submitted its report to the board of directors on the audit committee investigation into the accounting irregularities and its conclusions regarding responsibility for those actions. A copy of the report has been filed as an exhibit to Cendant's current report on Form 8-K dated August 28, 1998.

As a result of the findings of the investigations, we restated our previously reported financial results for 1997, 1996 and 1995 and the six months ended June 30, 1998 and 1997. The 1997 restated amounts also included adjustments related to the former HFS businesses which are substantially comprised of $47.8 million in reductions to merger-related costs and other unusual charges ("Unusual Charges") and a $14.5 million decrease in pre-tax income excluding Unusual Charges, which on a net basis increased 1997 net income from continuing operations. The 1997 annual and six months results have also been restated for a change in accounting, effective January 1, 1997, related to revenue and expense recognition for memberships with a full refund offer.

CLASS ACTION LITIGATION AND GOVERNMENT INVESTIGATION

Since the April 15, 1998 announcement of the discovery of accounting irregularities in the former CUC business units, and prior to October 13, 1999, 70 lawsuits claiming to be class actions, two lawsuits claiming to be brought derivatively on our behalf and several individual lawsuits and arbitration proceedings have been filed against us and, among others, our predecessor, HFS, and several current and former officers and directors of Cendant and HFS. These lawsuits assert, among other things, various claims under the federal securities laws including claims under sections 11, 12 and 15 of the Securities Act of 1933 and sections 10(b), 14(a) and 20(a) and Rules 10b-5 and 14a-9 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and state statutory and common laws, including claims that financial statements previously issued by us were false and misleading and that these statements allegedly caused the price of our securities to be artificially inflated.

In addition, the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the SEC, and the United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey are conducting investigations relating to the accounting irregularities. The SEC staff has advised us that its inquiry should not be construed as an indication by the SEC or its staff that any violations of law have occurred. As a result of the findings from the investigations, we made all adjustments considered necessary which are reflected in our restated financial statements. Although we can provide no assurances that additional adjustments will not be necessary as a result of these government investigations, we do not expect that additional adjustments will be necessary.

Other than with respect to the portion of the PRIDES litigation which is discussed below, we do not believe that it is feasible to predict the final outcome or resolution of these proceedings and investigations or to estimate the amount or potential range of loss with respect to the resolution of these proceedings and investigations. In addition, the timing of the final resolution of these proceedings and investigations is uncertain. The possible outcomes or resolutions of these proceedings and investigations could include judgments against us or settlements and could require substantial payments by us. Our management believes that adverse outcomes in the proceedings and investigations or any other resolutions, including settlements could have a material impact on our financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

SETTLEMENT OF PRIDES CLASS ACTION LITIGATION

On March 17, 1999, we entered into a stipulation of settlement in the PRIDES action and the court subsequently granted the settlement its approval. Under the settlement stipulation, in return for the release of all claims arising from any purchase of current FELINE PRIDES on or before April 15, 1998, we are obligated to issue up to 29,161,474 rights with a stated theoretical value of $11.71 each. Each class member who does not opt out and who submits a timely and valid proof of claim will be entitled to one right for each current FELINE PRIDES held at the close of business on April 15, 1998. Under the settlement stipulation, until February 14, 2001, we will issue two new FELINE PRIDES to every person who delivers to us three rights and two current FELINE PRIDES. The terms of the new FELINE PRIDES will be the same as the currently outstanding PRIDES, except that the conversion rate will be revised so that, at the time the rights are distributed, each of the new PRIDES will have a value equal to $17.57 more than each original PRIDES, based upon a generally accepted valuation model. The settlement does not resolve claims based upon purchases of current FELINE PRIDES after April 16, 1998.

Based on the settlement agreement, we recorded an after tax charge of approximately $228 million, or $0.26 per diluted share, which is $351 million pre-tax, in the fourth quarter of 1998. We recorded an increase in additional paid-in capital of $350 million offset by a decrease in retained earnings of $228 million, resulting in a net increase in stockholders' equity of $122 million as a result of the prospective issuance of the common stock. As a result, the settlement should not reduce net book value. In addition, the settlement is not expected to reduce 1999 earnings per share unless Cendant's common stock price materially appreciates.

THE TRUSTS

Each trust is a statutory business trust formed under Delaware law pursuant to (1) a declaration of trust, executed by the sponsor and some of the trustees and (2) the filing of a certificate of trust with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. Each declaration of trust will be amended and restated in its entirety substantially in the form filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part. Each declaration will be qualified as an indenture under the Trust Indenture Act.

Although upon issuance of the trust preferred securities, a holder of Income PRIDES will be the beneficial owner of the related trust preferred securities, those trust preferred securities will be pledged with the collateral agent to secure the obligations of the holders under the related purchase contracts. We will directly or indirectly acquire common securities of each trust in an aggregate liquidation amount equal to 3% of the total capital of the related trust.

Each trust exists for the exclusive purposes of

- (1) issuing the trust securities representing undivided beneficial ownership interests in the assets of that trust,
- (2) investing the proceeds of the trust securities in the debentures and
- (3) engaging in only those activities necessary, appropriate, convenient or incidental to the purposes specified in (1) and (2) above. Each trust has a term of approximately six years, but may dissolve earlier as provided in the declaration.

The number of the trustees for each trust is initially three. Two of the trustees (the "regular trustees") are persons who are our employees or officers or who are affiliated with us. Under the declaration, the third trustee will be a financial institution that is unaffiliated with us. This trustee will serve as institutional trustee under each declaration and as indenture trustee for the purposes of compliance with the provisions of the Trust Indenture Act (the "institutional trustee"). Initially, Wilmington Trust Company, a Delaware banking corporation, will be the institutional trustee until removed or replaced by the holder of the common securities. For purposes of compliance with the provisions of the Trust Indenture Act, Wilmington Trust Company will also act as the guarantee trustee and as trustee resident in the State of Delaware (the "Delaware trustee") for purposes of the Delaware Business Trust Act (the "Trust Act").

The institutional trustee will hold title to the debentures for the benefit of the holders of the trust securities and the institutional trustee will have the power to exercise all rights, powers and privileges under the indenture as the holder of the debentures. In addition, the institutional trustee will maintain exclusive control of a segregated noninterest bearing bank account (the "property account") to hold all payments made in respect of the debentures for the benefit of the holders of the trust securities. The institutional trustee will make payments of distributions and payments on liquidation, redemption and otherwise to the holders of the trust securities out of funds from the property account. The guarantee trustee will hold the guarantee for the benefit of the holders of the trust preferred securities.

We, as the direct or indirect holder of all the common securities of each trust, will have the right to appoint, remove or replace any trustee and to increase or decrease the number of trustees. However, the number of trustees shall be at least two, at least one of which shall be a regular trustee. We will pay all fees and expenses related to each trust and the offering of the trust securities.

The rights of the holders of the trust preferred securities, including economic rights, rights to information and voting rights, are provided in the declaration, the Trust Act and the Trust Indenture Act.

The office of the Delaware trustee for each trust currently is Wilmington Trust Company, Wilmington, Delaware. The principal place of business of the trust shall be c/o Cendant Corporation, 9 West 57th Street, New York, NY 10019 and its telephone number shall be (212) 413-1800.

PRICE RANGE OF COMMON STOCK AND DIVIDENDS

| | HIGH ---- | LOW --- |
| 1997: | | |

| Fourth Quarter through October 11, 1999..... | 18 5/16 | 17 5/16 |

We have never paid a cash dividend on our common stock. We do not anticipate paying cash dividends on our capital stock in the foreseeable future and intend to retain all earnings to finance the operations and expansion of our business and the repurchase of common stock and debt reduction. The payment of cash dividends in the future will depend on our earnings, financial condition and capital needs and on other factors deemed relevant by our board of directors at that time.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

The financial statements of the trust with respect to which there are outstanding trust preferred securities will be reflected in our consolidated financial statements, with the trust preferred securities shown on our balance sheet under the caption "Mandatorily redeemable preferred securities issued by subsidiary." The financial statement footnotes to our consolidated financial statements will reflect that the sole asset of such trust will be the debentures. Distributions on the trust preferred securities will be reflected as a charge to our consolidated income, identified as minority interest, whether paid or accrued.

The present value of the FELINE PRIDES contract adjustment payments are initially charged to equity, with an offsetting credit to liabilities. Subsequent contract adjustment payments are allocated between this liability account and interest expense based on a constant rate calculation over the life of the transaction.

The issuance of the additional FELINE PRIDES for cash will result in an increase in mandatorily redeemable preferred securities issued by subsidiary in an amount equal to the current market value of the trust preferred securities at such time. To the extent cash proceeds received are less than the current market value of the trust preferred securities at the time of issuance, a charge to paid-in-capital will be recorded for the difference.

The FELINE PRIDES purchase contracts are forward transactions in our common stock. Upon settlement of a purchase contract, we will receive $50 on that purchase contract and will issue the requisite number of shares of common stock. The $50 we receive will be credited to shareholders' equity allocated between the common stock and paid-in-capital accounts.

Before the issuance of shares of common stock upon settlement of the purchase contracts, the FELINE PRIDES will be reflected in our earnings per share calculations using the treasury stock method. Under this method, the number of shares of common stock used in calculating earnings per share is deemed to be increased by the excess, if any, of the number of shares issuable upon settlement of the purchase contracts over the number of shares that could be purchased by us in the market, at the average market price during the period, using the proceeds receivable upon settlement. Consequently, we anticipate that there will be no dilutive effect on our earnings per share except during periods when the average market price of common stock is above $48.10, with respect to both the current FELINE PRIDES and additional FELINE PRIDES and $ with respect to the new FELINE PRIDES.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Substantially all of the proceeds from the sale of the additional Growth PRIDES will be used towards the purchase of the underlying treasury securities to be transferred to holders of the additional Growth PRIDES, and we will receive no proceeds from the sale of the additional Growth PRIDES. All or substantially all of the proceeds from the sale of the additional Income PRIDES and from the common securities will be invested by the trust in our debentures. We currently anticipate using substantially all of the net proceeds from the sale of the debentures and Growth PRIDES, estimated to be approximately $ million, after deducting expenses, for general corporate purposes which may include repaying outstanding indebtedness, repurchasing our common stock and other purposes.

There will not be any proceeds to us from the exchange of the current or additional Growth PRIDES and rights for new Growth PRIDES. There will not be any proceeds to us from the exchange of the current or additional Income PRIDES and rights for new Income PRIDES. Our issuance of the debentures and the purchase contracts relating to the new FELINE PRIDES will not result in the receipt of any cash proceeds but will be done to settle the claims against us discussed in this prospectus.

EXECUTION OF THE LITIGATION SETTLEMENT

EXECUTION OF THE EXCHANGE

We will issue two new Income PRIDES to each person who delivers three rights along with two current Income PRIDES or two additional Income PRIDES, and we will issue two new Growth PRIDES to each person who delivers three rights along with two current Growth PRIDES or two additional Growth PRIDES.

New FELINE PRIDES will not be issued to any person with respect to rights submitted after February 14, 2001. We will not be required to issue new FELINE PRIDES to you if the rights agent receives your rights certificates, current FELINE PRIDES certificates or additional FELINE PRIDES certificates after that date, regardless of when you sent them.

After you have exercised your right, you may not revoke that exercise.

Upon an exchange of current Income PRIDES for new Income PRIDES the purchase contract agent relating to such current FELINE PRIDES will cancel such current FELINE PRIDES.

With respect to exchanges of current Growth PRIDES for new Growth PRIDES, the collateral agent for the current Growth PRIDES will release the related treasury securities pledged to it, and will transfer them to the collateral agent for the new Growth PRIDES, with whom such treasury securities will be pledged to secure the holder's obligation under the purchase contract relating to the new Growth PRIDES. In addition, the purchase contract agent for the current Growth PRIDES will cancel such current GROWTH PRIDES. With respect to exchanges of additional Growth PRIDES for new Growth PRIDES, the new collateral agent will transfer the treasury securities pledged to it under the purchase contracts relating to the additional Growth PRIDES from the collateral account relating to the additional Growth PRIDES to the collateral account relating to the new Growth PRIDES. In addition, the purchase contract agent for the additional Growth PRIDES will cancel the exchanged additional Growth PRIDES.

You may exercise your rights by delivering to the rights agent on or prior to February 14, 2001:

- o a properly completed and duly executed rights certificate representing an adequate number of rights;
- o any required signature guarantees; and
- o FELINE PRIDES certificates representing the requisite amount of current FELINE PRIDES or additional FELINE PRIDES.

You should deliver your rights certificate and the FELINE PRIDES certificates to the rights agent. We have appointed Bank One Trust Company, N.A. as rights agent for this offering. The rights agent's address for packages sent by mail, courier or overnight delivery is:

The rights agent telephone number is (312) 407-1819 and its facsimile number is (312) 407-4656.

If the new FELINE PRIDES are to be issued to a person other than the person in whose name the current FELINE PRIDES are held, the person exercising the rights must also submit to the rights agent payment of any transfer taxes.

If you do not specify the number of rights being exercised on your rights certificate, or the number of current FELINE PRIDES or additional FELINE PRIDES tendered is not sufficient consideration for all of the new FELINE PRIDES that you indicated you wished to purchase, you will be deemed to have exercised the maximum number of rights that could be exercised for the amount of current FELINE PRIDES that the rights agent receives from you.

Signatures on the rights certificate must be guaranteed by an eligible guarantor institution, as defined in Rule 17Ad-15 of the Exchange Act, subject to the standards and procedures adopted by the rights agent. Eligible guarantor institutions include banks, brokers, dealers, credit unions, national securities exchanges and savings associations.

Signatures on the rights certificate do not need to be guaranteed if:

- (1) the rights certificate provides that the new FELINE PRIDES are to be delivered directly to you, the record owner of those rights, or
- (2) the rights certificate is submitted for the account of a member firm of a registered national securities exchange or a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., or a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS OF THE NEW FELINE PRIDES

The new FELINE PRIDES will have the same terms as those of the current FELINE PRIDES and additional FELINE PRIDES, except that:

- o the settlement rate of the related purchase contract will be modified so that it is equal to ; and
- o the purchase contracts relating to the new FELINE PRIDES will benefit from more favorable anti-dilution protection as discussed below.

The new FELINE PRIDES will be listed, subject to the NYSE minimum distribution requirement that there be at least 400 holders having, in the aggregate, one million or more new FELINE PRIDES with a market value of at least four million U.S. dollars, which is not expected to be satisfied when the rights are first distributed.

Each purchase contract underlying a new FELINE PRIDES, unless earlier terminated, or earlier settled at your option, will obligate you to purchase, and us to sell, on February 16, 2001, for the stated amount of the new FELINE PRIDES, which equals $50, a number of newly issued shares of our common stock equal to the settlement rate. The settlement rate of the related purchase contract entitles you to purchase and obligates us to sell a number of newly issued shares of our common stock greater than that of the purchase contract related to a current FELINE PRIDES or an additional FELINE PRIDES.

The anti-dilution provisions of purchase contracts relating to the new FELINE PRIDES will be identical to those attaching to the purchase contracts relating to the current FELINE PRIDES and the additional FELINE PRIDES; provided, however, in case we issue, or undertake or agree to issue, in one or a series of related transactions, an aggregate of more than one million shares of common stock or any other security conferring such right, other than for cash at fair value or as consideration for an acquisition of a business or business assets, and that agreement causes a decline in the market value for the common stock, the settlement rate for purchase contracts relating to new FELINE PRIDES may be subject to further adjustment as described in "Description of the purchase contracts - Anti-Dilution Adjustments."

ISSUANCE OF ADDITIONAL FELINE PRIDES AND SPECIAL FELINE PRIDES

We have incorporated other features into the settlement to assist holders of rights in obtaining current FELINE PRIDES and additional FELINE PRIDES to exercise their rights. First, on a date which is no earlier than , 1999 and is no later than , 1999, we will sell to interested rights holders up to 4,000,000 additional FELINE PRIDES that can be used to exercise rights at an offering price per additional FELINE PRIDES equal to 100% of its theoretical value, as described below. Second, we have filed a shelf registration statement covering 15,000,000 FELINE PRIDES (the "special FELINE PRIDES") with the same terms as the current FELINE PRIDES and the additional FELINE PRIDES and which may be used to exercise rights, if issued. We have no obligation to sell any special FELINE PRIDES except that, within 30 days of the expiration of the rights, we must offer holders of unexpired rights the opportunity to purchase special FELINE PRIDES for cash at a price of 105% of their theoretical value.

The price of an additional FELINE PRIDES will equal 100% of its theoretical value. The additional FELINE PRIDES will be priced not less than fifteen nor more than sixty days after the distribution date of the rights. The price will be determined by Merrill Lynch in its capacity as the calculation agent. As promptly as practicable upon receipt of the pricing confirmation, we will file with the SEC and distribute a prospectus supplement containing definitive pricing information and announce the price to the public.

We will sell the additional FELINE PRIDES according to the following priority:

- (1) holders of rights who received them as part of the original distribution, to the extent required to exercise their rights;
- (2) any other holders of rights, to the extent required to exercise their rights;
- (3) the public.

The purchase of the additional FELINE PRIDES by persons belonging to the first two groups is subject to their consent to use the additional FELINE PRIDES to exchange the rights and is limited to the number of additional FELINE PRIDES each person requires to exercise its rights. If we sell all the additional FELINE PRIDES to one of the groups, we will not sell any additional FELINE PRIDES to a group of a lesser priority. If the first two groups oversubscribe we will distribute the additional FELINE PRIDES proportionately among the subscribers. We will not sell any additional FELINE PRIDES to the public unless members of the first two groups acquire as a whole at least $100,000,000 face amount of additional FELINE PRIDES.

In addition to the restrictions stated above, we will not sell any additional Growth PRIDES unless (1) the sale is to a rights holder who received those rights as part of the original distribution and was a beneficial owner of Growth PRIDES on April 15, 1998, or (2) we elect to issue additional Growth PRIDES.

We will require holders of rights belonging to one of the first two groups to place orders to purchase additional FELINE PRIDES with the rights agent not later than the close of business on the first full business day after the price is first publicly announced. Settlement will occur on the fifth business day after the announcement date. On the settlement date, holders of rights will be required to submit funds for the additional FELINE PRIDES being acquired together with the certificates for the rights.

On the settlement date, we will issue the additional FELINE PRIDES and will immediately exchange the additional FELINE PRIDES and rights for new FELINE PRIDES. If we issue the additional FELINE PRIDES to the general public, we will use reasonable efforts to list the additional FELINE PRIDES on the NYSE, subject to satisfaction of the minimum distribution requirements.

Payment for the additional FELINE PRIDES by members of the first two groups must be made by submitting with their rights, in the manner described above and by:

- (1) bank draft drawn upon a United States bank or a postal, telegraphic or express money order payable to Bank One Trust Company, N.A., in its capacity as the rights agent, or
- (2) wire transfer of funds to the account maintained by the rights agent for this purpose at The First National Bank of Chicago, Corporate Trust Administration, ABA #071000013, Acct. #48115377, Attn.: Steve Husbands.

Payment will be deemed to have been received by the rights agent only upon receipt by the rights agent of any bank draft drawn upon U.S. bank, any postal, telegraphic or express money order or any wire transfer.

We may, at our discretion from time to time, issue special FELINE PRIDES. Except as set forth below, we will have no obligation to issue any special FELINE PRIDES. If we issue special FELINE PRIDES, they will have terms that are substantially identical to the current FELINE PRIDES and additional FELINE PRIDES. We will not offer, issue, or sell special FELINE PRIDES unless holders of unexpired rights are given priority to purchase the special FELINE PRIDES on the same terms and conditions as such special FELINE PRIDES are to be offered to any third party.

No later than thirty days prior to February 16, 2001, which is the purchase contract settlement date, we will distribute to all record holders of the rights a preliminary prospectus with respect to the 15 million special FELINE PRIDES, which will consist of special Income PRIDES and/or special Growth PRIDES or any combination of them, at our option. We will inform those persons that they are entitled to purchase special FELINE PRIDES for cash at a price no greater than 105% of their theoretical value, including accrued interest. However, purchasers of special FELINE PRIDES must undertake to exercise all of the rights held by them with respect to which special FELINE PRIDES are issued, as described below. Not later than five business days prior to February 14, 2001, we will file with the SEC and distribute a pricing prospectus and announce the price to the public.

Until the close of business day on February 14, 2001, persons who hold rights may submit rights and the cash necessary to purchase the number of special FELINE PRIDES required to exercise all their rights. Not later than the fifth business day prior to February 14, 2001, we will issue the special FELINE PRIDES, which will be immediately exchanged with the applicable rights for new FELINE PRIDES, the purchase contracts relating to which will be settled.

Do not send the certificates to us. You are responsible for choosing the payment and delivery method for your certificates, and you bear the risks associated with that delivery. If you choose to deliver your certificates and payment by mail, we recommend that you use registered mail, properly insured, with return receipt requested. We also recommend that you allow a sufficient number of days to ensure delivery to the rights agent and clearance of payment prior to February 14, 2001.

GUARANTEED DELIVERY PROCEDURES

If a holder of current FELINE PRIDES desires to tender such FELINE PRIDES and the holder's FELINE PRIDES with the requisite accompanying Rights are not immediately available, or time will not permit such holder's FELINE PRIDES or other required documents to reach the rights agent before the expiration date, or the procedure for book-entry transfer cannot be completed on a timely basis, a tender may be effected if:

- (1) the holder tenders the current FELINE PRIDES and the requisite accompanying Rights through an eligible institution;
- (2) prior to the expiration date, the rights agent receives from such eligible institution a properly completed and duly executed notice of guaranteed delivery, substantially in the form we have provided, by telegram, telex, facsimile transmission, mail or hand delivery, setting forth the name and address of the holder of the current FELINE PRIDES being tendered and the amount of the current FELINE PRIDES being tendered. The notice of guaranteed delivery shall state that the tender is being made and guarantee that within 3 New York Stock Exchange trading days after the date of execution of the notice of guaranteed delivery, the certificates for all physically tendered FELINE PRIDES, in proper form for transfer, or a book-entry confirmation, as the case may be, together with a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal or agent's message with any required signature guarantees and any other documents required by the letter of transmittal will be deposited by the eligible institution with the rights agent; and
- (3) the rights agent receives the certificates for all physically tendered current FELINE PRIDES, in proper form for transfer, or a book-entry confirmation, as the case may be, together with a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal or agent's message with any required signature guarantees and any other documents required by the letter of transmittal, within 3 New York Stock Exchange trading days after the date of execution of the notice of guaranteed delivery.

For the purposes of the guaranteed delivery procedures, eligible institution means a firm which is a member of a registered national securities exchange or a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States.

MERGER OF TRUSTS

Upon the issuance, if any, of the additional Income PRIDES, Cendant Capital I shall merge with and into Cendant Capital II. Thereafter, each current Income PRIDES, additional Income PRIDES and new Income PRIDES will consist of a purchase contract and a trust preferred security of Cendant Capital II. In addition, upon each issuance of special Income PRIDES, the trust issuing the trust preferred securities prior to such issuance shall be merged with and into one of the trusts which prior to such time shall not have issued any securities (a "newly issuing trust"), and the trust preferred securities forming a part of the current Income PRIDES, additional Income PRIDES and new Income PRIDES will be issued by such newly issuing trust. The terms of the trust preferred securities issued by each of the trusts will have terms substantially identical to each other. The aggregate liquidation amount of trust preferred securities issued by any trust will equal the sum of the aggregate liquidation amount of trust preferred securities issued by the trust being merged with and into such trust plus the aggregate liquidation amount of trust preferred securities being simultaneously issued by such trusts. The aggregate principal amount of debentures held by any trust will equal the sum of the aggregate principal amount of debentures held by the trust being merged with and into such trust plus the aggregate principal amount of debentures being simultaneously issued by Cendant to such trust in connection with the issuance of additional Income PRIDES or special Income PRIDES.

DESCRIPTION OF THE FELINE PRIDES

The summaries of the provisions of documents described below are not necessarily complete, and in each instance reference is made to the copies of those documents, including the definitions of terms, which are on file with the commission. Wherever particular sections of, or terms defined in, those documents are referred to in this prospectus, those sections or defined terms are incorporated by reference.

Each FELINE PRIDES will be issued under the purchase contract agreement between us and the purchase contract agent. The FELINE PRIDES, including new FELINE PRIDES and 4,000,000 additional FELINE PRIDES offered initially will consist of (A) units referred to as Income PRIDES, including new Income PRIDES and additional Income PRIDES, and (B) units referred to as Growth PRIDES, including new Growth PRIDES and additional Growth PRIDES.

Each Income PRIDES will initially consist of a unit comprised of

- (a) a purchase contract under which
 - (1) you will purchase from us on February 16, 2001, a number of newly issued shares of our common stock equal to the settlement rate described below
 - (2) we will pay you contract adjustment payments at the rate of 1.05% of $50 per year paid quarterly, subject to our right to defer these payments, and
- (b) beneficial ownership of a 6.45% trust originated preferred security, having a stated liquidation amount per trust preferred security equal to $50, representing an undivided beneficial ownership interest in the assets of the trust, which will consist solely of the debentures,
 - (1) in the case of a distribution of the debentures upon the dissolution of the trust as a result of an investment company event, as described below, or otherwise, debentures having a principal amount equal to $50, or
 - (2) upon the occurrence of a tax event redemption prior to February 16, 2001, the appropriate applicable ownership interest in the treasury portfolio. "Applicable ownership interest" means, with respect to an Income PRIDES and the U.S. treasury securities in the treasury portfolio, (A) a 1/20, or 5%, undivided beneficial ownership interest in a $1,000 principal or interest amount of a principal or interest strip in a U.S. treasury security which matures on or prior to February 15, 2001 and (B) for each scheduled interest payment date on the debentures that occurs after the tax event redemption date, a .080625% undivided beneficial ownership interest in a $1,000 face amount of the U.S. treasury security which is a principal or interest strip maturing on that date.

Each Growth PRIDES will initially consist of a unit comprised of

- (a) a purchase contract under which
 - (1) the holder will purchase from us on February 16, 2001, for an amount in cash equal to $50, a number of newly issued shares of our common stock, equal to the settlement rate described below, and
 - (2) we will pay the holder contract adjustment payments at the rate of 1.3% of $50 per year paid quarterly, subject to our right to defer these payments, and

(b) a 1/20 undivided beneficial interest in a treasury security.

The new FELINE PRIDES are generally identical to the current FELINE PRIDES in all aspects, excluding the settlement rate and the anti-dilution protections. In addition, although the trust preferred securities forming a part of the new Income PRIDES will be substantially identical to the trust preferred securities that form a part of the current Income PRIDES, such trust preferred securities may be issued by a different trust as described in "Execution of the Litigation Settlement - Merger of Trusts."

The purchase price of each FELINE PRIDES will generally be allocated between the related purchase contract and the related trust preferred security or interest in a treasury security in proportion to their respective fair market values at the time of purchase. We will take the position that

- (1) in the case of a new FELINE PRIDES, the amount allocable to the related trust preferred security and interest in a treasury security, as the case may be, will equal the cash paid for the additional FELINE PRIDES plus the fair market value of the rights exchanged for that new FELINE PRIDES, and therefore will be $_____ and $_____, respectively, and the amount allocable to the related purchase contract will be $_____, and
- (2) in the case of an additional FELINE PRIDES, the amount allocable to the related trust preferred security or interest in a treasury security, as the case may be, will equal the cash paid for that additional FELINE PRIDES plus an amount equal to the negative value of the related purchase contract, and therefore will be $_____ and $_____, respectively, and no amount will be allocated to the related purchase contract.

This position generally will be binding on each beneficial owner of each Income PRIDES, but not on the IRS. As long as FELINE PRIDES are in the form of Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, the related trust preferred securities or the appropriate applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio or treasury securities, as applicable, will be pledged to the collateral agent to secure your obligation to purchase our common stock under the related purchase contracts.

SUBSTITUTION OF PLEDGED SECURITIES

Each holder of an Income PRIDES, unless a tax event redemption has occurred, will have the right, at any time on or prior to the fifth business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, to substitute for the related trust preferred securities held by the collateral agent treasury securities in an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of those trust preferred securities.

The treasury securities will be pledged with the collateral agent to secure the holder's obligation to purchase our common stock under the related purchase contracts. Because treasury securities are issued in integral multiples of $1,000, holders of Income PRIDES may make the substitution only in integral multiples of 20 Income PRIDES. However, if a tax event redemption has occurred prior to February 16, 2001, and the treasury portfolio has become a component of the Income PRIDES, you may make those substitutions only in integral multiples of 160,000 Income PRIDES by obtaining the release of the treasury portfolio, rather than the trust preferred securities, at any time on or prior to the second business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001.

FELINE PRIDES with respect to which treasury securities have been substituted for the related trust preferred securities or the appropriate applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio, as the case may be, as collateral to secure that holder's obligation under the related purchase contracts will be referred to as Growth PRIDES.

To create 20 Growth PRIDES, unless a tax event redemption has occurred, you must

- (a) deposit with the collateral agent a treasury security having a principal amount at maturity of $1,000 and
- (b) transfer 20 Income PRIDES to the purchase contract agent accompanied by a notice stating that you have deposited a treasury security with the collateral agent and are requesting that the purchase contract agent instruct the collateral agent to release to you the 20 trust preferred securities relating to the 20 Income PRIDES.

Because contract adjustment payments are at a higher rate for Growth PRIDES than for Income PRIDES, you will also be required to deliver cash in an amount equal to the excess of the contract adjustment payments that would have accrued since the last payment date through the date of substitution on the Growth PRIDES being created by you, over the contract adjustment payments that have accrued over the same period on the related Income PRIDES.

Upon the deposit and the receipt of an instruction from the purchase contract agent, the collateral agent will effect the release of the related 20 trust preferred securities from the pledge under the pledge agreement free and clear of our security interest to the purchase contract agent, which will

- (a) cancel the 20 Income PRIDES,
- (b) transfer to you the 20 related trust preferred securities, and
- (c) deliver to you 20 Growth PRIDES.

The treasury security will be substituted for the trust preferred securities and will be pledged with the collateral agent to secure your obligation to purchase our common stock under the related purchase contracts. The related trust preferred securities released to you will trade separately from the resulting Growth PRIDES. Contract adjustment payments will be payable by us on those Growth PRIDES on each payment date from the later of and the last payment date on which contract adjustment payments were paid. In addition, OID for United States federal income tax purposes will accrue on the related treasury securities. Distributions on any trust preferred securities, up to but not including February 16, 2001, including after a substitution of collateral resulting in the creation of Growth PRIDES, will continue to be payable quarterly by the trust at the rate of 6.45% of $50 per year, subject to our deferral rights.

Each holder of a Growth PRIDES, unless a tax event redemption has occurred, will have the right, at any time on or prior to the fifth business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, to substitute for the related treasury securities held by the collateral agent trust preferred securities in an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of those treasury securities, thereby creating Income PRIDES.

The trust preferred securities will be pledged with the collateral agent to secure the holder's obligation to purchase our common stock under the related purchase contract. Because treasury securities are issued in integral multiples of $1,000, you may make those substitutions only in integral multiples of 20 Growth PRIDES. However, if a tax event redemption has occurred and the treasury portfolio has become a component of the Income PRIDES, you may make that substitution only in integral multiples of 160,000 Growth PRIDES, at any time, on or prior to the second business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001.

To create 20 Income PRIDES, unless a tax event redemption has occurred, you must

- (a) deposit with the collateral agent 20 trust preferred securities and
- (b) transfer 20 Growth PRIDES certificates to the purchase contract agent accompanied by a notice stating that you had deposited 20 trust preferred securities with the collateral agent and are requesting that the purchase contract agent instruct the collateral agent to release to you the treasury security relating to those Growth PRIDES.

Upon the deposit and receipt of an instruction from the purchase contract agent, the collateral agent will effect the release of the related treasury security from the pledge under the pledge agreement free and clear of our security interest to the purchase contract agent, which will

- (a) cancel the 20 Growth PRIDES,
- (b) transfer to you the related treasury security and
- (c) deliver to you 20 Income PRIDES.

The substituted trust preferred securities will be pledged with the collateral agent to secure your obligation to purchase our common stock under the related purchase contracts. Cumulative cash distribution, payable quarterly at a rate of 7.5% of $50 per year on those Income PRIDES, subject to our deferral rights, will be payable by us on those Income PRIDES on each payment date from the later of and the last payment date on which those cumulative cash distributions, if any, were paid.

Holders who elect to substitute pledged securities, creating or recreating Growth PRIDES or Income PRIDES, shall be responsible for any fees or expenses payable in connection with substitution.

RECREATING INCOME PRIDES OR GROWTH PRIDES

On or prior to the fifth business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, a holder of Growth PRIDES or Income PRIDES may, unless a tax event redemption has occurred, recreate Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES by

- (a) depositing with the collateral agent 20 trust preferred securities or a treasury security and
- (b) transferring 20 Growth PRIDES or Income PRIDES, as applicable, to the purchase contract agent accompanied by a notice stating that the Growth PRIDES or Income PRIDES holder has deposited 20 trust preferred securities or a treasury security with the collateral agent and requesting that the purchase contract agent instruct the collateral agent to release to that holder the related treasury security or trust preferred securities, as applicable.

Upon the deposit and receipt of instructions from the purchase contract agent, the collateral agent will effect the release of the related treasury security or trust preferred securities, as applicable, from the pledge of the pledge agreement free and clear of our security interest to the purchase contract agent, which will

- (a) cancel the 20 Growth PRIDES or Income PRIDES, as applicable,
- (b) transfer to you the treasury security or trust preferred securities, as applicable, and
- (c) deliver to you 20 Income PRIDES or 20 Growth PRIDES, as applicable.

If, however, a tax event redemption has occurred prior to February 16, 2001 and the treasury portfolio has become a component of the Income PRIDES, holders of Growth PRIDES or Income PRIDES, as applicable, may make those substitutions (by using, in the case of the Growth PRIDES, the appropriate applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio rather than the trust preferred securities) at any time on or prior to the second business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, but only in integral multiples of 160,000 Growth PRIDES or Income PRIDES, as applicable.

Because Contract adjustment payments are at a higher rate for Growth PRIDES than for Income PRIDES, holders of Income PRIDES wishing to recreate Growth PRIDES will also be required to deliver cash in an amount equal to the excess of the contract adjustment payments that would have accrued since the last payment date through the date of substitution on the Growth PRIDES being recreated by those holders, over the contract adjustment payments that have accrued over the same time period on the related Income PRIDES.

The substituted trust preferred securities, the appropriate applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio or a treasury security will be pledged with the collateral agent to secure your obligation to purchase our common stock under the related purchase contracts.

CURRENT PAYMENTS

Holders of Income PRIDES are entitled to receive aggregate cash distributions at a rate of 7.5% of $50 per year from and after through and including February 15, 2001, payable quarterly in arrears. The quarterly payments on the Income PRIDES will consist of

- (1) cumulative cash distributions on the related trust preferred securities or the treasury portfolio, as applicable, payable at the rate of 6.45% of $50 per year and
- (2) contract adjustment payments payable by us at the rate of 1.05% of $50 per year, subject, in the case of distributions on the trust preferred securities and the contract adjustment payments, to our right of deferral.

Each holder of Growth PRIDES will be entitled to receive quarterly contract adjustment payments payable by the us at the rate of 1.3% of $50 per year, subject to our rights of deferral. In addition, OID will accrue on the related treasury securities.

The ability of the trust to make the quarterly distributions on the trust preferred securities is solely dependent upon the receipt of corresponding interest payments from us on the debentures. We have the right at any time, and from time to time, limited to a period not extending beyond February 16, 2003, to defer the interest payments on the debentures. As a consequence of that deferral, unless a tax event redemption has occurred, quarterly distributions to holders of Income PRIDES or any trust preferred securities outstanding after February 16, 2001 or after a substitution of collateral resulting in the creation of Growth PRIDES would be deferred. However, despite the deferral, the distributions would continue to accumulate quarterly and would accrue interest compounded quarterly at the rate of 6.45% per year through and including February 15, 2001, and at the reset rate afterwards.

We also have the right to defer the payment of contract adjustment payments on the related purchase contracts until February 16, 2001. However, deferred contract adjustment payments will bear additional contract adjustment payments at the rate of 7.5% per year. The deferred installments of contract adjustment payments, together with the additional contract adjustment payments, shall be referred to as the "deferred contract adjustment payments."

If a tax event redemption has occurred and the treasury portfolio has become a component of the Income PRIDES, quarterly distributions on the treasury portfolio, as a portion of the cumulative quarterly distributions to the holders of Income PRIDES, will not be deferred.

Our obligations with respect to the debentures will be senior and unsecured and will rank on a parity in right of payment with all our other senior unsecured obligations. Our obligations with respect to the contract adjustment payments will be subordinated and junior in right of payment to our senior indebtedness.

VALUATION

The theoretical value of the new FELINE PRIDES equals the theoretical value of the current FELINE PRIDES plus $17.57 as of , 1999. The theoretical value of the additional FELINE PRIDES equals 100% of the theoretical value of the current FELINE PRIDES as of , 1999. Theoretical value is the value of a FELINE PRIDES calculated in accordance with the formula set forth , which is a generally accepted method for valuing similar securities. The theoretical values are only as of the date rights are issued. We, Merrill Lynch or any other party to the settlement cannot and are not assuring or guaranteeing the values and market prices for the new FELINE PRIDES and the additional FELINE PRIDES.

The calculation agent will conduct the valuation process pursuant to the following steps. These steps are illustrated in the table entitled "Hypothetical Valuation across a Range of Stock Prices" below.

First, the calculation agent will determine the theoretical value of the current FELINE PRIDES marked "f". The additional FELINE PRIDES are designed to have a theoretical value equal to 100% of the theoretical value of the current FELINE PRIDES. The current FELINE PRIDES will be valued as a sum of their component parts:

- o Fixed Income Component:
 - o Present Value of 7.50% coupons discounted at our debt rate
 - o Present Value of $50 stated value discounted at term LIBOR
- o Options Component:
 - o Short 1.3514 puts struck at $37.00 per share
 - o Long 1.0395 calls struck at $48.10 per share

Both options are valued assuming a discount rate of term LIBOR and using a trailing 100-day volatility schedule as determined by Bloomberg LP.

Second, the calculation agent will determine the theoretical value of the new FELINE PRIDES:

- o The new FELINE PRIDES are designed to have a value equal to the theoretical value of current FELINE PRIDES plus $17.57

Third, the calculation agent will determine the settlement rate that generates the theoretical value of the new FELINE PRIDES:

- o The new FELINE PRIDES have the same coupons and maturity as the current FELINE PRIDES and the additional FELINE PRIDES.
- o The equity value of the new FELINE PRIDES is equal to the theoretical value of the new FELINE PRIDES minus the present value of the coupons.
- o The settlement rate will be the equity value of the new FELINE PRIDES divided by the closing common stock price on the determination date.

The prices we have set for the additional FELINE PRIDES and new FELINE PRIDES are not necessarily an indication of our actual value or of the value of the FELINE PRIDES or common stock. We cannot assure you that the market price of the FELINE PRIDES will not decline during this offering. We also cannot assure you that we will be able to sell new FELINE PRIDES or additional FELINE PRIDES at a price equal to or greater to the prices determined here.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PURCHASE CONTRACTS

GENERAL

Each purchase contract underlying a FELINE PRIDES, unless earlier terminated, or earlier settled at your option, will obligate you to purchase, and us to sell, on February 16, 2001, for an amount in cash equal to $50, a number of newly issued shares of our common stock equal to the settlement rate.

The settlement rate, which is the number of newly issued shares of our common stock issuable upon settlement of a purchase contract on February 16, 2001, will be calculated for additional FELINE PRIDES, subject to adjustment under certain circumstances, as follows:

- (a) if the applicable market value is equal to or greater than the threshold appreciation price of $48.10, which is 30% above $37, the last reported sale price of the common stock on February 24, 1998, the settlement rate, which is equal to $50 divided by $48.10, will be 1.0395; accordingly, if, between the date of this prospectus and the period during which the applicable market value is measured, the market price for the common stock increases to an amount that is higher than $48.10, the aggregate market value of the shares of common stock issued upon settlement of each purchase contract, assuming that this market value is the same as the applicable market value of the common stock, will be higher than $50, and if the market price equals $48.10, the aggregate market value of those shares, assuming that this market value is the same as the applicable market value of the common stock, will equal $50;
- (b) if the applicable market value is less than $48.10 but greater than $37, the settlement rate will be equal to $50 divided by the applicable market value; accordingly, if the market price for the common stock increases between the date of this prospectus and the period during which the applicable market value is measured but that market price is less than $48.10, the aggregate market value of the shares of common stock issued upon settlement of each purchase contract, assuming that this market value is the same as the applicable market value of the common stock, will equal $50; and
- (c) if the applicable market value is less than or equal to $37, the settlement rate, which is equal to $50 divided by $37, will be 1.3514; accordingly, if the market price for the common stock decreases between the date of this prospectus and the period during which the applicable market value is measured, the aggregate market value of the shares of common stock issued upon settlement of each purchase contract, assuming that the market value is the same as the applicable market value of the common stock, will be less than $50, and if the market price stays the same, the aggregate market value of those shares, assuming that this market value is the same as the applicable market value of the common stock, will equal $50.

The applicable market value means the average of the closing prices per share of common stock on each of the twenty consecutive trading days ending on the third trading day immediately preceding February 16, 2001.

The closing price of the common stock on any date of determination means the closing sale price or, if no closing price is reported, the last reported sale price of the common stock on the NYSE on that date. If the common stock is not listed for trading on the NYSE on any of those dates, the closing price of the common stock on any date of determination means the closing sales price as reported in the composite transactions for the principal U.S. securities exchange on which the common stock is so listed, or if the common stock is not so listed on a U.S. national or regional securities exchange, as reported by the Nasdaq stock market, or, if the common stock is not so reported, the last quoted bid price for the common stock in the over-the-counter market as reported by the National Quotation Bureau or similar organization or, if that bid price is not available, the market value of the common stock on that date as determined by a nationally recognized independent investment banking firm retained by us for this purpose.

A trading day is a day on which the common stock (A) is not suspended from trading on any national or regional securities exchange or association or over-the-counter market at the close of business and (B) has traded at least once on the national or regional securities exchange or association or over-the-counter market that is the primary market for the trading of the common stock.

Each purchase contract underlying a new FELINE PRIDES, unless earlier terminated, or earlier settled at your option, will obligate you to purchase, and us to sell, on February 16, 2001, for $50 cash, a number of newly issued shares of our common stock equal to the settlement rate.

Unlike the settlement rate of the additional FELINE PRIDES and current FELINE PRIDES, which varies depending on the applicable market value, the settlement rate of the new FELINE PRIDES is fixed at . At the settlement date, we will issue a holder of new FELINE PRIDES shares of common stock per each new FELINE PRIDES, regardless of the market price of our common stock.

The new FELINE PRIDES settlement rate entitles a holder of new FELINE PRIDES to purchase, and obligates us to sell, a number of newly issued shares of common stock greater than the number issued to a holder of current FELINE PRIDES or additional FELINE PRIDES. The difference in value between the amount of common stock we will issue a holder of current FELINE PRIDES or additional FELINE PRIDES and the amount of common stock we will issue a holder of new FELINE PRIDES will equal $17.57 per new FELINE PRIDES, subject to adjustment for expenses. We selected the fixed settlement because, given an initial stock price of $17.4375, this rate will return $11.71 of value per right. One and a half rights are required to generate the additional value of $17.57 for each new FELINE PRIDES.

The following table demonstrates the net additional shares per right to be delivered to a holder of new FELINE PRIDES, as compared to current FELINE PRIDES and additional FELINE PRIDES, upon settlement of the related purchase contracts. The table displays that the value of the right varies positively with the price of our common stock. Because the new FELINE PRIDES settlement rate is fixed, the higher the price of our stock, the more value the holder of new FELINE PRIDES will receive for its fixed amount of common stock. The values in the table are theoretical values and may not represent the price that may actually be realized in the market. The actual values will be determined at the close of the determination date, which will take place two days prior to the distribution of the rights.

No fractional shares of common stock will be issued by us pursuant to the purchase contracts. In place of fractional shares otherwise issuable, calculated on an aggregate basis, in respect of the purchase contracts you are settling, you will be entitled to receive an amount of cash equal to the fractional share times the applicable market value.

On the business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, unless

- (1) you have settled the related purchase contracts prior to February 16, 2001 through the early delivery of cash to the purchase contract agent, in the manner described under "-Early Settlement,"

- (2) in the case of Income PRIDES, you have settled the related purchase contracts with separate cash on the business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, having given prior notice in the manner described under "--Notice to Settle with Cash",
- (3) you have had the trust preferred securities related to your purchase contracts remarketed in the manner described in this prospectus, or
- (4) an event described under "--Termination" below has occurred, then

In the case of Income PRIDES, unless a tax event redemption has occurred, we will exercise our rights as a secured party to dispose of the trust preferred securities in accordance with applicable law. In the case of Growth PRIDES or Income PRIDES, if a tax event redemption has occurred, the principal amount of the related treasury securities or the appropriate applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio, as applicable, when paid at maturity, will automatically be applied to satisfy in full your obligation to purchase common stock under the related purchase contracts. The common stock will then be issued and delivered to you or your designee, upon presentation and surrender of the certificate evidencing the FELINE PRIDES and payment by you of any transfer or similar taxes payable in connection with the issuance of the common stock to any person other than you. Where a holder of either Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES effects the early settlement of the related purchase contracts through the delivery of cash or, in the case of Income PRIDES, settles the related purchase contracts with cash on the business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, the related trust preferred securities or treasury securities, as the case may be, will be released to the holder as described in this prospectus. The funds received by the collateral agent on the business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, upon cash settlement of a purchase contract, will be promptly invested in overnight permitted investments and paid to us on February 16, 2001. Any funds received by the collateral agent in respect of the interest earned from the overnight investment in permitted investments will be distributed to the purchase contract agent for payment to the holders.

Prior to the date on which shares of common stock are issued in settlement of purchase contracts, the common stock underlying the related purchase contracts will not be deemed to be outstanding for any purpose and the holders of those purchase contracts will not have any voting rights, rights to dividends or other distributions, rights or privileges of a stockholder of Cendant by virtue of holding the purchase contracts.

As a holder of an Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, you will, by acceptance and under the terms of the purchase contract agreement and the related purchase contracts, be deemed to have

- (a) irrevocably agreed to be bound by the terms of the related purchase contracts and the pledge agreement for so long as you remain a holder of that FELINE PRIDES, and
- (b) duly appointed the purchase contract agent as your attorney-in-fact to enter into and perform the related purchase contracts on behalf of and in your name.

In addition, as a beneficial owner of Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, you, by acceptance of the interest, will be deemed to have agreed to treat for United States federal, state and local income and franchise tax purposes,

- (a) yourself as the owner of the related trust preferred securities, the appropriate applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio or the treasury securities, as the case may be, and
- (b) the debentures as indebtedness that we have issued

REMARKETING

Under the remarketing agreement and subject to the terms of the remarketing underwriting agreement between the remarketing agent, the purchase contract agent, us and the trust, the trust preferred securities of Income PRIDES holders' who have failed to notify the purchase contract agent, on or prior to the fifth business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001 of their intention to settle the related purchase contracts with separate cash on the business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, will be remarketed on the third business day immediately preceding the February 16, 2001.

The remarketing agent will use its reasonable efforts to remarket those trust preferred securities on that date at a price of approximately 100.5% of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of those trust preferred securities, plus accrued and unpaid distributions, including any deferred distributions. The portion of the proceeds from that remarketing equal to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of those trust preferred securities will automatically be applied to satisfy in full those Income PRIDES holders' obligations to purchase common stock under the related purchase contracts. In addition, after deducting as the remarketing fee an amount not exceeding 25 basis points (.25%) of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the remarketed trust preferred securities, from any amount of those proceeds in excess of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the remarketed trust preferred securities plus any accrued and unpaid distributions, including any deferred distributions, the remarketing agent will remit the remaining portion of the proceeds, if any, for the benefit of that holder. Income PRIDES holders whose trust preferred securities are so remarketed will not otherwise be responsible for the payment of any remarketing fee.

If, despite using its reasonable efforts, the remarketing agent cannot remarket the related trust preferred securities of those holders of Income PRIDES at a price not less than 100% of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of those trust preferred securities plus accrued and unpaid distributions, including any deferred distributions, and thus resulting in a failed remarketing, we will exercise our rights as a secured party to dispose of the trust preferred securities in accordance with the applicable law and satisfy in full, from the proceeds of that disposition, that holder's obligation to purchase common stock under the related purchase contracts. However, if we exercise those rights as a secured creditor, any accrued and unpaid distributions, including any deferred distributions, on those trust preferred securities will be paid in cash by us to the holders of record of those trust preferred securities. We will cause a notice of the failed remarketing to be published on the second business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001 by publication in a daily newspaper in the English language of general circulation in the city of New York, which is expected to be The Wall Street Journal. In addition, we will request, not later than ten nor more than 15 calendar days prior to the remarketing date, that the depository notify its participants holding trust preferred securities, Income PRIDES and Growth PRIDES of the remarketing and of the procedures that must be followed if a trust preferred security holder wishes to exercise its right to put its trust preferred security to us as described in this prospectus. We will endeavor to ensure that a registration statement with regard to the full amount of the trust preferred securities to be remarketed shall be effective in a form that will enable the remarketing agent to rely on it in connection with the remarketing process. It is currently anticipated that Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated will be the remarketing agent.

EARLY SETTLEMENT

A holder of Income PRIDES may settle the related purchase contracts on or prior to the fifth business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001 by presenting and surrendering the FELINE PRIDES certificate evidencing those Income PRIDES at the offices of the purchase contract agent. The holder should also present the form of election to settle early on the reverse side of that certificate completed and executed as indicated, accompanied by payment payable to us in immediately available funds of an amount equal to $50 times the number of purchase contracts being settled. However, if a tax event redemption has occurred prior to February 16, 2001 and the treasury portfolio has become a component of the Income PRIDES, holders of those Income PRIDES may settle early only in integral multiples of 160,000 Income PRIDES, and the related appropriate applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio, at any time on or prior to the second business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001.

A holder of Growth PRIDES may settle the related purchase contracts on or prior to the second business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001 by presenting and surrendering the FELINE PRIDES certificate evidencing the Growth PRIDES at the offices of the purchase contract agent with the form of election to settle early on the reverse side of that certificate completed and executed as indicated, accompanied by payment in immediately available funds of an amount equal to $50 times the number of purchase contracts being settled.

So long as the FELINE PRIDES are evidenced by one or more global security certificates deposited with the depository, procedures for early settlement will also be governed by standing arrangements between the depository and the purchase contract agent.

Upon early settlement of the purchase contracts related to any Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES:

- (a) as a holder of an additional FELINE PRIDES, you will receive newly issued shares of common stock per Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, regardless of the market price of the common stock on the date of the early settlement. As a holder of a new FELINE PRIDES, you will receive shares of common stock per new FELINE PRIDES. The number of newly issued shares of common stock in both cases will be subject to adjustment under the circumstances described in "--Anti-Dilution Adjustments" below;
- (b) the trust preferred securities, the appropriate applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio or the treasury securities, related to the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, as applicable, will then be transferred to you free and clear of our security interest;
- (c) your right to receive any deferred contract adjustment payments on the purchase contracts being settled will be forfeited;
- (d) your right to receive future contract adjustment payments will terminate; and
- (e) no adjustment will be made to or for you on account of any deferred contract adjustment payments or any amounts accrued in respect of contract adjustment payments.

If the purchase contract agent receives a FELINE PRIDES certificate, accompanied by the completed election to settle early form and the requisite amount of immediately available funds, from you by 5:00 p.m.,

New York City time, on a business day, that day will be considered the settlement date. If the purchase contract agent receives those documents after 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on a business day or at any time on a day that is not a business day, unless you are an Income PRIDES holder and a tax event redemption has occurred, the next business day will be considered the settlement date.

Upon early settlement of purchase contracts in the manner described above, presentation and surrender of the FELINE PRIDES certificate evidencing the related Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES and payment of any transfer or similar taxes payable by the holder in connection with the issuance of the related common stock to any person other than the holder of the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, we will cause the shares of common stock being purchased to be issued, and the related trust preferred securities, the appropriate applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio or the treasury securities, as the case may be, securing those purchase contracts to be released from the pledge under the pledge agreement and transferred, within three business days following the settlement date, to you or your designee.

NOTICE TO SETTLE WITH CASH

If you want to settle the purchase contract underlying a FELINE PRIDES with separate cash on the business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, you must notify the purchase contract agent by presenting and surrendering the FELINE PRIDES certificate evidencing those FELINE PRIDES. You must present the certificates at the offices of the purchase contract agent with the form of "Notice to Settle by Separate Cash" on the reverse side of the certificate completed and executed as indicated. You must present the documents on or prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the second business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001 if you are a Growth PRIDES holder or if you are an Income PRIDES holder and a tax event redemption has occurred. If you are an Income PRIDES holder, you must present the document on the fifth business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001.

If you have given notice of your intention to settle the related purchase contract with separate cash but failed to deliver the cash on the business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, then we will exercise our right as a secured party to dispose of, in accordance with the applicable law, the related trust preferred securities, the applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio or the treasury securities, as the case may be, to satisfy in full from the proceeds of that disposition your obligation to purchase common stock under the related purchase contract.

CONTRACT ADJUSTMENT PAYMENTS

Contract adjustment payments will be fixed at a rate per year of 1.05% of $50 per purchase contract in the case of Income PRIDES, and at a rate per year of 1.3% of $50 per purchase contract in the case of Growth PRIDES. Contract adjustment payments that are not paid when due, after giving effect to any permitted deferrals, will continue to accrue at the rate per year of 7.5% compounded quarterly, until paid. Contract adjustment payments payable for any period will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months. Contract adjustment payments will accrue from and will be payable quarterly in arrears on February 16, May 16, August 16 and November 16 of each year, commencing .

Contract adjustment payments will be payable to the holders of purchase contracts as they appear on the books and records of the purchase contract agent on the relevant record dates.

As long as the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES remain in book-entry only form, the record dates will be one business day prior to the relevant payment dates. Those distributions will be paid through the purchase contract agent who will hold amounts received in respect of the contract adjustment payments for your benefit relating to those Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES. Subject to any applicable laws and regulations, each of those payments will be made as described under "--Book-Entry System." If the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES do not continue to remain in book-entry only form, we shall have the right to select relevant record dates, which shall be more than one business day but less than 60 business days prior to the relevant payment dates.

If any date on which contract adjustment payments are to be made on the purchase contracts related to the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES is not a business day, then payment of the contract adjustment payments payable on that date will be made on the next succeeding day which is a business day, and no interest or payment will be paid in respect of the delay. However, if that business day is in the next succeeding calendar year, that payment shall be made on the immediately preceding business day, in each case with the same force and effect as if made on that payment date. A "business day" shall mean any day other than Saturday, Sunday or any day on which banking institutions in New York City in the State of New York are permitted or required by any applicable law to close.

Our obligations with respect to contract adjustment payments will be subordinated and junior in right of payment to our obligations under any senior indebtedness.

OPTION TO DEFER CONTRACT ADJUSTMENT PAYMENTS

We may, at our option and upon prior written notice to the holders of the FELINE PRIDES and the purchase contract agent, defer the payment of contract adjustment payments on the purchase contracts until no later than February 16, 2001. However, deferred contract adjustment payments, if any, will bear additional contract adjustment payments at the rate of 7.5% per year, compounding on each succeeding payment date, until paid. If the purchase contracts are terminated upon the occurrence of specific events of our bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization, the right to receive contract adjustment payments and deferred contract adjustment payments, if any, will also terminate.

If we elect to defer the payment of contract adjustment payments on the purchase contracts until February 16, 2001, you will receive on February 16, 2001, in respect of the deferred contract adjustment payments, instead of a cash payment, a number of shares of our common stock equal to (x) the aggregate amount of deferred contract adjustment payments payable to you divided by (y) the applicable market value.

If we exercise our option to defer the payment of contract adjustment payments, until the deferred contract adjustment payments have been paid, we shall not declare or pay dividends on, make distributions with respect to, or redeem, purchase or acquire, or make a liquidation payment with respect to, any of our capital stock or make guarantee payments with respect to the above-mentioned, other than

- o purchases or acquisitions of our capital stock in connection with the satisfaction of our obligations under any employee or agent benefit plans or under any contract or security outstanding on the date of that event requiring us to purchase our capital stock,
- o as a result of a reclassification of our capital stock or the exchange or conversion of one class or series of our capital stock for another class or series of our capital stock,
- o the purchase of fractional interests in shares of our capital stock pursuant to the conversion or exchange provisions of our capital stock or the security being converted or exchanged,
- o dividends or distributions in our capital stock (or rights to acquire capital stock) or repurchases or redemptions of capital stock solely from the issuance or exchange of capital stock or
- o redemptions or repurchases of any rights outstanding under a shareholder rights plan.

ANTI-DILUTION ADJUSTMENTS

The formula for determining the settlement rate will be subject to adjustment, without duplication, upon the occurrence of events, including:

- (a) the payment of dividends and distributions of our common stock on our common stock;
- (b) the issuance to all holders of our common stock of rights, warrants or options entitling them, for a period of up to 45 days, to subscribe for or purchase our common stock at less than the current market price;
- (c) subdivisions, splits and combinations of our common stock;
- (d) distributions to all holders of our common stock of our evidences of indebtedness, shares of capital stock, securities, cash or property, excluding any dividend or distribution covered by clause (a) or (b) above and any dividend or distribution paid exclusively in cash;
- (e) distributions consisting exclusively of cash to all holders of our common stock in an aggregate amount that, together with
 - o all-cash distributions made within the preceding 12 months and
 - o any cash and the fair market value, as of the expiration of the tender or exchange offer referred to below, of consideration payable in respect of any tender or exchange offer by us or a subsidiary of ours for the common stock concluded within the preceding 12 months, exceeds 15% of our aggregate market capitalization; the aggregate market capitalization being the product of the current market price of the common stock multiplied by the number of shares of common stock then outstanding on the date of that distribution; and
- (f) the successful completion of a tender or exchange offer made by us or any subsidiary of ours for our common stock which involves an aggregate consideration that, together with
 - o any cash and the fair market value of consideration payable in respect of any tender or exchange offer by us or a subsidiary of ours for the common stock concluded within the preceding 12 months and
 - o the aggregate amount of any all-cash distributions to all holders of our common stock made within the preceding 12 months, exceeds 15% of our aggregate market capitalization on the expiration of the tender or exchange offer.

The "current market price" per share of common stock on any day means the average of the daily closing prices for the five consecutive trading days selected by us commencing not more than 30 trading days before, and ending not later than, the earlier of the day in question and the day before the "ex date" with respect to the issuance or distribution requiring that computation. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "ex date," when used with respect to any issuance or distribution, shall mean the first date on which the common stock trades regular way on that exchange or in that market without the right to receive the issuance or distribution.

The new FELINE PRIDES will benefit from additional anti-dilution provisions, providing that if after the distribution date of the rights and prior to the date which is 70 days after the distribution date:

- (a) we issue, undertake, or agree to issue in one or a series of related transactions an aggregate of more than one million shares of our common stock or securities which are or may be convertible into, exchangeable for, or which confer or may confer a right to acquire more than one million shares of our common stock, subject to adjustment for mergers, consolidations, stock splits, recapitalizations, or similar transactions, other than for cash at fair value, as determined in good faith by our board of directors or as consideration for an acquisition of a business or of assets to be used in its business; and
- (b) following the announcement of our intention to issue those shares or other securities, which includes a description of the material terms of that issuance, the average of the closing prices of our common stock on the NYSE for the ten consecutive trading days following the announcement is less than the closing price of the stock on the NYSE on the trading day immediately prior to the announcement, then the settlement rate shall be adjusted further, but using the average as the market value of our common stock for purposes of that calculation.

We will deem these agreements, undertakings or issuances as a material corporate event in determining the timing of any announcements.

In the case of reclassifications, consolidations, mergers, sales or transfers of assets or other transactions in accordance to which our common stock is converted into the right to receive securities, cash or property, each purchase contract then outstanding would, without the consent of the holders of the related Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, become a contract to purchase only the kind and amount of securities, cash and property receivable upon consummation of the transaction by a holder of the number of shares of common stock which would have been received by the holder of the related Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES immediately prior to the date of consummation of that transaction if that holder had then settled that purchase contract.

If at any time (1) we make a distribution of property to our stockholders which would be taxable to those stockholders as a dividend for United States federal income tax purposes, which includes generally distributions of our evidences of indebtedness or assets, but generally not stock dividends or rights to subscribe to capital stock; and, (2) according to the settlement rate adjustment provisions of the purchase contract agreement, the settlement rate is increased, that increase may give rise to a taxable dividend to holders of FELINE PRIDES.

In addition, we may make increases to the settlement rate as our board of directors deems advisable to avoid or diminish any income tax to holders of our capital stock resulting from any dividend, distribution of capital stock, distribution of rights to acquire capital stock or from any event treated similarly for income tax purposes or for any other reasons.

Adjustments to the settlement rate will be calculated to the nearest 1/10,000th of a share. No adjustment in the settlement rate shall be required unless that adjustment would require an increase or decrease of at least one percent in the settlement rate. However, any adjustments which by reason of the above are not required to be made shall be carried forward and taken into account in any subsequent adjustment.

We will be required, within ten business days following the adjustment of the settlement rate, to provide written notice to the purchase contract agent of the occurrence of that event and a statement specifying in reasonable detail the method by which the adjustment to the settlement rate was determined and the revised settlement rate.

Each adjustment to the settlement rate will result in a corresponding adjustment to the number of shares of common stock issuable upon early settlement of a purchase contract.

TERMINATION OF PURCHASE CONTRACTS

The purchase contracts, our related rights and obligations and those of the holders of the FELINE PRIDES, including the right to receive accrued contract adjustment payments or deferred contract adjustment payments and the right and obligation to purchase common stock, will automatically terminate upon the occurrence of particular events of our bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization.

Upon termination, the collateral agent will release the related trust preferred securities or the appropriate applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio and the treasury securities held by it to the purchase contract agent for distribution to the holders. The release will be subject in the case of the treasury portfolio to the purchase contract agent's disposition of the subject securities for cash and the payment of the cash to the holders to the extent that the holders would otherwise have been entitled to receive less than $1,000 of any security. Upon termination, however, the release and distribution may be subject to a delay. If we become the subject of a case under the Bankruptcy Code, a delay may occur as a result of the automatic stay under the Bankruptcy Code and continue until the automatic stay has been lifted. We expect the delay to be limited.

PLEGDED SECURITIES AND PLEDGE AGREEMENT

The trust preferred securities related to the Income PRIDES, or the treasury portfolio if a tax event redemption has occurred prior to February 16, 2001 and the treasury securities related to the Growth PRIDES (collectively, the "pledged securities") will be pledged to the collateral agent, for our benefit. According to the pledge agreement, the pledged securities will secure the obligations of holders of FELINE PRIDES to purchase our common stock under the related purchase contracts. Your rights to the related pledged securities will be subject to our security interest created by the pledge agreement. You will not be permitted to withdraw the pledged securities related to the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES from the pledge arrangement except

- (1) to substitute treasury securities for the related trust preferred securities or the appropriate applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio,
- (2) to substitute trust preferred securities or the appropriate applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio for the related treasury securities, or
- (3) upon the termination or early settlement of the related purchase contracts.

Subject to the security interest and the terms of the purchase contract agreement and the pledge agreement, (1) each holder of Income PRIDES, unless a tax event redemption has occurred, will be entitled through the purchase contract agent and the collateral agent to all of the proportional rights and preferences of the related trust preferred securities, including distribution, voting, redemption, repayment and liquidation rights, and (2) each holder of Growth PRIDES or Income PRIDES, if a tax event redemption has occurred, will retain beneficial ownership of the related treasury securities or the appropriate applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio, pledged in respect of the related purchase contracts. We will have no interest in the pledged securities other than our security interest.

Except as described in "Description of the purchase contracts -- General," the collateral agent will, upon receipt of distributions on the pledged securities, distribute those payments to the purchase contract agent, which will in turn distribute them, together with contract adjustment payments received from us, to the persons in whose names the related Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES are registered at the close of business on the record date immediately preceding the date of the distribution.

BOOK ENTRY-SYSTEM

The Depository Trust Company will act as securities depository for the FELINE PRIDES. The FELINE PRIDES will be issued only as fully-registered securities registered in the name of Cede & Co. (the "depository's nominee"). One or more fully-registered global security certificates, representing the total aggregate number of FELINE PRIDES, will be issued and deposited with the depository and will bear a legend regarding the restrictions on exchanges and registration of transfer referred to below.

The laws of some jurisdictions require that some purchasers of securities take physical delivery of securities in definitive form. Those laws may impair the ability to transfer beneficial interests in the FELINE PRIDES so long as the FELINE PRIDES are represented by global security certificates.

The depository is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a "banking organization" within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code and a "clearing agency" registered pursuant to the provisions of section 17A of the Exchange Act.

The depository holds securities that its participants deposit with the depository. The depository also facilitates the settlement among participants of securities transactions, including transfers and pledges, in deposited securities through electronic computerized book-entry changes in participants' accounts, thus eliminating the need for physical movement of securities certificates. Direct participants include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations and certain other organizations. The depository is owned by a number of its direct participants and by the NYSE, the American Stock Exchange, Inc., and the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("participants"). Access to the depositary system is also available to others, including securities brokers and dealers, banks and trust companies that clear transactions through or maintain a direct or indirect custodial relationship with a direct participant either directly or indirectly ("indirect participants"). The rules applicable to the depositary and its participants are on file with the commission.

No FELINE PRIDES represented by global security certificates may be exchanged in whole or in part for FELINE PRIDES registered, and no transfer of global security certificates in whole or in part may be registered, in the name of any person other than the depositary or any nominee of the depositary, unless, however, the depositary has notified us that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depositary for the global security certificates, has ceased to be qualified to act as required by the purchase contract agreement or there is a continuing default by us in respect of our obligations under one or more purchase contracts. All FELINE PRIDES represented by one or more global security certificates or any portion of them will be registered in those names as the depositary may direct.

As long as the depositary or its nominee is the registered owner of the global security certificates, the depositary or that nominee will be considered the sole owner and holder of the global security certificates and all FELINE PRIDES represented by those certificates for all purposes under the FELINE PRIDES and the purchase contract agreement. Except in the limited circumstances referred to above, owners of beneficial interests in global security certificates will not be entitled to have the global security certificates or the FELINE PRIDES represented by those certificates registered in their names, will not receive or be entitled to receive physical delivery of FELINE PRIDES certificates in exchange and will not be considered to be owners or holders of the global security certificates or any FELINE PRIDES represented by those certificates for any purpose under the FELINE PRIDES or the purchase contract agreement. All payments on the FELINE PRIDES represented by the global security certificates and all related transfers and deliveries of trust preferred securities, treasury portfolio, treasury securities and common stock will be made to the depositary or its nominee as their holder.

Ownership of beneficial interests in the global security certificates will be limited to participants or persons that may hold beneficial interests through institutions that have accounts with the depositary or its nominee. Ownership of beneficial interests in global security certificates will be shown only on, and the transfer of those ownership interests will be effected only through, records maintained by the depositary or its nominee with respect to participants' interests or by the participant with respect to interests of persons held by the participants on their behalf.

Procedures for settlement of purchase contracts on February 16, 2001 or upon early settlement will be governed by arrangements among the depositary, participants and persons that may hold beneficial interests through participants designed to permit the settlement without the physical movement of certificates. Payments, transfers, deliveries, exchanges and other matters relating to beneficial interests in global security certificates may be subject to various policies and procedures adopted by the depositary from time to time.

Neither we or any of our agents, nor the purchase contract agent or any of its agents will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the depositary's or any participant's records relating to, or for payments made on account of, beneficial interests in global security certificates, or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any of the depositary's records or any participant's records relating to those beneficial ownership interests.

The information in this section concerning the depositary and its book-entry system has been obtained from sources that we and the trust believe to be reliable, but neither we nor the trust take responsibility for its accuracy.

PROVISIONS OF THE CONTRACT PURCHASE AGREEMENT AND THE PLEDGE AGREEMENT

OVERVIEW

Distributions on the FELINE PRIDES will be payable, purchase contracts and documents related to it will be settled and transfers of the FELINE PRIDES will be registrable at the office of the purchase contract agent in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York. In addition, in the event that the FELINE PRIDES do not remain in book-entry form, payment of distributions on the FELINE PRIDES may be made, at our option, by check mailed to the address of the person entitled to it as shown on the security register.

Shares of our common stock will be delivered on February 16, 2001 or earlier upon early settlement or, if the purchase contracts have terminated, the related pledged securities will be delivered potentially after a delay as a result of the imposition of the automatic stay under the Bankruptcy Code, in either case upon presentation and surrender of the FELINE PRIDES certificate at the office of the purchase contract agent. We expect any delay to be limited.

If you fail to present and surrender the FELINE PRIDES certificate evidencing the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES to the purchase contract agent on February 16, 2001, the shares of common stock issuable in settlement of the related purchase contract and in payment of any deferred contract adjustment payments will be registered in the name of the purchase contract agent. The shares of common stock, together with any related distributions, shall be held by the purchase contract agent as agent for your benefit, until the FELINE PRIDES certificate is presented and surrendered or you provide satisfactory evidence that the certificate has been destroyed, lost or stolen, together with any indemnity that may be required by the purchase contract agent and us.

If the purchase contracts have terminated prior to February 16, 2001, the related pledged securities have been transferred to the purchase contract agent for distribution to you and you fail to present and surrender the FELINE PRIDES certificate evidencing your Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES to the purchase contract agent, the related pledged securities delivered to the purchase contract agent and related payments shall be held by the purchase contract agent as agent for your benefit, until the FELINE PRIDES certificate is presented or you provide the evidence and indemnity described above.

The purchase contract agent will have no obligation to invest or to pay interest on any amounts held by the purchase contract agent pending distribution.

No service charge will be made for any registration of transfer or exchange of the FELINE PRIDES, except for any related tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed.

MODIFICATION

The purchase contract agreement and the pledge agreement will contain provisions permitting us and the purchase contract agent or collateral agent with the consent of the holders of not less than a majority of the purchase contracts at the time outstanding, to modify the terms of the purchase contracts, the purchase contract agreement and the pledge agreement. If any particular series of FELINE PRIDES are materially and adversely affected, the consent of the majority of that series' holders of contract purchase FELINE PRIDES will be required. However, we, the purchase contract agent or collateral agent may not, without the consent of the holder of each outstanding purchase contract,

- (a) change any payment date,
- (b) change the amount or type of pledged securities related to the purchase contract, impair the right of the holder of any pledged securities to receive distributions on the pledged securities except for the rights of holders of Income PRIDES to substitute treasury securities for the related trust preferred securities or treasury portfolio or the rights of holders of Growth PRIDES to substitute trust preferred securities or treasury portfolio for the related treasury securities or otherwise adversely affect the holder's rights in or to those pledged securities,
- (c) change the place or currency of payment or reduce any contract adjustment payments or any deferred contract adjustment payments,
- (d) impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of the purchase contract,
- (e) reduce the amount of common stock purchasable under the purchase contract, increase the price to purchase common stock on settlement of the purchase contract, change the purchase contract settlement date or otherwise adversely affect the holder's rights under the purchase contract or
- (f) reduce the above-stated percentage of outstanding purchase contracts the consent of whose holders is required for the modification or amendment of the provisions of the purchase contracts, the purchase contract agreement or the pledge agreement. However, if any amendment or proposal referred to above would adversely affect only the Income PRIDES or the Growth PRIDES, then only the affected class of holder will be entitled to vote on that amendment or proposal and that amendment or proposal shall not be effective except with the consent of the holders of not less than a majority of that class.

NO CONSENT TO ASSUMPTION

You, by your acceptance of the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, will, under the terms of the purchase contract agreement and the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, be deemed expressly to have withheld any consent to the assumption, i.e., affirmance, of the related purchase contracts by us or our trustee if we become the subject of a case under the Bankruptcy Code.

CONSOLIDATION, MERGER, SALE OR CONVEYANCE

We will covenant in the purchase contract agreement that we will not merge or consolidate with any entity or sell, assign, transfer, lease or convey all or substantially all of our properties and assets to any person, firm or corporation unless we are the continuing corporation or the successor corporation is a corporation organized under the laws of the United States of America or one of its states and that corporation expressly assumes our obligations under the purchase contracts, the debentures, the purchase contract agreement and the pledge agreement, and we or the successor corporation is not, immediately after such merger, consolidation, sale, assignment, transfer, lease or conveyance, in default in the performance of any of these obligations.

TITLE

We, the purchase contract agent and the collateral agent may treat the registered owner of any FELINE PRIDES as its absolute owner for the purpose of making payment and settling the related purchase contracts and for all other purposes.

REPLACEMENT OF FELINE PRIDES CERTIFICATES

In the case that physical certificates have been issued, we will replace any mutilated FELINE PRIDES certificate at the expense of the holder upon surrender of that certificate to the purchase contract agent. We will replace any FELINE PRIDES certificates that become destroyed, lost or stolen at the expense of the holder upon delivery to us and the purchase contract agent of satisfactory evidence of its destruction, loss or theft. In the case of a destroyed, lost or stolen FELINE PRIDES certificate, an indemnity satisfactory to the purchase contract agent and us may be required at the expense of the holder of the FELINE PRIDES evidenced by that certificate before a replacement will be issued.

Notwithstanding the above, we will not be obligated to issue any Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES on or after February 16, 2001, after early settlement or after the purchase contracts have terminated. The purchase contract agreement will provide that, in place of the delivery of a replacement FELINE PRIDES certificate following February 16, 2001, the purchase contract agent, upon delivery of the evidence and indemnity described above, will deliver the common stock issuable pursuant to the purchase contracts included in the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES evidenced by that certificate. If the purchase contracts have terminated prior to February 16, 2001, the purchase contract agent will transfer the principal amount of the pledged securities included in the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES evidenced by that certificate.

GOVERNING LAW

The purchase contract agreement, the pledge agreement and the purchase contracts will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE PURCHASE CONTRACT AGENT

Bank One Trust Company, N.A. will be the purchase contract agent. The purchase contract agent will act as your agent from time to time. The purchase contract agreement will not obligate the purchase contract agent to exercise any discretionary actions in connection with a default under the terms of the Income PRIDES and Growth PRIDES or the purchase contract agreement.

The purchase contract will contain provisions limiting the liability of the purchase contract agent. The purchase contract agreement will contain provisions under which the purchase contract agent may resign or be replaced. That resignation or replacement would be effective upon the appointment of a successor.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE COLLATERAL AGENT

The Chase Manhattan Bank will be the collateral agent. The collateral agent will act solely as our agent and will not assume any obligation or relationship of agency or trust for or with you except for the obligations owed by a pledgee of property to the owner under the pledge agreement and applicable law.

The pledge agreement will contain provisions limiting the liability of the collateral agent. The pledge agreement will contain provisions under which the collateral agent may resign or be replaced. That resignation or replacement would be effective upon the appointment of a successor.

The Chase Manhattan Bank maintains commercial banking relationships with us.

MISCELLANEOUS

The purchase contract agreement will provide that we will pay all fees and expenses related to

- (1) the offering of the FELINE PRIDES,
- (2) the retention of the collateral agent and
- (3) the enforcement by the purchase contract agent of the rights of the holders of the FELINE PRIDES.

Should you elect to substitute the related pledged securities, creating Growth PRIDES or Income PRIDES or recreating Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, you shall be responsible for any fees or expenses payable in connection with that substitution, as well as any commissions, fees or other expenses incurred in acquiring the pledged securities to be substituted, and we shall not be responsible for any of those fees or expenses.

The trust preferred securities will be issued according to the terms of the applicable declaration. References to the "trust preferred securities" mean the trust preferred securities issued by any of Cendant Capital I, Cendant Capital II, Cendant Capital III, Cendant Capital IV or Cendant Capital V, as the context requires. References to "the declaration" shall be to any of the declarations governing the terms of the trust preferred securities issued by Cendant Capital I, Cendant Capital II, Cendant Capital III, Cendant Capital IV or Cendant Capital V, as the context requires. This declaration will be qualified as an indenture under the Trust Indenture Act. The institutional trustee, Wilmington Trust Company, an independent trustee, will act as indenture trustee for the trust preferred securities under the declaration for purposes of compliance with the provisions of the Trust Indenture Act. The terms of the trust preferred securities will include those stated in such declaration and those made part of such declaration by the Trust Indenture Act. The following summary of provisions of the trust preferred securities and the applicable declaration is not necessarily complete, and reference is made to the copy of the form declaration, including the definitions, which is filed as an exhibit to the registration statement relating to this prospectus, the Trust Act and the Trust Indenture Act. Whenever particular defined terms are referred to in this prospectus, those defined terms are incorporated in this prospectus by reference.

OVERVIEW

The declaration authorizes the regular trustees to issue on behalf of the trust the trust securities, which represent undivided beneficial ownership interests in the assets of the trust. We will own directly or indirectly all of the common securities. The common securities rank on a parity, and related payments will be made on a proportionate basis, with the trust preferred securities. However, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an indenture event of default, the rights of the holders of the common securities to receive payment of periodic distributions and payments upon liquidation, redemption and otherwise will be subordinated to the rights of the holders of the trust preferred securities. The declaration does not permit the issuance by the trust of any securities other than the trust securities or the incurrence of any indebtedness by the trust.

Under the declaration, the institutional trustee will own the debentures purchased by the trust for the benefit of the holders of the trust securities. The payment of distributions out of money held by the trust, and payments upon redemption of the trust preferred securities or liquidation of the trust, are guaranteed by us to the extent described under "description of the guarantee." The guarantee, when taken together with our obligations under the debentures and the indenture and our obligations under the declaration, including the obligations to pay costs, expenses, debts and liabilities of the trust other than with respect to the trust preferred securities, provides a full and unconditional guarantee of amounts due on the trust preferred securities. Wilmington Trust Company, the guarantee trustee, will hold the guarantee for the benefit of the holders of the trust preferred securities. The guarantee does not cover payment of distributions when the trust does not have sufficient available funds to pay those distributions. In that case, except in the limited circumstances in which the holder may take direct action, the remedy of a holder of trust preferred securities is to vote to direct the institutional trustee to enforce the institutional trustee's rights under the debentures.

DISTRIBUTIONS

Distributions on the trust preferred securities will be fixed initially at a rate per year of 6.45% of the stated liquidation amount of $50 per trust preferred security. Distributions applicable on the trust preferred securities that remain outstanding on and after February 16, 2001 will be reset on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001. Distributions in arrears for more than one quarter will bear interest at the rate of 6.45% per year through and including February 15, 2001 and at the reset rate afterwards, compounded quarterly. The term "distribution" as used here includes any interest payable unless otherwise stated. The amount of distributions payable for any period will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months.

Distributions on the trust preferred securities will be cumulative and will accrue from and will be payable quarterly in arrears on February 16, May 16, August 16, and November 16 of each year, commencing , when, as and if funds are available for payment. Distributions will be made by the institutional trustee, except as otherwise described below.

We have the right under the indenture to defer payments of interest on the debentures by extending the interest payment period. If we exercise the right, quarterly distributions on the trust preferred securities would be deferred during the interest payment period. However, those distributions would continue to accrue with interest at the rate of 6.45% per year through and including February 15, 2001, and at the reset rate afterwards. The right to extend the interest payment period for the debentures is limited to a period, in the aggregate, not extending beyond February 16, 2003. If we exercise this right, then

- (a) we shall not declare or pay dividends on, make distributions with respect to, or redeem, purchase or acquire, or make a liquidation payment with respect to, any of our capital stock, other than

- o purchases or acquisitions of our capital stock in connection with the satisfaction of our obligations under any employee or agent benefit plans or under any contract or security outstanding on the date of that event requiring us to purchase our capital stock,
 - o as a result of a reclassification of our capital stock or the exchange or conversion of one class or series of our capital stock for another class or series of our capital stock,
 - o the purchase of fractional interests in shares of our capital stock pursuant to the conversion or exchange provisions of our capital stock or the security being converted or exchanged,
 - o dividends or distributions in our capital stock (or rights to acquire capital stock) or repurchases or redemptions of capital stock solely from the issuance or exchange of capital stock or
 - o redemptions or repurchases of any rights outstanding under a shareholder rights plan.
- (b) We shall not make any payment of interest, principal or premium, if any, on or repay, repurchase or redeem any debt securities issued by us that rank junior to those debentures, and
- (c) We shall not make any guarantee payments with respect to the above other than according to the guarantee or the common securities guarantee.

Prior to the termination of any extension period, we may further extend the interest payment period. However, the extension period, together with all previous and further extensions, may not extend beyond February 16, 2003. Upon the termination of any extension period and the payment of all amounts then due, we may select a new extension period, subject to the above requirements. If distributions are deferred, the deferred distributions and accrued interest shall be paid to holders of record of the trust preferred securities as they appear on the books and records of the trust on the record date next following the termination of that extension period.

The trust must pay distributions on the trust preferred securities on the dates payable to the extent that it has funds available in the property account for the payment of those distributions. The trust's funds available for distribution to you as a holder of the trust preferred securities will be limited to payments received from us on the debentures. We guarantee the payment of distributions out of moneys held by the trust to the extent specified under "Description of the guarantee."

Distributions on the trust preferred securities will be payable to holders, including the collateral agent, as they appear on the books and records of the trust on the relevant record dates. As long as the trust preferred securities remain in book-entry only form, the record dates will be one business day prior to the relevant payment dates. Distributions will be paid through the institutional trustee, who will hold amounts received in respect of the debentures in the property account for your benefit. Subject to any applicable laws and regulations and the provisions of the declaration, each payment will be made as described under "--Book-Entry Only Issuance -- The Depository Trust Company" below. With respect to trust preferred securities not in book-entry form, the regular trustees shall have the right to select relevant record dates, which shall be more than one business day but less than 60 business days prior to the relevant payment dates.

If any date on which distributions on the trust preferred securities are to be made is not a business day, payment of the distributions payable on that date will be made on the next succeeding day that is a business day, without any interest or other payment in respect of any delay, but if that business day is in the next succeeding calendar year, the payment shall be made on the immediately preceding business day, in each case with the same force and effect as if made on that record date.

MARKET RATE RESET

The applicable quarterly distribution rate on the trust preferred securities and the interest rate on the related debentures that remain outstanding on and after February 16, 2001 will be reset on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001 to the reset rate.

The reset rate will be equal to the sum of the reset spread and the rate on the two-year benchmark treasury in effect on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001 and will be determined by the reset agent as the rate the trust preferred securities should bear for a trust preferred security to have an approximate market value on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001 of 100.5% of $50. However, we may limit the reset rate to be no higher than the rate on the two-year benchmark treasury on February 16, 2001 plus 200 basis points (2%). The market value of the trust preferred securities may be less than 100.5% if the reset spread is limited to a maximum of 2%.

The "two-year benchmark treasury" shall mean direct obligations of the United States, which may be obligations traded on a when-issued basis only, having a maturity comparable to the remaining term to maturity of the trust preferred securities, as agreed upon by us and the reset agent. The rate for the two-year benchmark treasury will be the bid side rate displayed at 10:00 A.M., New York City time, on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001 in the Telerate system. If the Telerate system is (a) no longer available on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001 or (b) in the opinion of the reset agent, after consultation with us, no longer an appropriate system from which to obtain that rate, another nationally recognized quotation system as, in the opinion of the reset agent, after consultation with the us, is appropriate. If that rate is not so displayed, the rate for the two-year benchmark treasury shall be, as calculated by the reset agent, the yield to maturity for the two-year benchmark treasury, expressed as a bond equivalent on the basis of a year of 365 or 366 days, and applied on a daily basis. It shall be computed by taking the arithmetic mean of the secondary market bid rates, as of 10:30 A.M., New York City time, on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, of three leading United States government securities dealers selected by the reset agent, after consultation with us. These dealers may include the reset agent or its affiliate.

We currently anticipate that Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Incorporated will be the investment banking firm acting as the reset agent.

On the tenth business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, the two-year benchmark treasury to be used to determine the reset rate on February 16, 2001 will be selected. On that date, the reset agent will establish the reset spread to be added to the rate on the two-year benchmark treasury in effect on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, and we will announce the reset spread and the Two-year benchmark treasury. We will cause a notice of the reset spread and the two-year benchmark treasury to be published on the business day following the reset announcement date by publication in a daily newspaper in the English language of general circulation in The City of New York, which is expected to be The Wall Street Journal. We will request, not later than ten nor more than 15 calendar days prior to the reset announcement date, that the depository notify its participants holding trust preferred securities, Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES of the reset announcement date and of the procedures that must be followed if any owner of FELINE PRIDES wants to settle the related purchase contract with cash on the business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001.

OPTIONAL REMARKETING

Under the remarketing agreement and subject to the terms of the remarketing underwriting agreement, on or prior to the fifth business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, but no earlier than the payment date immediately preceding February 16, 2001, holders of trust preferred securities which are not components of Income PRIDES may elect to have their trust preferred securities remarketed by delivering their trust preferred securities along with a notice of such election to the custodial agent. The custodial agent will hold these trust preferred securities in an account separate from the collateral account in which the pledged securities will be held. Holders of trust preferred securities electing to have their trust preferred securities remarketed will also have the right to withdraw that election on or prior to the fifth business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001.

On the fourth business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001, the custodial agent will deliver these separate trust preferred securities to the remarketing agent for remarketing. The remarketing agent will use its reasonable efforts to remarket these trust preferred securities on that date at a price of approximately 100.5% of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of these trust preferred securities, plus accrued and related unpaid distributions, including any deferred distributions. The portion of the proceeds from that remarketing equal to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of these trust preferred securities will automatically be remitted by the remarketing agent to the custodial agent for the benefit of the holders of these trust preferred securities. In addition, after deducting as the remarketing fee an amount not exceeding 25 basis points (.25%) of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the remarketed securities from any amount of those proceeds in excess of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the remarketed trust preferred securities plus any accrued and unpaid distributions, including any deferred distributions, the remarketing agent will remit to the custodial agent any remaining portion of the proceeds for the benefit of that holder.

If, despite using its reasonable efforts, the remarketing agent cannot remarket the related trust preferred securities of these holders at a price not less than 100% of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the trust preferred securities plus accrued and unpaid distributions, including any deferred distributions and thus, resulting in a failed remarketing. The custodial agent will promptly return these trust preferred securities to the custodial agent to release to these holders. We will cause a notice of the failed remarketing to be published on the second business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001 by publication in a daily newspaper in the English language of general circulation in the city of New York, which is expected to be The Wall Street Journal. In addition, we will request, not later than ten nor more than 15 calendar days prior to the remarketing date, that the depository notify its participants holding trust preferred securities, Income PRIDES and Growth PRIDES of the remarketing and of the procedures that must be followed if a trust preferred security holder wishes to exercise its right to put its trust preferred security to us. We will endeavor to ensure that a registration statement with regard to the full amount of the trust preferred securities to be remarketed shall be effective in a form as will enable the remarketing agent to rely on it in connection with the remarketing process. We currently anticipate that Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith

Incorporated will be the remarketing agent.

OPTIONAL REDEMPTION

The debentures are redeemable at our option, in whole but not in part, on not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days notice, upon the occurrence and continuation of a tax event under the circumstances described under "Description of the debentures -- tax event redemption." If we redeem the debentures upon the occurrence and continuation of a tax event, the proceeds from that repayment shall simultaneously be applied on a proportionate basis to redeem trust preferred securities having an aggregate stated liquidation amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of the debentures so redeemed at a redemption price, per trust preferred security, equal to the redemption amount plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of that redemption. Those proceeds will be payable in cash to the holders of the trust preferred securities. If a tax event redemption occurs prior to February 16, 2001, the redemption price payable to the collateral agent, in liquidation of the Income PRIDES holders' interests in the trust, will be simultaneously applied by the collateral agent to purchase the treasury portfolio on behalf of the holders' of the Income PRIDES. The treasury portfolio will be pledged with the collateral agent to secure the obligation of Income PRIDES holders' to purchase common stock under the related purchase contracts.

If a failed remarketing has occurred, holders of trust securities and holders of debentures following the distribution of the debentures upon a dissolution of the trust, after February 16, 2001, will have the right,

- o in the case of trust securities, to require the trust to put to us the related debentures, or
- o in the case of the debentures, to put the debentures directly to us on March 2, 2001, upon at least three business days' prior notice, at a price per debenture equal to $50, plus accrued and unpaid interest, including any deferred interest.

Upon our repurchase of those debentures from the trust

- o the proceeds from the repurchase shall simultaneously be applied, in the case of the trust securities, to redeem the trust securities of the holder in an aggregate stated liquidation amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of the debentures so repurchased and
- o any accrued and unpaid distributions, including any deferred distributions, with respect to those trust securities will be paid to such holder in cash.

REDEMPTION PROCEDURES

If the trust gives a notice of redemption, which will be irrevocable, in respect of all of the trust preferred securities, then, by 12:00 noon, New York City time, on the redemption date, the trust will irrevocably deposit with the depository, the purchase contract agent or the collateral agent, as applicable, funds sufficient to pay the redemption price, but only if we have paid to the institutional trustee sufficient amount of cash in connection with the related redemption or maturity of the debentures. The trust will give the depository, the purchase contract agent or the collateral agent irrevocable instructions and authority to pay the redemption price to the holders of the trust preferred securities called for redemption.

If notice of redemption has been given and funds deposited as required, then, immediately prior to the close of business on the date of the deposit, distributions will cease to accrue and all rights of holders of those trust preferred securities called for redemption will cease, except for the right of the holders of those trust preferred securities to receive the redemption price without interest on the redemption price.

If any date fixed for redemption of trust preferred securities is not a business day, then payment of the redemption price payable on that date will be made on the next succeeding day that is a business day, without any interest or other payment in respect of any delay, except that if the business day falls in the next calendar year, the payment will be made on the immediately preceding business day.

DISTRIBUTION OF THE DEBENTURES

"Investment company event" means that the regular trustees have received an opinion from independent counsel experienced in practice under the 1940 Act that, as a result of the occurrence of a change in law or regulation or a written change in interpretation or application of law or regulation by any legislative body, court, governmental agency or regulatory authority, which change in 1940 Act law becomes effective on or after the date of this prospectus, there is more than an insubstantial risk that the trust is or will be considered an "investment company" that is required to be registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "1940 Act").

If, at any time, an investment company event shall occur and be continuing, the trust shall be dissolved. As a result, debentures with an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of, with an interest rate identical to the distribution rate of, and accrued and unpaid interest equal to accrued and unpaid distributions on, the trust securities would be distributed to the holders of the trust securities in liquidation of the holders' interests in the trust on a proportionate basis within 90 days following the occurrence of the investment company event. However, the dissolution and distribution shall be conditioned on us being unable to avoid the investment company event within a 90-day period either by taking some ministerial action or by pursuing some other similar reasonable measure that will have no adverse effect on the trust, us or the holders of the trust securities and will involve no material cost. If an investment company event occurs, debentures distributed to the collateral agent in liquidation of holders' interests in the trust would be pledged, in place of the trust preferred securities, to secure Income PRIDES holders' obligations to purchase common stock under the purchase contracts.

We will have the right at any time to dissolve the trust and, after satisfaction of liabilities of creditors of the trust as provided by applicable law, to cause the debentures to be distributed to the holders of the trust securities. As of the date of any distribution of debentures upon dissolution of the trust,

- o the trust preferred securities will no longer be deemed to be outstanding,
- o the depositary or its nominee, as the record holder of the trust preferred securities, will receive a registered global certificate or certificates representing the debentures to be delivered upon the distribution, and
- o any certificates representing trust preferred securities not held by the depositary or its nominee will be deemed to represent debentures having an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of, with an interest rate identical to the distribution rate of, and accrued and unpaid interest equal to accrued and unpaid distributions on, those trust preferred securities until the certificates are presented to us or our agent for transfer or reissuance.

Debentures distributed to the collateral agent in liquidation of the interest of the holders of the trust preferred securities in the trust would be substituted for the trust preferred securities and pledged to secure Income PRIDES holders' obligations to purchase our common stock under the purchase contracts.

We cannot predict the market prices for either the trust preferred securities or the debentures that may be distributed in exchange for the trust preferred securities if a dissolution of the trust were to occur. Accordingly, the trust preferred securities or the debentures that an investor may receive if a dissolution of the trust were to occur may trade at a discount to the price that the investor paid to purchase the trust preferred securities forming a part of the Income PRIDES offered here.

LIQUIDATION DISTRIBUTION UPON DISSOLUTION

In case of a voluntary or involuntary dissolution of the trust, unless a tax event redemption has occurred, the then holders of the trust preferred securities will be entitled to receive out of the assets of the trust, after satisfaction of liabilities to creditors, debentures in an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of, with an interest rate identical to the distribution rate of, and accrued and unpaid interest equal to accrued and unpaid distributions on, the trust preferred securities on a proportionate basis in exchange for those trust preferred securities.

The holders of the common securities will be entitled to receive distributions upon any such dissolution proportionately with the holders of the trust preferred securities. However, if a declaration event of default has occurred and is continuing, the trust preferred securities shall have a preference over the common securities with regard to those distributions.

Under the declaration, the trust shall dissolve

- (1) upon the expiration of the term of the trust,
- (2) upon our bankruptcy or the bankruptcy of the holder of the common securities,
- (3) upon our filing of a certificate of dissolution or its equivalent or the revocation of our charter and the expiration of 90 days after the date of revocation without its reinstatement,
- (4) after the receipt by the institutional trustee of written direction from us to dissolve the trust or the filing of a certificate of dissolution or its equivalent with respect to the trust,
- (5) upon the distribution of debentures,
- (6) upon the occurrence and continuation of a tax event redemption or
- (7) upon the entry of a decree of a judicial dissolution of the holder of the common securities, us or the trust.

DECLARATION EVENTS OF DEFAULT

An event of default under the indenture constitutes an event of default under the declaration with respect to the trust securities.

However, under the declaration, the holder of the common securities will be deemed to have waived any declaration event of default with respect to the common securities until all declaration events of default with respect to the trust preferred securities have been cured, waived or otherwise eliminated. Until any declaration events of default with respect to the trust preferred securities have been so cured, waived or otherwise eliminated, the institutional trustee will be deemed to be acting solely on behalf of the holders of the trust preferred securities. Only the holders of the trust preferred securities will have the right to direct the institutional trustee with respect to particular matters under the declaration and, therefore, the indenture. If a declaration event of default with respect to the trust preferred securities is waived by holders of trust preferred securities, the waiver will also constitute the waiver of the declaration event of default with respect to the common securities without any further act, vote or consent of the holders of the common securities.

If the institutional trustee fails to enforce its rights under the debentures in respect of an indenture event of default after a holder of record of trust preferred securities has made a written request, that holder of record of trust preferred securities may, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, institute a legal proceeding against us to enforce the institutional trustee's rights under the debentures without first proceeding against the institutional trustee or any other person or entity. Notwithstanding the above, if a declaration event of default has occurred and is continuing and that event is attributable to our failure to pay interest or principal on the debentures on the date that interest or principal is otherwise payable, after giving effect to any right of deferral, then you, as a holder of trust preferred securities, may directly institute a proceeding after the respective due date specified in the debentures for enforcement of payment (a "direct action") to you directly of the principal of or interest on the debentures having a principal amount equal to the aggregate liquidation amount of your trust preferred securities. In connection with the direct action, we shall have the right under the indenture to set off any payment made to you. The holders of trust preferred securities will not be able to exercise directly any other remedy available to the holders of the debentures.

Upon the occurrence of a declaration event of default, the institutional trustee, as the sole holder of the debentures, will have the right under the indenture to declare the principal of and interest on the debentures to be immediately due and payable. We and the trust are each required to file annually with the institutional trustee an officer's certificate as to our compliance with all conditions and covenants under the declaration.

VOTING RIGHTS

Except as described here, under the Trust Act and the Trust Indenture Act and under "Description of the Guarantee -- Modification of the Guarantee; Assignment," and as otherwise required by law and the declaration, the holders of the trust preferred securities will have no voting rights.

Subject to the requirement of the institutional trustee obtaining a tax opinion in specific circumstances provided below, the holders of a majority in aggregate stated liquidation amount of the trust preferred securities have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the institutional trustee, or direct the exercise of any trust or power conferred upon the institutional trustee under the declaration, including the right to direct the institutional trustee, as holder of the debentures, to

- (1) exercise the remedies available under the indenture with respect to the debentures,
- (2) waive any past indenture event of default that is waivable under the indenture,
- (3) exercise any right to rescind or annul a declaration that the principal of all the debentures shall be due and payable or
- (4) consent to any amendment, modification or termination of the indenture or the debentures where that consent shall be required. However, where a consent or action under the indenture would require the consent or act of holders of more than a majority in principal amount of the affected debentures (a "super-majority"), only the holders of at least the super-majority in aggregate stated liquidation amount of the trust preferred securities may direct the institutional trustee to give the consent or take the action.

The institutional trustee shall notify all holders of the trust preferred securities of any notice of default received from the debt trustee with respect to the debentures. The notice shall state that the indenture event of default also constitutes a declaration event of default. Except with respect to directing the time, method and place of conducting a proceeding for a remedy, the institutional trustee shall not take any of the actions described in clauses (1), (2) or (3) above unless the institutional trustee has obtained an opinion of tax counsel experienced in those matters that, as a result of the action, the trust will not fail to be classified as a grantor trust for United States federal income tax purposes.

If the consent of the institutional trustee, as the holder of the debentures, is required under the indenture with respect to any amendment, modification or termination of the indenture or the debentures, the institutional trustee shall request the direction of the holders of the trust preferred securities and the common securities with respect to that amendment, modification or termination. The indenture trustee shall vote with respect to that amendment, modification or termination as directed by a majority in stated liquidation amount of the trust preferred securities and the common securities voting together as a single class. However, where a consent under the indenture would require the consent of a super-majority, the institutional trustee may only give that consent at the direction of the holders of at least the proportion in stated liquidation amount of the trust preferred securities and the common securities which the relevant super-majority represents of the aggregate principal amount of the debentures outstanding. The institutional trustee shall not take any action in accordance with the directions of the holders of the trust preferred securities and the common securities unless the institutional trustee has obtained an opinion of tax counsel experienced in those matters that, as a result of the action, the trust will not fail to be classified as a grantor trust for United States federal income tax purposes.

A waiver of an indenture event of default will constitute a waiver of the corresponding declaration event of default.

Any required approval or direction of holders of trust preferred securities may be given at a separate meeting of holders of trust preferred securities convened for that purpose, at a meeting of all of the holders of trust securities or according to written consent. The regular trustees will cause a notice of any meeting at which holders of trust preferred securities are entitled to vote, or of any matter upon which action by written consent of those holders is to be taken, to be mailed to each holder of record of trust preferred securities. Each notice will include a statement specifying the following information:

- o the date of the meeting or the date by which the action is to be taken;
- o a description of any resolution proposed for adoption at the meeting on which the holders are entitled to vote or of the matter upon which written consent is sought; and
- o instructions for the delivery of proxies or consents.

No vote or consent of the holders of trust preferred securities will be required for the trust to cancel trust preferred securities or distribute debentures in accordance with the declaration.

Notwithstanding that holders of trust preferred securities are entitled to vote or consent under any of the circumstances described above, any trust preferred securities that are owned at that time by us or any entity directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by, or under direct or indirect common control with, us, shall not be entitled to vote or consent and shall, for purposes of such vote or consent, be treated as if those trust preferred securities were not outstanding.

The procedures by which holders of trust preferred securities may exercise their voting rights are described below.

Holders of the trust preferred securities will have no rights to appoint or remove the trustees, who may be appointed, removed or replaced solely by us as the indirect or direct holder of all of the common securities.

MODIFICATION OF THE DECLARATION

The declaration may be modified and amended if approved by the regular trustees and, in some circumstances, the institutional trustee or the Delaware trustee. However, if any proposed amendment provides for, or the regular trustees otherwise propose to effect,

- (1) any action that would adversely affect the powers, preferences or special rights of the trust securities, whether by way of amendment to the declaration or otherwise or
- (2) the dissolution of the trust other than according to the terms of the declaration, then the holders of the trust securities voting together as a single class will be entitled to vote on that amendment or proposal, and that amendment or proposal shall not be effective except with the approval of at least a majority in such stated liquidation amount of the affected trust securities. If any amendment or proposal referred to in clause (1) above would adversely affect only the trust preferred securities or the common securities, then only the affected class will be entitled to vote on that amendment or proposal and that amendment or proposal shall not be effective except with the approval of a majority in stated liquidation amount of that class of securities. In addition, the declaration may be amended without the consent of the holders of the trust securities to, among other things, cause the trust to continue to be classified as a grantor trust for United States federal income tax purposes.

Notwithstanding the above, no amendment or modification may be made to the declaration if that amendment or modification would

- (1) cause the trust to be classified as other than a grantor trust for United States federal income tax purposes,

- (2) reduce or otherwise adversely affect the powers of the institutional trustee or
- (3) cause the trust to be deemed an "investment company" which is required to be registered under the 1940 Act.

MERGERS, CONSOLIDATIONS OR AMALGAMATIONS

The trust may not consolidate, amalgamate, merge with or into, or be replaced by, or convey, transfer or lease its properties and assets substantially as an entirety, to any corporation or other body, except as described below or as described in "Liquidation Distribution Upon Dissolution".

The trust may, with the consent of the regular trustees and without the consent of the holders of the trust securities, consolidate, amalgamate, merge with or into, or be replaced by a trust organized as under the laws of any state except that

- (1) if the trust is not the surviving entity, the successor entity either (x) expressly assumes all of the obligations of the trust under the trust securities or (y) substitutes for the trust securities other securities having substantially the same terms as the trust securities (the "successor securities"). The successor securities must rank the same as the trust securities with respect to distributions and payments upon liquidation, redemption and otherwise,
- (2) we expressly acknowledge a trustee of the successor entity possessing the same powers and duties as the institutional trustee as the holder of the debentures,
- (3) if the trust preferred securities are listed, any successor securities will be listed upon notification of issuance, on any national securities exchange or with another organization on which the trust preferred securities are then listed or quoted,
- (4) the merger, consolidation, amalgamation or replacement does not cause the trust preferred securities, including any successor securities, to be downgraded by any nationally recognized statistical rating organization,
- (5) the merger, consolidation, amalgamation or replacement does not adversely affect the rights, preferences and privileges of the holders of the trust securities, including any successor securities, in any material respect other than with respect to any dilution of the holders' interest in the new entity,
- (6) the successor entity has a purpose substantially identical to that of the trust,
- (7) prior to the merger, consolidation, amalgamation or replacement, we have received an opinion of a nationally recognized independent counsel to the trust experienced in those matters that,
 - o the merger, consolidation, amalgamation or replacement does not adversely affect the rights, preferences and privileges of the holders of the trust securities, including any successor securities, in any material respect other than with respect to any dilution of the holders' interest in the new entity,
 - o following the merger, consolidation, amalgamation or replacement, neither the trust nor the successor entity will be required to register as an investment company under the 1940 Act and
 - o following the merger, consolidation, amalgamation or replacement, the trust or the successor entity will continue to be classified as a grantor trust for United States federal income tax purposes, and
- (8) we guarantee the obligations of the successor entity under the successor securities at least to the extent provided by the guarantee and the common securities guarantee.

Notwithstanding the above, the trust shall not, except with the consent of holders of 100% in stated liquidation amount of the trust securities, consolidate, amalgamate, merge with or into, or be replaced by any other entity or permit any other entity to consolidate, amalgamate, merge with or into, or replace it, if that consolidation, amalgamation, merger or replacement would cause the trust or the successor entity to be classified as other than a grantor trust for United States federal income tax purposes.

MERGER OF TRUSTS

Upon the issuance, if any, of the additional Income PRIDES, Cendant Capital I shall merge with and into Cendant Capital II. Thereafter, each current Income PRIDES, additional Income PRIDES and new Income PRIDES will consist of a purchase contract and a trust preferred security of Cendant

Capital II. In addition, upon each issuance of special Income PRIDES, the trust issuing the trust preferred securities prior to such issuance shall be merged with and into one of the trusts which prior to such time shall not have issued any securities (a "newly issuing trust"), and the trust preferred securities forming a part of the current Income PRIDES, additional Income PRIDES and new Income PRIDES will be issued by such newly issuing trust. The terms of the trust preferred securities issued by each of the trusts will have terms substantially identical to each other. The aggregate liquidation amount of trust preferred securities issued by any trust will equal the sum of the aggregate liquidation amount of trust preferred securities issued by the trust being merged with and into such trust plus the aggregate liquidation amount of trust preferred securities being simultaneously issued by such trusts. The aggregate principal amount of debentures held by any trust will equal the sum of the aggregate principal amount of debentures held by the trust being merged with and into such trust plus the aggregate principal amount of debentures being simultaneously issued by Cendant to such trust in connection with the issuance of additional Income PRIDES or special Income PRIDES.

BOOK-ENTRY ONLY ISSUANCE -- THE DEPOSITORY TRUST COMPANY

If the trust preferred securities are issued as one or more fully-registered global trust preferred securities certificates representing the total aggregate number of trust preferred securities, the depository will act as securities depository for any trust preferred securities that are held separately from the Income PRIDES. In that case, the trust preferred securities will be issued only as fully-registered securities registered in the name of Cede & Co., the depository's nominee. However, under some circumstances, the regular trustees with our consent may decide not to use the system of book-entry transfers through the DTC with respect to the trust preferred securities. In that case, certificates of the trust preferred securities will be printed and delivered to the holders.

The laws of some jurisdictions require that some purchasers of securities take physical delivery of securities in definitive form. These laws may impair the ability to transfer beneficial interests in the global trust preferred securities as represented by a global certificate.

Purchases of trust preferred securities within the depository's system must be made by or through direct participants, which will receive a credit for the trust preferred securities on the depository's records. The beneficial ownership interest of each actual purchaser of each trust preferred security is in turn to be recorded on the direct and indirect participants' records. Beneficial owners will not receive written confirmation from the depository of their purchases, but beneficial owners are expected to receive written confirmations providing details of the transaction, as well as periodic statements of their holdings, from the direct or indirect participants through which the beneficial owners purchased trust preferred securities. Transfers of ownership interests in the trust preferred securities are to be accomplished by entries made on the books of participants acting on behalf of beneficial owners. Beneficial owners will not receive certificates representing their ownership interests in the trust preferred securities, except if use of the book-entry system for the trust preferred securities is discontinued.

To facilitate subsequent transfers, all the trust preferred securities deposited by participants with the depository will be registered in the name of the depository's nominee, Cede & Co. The deposit of trust preferred securities with the depository and their registration in the name of Cede & Co. cause no change in beneficial ownership. The depository has no knowledge of the actual beneficial owners of the trust preferred securities. The depository's records reflect only the identity of the direct participants to whose accounts those trust preferred securities are credited, which may or may not be the beneficial owners. The participants will remain responsible for keeping account of their holdings on behalf of their customers.

So long as the depository or its nominee is the registered owner or holder of a global certificate, the depository or the nominee will be considered the sole owner or holder of the trust preferred securities represented for all purposes under the declaration and the trust preferred securities. No beneficial owner of an interest in a global certificate will be able to transfer that interest except in accordance with the depository applicable procedures, in addition to those provided for under the declaration.

The depository has advised us that it will take any action permitted to be taken by a holder of trust preferred securities, including the presentation of trust preferred securities for exchange, only at the direction of one or more participants to whose account the depository's interests in the global certificates are credited and only in respect of the portion of the stated liquidation amount of trust preferred securities as to which such participant or participants has or have given such directions. However, if there is a declaration event of default under the trust preferred securities, the depository will exchange the global certificates for certificated securities, which it will distribute to its participants.

Conveyance of notices and other communications by the depository to direct participants and indirect participants and by direct participants and indirect participants to beneficial owners will be governed by arrangements among them, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements that may be in force from time to time.

Although voting with respect to the trust preferred securities is limited, in those cases where a vote is required, neither the depositary nor Cede & Co. will itself consent or vote with respect to trust preferred securities. Under its usual procedures, the depositary would mail an omnibus proxy to the trust as soon as possible after the record date. The omnibus proxy assigns Cede & Co.'s consenting or voting rights to those direct participants to whose accounts the trust preferred securities are credited on the record date. The direct participants are identified in a listing attached to the omnibus proxy. We and the trust believe that the arrangements among the depositary, direct and indirect participants, and beneficial owners will enable the beneficial owners to exercise rights equivalent in substance to the rights that can be directly exercised by a record holder of a beneficial interest in the trust.

Distribution payments on the trust preferred securities issued in the form of one or more global certificates will be made to the depositary in immediately available funds. The depositary's practice is to credit direct participants' accounts on the relevant payment date in accordance with their respective holdings shown on the depositary's records unless the depositary has reason to believe that it will not receive payments on that payment date. Payments by participants to beneficial owners will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is the case with securities held for the account of customers in bearer form or registered in "street name." Those payments will be the responsibility of the participant and not of the depositary, the trust or us, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements to the contrary that may be in force from time to time. Payment of distributions to the depositary is the responsibility of the trust, disbursement of such payments to direct participants is the responsibility of the depositary, and disbursement of those payments to the beneficial owners is the responsibility of direct and indirect participants.

Except as provided here, a beneficial owner in a global trust preferred security certificate will not be entitled to receive physical delivery of trust preferred securities. Accordingly, each beneficial owner must rely on the procedures of the depositary to exercise any rights under the trust preferred securities.

Although the depositary has agreed to the above procedure to facilitate transfer of interests in the global certificates among participants, the depositary is under no obligation to perform or continue to perform these procedures and these procedures may be discontinued at any time. Neither us, nor the trust or any trustee will have any responsibility for the performance by the depositary or its participants or indirect participants under the rules and procedures governing the depositary. The depositary may discontinue providing its services as securities depositary with respect to the trust preferred securities at any time by giving reasonable notice to the trust. Under these circumstances, if a successor securities depositary is not obtained, trust preferred securities certificates are required to be printed and delivered to holders. Additionally, the regular trustees, with our consent, may decide to discontinue use of the system of book-entry transfers through the depositary or any successor depositary, with respect to the trust preferred securities. In that case, certificates for the trust preferred securities will be printed and delivered to holders. In each of the above circumstances, we will appoint a paying agent with respect to the trust preferred securities.

The information in this section concerning the depositary and the depositary's book-entry system has been obtained from sources that we and the trust believe to be reliable, but neither we nor the trust take responsibility for its accuracy.

REGISTRAR, TRANSFER AGENT AND PAYING AGENT

Payments in respect of the trust preferred securities represented by the global certificates shall be made to the depositary. The depositary shall credit the relevant accounts at the depositary on the applicable distribution dates. In the case of certificated securities, those payments shall be made by check mailed to the address of the holder entitled to it as that address appears on the register. The paying agent shall be permitted to resign as paying agent upon 30 days' written notice to the trustees. If First National Bank of Chicago shall no longer be the paying agent, the regular trustees shall appoint a successor to act as paying agent, which shall be a bank or trust company.

Bank One Trust Company, N.A. will act as registrar, transfer agent and paying agent for the trust preferred securities.

Registration of transfers of trust preferred securities will be made without charge by or on behalf of the trust. However, payment shall be made and any indemnity as the trust or we may require shall be given in respect of any tax or other government charge which may be imposed in relation to it.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE INSTITUTIONAL TRUSTEE

The institutional trustee, prior to the occurrence of a default with respect to the trust securities and after the curing of any defaults that may have occurred, undertakes to perform only those duties that are specified in the declaration. The institutional trustee, after default, shall exercise the same degree of care as a prudent individual would exercise in the conduct of his or her own affairs. Subject to those provisions, the institutional trustee is under no obligation to exercise any of the powers vested in it by the declaration at the request of any holder of trust preferred securities, unless offered reasonable indemnity by that holder against the costs, expenses and liabilities which it might incur. The holders of trust preferred securities will not be required to offer an indemnity in the case that those holders, by exercising their voting rights, direct the institutional trustee to take any action it is empowered to take under the declaration following a declaration event of default. The institutional trustee also serves as trustee under the guarantee.

The institutional trustee maintains commercial banking relationships with us.

GOVERNING LAW

The declaration and the trust preferred securities will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the internal laws of the State of Delaware.

MISCELLANEOUS

The regular trustees are authorized and directed to operate the trust in a way that the trust will not be required to register as an "investment company" under the 1940 Act or be characterized as other than a grantor trust for United States federal income tax purposes. We are authorized and directed to conduct our affairs so that the debentures will be treated as our indebtedness for United States federal income tax purposes. In this connection, we and the regular trustees are authorized to take any action not inconsistent with applicable law, the declaration of trust, the certificate of trust of the trust or our certificate of incorporation, that we and the regular trustees determine in our discretion to be necessary or desirable to achieve that end, as long as that action does not adversely affect the interests of the holders of the trust preferred securities or vary its terms.

Holders of the trust preferred securities have no preemptive or similar rights.

DESCRIPTION OF THE GUARANTEE

Provided below is a summary of information concerning the guarantee which will be executed and delivered by us for the benefit of the holders from time to time of trust preferred securities. References to the term "Guarantee" shall mean the guarantee of the trust preferred securities issued by one of Cendant Capital I, Cendant Capital II, Cendant Capital III, Cendant Capital IV or Cendant Capital V, as the context requires. The guarantee will be qualified as an indenture under the Trust Indenture Act. The Wilmington Trust Company will act as the guarantee trustee for the purposes of compliance with the provisions of the Trust Indenture Act. The terms of the guarantee will be those provided in the guarantee and those made part of the guarantee by the Trust Indenture Act. The following summary is not necessarily complete, and reference is made to the copy of the form of guarantee including the definitions which is filed as an exhibit to the registration statement relating to this prospectus, and to the Trust Indenture Act. Whenever particular defined terms of the guarantee are referred to in this prospectus, these defined terms are incorporated by reference in this prospectus. The guarantee will be held by the guarantee trustee for the benefit of the holders of the trust preferred securities.

OVERVIEW

Under the guarantee, we will irrevocably and unconditionally agree, to the extent provided there, to pay in full on a senior unsecured basis, to the holders of the trust preferred securities issued by the trust, the guarantee payments. We shall pay the guarantee payments as and when due, regardless of any defense, right of set-off or counterclaim which the trust may have or assert. We shall make these payments except to the extent paid by the trust. The following payments or distributions with respect to trust preferred securities issued by the trust to the extent not paid by or on behalf of the trust, will be subject to the guarantee, without duplication:

- (a) any accrued and unpaid distributions which are required to be paid on the trust preferred securities, to the extent the trust shall have funds available;
- (b) the redemption price, including all accumulated and unpaid distributions to the date of redemption, of trust preferred securities in respect of which the related debentures have been redeemed by us upon the occurrence of a tax event redemption, to the extent the trust shall have funds available; and
- (c) upon a voluntary or involuntary dissolution of the trust, other than in connection with the distribution of debentures to the holders of trust preferred securities, the lesser of
 - o the aggregate of the stated liquidation amount and all accrued and unpaid distributions on the trust preferred securities to the date of payment, to the extent the trust has funds available, and
 - o the amount of assets of the trust remaining available for distribution to holders of the trust preferred securities in liquidation of the trust.

Our obligation to make a guarantee payment may be satisfied by direct payment of the required amounts by us to the holders of trust preferred securities or by causing the trust to pay those amounts to the holders.

The guarantee will be a full and unconditional guarantee on a senior unsecured basis with respect to the trust preferred securities issued by the trust, but will not apply to any payment of distributions except to the extent the trust shall have funds available. If we do not make interest payments on the debentures purchased by the trust, the trust will not pay distributions on the trust preferred securities and will not have funds available.

The guarantee, when taken together with our obligations under the debentures, the indenture, and the declaration, will have the effect of providing a full and unconditional guarantee on a senior unsecured basis by us of payments due on the trust preferred securities.

We have also agreed separately to irrevocably and unconditionally guarantee the obligations of the trust with respect to the common securities to the same extent as the guarantee. However, in the case of an indenture event of default, holders of trust preferred securities shall have priority over holders of common securities with respect to distributions and payments on liquidation, redemption or otherwise.

CENDANT'S GUARANTEE COVENANTS

In the guarantee, we will covenant that, so long as any trust preferred securities issued by the trust remain outstanding, if there shall have occurred any event that would constitute an event of default under the guarantee or the declaration, then

- (a) we shall not declare or pay dividends on, make distributions with respect to, or redeem, purchase or acquire, or make a liquidation payment with respect to, any of our capital stock, other than
 - o purchases or acquisitions of our capital stock in connection with the satisfaction of our obligations under any employee or agent benefit plans or under any contract or security outstanding on the date of that event requiring us to purchase our capital stock,
 - o as a result of a reclassification of our capital stock or the exchange or conversion of one class or series of our capital stock for another class or series of our capital stock,
 - o the purchase of fractional interests in shares of our capital stock pursuant to the conversion or exchange provisions of our capital stock or the security being converted or exchanged,
 - o dividends or distributions in our capital stock (or rights to acquire capital stock) or repurchases or redemptions of capital stock solely from the issuance or exchange of capital stock or
 - o redemptions or repurchases of any rights outstanding under a shareholder rights plan;
- (b) We shall not make any payment of interest, principal or premium, if any, on or repay, repurchase or redeem any debt securities issued by us that rank junior to those debentures; and
- (c) We shall not make any guarantee payments with respect to the above other than according to the guarantee or the common securities guarantee.

MODIFICATION OF THE GUARANTEE; ASSIGNMENT

Except with respect to any changes which do not adversely affect the rights of holders of trust preferred securities, in which case no vote will be required, the guarantee may be amended only with the prior approval of the holders of not less than a majority in stated liquidation amount of the outstanding trust preferred securities issued by the trust. All guarantees and agreements contained in the guarantee shall bind the successors, assigns, receivers, trustees and our representatives and shall inure to the benefit of the holders of the trust preferred securities then outstanding.

TERMINATION

The guarantee will terminate

- (a) upon distribution of the debentures held by the trust to the holders of the trust preferred securities,
- (b) upon full payment of the redemption price of all the trust preferred securities in the case that we repurchase all of the debentures upon the occurrence of a tax event redemption or
- (c) upon full payment of the amounts payable in accordance with the declaration upon liquidation of the trust.

The guarantee will continue to be effective, or will be reinstated, if at any time any holder of trust preferred securities must return payment of any sums paid under the trust preferred securities or the guarantee.

EVENTS OF DEFAULT

An event of default under the guarantee will occur upon our failure to perform any of our payment or other obligations under the guarantee.

The holders of a majority in stated liquidation amount of the trust preferred securities have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the guarantee trustee in respect of the guarantee or to direct the exercise of any trust or power conferred upon the guarantee trustee under the guarantee. If the guarantee trustee fails to enforce the guarantee, any holder of trust preferred securities may institute a legal proceeding directly against us to enforce the holder's rights under the guarantee, without first instituting a legal proceeding against the trust, the guarantee trustee or any other person or entity. We waive any right or remedy to require that any action be brought first against the trust or any other person or entity before proceeding directly against us.

STATUS OF THE GUARANTEE

The guarantee will constitute our unsecured obligation and will rank on a parity with all our other senior unsecured obligations.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE GUARANTEE TRUSTEE

The guarantee trustee, prior to the occurrence of a default with respect to the guarantee, undertakes to perform only those duties that are specified in the guarantee. The guarantee trustee, after default, shall exercise the same degree of care as a prudent individual would exercise in the conduct of his or her own affairs. According to these provisions, the guarantee trustee is under no obligation to exercise any of the powers vested in it by the guarantee at the request of any holder of trust preferred securities, unless offered reasonable indemnity against the costs, expenses and liabilities which it might incur. However, this shall not relieve the guarantee trustee, upon the occurrence of an event of default under the guarantee, from exercising the rights and powers vested in it by the guarantee.

GOVERNING LAW

The guarantee will be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York.

DESCRIPTION OF THE DEBENTURES

Provided below is a description of the specific terms of the debentures in which the trust will invest the proceeds from the issuance and sale of the trust securities. The following description is not necessarily complete, and reference is made to the copy of the form of the indenture to be entered into between us and The Bank of Nova Scotia Trust Company of New York, as debt trustee, which is filed as an exhibit to the registration statement relating to this prospectus, and to the Trust Indenture Act. Certain capitalized terms used here are defined in the indenture.

Under specific circumstances involving the dissolution of the trust, debentures may be distributed to the holders of the trust securities in liquidation of the trust.

OVERVIEW

The debentures will be issued as senior unsecured debt under the indenture and will rank on a parity in right of payment with all our other senior unsecured debt obligations.

The debentures will not be subject to a sinking fund provision. Unless a tax event redemption has occurred prior to February 16, 2001, the entire principal amount of the debentures will mature and become due and payable, together with any accrued and unpaid interest thereon including compound interest and expenses and taxes of the trust, if any, on February 16, 2003.

We will have the right at any time to dissolve the trust and cause the debentures to be distributed to the holders of the trust securities. If debentures are distributed to holders of trust securities in liquidation of the holders' interests in the trust, those debentures will initially be issued as a global security.

As described in this prospectus, under specific limited circumstances, debentures may be issued in certificated form in exchange for a global security. In the case that debentures are issued in certificated form, these debentures will be in denominations of $50 and integral multiples of $50 and may be transferred or exchanged at the offices described below. Payments on debentures issued as a global security will be made to the depository, a successor depository or, in the case that no depository is used, to a paying agent for the debentures. In the case that debentures are issued in certificated form, principal and interest will be payable, the transfer of the debentures will be registrable and debentures will be exchangeable for debentures of other denominations of a like aggregate principal amount, at the corporate trust office or agency of the institutional trustee in Wilmington, Delaware. However, at our option, payment of interest may be made by check mailed to the address of the entitled holder or by wire transfer to an account appropriately designated by the entitled holder. Notwithstanding the above, so long as the holder of any debentures is the institutional trustee, the payment of principal and interest on the debentures held by the institutional trustee will be made at the place and to the account as may be designated by the institutional trustee.

The indenture does not contain provisions that afford holders of the debentures protection in case we are involved in a highly leveraged transaction or other similar transaction that may adversely affect those holders.

INTEREST

Each debenture shall initially bear interest at the rate of 6.45% per year from the original date of issuance, payable quarterly in arrears on February 16, May 16, August 16 and November 16 of each year, commencing

. Each debenture shall bear interest to the person in whose name that debenture is registered, subject to certain exceptions, at the close of business on the business day next preceding that interest payment date.

The applicable interest rate on the debentures and the distribution rate on the related trust preferred securities outstanding on and after February 16, 2001 will be reset on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001 to the reset rate. The reset rate will be equal to the sum of the reset spread and the rate on the two-year benchmark treasury in effect on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001. The reset rate will be determined by the reset agent as the rate the trust preferred securities should bear in order for a trust preferred security to have an approximate market value on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001 of 100.5% of $50. However, we may limit the reset rate to be no higher than the rate on the two-year benchmark treasury on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001 plus 200 basis points (2%). The market value of the trust preferred securities may be less than 100.5% if the reset spread is limited to a maximum of 2%.

On the reset announcement date, the two-year benchmark treasury will be selected and the reset agent will establish the reset spread to be added to the rate on the two-year benchmark treasury in effect on the third business day immediately preceding February 16, 2001. On that date, we will announce the reset spread and the two-year benchmark treasury. We will cause a notice of the reset spread and the two-year benchmark treasury to be published on the business day following the reset announcement date by publication in a daily newspaper in the English language of general circulation in The City of New York, which is expected to be The Wall Street Journal. If debentures shall not continue to remain in book-entry only form, we shall have the right to select record dates, which shall be more than fifteen business days but less than 60 business days prior to the interest payment date.

The amount of interest payable for any period will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months. The amount of interest payable for any period shorter than a full quarterly period for which interest is computed will be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in that 90-day period. In the case that any date on which interest is payable on the debentures is not a business day, then payment of the interest payable on that date will be made on the next succeeding day that is a business day. However, no interest or other payment shall be paid in respect of the delay but if that business day is in the next succeeding calendar year, then that payment shall be made on the immediately preceding business day, in each case with the same force and effect as if made on that date.

TAX EVENT REDEMPTION

If a tax event shall occur and be continuing, we may, at our option, redeem debentures in whole but not in part at any time prior to February 16, 2001. The redemption price shall equal, for each debenture, the redemption amount plus accrued and unpaid interest, including compound interest and expenses and taxes of the trust, if any, to the date of redemption. If, following the occurrence of a tax event, we exercise our option to redeem the debentures, then the proceeds of that redemption will be applied to redeem trust securities having a liquidation amount equal to the principal amount of debentures to be paid, in accordance with their terms, at the redemption price. The redemption price will be payable in cash to the holders of the trust securities. If a tax event redemption occurs prior to February 16, 2001, the redemption price payable in liquidation of the Income PRIDES holders' interest in the trust will be distributed to the collateral agent. The collateral agent will apply an amount equal to the redemption amount of the redemption price to purchase the treasury portfolio on behalf of the holders of Income PRIDES and remit any remaining portion of the redemption price to the purchase contract agent for payment to the holders of those Income PRIDES. The treasury portfolio will be substituted for the trust preferred securities and will be pledged with the collateral agent to secure the Income PRIDES holders' obligation to purchase our common stock under the purchase contracts. However, if the tax event redemption occurs after February 16, 2001, the treasury portfolio will not be purchased.

Tax event means the receipt by the trust of an opinion of a nationally recognized independent tax counsel experienced in such matters that, as a result of

- (a) any amendment to, or change, including any announced prospective change in, the laws or any regulations of the United States or any political subdivision or taxing authority or which affects taxation,
- (b) any amendment to or change in an interpretation or application of these laws or regulations by any legislative body, court, governmental agency or regulatory authority or
- (c) any interpretation or pronouncement that provides for a position with respect to these laws or regulations that differs from the generally accepted position on the date the trust securities are issued, which amendment or change is effective or which interpretation or pronouncement is announced on or after the date of issuance of the trust securities under the declaration, there is more than an insubstantial risk that

- (a) interest payable by us on the debentures would not be deductible, in whole or in part, by us for United States federal income tax purposes or
- (b) the income of the trust would be subject to more than a de minimis amount of other taxes, duties or other governmental charges.

Treasury portfolio means, with respect to the applicable principal amount of debentures

- (a) if the tax event redemption date occurs prior to February 16, 2001, a portfolio of zero-coupon U.S. treasury securities consisting of
 - o interest or principal strips of U.S. treasury securities which mature on or prior to February 15, 2001 in an aggregate amount equal to the applicable principal amount and
 - o with respect to each scheduled interest payment date on the debentures that occurs after the tax event redemption date, interest or principal strips of U.S. treasury securities which mature on or prior to that date in an aggregate amount equal to the aggregate interest payment that would be due on the applicable principal amount of the debentures on that date, and
- (a) if the tax event redemption date occurs after February 16, 2001, a portfolio of zero-coupon U.S. treasury securities consisting of
 - o principal or interest strips of U.S. treasury securities which mature on or prior to February 15, 2003 in an aggregate amount equal to the applicable principal amount and
 - o with respect to each scheduled interest payment date on the debentures that occurs after the tax event redemption date, interest or principal strips of the U.S. treasury securities which mature on or prior to that date in an aggregate amount equal to the aggregate interest payment that would be due on the applicable principal amount of the debentures on that date.

Applicable principal amount means either

- o if the tax event redemption date occurs prior to February 16, 2001, the aggregate principal amount of the debentures corresponding to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the trust preferred securities which are components of Income PRIDES on that tax event redemption date or
- o if the tax event redemption occurs on or after February 16, 2001, the aggregate principal amount of the debentures corresponding to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the trust preferred securities outstanding on that tax event redemption date.

Redemption amount means for each debenture, the product of

- o the principal amount of that debenture and
- o a fraction whose numerator is the treasury portfolio purchase price and whose denominator is the applicable principal amount.

Treasury portfolio purchase price means the lowest aggregate price quoted by a primary U.S. government securities dealer in New York City to the quotation agent on the third business day immediately preceding the tax event redemption date for the purchase of the treasury portfolio for settlement on the tax event redemption date.

Quotation agent means

- o Merrill Lynch Government Securities, Inc. and its respective successors. However, if they shall cease to be a primary treasury dealer, we shall substitute another primary treasury dealer, and

- o any other primary treasury dealer selected by us.

Notice of any redemption will be mailed at least 30 days but not more than 60 days before the redemption date to each registered holder of debentures to be redeemed at its registered address. Unless we default in payment of the redemption price, on and after the redemption date interest shall cease to accrue on the redeemed debentures.

PUT OPTION

If a failed remarketing has occurred, holders of debentures, including the institutional trustee and following the distribution of the debentures upon a dissolution of the trust those debenture holders, will have the right to put their debentures to us on March 2, 2001, upon at least three business days' prior notice at a price per debenture equal to $50, plus any accrued and unpaid interest. Upon our repurchase of those debentures, the proceeds from the repurchase shall simultaneously be applied to redeem, in the case of trust securities, any outstanding trust preferred securities of those holders having an aggregate stated liquidation amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of the debentures so repurchased plus accrued and unpaid distributions, including any deferred distributions.

OPTION TO EXTEND INTEREST PAYMENT PERIOD

We shall have the right at any time, and from time to time, during the term of the debentures, to defer payments of interest by extending the interest payment period for a period not extending beyond the maturity date of the debentures, at the end of which extension period, we shall pay all interest then accrued and unpaid, including any expenses and taxes of the trust, together with interest compounded quarterly at the rate of 6.45% per year through and including February 15, 2001, and at the reset rate afterwards, to the extent permitted by applicable law ("compound interest"). However, during any extension period,

- (a) we shall not declare or pay dividends on, make distributions with respect to, or redeem, purchase or acquire, or make a liquidation payment with respect to, any of our capital stock, other than
 - o purchases or acquisitions of our capital stock in connection with the satisfaction of our obligations under any employee or agent benefit plans or under any contract or security outstanding on the date of that event requiring us to purchase our capital stock,
 - o as a result of a reclassification of our capital stock or the exchange or conversion of one class or series of our capital stock for another class or series of our capital stock,
 - o the purchase of fractional interests in shares of our capital stock pursuant to the conversion or exchange provisions of our capital stock or the security being converted or exchanged,
 - o dividends or distributions in our capital stock (or rights to acquire capital stock) or repurchases or redemptions of capital stock solely from the issuance or exchange of capital stock or
 - o redemptions or repurchases of any rights outstanding under a shareholder rights plan,
- (b) we shall not make any payment of interest, principal or premium, if any, on or repay, repurchase or redeem any debt securities issued by us that rank junior to those debentures, and
- (c) we shall not make any guarantee payments with respect to the above other than according to the guarantee or the common securities guarantee.

Prior to the termination of any extension period, we may further defer payments of interest by extending the interest payment period. However, the extension period, including all previous and further extensions, may not extend beyond the February 16, 2003. Upon the termination of any extension period and the payment of all amounts then due, we may commence a new extension period, subject to the terms specified in this section. No interest during an extension period, except at its end, shall be due and payable, but we, at our option, may prepay on any interest payment date all of the interest accrued during the then elapsed portion of an extension period. We have no present intention of exercising our right to defer payments of interest by extending the interest payment period on the debentures.

If the institutional trustee shall be the sole holder of the debentures, we shall give the regular trustees and the institutional trustee notice of its selection of that extension period one business day prior to the earlier of

- (1) the date distributions on the trust preferred securities are payable or
- (2) the date the regular trustees are required to give notice, if applicable, to the NYSE, other applicable self-regulatory organization or to holders of the trust preferred securities of the record or payment date of that distribution.

The regular trustees shall give notice of our selection of that extension period to the holders of the trust preferred securities. If the institutional trustee shall not be the sole holder of the debentures, we shall give the holders of the debentures notice of our selection of that extension period ten business days prior to the earlier of

- (1) the interest payment date or
- (2) the date upon which we are required to give notice, if applicable, to the NYSE, other applicable self-regulatory organization or to holders of the debentures of the record or payment date of that related interest payment.

EXPENSES AND TAXES OF THE TRUST

In the indenture, we, as borrower, have agreed to pay all debts and other obligations, other than with respect to the trust securities, and all costs and expenses of the trust. These include the costs and expenses relating to the organization of the trust, the fees and expenses of the trustees and the costs and expenses relating to the operation of the trust and any and all related taxes costs and expenses, other than United States withholding taxes, to which the trust might become subject. We also have agreed in the indenture to execute those additional agreements as may be necessary or desirable to give full effect to the above.

INDENTURE EVENTS OF DEFAULT

If any indenture event of default shall occur and be continuing, the institutional trustee, as the holder of the debentures, will have the right to declare the principal of and the interest on the debentures, including any compound interest and expenses and taxes of the trust, if any, and any other amounts payable under the indenture, to be due and payable and to enforce its other rights as a creditor with respect to the debentures.

The following are events of default under the indenture with respect to the debentures:

- o failure to pay interest on the debentures when due, continued for a period of 30 days. However, if we are permitted by the terms of the debentures to defer the payment in question, then the date on which that payment is due and payable shall be the date on which we are required to make payment following that deferral, if that deferral has been elected according to the terms of the debentures;
- o failure to pay the principal of or premium, if any, on the debentures when due and payable on February 16, 2003, upon redemption or otherwise. However, if we are permitted by the terms of the debentures to defer the payment in question, the date on which that payment is due and payable shall be the date on which we are required to make payment following the deferral, if the deferral has been elected according to the terms of the debentures;
- o failure to observe or perform in any material respect other covenants contained in the indenture, continued for a period of 90 days after written notice has been given to us by the debt trustee or holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding debentures; and
- o particular events of our bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization.

The indenture provides that the debt trustee shall, within 90 days after the occurrence of any default or event of default with respect to the debentures, give the holders of the debentures notice of all uncured defaults or events of default known to it. The term default includes any event which after notice or passage of time or both would be an event of default.

However, in the case of a default in the payment of the principal of or premium, if any, on, or interest on any debt securities of that series, or in the payment of any sinking fund installment with respect to debt securities of that series, the trustee shall be protected in withholding that notice if and so long as the board of directors, the executive committee or a trust committee of directors and/or responsible officers of the trustee in good faith determines that the withholding of that notice is in the interest of the holders of debt securities of that series and any related coupons. Except that in the case of an event of default or a default in a payment on the debentures, the debt trustee shall be protected in withholding the notice so long as the board of directors, the executive committee or directors or responsible officers of the debt trustee in good faith determine that the withholding of that notice is in the interest of the holders of the debentures.

If an event of default with respect to the debentures occurs and is continuing, the debt trustee or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding debentures, by notice in writing to us and to the debt trustee if given by the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the debentures, may declare the unpaid principal of and accrued interest to the date of acceleration on all the outstanding debentures to be due and payable immediately and, upon that declaration, the debentures shall become immediately due and payable.

In addition, in the case of the debentures held by the trust, if an event of default has occurred and is continuing, and that event is attributable to our failure to pay interest or principal, then a holder of trust preferred securities may directly institute a proceeding against us for payment.

Any declaration with respect to the debentures may be annulled and past events of default and defaults, except, unless cured, an event of default or a default in payment of principal of or interest on the debentures, may be waived by the holders of a majority of the principal amount of the outstanding debentures, upon the conditions provided in the indenture.

The indenture provides that we shall periodically file statements with the debt trustee regarding compliance by us with some of its respective covenants and shall specify any event of default or defaults with respect to the debentures, in performing those covenants, of which we as signers may have knowledge.

An indenture event of default also constitutes a declaration event of default. The holders of trust preferred securities in some circumstances have the right to direct the institutional trustee to exercise its rights as the holder of the debentures. Notwithstanding the above, if an event of default has occurred and is continuing and that event is attributable to our failure to pay interest or principal on the debentures on the date that interest or principal is otherwise payable, we acknowledge that a holder of trust preferred securities may directly institute a proceeding for enforcement of payment to that holder directly of the principal of and interest on the debentures having a principal amount equal to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the trust preferred securities of that holder after the respective due date specified in the debentures. In connection with that action, we shall have the right under the indenture to set-off any payment made to that holder by us. The holders of trust preferred securities will not be able to exercise directly any other remedy available to the holders of the debentures.

BOOK-ENTRY AND SETTLEMENT

If distributed to holders of trust preferred securities in connection with the involuntary or voluntary dissolution of the trust, the debentures will be issued in the form of one or more global certificates (each a "global security") registered in the name of the depositary or its nominee. Except under the limited circumstances described below, debentures represented by the global security will not be exchangeable for, and will not otherwise be issuable as, debentures in certificated form. The global securities described above may not be transferred except by the depositary to a nominee of the depositary or by a nominee of the depositary to the depositary or another nominee of the depositary or to a successor depositary or its nominee.

The laws of some jurisdictions require that certain purchasers of securities take physical delivery of securities in certificated form. These laws may impair the ability to transfer beneficial interests in a global security.

Except as provided below, owners of beneficial interests in a global security will not be entitled to receive physical delivery of debentures in certificated form and will not be considered its holders for any purpose under the indenture. No global security representing debentures shall be exchangeable, except for another global security of like denomination and tenor to be registered in the name of the depositary or its nominee or to a successor depositary or its nominee. Accordingly, each beneficial owner must rely on the procedures of the depositary or if that person is not a participant, on the procedures of the participant through which that person owns its interest to exercise any rights of a holder under the indenture.

THE DEPOSITARY

If debentures are distributed to holders of trust preferred securities in liquidation of those holders' interests in the trust, the depositary will act as securities depositary for the debentures. As of the date of this prospectus, the description of the depositary's book-entry system and the depositary's practices as they relate to purchases, transfers, notices and payments with respect to the trust preferred securities apply in all material respects to any debt obligations represented by one or more global securities held by the depositary. We may appoint a successor to the depositary or any successor depositary if the depositary or a successor depositary is unable or unwilling to continue as a depositary for the global securities.

Neither us nor the trust, the institutional trustee, any paying agents, any of our other agents or the debt trustee will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in a global security for the debentures or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any records relating to those beneficial ownership interests.

A global security shall be exchangeable for debentures registered in the names of persons other than the depositary or its nominee only if

- (1) the depositary notifies us that it is unwilling or unable to continue as a depositary for that global security and no successor depositary shall have been appointed,
- (2) the depositary at any time, ceases to be a clearing agency registered under the Exchange Act at which time the depositary is required to be so registered to act as a depositary and no successor depositary shall have been appointed,
- (3) we, in our sole discretion, determine that the global security shall be so exchangeable or
- (4) there shall have occurred an indenture event of default with respect to such debentures.

Any global security that is exchangeable according to the preceding sentence shall be exchangeable for debentures registered in those names as the depositary shall direct. It is expected that these instructions will be based upon directions received by the depositary from its participants with respect to ownership of beneficial interests in the global security.

GOVERNING LAW

The indenture and the debentures will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the internal laws of the State of New York.

MISCELLANEOUS

We will pay all fees and expenses related to

- (1) the offering of the trust securities and the debentures,
- (2) the organization, maintenance and dissolution of the trust,
- (3) the retention of the trustees and
- (4) the enforcement by the institutional trustee of the rights of the holders of the trust preferred securities.

EFFECT OF OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE DEBENTURES AND THE GUARANTEE

As provided in the declaration, the sole purpose of the trust is to issue the trust securities evidencing undivided beneficial interests in the assets of the trust, and to invest the proceeds from the issuance and sale in the debentures and engage in only other necessary or incidental activities.

As long as payments of interest and other payments are made when due on the debentures, those payments will be sufficient to cover distributions and payments due on the trust securities because of the following factors:

- o the aggregate principal amount of debentures will be equal to the sum of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the trust securities;
- o the interest rate and the interest and other payment dates on the debentures will match the distribution rate and distribution and other payment dates for the trust securities;
- o we shall pay, and the trust shall not be obligated to pay, directly or indirectly, all costs, expenses, debts, and obligations of the trust, other than with respect to the trust securities; and
- o the declaration further provides that the trustees shall not take or cause or permit the trust to, among other things, engage in any activity that is not consistent with the purposes of the trust.

Payments of distributions, to the extent funds are available, and other payments due on the trust preferred securities, to the extent funds therefor are available, are guaranteed by us as to the extent provided under "Description of the Guarantee." If we do not make interest payments on the debentures purchased by the trust, the trust will not have sufficient funds to pay distributions on the trust preferred securities. The guarantee does not apply to any payment of distributions unless and until the trust has sufficient funds for the payment of such distributions.

If we fail to make interest or other payments on the debentures when due, taking account of any extension period, the declaration provides a mechanism enabling the holders of the trust preferred securities to direct the institutional trustee to enforce its rights under the indenture. If the institutional trustee fails to enforce its rights under the indenture in respect of an indenture event of default, a holder of record of trust preferred securities may, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, institute a legal proceeding against us to enforce the institutional trustee's rights under the indenture without first instituting any legal proceeding against the institutional trustee or any other person or entity.

Notwithstanding the above, if a declaration event of default has occurred and is continuing and that event is attributable to our failure to pay interest or principal on the debentures on the date that interest or principal is otherwise payable, then a holder of trust preferred securities may directly institute a proceeding against us for payment. We, under the guarantee, acknowledge that the guarantee trustee shall enforce the guarantee on behalf of the holders of the trust preferred securities. If we fail to make payments under the guarantee, the guarantee provides a mechanism enabling the holders of the trust preferred securities to direct the guarantee trustee to enforce its rights under the guarantee. Notwithstanding the above, if we fail to make a payment under the guarantee, any holder of trust preferred securities may institute a legal proceeding directly against us to enforce its rights under the guarantee without first instituting a legal proceeding against the trust, the guarantee trustee, or any other person or entity.

The guarantee, when taken together with our obligations under the debentures and the indenture and its obligations under the declaration, including its obligations to pay costs, expenses, debts and liabilities of the trust, other than with respect to the trust securities, has the effect of providing a full and unconditional guarantee of amounts due on the trust preferred securities.

CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a summary of certain of the material United States federal income tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership and disposition of FELINE PRIDES, trust preferred securities and common stock acquired under a purchase contract. Unless otherwise stated, the summary deals only with FELINE PRIDES, trust preferred securities and common stock held as capital assets (generally, assets held for investment) by U.S. holders that purchase FELINE PRIDES from Cendant pursuant to this offering. The tax treatment of a U.S. holder may vary depending on its particular situation. This summary does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to holders that may be subject to special tax treatment such as, for example, insurance companies, broker dealers, tax-exempt organizations, or foreign taxpayers. In addition, this summary does not address the tax consequences to shareholders, partners or beneficiaries of a holder of FELINE PRIDES, trust preferred securities or common stock, nor does it address any aspects of state, local, or foreign tax laws. This summary is based on the United States federal income tax laws in effect as of the date hereof, which is subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis. Each investor should consult its tax advisor as to the particular tax consequences of acquiring, owning, and disposing of FELINE PRIDES or trust preferred securities, including the application and effect of United States federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws.

No statutory, administrative or judicial authority directly addresses the treatment of FELINE PRIDES or instruments similar of FELINE PRIDES for United States federal income tax purposes. As a result, no assurance can be given that the IRS will agree with the tax consequences described herein.

For purposes of this summary, the term "U.S. holder" means a holder of FELINE PRIDES or trust preferred securities that is, for United States federal income tax purposes, (1) a citizen or resident of the United States, (2) a corporation or partnership created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (3) an estate the income of which is subject to United States federal income taxation, regardless of its source, (4) a trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of such trust and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of such trust or (5) any person or entity otherwise subject to United States federal income taxation on a net basis in respect of its investment in FELINE PRIDES.

The following summary does not address the tax consequences associated with the acquisition of rights. Holders that acquire rights as part of a litigation settlement or otherwise should consult their tax advisors concerning the tax consequences associated with such acquisition of the rights.

ACQUISITION, OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF FELINE PRIDES

U.S. HOLDERS THAT ACQUIRE AND IMMEDIATELY EXCHANGE ADDITIONAL FELINE PRIDES AND RIGHTS FOR NEW FELINE PRIDES. The purchase of additional FELINE PRIDES pursuant to this offering by a U.S. holder of rights that is required to immediately exchange those additional FELINE PRIDES and rights for new FELINE PRIDES should be treated as a single integrated transaction for United States federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, (1) such a U.S. holder's acquisition of additional FELINE PRIDES should be disregarded and (2) the U.S. holder should be treated as having purchased new FELINE PRIDES for an amount equal to the cash paid for the additional FELINE PRIDES plus the fair market value of the rights exchanged for the new FELINE PRIDES. In that event, the U.S. holder would recognize gain or loss on the transfer of the rights equal to the difference between the fair market value of the rights and the U.S. holder's tax basis in the rights. The gain or loss would be capital gain or loss, and would generally be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder held the rights for more than one year immediately prior to the exchange. Long-term capital gains of individuals are eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

U.S. HOLDERS THAT PURCHASE AND CONTINUE TO HOLD ADDITIONAL FELINE PRIDES. The treatment of the acquisition of additional FELINE PRIDES by

U.S. holders that continue to hold the additional FELINE PRIDES, if any, is not clear, in part because the purchase contract related to the additional FELINE PRIDES currently has a negative value and there is no authority directly on point as to how such negative value should be characterized. It is possible that a U.S. holder that purchases additional FELINE PRIDES pursuant to this offering and continues to hold the additional FELINE PRIDES would be considered to have received consideration to assume the obligations under the related purchase contract in an amount equal to that negative value, and to have paid that amount, in addition to the purchase price, for the trust preferred securities or treasury securities related to additional FELINE PRIDES. Any U.S. holders that purchase additional FELINE PRIDES and that continue to hold the additional FELINE PRIDES should consult their tax advisors concerning the acquisition of additional FELINE PRIDES when the related purchase contracts have a negative value.

U.S. HOLDERS THAT DELIVER RIGHTS AND CURRENT FELINE PRIDES (OR ADDITIONAL FELINE PRIDES OBTAINED IN THE SECONDARY MARKET) IN EXCHANGE FOR NEW FELINE PRIDES. A U.S. holder that delivers rights and current FELINE PRIDES (or additional FELINE PRIDES acquired in the secondary market) in exchange for new FELINE PRIDES should be treated as transferring the purchase contracts related to the current FELINE PRIDES or additional FELINE PRIDES, together with the rights, in exchange for the purchase contracts related to the new FELINE PRIDES.

There is no authority addressing the treatment, under current law, of the transfer of the purchase contracts related to the current FELINE PRIDES (or additional FELINE PRIDES acquired in the secondary market) and the rights in exchange for the purchase contracts related to the new FELINE PRIDES. Although the matter is not free from doubt, a U.S. holder would likely (1) recognize capital gain or loss on the cancellation of the purchase contracts related to the current FELINE PRIDES (or additional FELINE PRIDES acquired in the secondary market) equal to the difference between the fair market value (which may be negative) of the cancelled purchase contracts and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the cancelled purchase contracts and (2) recognize capital gain or loss on the transfer of the rights equal to the difference between the fair market value of the rights and the U.S. holder's tax basis in the transferred rights. In each case, the capital gain or loss would be long-term or short-term capital gain or loss depending upon the U.S. holder's holding period for the surrendered purchase contracts and surrendered rights, respectively. If the purchase contracts related to the new FELINE PRIDES were to have a negative value at the time the exchange of purchase contracts described above took place, it is possible that the U.S. holder's loss on the cancellation of the purchase contracts related to the current FELINE PRIDES (or additional FELINE PRIDES acquired in the secondary market) would be limited to the fair market value of the rights surrendered. Alternatively, the U.S. holder could be treated as having received consideration to enter into the purchase contracts related to the new FELINE PRIDES in an amount equal to their negative value and to have paid that amount, in addition to the rights, to be released from its obligation under the purchase contracts surrendered in the exchange. The U.S. holder's tax basis in the purchase contracts related to the new FELINE PRIDES would likely equal their fair market value (but likely would not be less than zero, even if the new purchase contracts had negative value at the time they were transferred to the holder). U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the exchange of the purchase contracts related to the current FELINE PRIDES (or additional FELINE PRIDES acquired on the secondary market) and the rights for the purchase contracts related to the new FELINE PRIDES.

ALLOCATION OF PURCHASE PRICE. In general, a U.S. holder that acquires new FELINE PRIDES through the purchase from and immediate surrender of additional FELINE PRIDES to Cendant or that acquires additional FELINE PRIDES which such holder is not required to surrender (if additional FELINE PRIDES are sold to any such persons) should be treated as acquiring a unit consisting of two components -- in the case of an Income PRIDES, a trust preferred security and a purchase contract constituting such Income PRIDES and, in the case of a Growth PRIDES, an interest in a treasury security and a purchase contract constituting such Growth PRIDES. The amount paid for each FELINE PRIDES generally will be allocated between the two components in proportion to their respective fair market values at the time of purchase. Such allocation will establish the U.S. holder's initial tax bases in the trust preferred security or interest in the treasury security, as the case may be, and the purchase contract.

The proper allocation of the purchase price of an additional FELINE PRIDES is not clear, in part because the purchase contract related to an additional FELINE PRIDES currently has a negative value and there is no authority directly on point as to how such negative value should be allocated. It is possible that the purchase of additional FELINE PRIDES would be treated as if the U.S. holder received consideration to assume the obligations under the related purchase contract in an amount equal to that negative value, and to have paid that amount, in addition to the purchase price, for the related trust preferred security.

Based upon the above, Cendant will report the fair market value of each trust preferred security and each interest in a treasury security so that (1) in the case of new FELINE PRIDES, the amount allocable to the trust preferred security and interest in the treasury security, as the case may be, will equal the cash paid for the additional FELINE PRIDES plus the fair market value of the rights exchanged for that new FELINE PRIDES, and therefore will be $ and $, respectively, and the amount allocable to the purchase contract will be $, and (2) in the case of additional FELINE PRIDES

(other than any additional FELINE PRIDES that are immediately surrendered for new FELINE PRIDES), the amount allocable to the trust preferred security and interest in a treasury security, as the case may be, will equal the cash paid for that additional FELINE PRIDES plus an amount equal to the negative value of the related purchase contract, and therefore will be $ and $, respectively, and no amount will be allocable to the purchase contract. These positions will be binding upon each U.S. holder (but not on the IRS) unless the U.S. holder explicitly discloses a contrary position on a statement attached to that U.S. holder's timely filed United States federal income tax return for the taxable year in which a FELINE PRIDES is acquired. Thus, absent such disclosure, a U.S. holder should allocate the purchase price for a FELINE PRIDES in accordance with the allocations set forth above. The remainder of this discussion assumes that these allocations of the purchase price of new FELINE PRIDES and additional FELINE PRIDES will be respected for United States federal income tax purposes. A different allocation could affect the timing and character of income to a U.S. holder.

OWNERSHIP OF TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES OR TREASURY SECURITIES. A U.S. holder will be treated as owning the trust preferred securities or treasury securities constituting a part of the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, respectively. Cendant and, by acquiring FELINE PRIDES, each U.S. holder agree to treat that holder as the owner, for United States federal, state and local income and franchise tax purposes, of the trust preferred securities or treasury securities constituting a part of the FELINE PRIDES beneficially owned by that U.S. holder. Based upon this agreement, Cendant intends to take the position, and the remainder of this summary assumes, that U.S. holders of FELINE PRIDES will be treated as the owners of the trust preferred securities or treasury securities constituting a part of their FELINE PRIDES for United States federal, state and local income and franchise tax purposes. The United States federal income tax consequences of owning the trust preferred securities or treasury securities are discussed below. See "-- Trust Preferred Securities", "-- Treasury Securities" and "-- Tax Event Redemption of Trust Preferred Securities."

SALES, EXCHANGES OR OTHER TAXABLE DISPOSITIONS OF FELINE PRIDES. Upon a sale, exchange or other taxable disposition (collectively, a "disposition") of FELINE PRIDES, a U.S. holder will be treated as having sold, exchanged or disposed of the purchase contract and the trust preferred securities, treasury portfolio or, in the case of Growth PRIDES, the treasury securities, that constitute those FELINE PRIDES, and will generally have gain or loss equal to the difference between the portion of the proceeds to the U.S. holder allocable to the purchase contract and the trust preferred securities, treasury portfolio or treasury securities, as the case may be, and that U.S. holder's respective adjusted tax bases in the purchase contract and the trust preferred securities, treasury portfolio or treasury securities. Such gain or loss will generally be capital gain or loss, except to the extent that the U.S. holder is treated as receiving an amount with respect to accrued but unpaid interest on the trust preferred securities or the treasury portfolio, which amount will be treated as ordinary interest income, or to the extent the U.S. holder is treated as receiving an amount with respect to accrued contract adjustment payments or deferred contract adjustment payments, which may be treated as ordinary income, in each case to the extent not previously included in income. Such capital gain or loss will generally be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder held the FELINE PRIDES for more than one year immediately prior to their disposition. Long-term capital gains of individuals are eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. If a disposition of FELINE PRIDES were to occur when the purchase contract had negative value, although the matter is not free from doubt, the U.S. holder should be considered to have received additional consideration for the trust preferred securities, treasury portfolio or treasury securities, as the case may be, in an amount equal to such negative value and to have paid that amount to be released from its obligation under the purchase contract. U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors regarding a disposition of the FELINE PRIDES at a time when the purchase contract has negative value.

In determining gain or loss, payments to a U.S. holder of contract adjustment payments or deferred contract adjustment payments properly excluded from income should either reduce that U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the purchase contract or result in an increase in the amount realized on the disposition of the purchase contract. Any contract adjustment payments or deferred contract adjustment payments included in a U.S. holder's income but not paid should increase the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the purchase contract. Payments in cash that have been made by a U.S. holder to create Growth PRIDES but not offset against payments of contract adjustment payments or deferred contract adjustment payments may increase the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the purchase contract or result in a decrease in the amount realized on the disposition of the purchase contract. See "--Contract Adjustment Payments and Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments; Delivery of Cash."

TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES

MERGER OF THE TRUSTS. There is no direct authority addressing the treatment, under current law, of the merger of the trust that was formed in connection with the issuance of the current Income PRIDES with the trust created pursuant to this offering. Cendant intends to take the position, and the remainder of this summary assumes, that the merger of these trusts will be treated as though each holder of current Income PRIDES exchanged a portion of such holder's debentures underlying the current Income PRIDES for a portion of the debentures issued by Cendant to the trust created pursuant to this offering. In that event, the exchange of a portion of the debentures related to the current Income PRIDES for a portion of the debentures issued pursuant to this offering will not constitute an exchange of property differing materially either in kind or in extent. As a result, there will be no immediate United States federal income tax consequences with respect to this exchange, and a U.S. holder of current Income PRIDES will have the same adjusted tax basis and holding period in the trust preferred securities as it had in the trust preferred securities immediately before the merger. No assurance can be given that the IRS will not disagree with this characterization of the merger of these trusts, and U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors concerning the treatment of the merger for United States federal income tax purposes.

CLASSIFICATION OF THE TRUST. Cendant believes that the trust created pursuant to this offering will be classified as a grantor trust and not as an association taxable as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes. Cendant, the trust and, by acquiring Income PRIDES or trust preferred securities, each U.S. holder agree to treat the trust created pursuant to this offering as a grantor trust for United States federal income tax purposes. Based upon this agreement, Cendant intends to take the position, and the remainder of this summary assumes, that each U.S. holder of trust preferred securities will be treated as owning an undivided beneficial ownership interest in the debentures and, as further discussed below, each U.S. holder of trust preferred securities will be required to include in its gross income its pro rata share of the interest income or OID that is paid or accrued on the debentures. See "-- Interest Income and Original Issue Discount."

CLASSIFICATION OF THE DEBENTURES. Cendant believes that the debentures will be classified as indebtedness for United States federal income tax purposes. Cendant, the trust and, by acquiring Income PRIDES or trust preferred securities, each U.S. holder agree to treat the debentures as indebtedness of Cendant for all United States tax purposes.

INTEREST INCOME AND ORIGINAL ISSUE DISCOUNT. Under the applicable Treasury regulations and subject to the discussion below regarding Cendant's right to defer payments of interest on the debentures, the debentures issued pursuant to this offering will be considered to have been issued with OID equal to the excess of 100.5% of their principal amount over the amount of the original purchase price for the additional Income PRIDES allocated to the debentures unless such excess is de minimis (less than one-quarter of one percent of 100.5% of the principal amount). If the debentures are treated as issued with OID, a U.S. holder will be required to include such OID in income on an economic accrual basis over the period between the issue date of the debentures and the date immediately preceding the purchase contract settlement date regardless of the U.S. holder's method of tax accounting. Consequently, each U.S. holder (including those using the cash method of tax accounting) will be required to include OID in income even though Cendant will not actually make current cash payments with respect to such OID. In addition, stated interest on the debentures (including the debentures issued by Cendant pursuant to the offering of the current FELINE PRIDES) will generally be included in income by a U.S. holder at the time such interest income is paid or accrued in accordance with that U.S. holder's regular method of tax accounting.

If Cendant were to exercise its right to defer payments of interest on the debentures, all of a U.S. holder's taxable interest income with respect to the debentures would thereafter be accounted for on an economic accrual basis regardless of such U.S. holder's method of tax accounting, and actual distributions of stated interest on the debentures would not be reported separately as taxable income. Consequently, each U.S. holder (including those using a cash basis method of accounting) would be required to accrue the stated interest on the debentures (as OID) on a daily economic accrual basis even though Cendant would not make actual cash payments during the deferral period. Any amount of OID included in a U.S. holder's gross income would increase that U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in its trust preferred securities, and the amount of a distribution received by a U.S. holder with respect to those trust preferred securities would reduce the adjusted tax basis of such trust preferred securities.

The Treasury regulations governing the treatment of an issuer's right to defer payments of interest have not yet been addressed in any rulings or other interpretations by the IRS and it is possible that the IRS could take a contrary position. If the IRS were to assert successfully that the stated interest on the debentures was OID regardless of whether or not Cendant exercised its right to defer payments of interest on such debentures, all U.S. holders would be required to include stated interest on the debentures in income on a daily economic accrual basis as described above.

U.S. holders that are corporations will not be entitled to a dividends received deduction with respect to any income recognized with respect to the trust preferred securities.

DISTRIBUTION OF DEBENTURES TO U.S. HOLDERS OF TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES. A distribution by the trust of the debentures as described under the caption "Description of the Trust Preferred Securities -- Liquidation Distribution Upon Dissolution" would not be a taxable event to U.S. holders. In the event of such a distribution, a U.S. holder would have an aggregate adjusted tax basis in the debentures received in the liquidation equal to the aggregate adjusted tax basis that the U.S. holder had in its trust preferred securities surrendered in the liquidation of the trust and the holding period of those debentures would include the period during which the U.S. holder had held those trust preferred securities. In addition, a U.S. holder would continue to include interest (or OID) in respect of debentures received from the trust in the manner described under "-- Interest Income and Original Issue Discount."

SALES, EXCHANGES OR OTHER TAXABLE DISPOSITIONS OF TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES. Gain or loss will be recognized by a U.S. holder on a disposition of a trust preferred security (including a redemption for cash or the remarketing of the trust preferred security) in an amount equal to the difference between the amount realized by the U.S. holder on the disposition of the trust preferred security (except to the extent that the amount realized is characterized as a payment in respect of accrued but unpaid interest on the U.S. holder's allocable share of the debentures that the U.S. holder has not previously included in gross income, which amount will be subject to tax as ordinary interest income) and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in that trust preferred security. Selling expenses incurred by a U.S. holder, including the remarketing fee, will reduce the amount of gain or increase the amount of loss recognized by the U.S. holder upon a disposition of a trust preferred security. Gain or loss realized by a U.S. holder on a disposition of a trust preferred security generally will be capital gain or loss and generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder held that trust preferred security for more than one year immediately prior to its disposition. Long-term capital gains of individuals are eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

TREASURY SECURITIES

ORIGINAL ISSUE DISCOUNT. A U.S. holder of Growth PRIDES will be required to treat its ownership interest in the treasury securities comprising a Growth PRIDES as an interest in a bond that was originally issued on the date the Growth PRIDES is purchased and that has OID equal to the excess of the stated amount of the Growth PRIDES over the purchase price of the Growth PRIDES. A U.S. holder will be required to include that OID in income on a daily economic accrual basis over the period between the issue date of the Growth PRIDES and the day immediately preceding the purchase contract settlement date, regardless of the U.S. holder's method of tax accounting and in advance of the receipt of cash attributable to that OID. Amounts of OID included in a U.S. holder's gross income will increase the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in its interest in the treasury securities.

SALES, EXCHANGES OR OTHER TAXABLE DISPOSITIONS OF TREASURY SECURITIES. In the event that a U.S. holder obtains the release of treasury securities by delivering trust preferred securities to the collateral agent, gain or loss will be recognized by the U.S. holder on a subsequent disposition of the treasury securities in an amount equal to the difference between the amount realized by the U.S. holder on the disposition and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the treasury securities. Such gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss and generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder held those treasury securities for more than one year immediately prior to their disposition. Long-term capital gains of individuals are eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

PURCHASE CONTRACTS

CONTRACT ADJUSTMENT PAYMENTS AND DEFERRED CONTRACT ADJUSTMENT PAYMENTS; DELIVERY OF CASH. There is no direct authority addressing the treatment, under current law, of the contract adjustment payments and deferred contract adjustment payments, or the delivery of cash in respect of excess accrued contract adjustment payments by a U.S. holder of Income PRIDES upon the creation of Growth PRIDES and such treatment is, therefore, unclear. Contract adjustment payments and deferred contract adjustment payments may constitute taxable income to a U.S. holder of FELINE PRIDES when received or accrued, in accordance with the U.S. holder's regular method of tax accounting. To the extent that Cendant is required to file information returns with respect to contract adjustment payments or deferred contract adjustment payments, it intends to report those payments as taxable income to each U.S. holder. U.S. holders should consult their tax advisors concerning the treatment of contract adjustment payments and deferred contract adjustment payments and the delivery of cash upon the creation of Growth PRIDES, including the possibility that any contract adjustment payment or deferred contract adjustment payment may be treated as a loan, purchase price adjustment, rebate or payment analogous to an option premium, rather than being includible in income on a current basis, and that the delivery of cash upon the creation of Growth PRIDES may be treated as an offset to contract adjustment payments or deferred contract adjustment payments or as a purchase price adjustment. The treatment of contract adjustment payments, deferred contract adjustment payments and the delivery of cash upon the creation of Growth PRIDES could affect a U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in a purchase contract or common stock received under a purchase contract or the amount realized by a U.S. holder upon the disposition of a FELINE PRIDES or the termination of a purchase contract. See "-- Acquisition of Common Stock Under a Purchase Contract," "-- Sales, Exchanges or Other Taxable Dispositions of FELINE PRIDES" and "-- Termination of Purchase Contract."

ACQUISITION OF COMMON STOCK UNDER A PURCHASE CONTRACT. A U.S. holder of FELINE PRIDES generally will not recognize gain or loss on the purchase of common stock under a purchase contract, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of common stock. Subject to the following discussion, a U.S. holder's aggregate initial tax basis in the common stock received under a purchase contract should generally equal the purchase price paid for such common stock plus that U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the purchase contract, if any, less the portion of that purchase price and adjusted tax basis allocable to the fractional share. Payments of contract adjustment payments or deferred contract adjustment payments that have been received in cash by a U.S. holder but properly excluded from income by that U.S. holder should reduce the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the purchase contract or the common stock to be received under that purchase contract; payments in cash that have been made by a U.S. holder to create Growth PRIDES but not offset against payments of contract adjustment payments or deferred contract adjustment payments may increase that U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the purchase contract or the common stock to be received under that purchase contract. See "-- Contract Adjustment Payments and Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments." The holding period for common stock received under a purchase contract will commence on the day following the acquisition of that common stock.

OWNERSHIP OF COMMON STOCK ACQUIRED UNDER THE PURCHASE CONTRACT. Any distribution on common stock paid by Cendant out of its current or accumulated earnings and profits, as determined for United States federal income tax purposes, will constitute a dividend and will be includible in income by a U.S. holder when received. Any dividend on the common stock will be eligible for the dividends received deduction if received by an otherwise qualifying corporate U.S. holder that meets the holding period and other requirements for the dividends received deduction.

Upon a disposition of common stock, a U.S. holder generally will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the common stock. Such capital gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder held that common stock for more than one year immediately prior to its disposition. Long-term capital gains of individuals are eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

EARLY SETTLEMENT OF PURCHASE CONTRACT. A U.S. holder of FELINE PRIDES will not recognize gain or loss on the receipt of its proportionate share of trust preferred securities, treasury securities or the treasury portfolio upon early settlement of a purchase contract and will have the same adjusted tax basis in those trust preferred securities, treasury securities or the treasury portfolio as before the early settlement. Any contract adjustment payments or deferred contract adjustment payments that have been included in a U.S. holder's income but forfeited and not paid upon early settlement of a purchase contract should increase that U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the common stock received under a purchase contract.

TERMINATION OF PURCHASE CONTRACT. If a purchase contract terminates, a U.S. holder of FELINE PRIDES will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized, if any, upon the termination and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis, if any, in the purchase contract at the time of the termination. Payments of contract adjustment payments or deferred contract adjustment payments received by a U.S. holder but properly excluded from income by the U.S. holder should either reduce the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the purchase contract or increase the amount realized on the termination of the purchase contract. Any contract adjustment payments or deferred contract adjustment payments included in a U.S. holder's income but not paid should increase the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the purchase contract; payments in cash that have been made by a U.S. holder to create Growth PRIDES but not offset against payments of contract adjustment payments or deferred contract adjustment payments may increase the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the purchase contract or result in a deduction on the termination of the purchase contract. See "-- Contract Adjustment Payments and Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments." Such gain or loss generally will be capital gain or loss and generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder held the purchase contract for more than one year immediately prior to its termination. Long-term capital gains of individuals are eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. A U.S. holder will not recognize gain or loss on the receipt of its proportionate share of the trust preferred securities, treasury securities or treasury portfolio upon termination of the purchase contract and will have the same adjusted tax basis in those trust preferred securities, treasury securities or treasury portfolio as before that termination.

ADJUSTMENT TO SETTLEMENT RATE. U.S. holders of FELINE PRIDES might be treated as receiving a constructive dividend distribution from Cendant if (1) the settlement rate is adjusted and as a result of that adjustment, the proportionate interest of U.S. holders of FELINE PRIDES in the assets or earnings and profits of Cendant is increased and (2) the adjustment is not made pursuant to a bona fide, reasonable anti-dilution formula. An adjustment in the settlement rate would not be considered made pursuant to such a formula if the adjustment were made to compensate a U.S. holder for certain taxable distributions with respect to the Cendant's common stock.

SUBSTITUTION OF TREASURY SECURITIES TO CREATE OR RECREATE GROWTH PRIDES

A U.S. holder of an Income PRIDES that delivers treasury securities to the collateral agent in substitution for trust preferred securities will generally not recognize gain or loss upon the delivery of those treasury securities or the release of the trust preferred securities to the U.S. holder. The U.S. holder will continue to take into account items of income or deduction otherwise includible or deductible, respectively, by that U.S.

holder with respect to those treasury securities and trust preferred securities, and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax bases in the treasury securities, the trust preferred securities and the purchase contract will not be affected by such delivery and release.

SUBSTITUTION OF TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES TO CREATE OR RECREATE INCOME PRIDES

A U.S. holder of a Growth PRIDES that delivers trust preferred securities to the collateral agent in substitution for treasury securities will generally not recognize gain or loss upon the delivery of those trust preferred securities or the release of the treasury securities to the U.S. holder. The U.S. holder will continue to take into account items of income or deduction otherwise includible or deductible, respectively, by that U.S. holder with respect to those treasury securities and trust preferred securities, and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax bases in the treasury securities, the trust preferred securities and the purchase contract will not be affected by such delivery and release.

TAX EVENT REDEMPTION OF TRUST PREFERRED SECURITIES

A tax event redemption will be a taxable event for U.S. holders of trust preferred securities which will be subject to tax in the manner described under "Trust Preferred Securities - Sales, Exchanges or Other Taxable Dispositions of Trust Preferred Securities."

OWNERSHIP OF TREASURY PORTFOLIO. Cendant, the trust and, by acquiring Income PRIDES, each U.S. holder agree to treat that U.S. holder as the owner, for United States federal, state and local income and franchise tax purposes, of its applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio constituting a part of the Income PRIDES beneficially owned by that U.S. holder in the event of a tax event redemption prior to the purchase contract settlement date. Based upon this agreement, each U.S. holder will include in income any amount earned on its pro rata portion of the treasury portfolio for all United States federal, state and local income and franchise tax purposes. The remainder of this summary assumes that U.S. holders of Income PRIDES will be treated as the owners of the applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio constituting a part of those Income PRIDES for United States federal, state and local income and franchise tax purposes.

ORIGINAL ISSUE DISCOUNT. The treasury portfolio will consist of stripped U.S. treasury securities. Following a tax event redemption prior to the purchase contract settlement date, a U.S. holder of Income PRIDES will be required to treat its pro rata portion of each U.S. treasury security in the treasury portfolio as a bond that was originally issued on the date the collateral agent acquired the relevant U.S. treasury security and that has OID equal to the U.S. holder's pro rata portion of the excess of the amounts payable on that U.S. treasury security over the value of the U.S. treasury security at the time the collateral agent acquires them on behalf of holders of Income PRIDES. A U.S. holder will be required to include that OID in income on a daily economic basis over the life of the U.S. treasury security. The aggregate amount of this excess will constitute only a portion of the total amounts payable in respect of the treasury portfolio. Consequently, a portion of each scheduled interest payment to U.S. holders will be treated as a return of the U.S. holders' investment in the treasury portfolio and will not be considered current income for United States federal income tax purposes.

A U.S. holder, whether on the cash or accrual method of tax accounting, will be required to include OID (other than OID on short-term U.S. treasury securities as defined below) in income for United States federal income tax purposes as it accrues on a constant yield to maturity basis. See "Trust Preferred Securities-- Interest Income and Original Issue Discount." In the case of any U.S. treasury security with a maturity of one year or less from the date of its issue (as "short-term U.S. treasury security"), in general only accrual basis taxpayers will be required to include OID in income as it accrues. Unless an accrual basis U.S. holder elects to accrue the OID on a short-term U.S. treasury security according to the constant-yield-to-maturity method, such OID will be accrued on a straight-line basis.

TAX BASIS OF THE TREASURY PORTFOLIO. A U.S. holder's initial tax basis in its applicable ownership interest of the treasury portfolio will equal the U.S. holder's pro rata portion of the amount paid by the collateral agent for the treasury portfolio. A U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the treasury portfolio will be increased by the amount of OID included in income with respect to the treasury portfolio and decreased by the amount of cash received in respect of the treasury portfolio.

ITEM 15. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law empowers a Delaware corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of such corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such corporation or is or was serving at the request of such corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise. The indemnity may include expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, provided that such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was unlawful. A Delaware corporation may indemnify directors, officers, employees and other agents of such corporation in an action by or in the right of a corporation under the same conditions, except that no indemnification is permitted without judicial approval if the person to be indemnified has been adjudged to be liable to the corporation. Where a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation is successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to above or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the corporation must indemnify such person against the expenses (including attorneys' fees) which he or she actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith.

The Registrant's By-Laws contain provisions that provide for indemnification of officers and directors and their heirs and distributees to full extent permitted by, and in the manner permissible under, the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

As permitted by Section 102(b)(7) of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, registrant's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation contains a provision eliminating the personal liability of a director to the Registrant or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, subject to certain exceptions.

The Company maintains, at its expense, a policy of insurance which insures its directors and officers, subject to certain exclusions and deductions as are usual in such insurance policies, against certain liabilities which may be incurred in those capacities.

Article IV of the Declaration of Trust for the Trusts limit the liability to the Trusts and certain other persons and provides for the indemnification by the Trusts or the Company of Trustees, the Officers, other employees and certain other persons.

ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS.

(a) The Undersigned Registrants hereby undertake:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement, to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Registrants hereby undertake that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of each such Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof;

(h) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrants pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrants have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by Registrants of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of such Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, such Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(i) The undersigned Registrants hereby undertake that:

(1) For the purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of this registration statement in reliance upon Rule 430A and contained in a form of prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(1) or (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of this Registration Statement as of the time it was declared effective.

(2) For the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Declaration, the Delaware Trustee shall not be entitled to exercise any of the powers, nor shall the Delaware Trustee have any of the duties and responsibilities of the Regular Trustees described in this Declaration. The Delaware Trustee shall be a Trustee for the sole and limited purpose of fulfilling the requirements of section 3807 of the Business Trust Act. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Delaware Trustee shall not be liable for the acts or omissions to act of the Trust, of the Sponsor or of the Regular Trustees except that such limitation shall not limit the liability, if any, of the Delaware Trustee to a holder for acts that the Delaware Trustee is expressly obligated or authorized to undertake under this Declaration or the Business Trust Act or for the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may, at any time resign as Trustee hereunder upon 30 days' prior written notice of such resignation to the Sponsor. Upon its receipt of such notice of resignation, the Sponsor promptly shall appoint a successor Delaware Trustee (each, a "Successor Trustee") and such resignation shall take effect when the Successor Trustee accepts in writing the Successor Trustee's appointment as successor Delaware Trustee. If within such 30-day period, the Sponsor has failed to take appropriate steps to appoint a successor Trustee, the Delaware Trustee may, but shall not be required to, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a Successor Trustee. Such court may thereupon appoint a Successor Trustee after such notice to the Sponsor as such court may deem proper and prescribe. The resignation of the Delaware Trustee shall not be deemed to constitute bad faith for the purposes of Section 4.2 (b) hereof.

SECTION 3.4 Institutional Trustee.

Prior to the issuance of the Preferred Securities and Common Securities, the Sponsor shall appoint a trustee (the "Institutional Trustee") meeting the requirements of an eligible trustee of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended, by the execution of an amendment to this Declaration executed by the Regular Trustees, the Sponsor, the Institutional Trustee and the Delaware Trustee.

Section 3.5 Not Responsible for Recitals or Sufficiency of Declaration.

The recitals contained in this Declaration shall be taken as the statements of the Sponsor, and the Trustees do not assume any responsibility for their correctness. The Trustees make no representations as to the value or condition of the property of the Trust or any part thereof. The Trustees make no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Declaration.

ARTICLE IV LIMITATION OF LIABILITY OF HOLDERS OF SECURITIES, TRUSTEES OR OTHERS

SECTION 4.1 Exculpation.

(a) No Indemnified Person shall be liable, responsible or accountable in damages or otherwise to the Trust or any Covered Person for any loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Indemnified Person in good faith on behalf of the Trust and in a manner such Indemnified Person reasonably believed to be within the scope of the authority conferred on such Indemnified Person by this Declaration or by law, except that an Indemnified Person shall be liable for any such loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of such Indemnified Person's gross negligence or willful misconduct with respect to such acts or omissions; and

(b) an Indemnified Person shall be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the Trust and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the Trust by any Person as to matters the Indemnified Person reasonably believes are within such other Person's professional or expert competence and who if selected by such Indemnified Person has been selected with reasonable care, including information, opinions, reports or statements as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities, profits, losses, or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of assets from which distributions to holders of Securities might properly be paid.

SECTION 4.2 Fiduciary Duty.

(a) To the extent that, at law or in equity, an Indemnified Person has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Trust or to any other Covered Person, an Indemnified Person acting under this Declaration shall not be liable to the Trust or to any other Covered Person for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Declaration. The provisions of this Declaration, to the extent that they restrict the duties and liabilities of an Indemnified Person otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the parties hereto to replace such other duties and liabilities of such Indemnified Person;

(b) unless otherwise expressly provided herein:

(i) whenever a conflict of interest exists or arises between an Indemnified Person and any Covered Persons; or

(ii) whenever this Declaration or any other agreement contemplated herein or therein provides that an Indemnified Person shall act in a manner that is, or provides terms that are, fair and reasonable to the Trust or any holder of Securities, the Indemnified Person shall resolve such conflict of interest, take such action or provide such terms, considering in each case the relative interest of each party (including its own interest) to such conflict, agreement, transaction or situation and the benefits and burdens relating to such interests, any customary or accepted industry practices, and any applicable generally accepted accounting practices or principles. In the absence of bad faith by the Indemnified Person, the resolution, action or term so made, taken or provided by the Indemnified Person shall not constitute a breach of this Declaration or any other agreement contemplated herein or of any duty or obligation of the Indemnified Person at law or in equity or otherwise; and

(c) whenever in this Declaration an Indemnified Person is permitted or required to make a decision:

(i) in its "discretion" or under a grant of similar authority, the Indemnified Person shall be entitled to consider such interests and factors as it desires, including its own interests, and shall have no duty or obligation to give any consideration to any interest of or factors affecting the Trust or any other Person; or

(ii) in its "good faith" or under another express standard, the Indemnified Person shall act under such express standard and shall not be subject to any other or different standard imposed by this Declaration or by applicable law.

SECTION 4.3 Indemnification.

(a)(i) The Debenture Issuer shall indemnify, to the full extent permitted by law, any Company Indemnified Person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Trust) by reason of the fact that he is or was a Company Indemnified Person against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Trust, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the Company Indemnified Person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Trust, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(ii) The Debenture Issuer shall indemnify, to the full extent permitted by law, any Company Indemnified Person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Trust to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a Company Indemnified Person against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Trust and except that no such indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such Company Indemnified Person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Trust unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery of Delaware or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

(iii) To the extent that a Company Indemnified Person shall be successful on the merits or otherwise (including dismissal of an action without prejudice or the settlement of an action without admission of liability) in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in paragraphs (i) and (ii) of this Section 4.3(a), or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified, to the full extent permitted by law, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

(iv) Any indemnification under paragraphs (i) and (ii) of this Section 4.3(a) (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Debenture Issuer only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Company Indemnified Person is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in paragraphs (i) and (ii). Such determination shall be made (1) by the Regular Trustees by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of such Regular Trustees who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, (2) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested Regular Trustees so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (3) by the Common Security Holder of the Trust.

(v) Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by a Company Indemnified Person in defending a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding referred to in paragraphs (i) and (ii) of this Section 4.3(a) shall be paid by the Debenture Issuer in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Company Indemnified Person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Debenture Issuer as authorized in this Section 4.3(a). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no advance shall be made by the Debenture Issuer if a determination is reasonably and promptly made (i) by the Regular Trustees by a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested Regular Trustees, (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested Regular Trustees so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion or (iii) the Common Security Holder of the Trust, that, based upon the facts known to the Regular Trustees, counsel or the Common Security Holder at the time such determination is made, such Company Indemnified Person acted in bad faith or in a manner that such person did not believe to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Trust, or, with respect to any criminal proceeding, that such Company Indemnified Person believed or had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. In no event shall any advance be made in instances where the Regular Trustees, independent legal counsel or Common Security Holder reasonably determine that such person deliberately breached his duty to the Trust or its Common or Preferred Security Holders.

(vi) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the other paragraphs of this Section 4.3(a) shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification and advancement of expenses may be entitled under any agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors of the Debenture Issuer or Preferred Security Holders of the Trust or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. All rights to indemnification under this Section 4.3(a) shall be deemed to be provided by a contract between the Debenture Issuer and each Company Indemnified Person who serves in such capacity at any time while this Section 4.3(a) is in effect. Any repeal or modification of this Section 4.3(a) shall not affect any rights or obligations then existing.

(vii) The Debenture Issuer or the Trust may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a Company Indemnified Person against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Debenture Issuer would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Section 4.3(a).

(viii) For purposes of this Section 4.3(a), references to "the Trust" shall include, in addition to the resulting or surviving entity, any constituent entity (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger, so that any person who is or was a director, trustee, officer or employee of such constituent entity, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent entity as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another entity, shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Section 4.3(a) with respect to the resulting or surviving entity as he would have with respect to such constituent entity if its separate existence had continued.

(ix) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 4.3(a) shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Company Indemnified Person and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(b) (i) The Debenture Issuer agrees to indemnify the (1) the Delaware Trustee, (2) any Affiliate, to the full extent permitted by law, of the Delaware Trustee, and (3) any officers, directors, shareholders, members, partners, employees, representatives, nominees, custodians or agents of the Delaware Trustee (each of the Persons in (1) through (3) being referred to as a "Fiduciary Indemnified Person") for, and to hold each Fiduciary Indemnified Person harmless against, any loss, liability or expense incurred without gross negligence or bad faith on its part, arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the trust or trusts hereunder, including the costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) of defending itself against, or investigating, any claim or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder. (ii) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, expenses (including reasonable and documented legal fees) incurred by a Fiduciary Indemnified Person in defending any claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding shall, from time to time, be advanced by the Debenture Issuer prior to the final disposition of such claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding upon receipt by the Debenture Issuer of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Fiduciary Indemnified Person to repay such amount if it shall be determined that the Indemnified Person is not entitled to be indemnified as authorized in Section 4.3 (b) (i). (iii) The obligation to indemnify and advance expenses as set forth in this Section 4.3(b) shall survive the termination of this Declaration and shall survive the resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee.

SECTION 4.4 Outside Businesses.

Any Covered Person, the Sponsor and the Delaware Trustee may engage in or possess an interest in other business ventures of any nature or description, independently or with others, similar or dissimilar to the business of the Trust, and the Trust and the Holders of Securities shall have no rights by virtue of this Declaration in and to such independent ventures or the income or profits derived therefrom and the pursuit of any such venture, even if competitive with the business of the Trust, shall not be deemed wrongful or improper. No Covered Person, the Sponsor or the Delaware Trustee shall be obligated to present any particular investment or other opportunity to the Trust even if such opportunity is of a character that, if presented to the Trust, could be taken by the Trust, and any Covered Person, the Sponsor and the Delaware Trustee shall have the right to take for its own account (individually or as a partner or fiduciary) or to recommend to others any such particular investment or other opportunity. Any Covered Person and the Delaware Trustee may engage or be interested in any financial or other transaction with the Sponsor or any Affiliate of the Sponsor, or may act as depositary for, trustee or agent for or may act on any committee or body of holders of, securities or other obligations of the Sponsor or its Affiliates.

At any time before the issue of any Securities, this Declaration may be amended by, and only by, a written instrument executed by all of the Regular Trustees and the Sponsor; provided, however, if the amendment affects the rights, powers, duties, obligations or immunities of the Delaware Trustee, the amendment shall not be effective unless approved in writing by the Delaware Trustee.

SECTION 5.2 Termination of Trust.

- (a) The Trust shall terminate and be of no further force or effect:

SECTION 5.4 Headings.

Headings contained in this Declaration are inserted for convenience of reference only and do not affect the interpretation of this Declaration or any provision hereof.

SECTION 5.5 Successors and Assigns.

Whenever in this Declaration any of the parties hereto is named or referred to, the successors and assigns of such party shall be deemed to be included, and all covenants and agreements in this Declaration by the Sponsor and the Trustees shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and assigns, whether so expressed.

SECTION 5.6 Partial Enforceability.

If any provision of this Declaration, or the application of such provision to any Person or circumstance, shall be held invalid, the remainder of this Declaration, or the application of such provision to SECTION 3.3 Delaware Trustee.

The initial Delaware Trustee shall be:

Wilmington Trust Company
Rodney Square North,
1100 North Market Street,
Wilmington, Delaware 19890

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Declaration, the Delaware Trustee shall not be entitled to exercise any of the powers, nor shall the Delaware Trustee have any of the duties and responsibilities of the Regular Trustees described in this Declaration. The Delaware Trustee shall be a Trustee for the sole and limited purpose of fulfilling the requirements of section 3807 of the Business Trust Act. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Delaware Trustee shall not be liable for the acts or omissions to act of the Trust, of the Sponsor or of the Regular Trustees except that such limitation shall not limit the liability, if any, of the Delaware Trustee to a holder for acts that the Delaware Trustee is expressly obligated or authorized to undertake under this Declaration or the Business Trust Act or for the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may, at any time resign as Trustee hereunder upon 30 days' prior written notice of such resignation to the Sponsor. Upon its receipt of such notice of resignation, the Sponsor promptly shall appoint a successor Delaware Trustee (each, a "Successor Trustee") and such resignation shall take effect when the Successor Trustee accepts in writing the Successor Trustee's appointment as successor Delaware Trustee. If within such 30-day period, the Sponsor has failed to take appropriate steps to appoint a successor Trustee, the Delaware Trustee may, but shall not be required to, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a Successor Trustee. Such court may thereupon appoint a Successor Trustee after such notice to the Sponsor as such court may deem proper and prescribe. The resignation of the Delaware Trustee shall not be deemed to constitute bad faith for the purposes of Section 4.2 (b) hereof.

SECTION 3.4 Institutional Trustee.

Prior to the issuance of the Preferred Securities and Common Securities, the Sponsor shall appoint a trustee (the "Institutional Trustee") meeting the requirements of an eligible trustee of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended, by the execution of an amendment to this Declaration executed by the Regular Trustees, the Sponsor, the Institutional Trustee and the Delaware Trustee.

Section 3.5 Not Responsible for Recitals or Sufficiency of Declaration.

The recitals contained in this Declaration shall be taken as the statements of the Sponsor, and the Trustees do not assume any responsibility for their correctness. The Trustees make no representations as to the value or condition of the property of the Trust or any part thereof. The Trustees make no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of this Declaration.

ARTICLE IV LIMITATION OF LIABILITY OF HOLDERS OF SECURITIES, TRUSTEES OR OTHERS

SECTION 4.1 Exculpation.

(a) No Indemnified Person shall be liable, responsible or accountable in damages or otherwise to the Trust or any Covered Person for any loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Indemnified Person in good faith on behalf of the Trust and in a manner such Indemnified Person reasonably believed to be within the scope of the authority conferred on such Indemnified Person by this Declaration or by law, except that an Indemnified Person shall be liable for any such loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of such Indemnified Person's gross negligence or willful misconduct with respect to such acts or omissions; and

(b) an Indemnified Person shall be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the Trust and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the Trust by any Person as to matters the Indemnified Person reasonably believes are within such other Person's professional or expert competence and who if selected by such Indemnified Person has been selected with reasonable care, including information, opinions, reports or statements as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities, profits, losses, or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of assets from which distributions to holders of Securities might properly be paid.

SECTION 4.2 Fiduciary Duty.

(a) To the extent that, at law or in equity, an Indemnified Person has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Trust or to any other Covered Person, an Indemnified Person acting under this Declaration shall not be liable to the Trust or to any other Covered Person for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Declaration. The provisions of this Declaration, to the extent that they restrict the duties and liabilities of an Indemnified Person otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the parties hereto to replace such other duties and liabilities of such Indemnified Person;

(b) unless otherwise expressly provided herein:

(i) whenever a conflict of interest exists or arises between an Indemnified Person and any Covered Persons; or

(ii) whenever this Declaration or any other agreement contemplated herein or therein provides that an Indemnified Person shall act in a manner that is, or provides terms that are, fair and reasonable to the Trust or any holder of Securities, the Indemnified Person shall resolve such conflict of interest, take such action or provide such terms, considering in each case the relative interest of each party (including its own interest) to such conflict, agreement, transaction or situation and the benefits and burdens relating to such interests, any customary or accepted industry practices, and any applicable generally accepted accounting practices or principles. In the absence of bad faith by the Indemnified Person, the resolution, action or term so made, taken or provided by the Indemnified Person shall not constitute a breach of this Declaration or any other agreement contemplated herein or of any duty or obligation of the Indemnified Person at law or in equity or otherwise; and

(c) whenever in this Declaration an Indemnified Person is permitted or required to make a decision:

(i) in its "discretion" or under a grant of similar authority, the Indemnified Person shall be entitled to consider such interests and factors as it desires, including its own interests, and shall have no duty or obligation to give any consideration to any interest of or factors affecting the Trust or any other Person; or

(ii) in its "good faith" or under another express standard, the Indemnified Person shall act under such express standard and shall not be subject to any other or different standard imposed by this Declaration or by applicable law.

SECTION 4.3 Indemnification.

(a)(i) The Debenture Issuer shall indemnify, to the full extent permitted by law, any Company Indemnified Person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Trust) by reason of the fact that he is or was a Company Indemnified Person against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Trust, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the Company Indemnified Person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Trust, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(ii) The Debenture Issuer shall indemnify, to the full extent permitted by law, any Company Indemnified Person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Trust to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a Company Indemnified Person against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Trust and except that no such indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such Company Indemnified Person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Trust unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery of Delaware or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

(iii) To the extent that a Company Indemnified Person shall be successful on the merits or otherwise (including dismissal of an action without prejudice or the settlement of an action without admission of liability) in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in paragraphs (i) and (ii) of this Section 4.3(a), or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified, to the full extent permitted by law, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

(iv) Any indemnification under paragraphs (i) and (ii) of this Section 4.3(a) (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Debenture Issuer only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Company Indemnified Person is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in paragraphs (i) and (ii). Such determination shall be made (1) by the Regular Trustees by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of such Regular Trustees who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, (2) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested Regular Trustees so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (3) by the Common Security Holder of the Trust.

(v) Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by a Company Indemnified Person in defending a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding referred to in paragraphs (i) and (ii) of this Section 4.3(a) shall be paid by the Debenture Issuer in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Company Indemnified Person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the Debenture Issuer as authorized in this Section 4.3(a). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no advance shall be made by the Debenture Issuer if a determination is reasonably and promptly made (i) by the Regular Trustees by a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested Regular Trustees, (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested Regular Trustees so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion or (iii) the Common Security Holder of the Trust, that, based upon the facts known to the Regular Trustees, counsel or the Common Security Holder at the time such determination is made, such Company Indemnified Person acted in bad faith or in a manner that such person did not believe to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Trust, or, with respect to any criminal proceeding, that such Company Indemnified Person believed or had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. In no event shall any advance be made in instances where the Regular Trustees, independent legal counsel or Common Security Holder reasonably determine that such person deliberately breached his duty to the Trust or its Common or Preferred Security Holders.

(vi) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the other paragraphs of this Section 4.3(a) shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification and advancement of expenses may be entitled under any agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors of the Debenture Issuer or Preferred Security Holders of the Trust or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. All rights to indemnification under this Section 4.3(a) shall be deemed to be provided by a contract between the Debenture Issuer and each Company Indemnified Person who serves in such capacity at any time while this Section 4.3(a) is in effect. Any repeal or modification of this Section 4.3(a) shall not affect any rights or obligations then existing.

(vii) The Debenture Issuer or the Trust may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a Company Indemnified Person against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Debenture Issuer would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Section 4.3(a).

(viii) For purposes of this Section 4.3(a), references to "the Trust" shall include, in addition to the resulting or surviving entity, any constituent entity (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger, so that any person who is or was a director, trustee, officer or employee of such constituent entity, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent entity as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another entity, shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Section 4.3(a) with respect to the resulting or surviving entity as he would have with respect to such constituent entity if its separate existence had continued.

(ix) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 4.3(a) shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Company Indemnified Person and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(b) (i) The Debenture Issuer agrees to indemnify the (1) the Delaware Trustee, (2) any Affiliate, to the full extent permitted by law, of the Delaware Trustee, and (3) any officers, directors, shareholders, members, partners, employees, representatives, nominees, custodians or agents of the Delaware Trustee (each of the Persons in (1) through (3) being referred to as a "Fiduciary Indemnified Person") for, and to hold each Fiduciary Indemnified Person harmless against, any loss, liability or expense incurred without gross negligence or bad faith on its part, arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the trust or trusts hereunder, including the costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) of defending itself against, or investigating, any claim or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder. (ii) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, expenses (including reasonable and documented legal fees) incurred by a Fiduciary Indemnified Person in defending any claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding shall, from time to time, be advanced by the Debenture Issuer prior to the final disposition of such claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding upon receipt by the Debenture Issuer of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Fiduciary Indemnified Person to repay such amount if it shall be determined that the Indemnified Person is not entitled to be indemnified as authorized in Section 4.3 (b) (i). (iii) The obligation to indemnify and advance expenses as set forth in this Section 4.3(b) shall survive the termination of this Declaration and shall survive the resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee.

SECTION 4.4 Outside Businesses.

Any Covered Person, the Sponsor and the Delaware Trustee may engage in or possess an interest in other business ventures of any nature or description, independently or with others, similar or dissimilar to the business of the Trust, and the Trust and the Holders of Securities shall have no rights by virtue of this Declaration in and to such independent ventures or the income or profits derived therefrom and the pursuit of any such venture, even if competitive with the business of the Trust, shall not be deemed wrongful or improper. No Covered Person, the Sponsor or the Delaware Trustee shall be obligated to present any particular investment or other opportunity to the Trust even if such opportunity is of a character that, if presented to the Trust, could be taken by the Trust, and any Covered Person, the Sponsor and the Delaware Trustee shall have the right to take for its own account (individually or as a partner or fiduciary) or to recommend to others any such particular investment or other opportunity. Any Covered Person and the Delaware Trustee may engage or be interested in any financial or other transaction with the Sponsor or any Affiliate of the Sponsor, or may act as depository for, trustee or agent for or may act on any committee or body of holders of, securities or other obligations of the Sponsor or its Affiliates.

(e) The Institutional Trustee shall take any Legal Action which arises out of or in connection with an Event of Default of which a Responsible Officer of the Institutional Trustee has actual knowledge or the Institutional Trustee's duties and obligations under this Declaration, the Business Trust Act or the Trust Indenture Act; provided, however, that if the Institutional Trustee fails to enforce its rights under the Debentures after a Holder of Preferred Securities has made a written request, such Holder of Preferred Securities may, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, institute a legal proceeding against the Debenture Issuer without first instituting any legal proceeding against the Institutional Trustee or any other person or entity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and such event is attributable to the failure of the Debenture Issuer to pay interest on or principal of the Debentures on the date such interest or principal is otherwise payable (or in the case of redemption, on the redemption date), then a Holder of Preferred Securities may directly institute a proceeding for enforcement of payment to such Holder of the principal of or interest on the Debentures having a principal amount equal to the aggregate liquidation amount of the Preferred Securities of such holder (a "Direct Action") on or after the respective due date specified in the Debentures. In connection with such Direct Action, the rights of the Holders of Common Securities will be subrogated to the rights of such Holders of Preferred Securities. In connection with such Direct Action, the Debenture Issuer shall be subrogated to the rights of such Holder of Preferred Securities with respect to payments on the Preferred Securities under this Declaration to the extent of any payment made by the Debenture Issuer to such Holder of Preferred Securities in such Direct Action. Except as provided in the preceding sentences, the Holders of Preferred Securities will not be able to exercise directly any other remedy available to the Holders of the Debentures.

(f) The Institutional Trustee shall continue to serve as a Trustee until either:

(i) the Trust has been completely liquidated and the proceeds of the liquidation distributed to the Holders of Securities pursuant to the terms of the Securities; or

(ii) a Successor Institutional Trustee has been appointed and has accepted that appointment in accordance with Section 5.6.

(g) The Institutional Trustee shall have the legal power to exercise all of the rights, powers and privileges of a holder of Debentures under the Indenture and, if an Event of Default actually known to a Responsible Officer of the Institutional Trustee occurs and is continuing, the Institutional Trustee shall, for the benefit of Holders of the Securities, enforce its rights as holder of the Debentures subject to the rights of the Holders pursuant to the terms of such Securities and this Declaration.

(h) Subject to this Section 3.8, the Institutional Trustee shall have none of the duties, liabilities, powers or the authority of the Regular Trustees set forth in Section 3.6.

In case an Event of Default has occurred (that has not been cured or waived pursuant to Section 2.6) of which a Responsible Officer of the Institutional Trustee has actual knowledge, the Institutional Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by this Declaration, and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise, as a prudent person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of his or her own affairs.

(b) No provision of this Declaration shall be construed to relieve the Institutional Trustee from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act, or its own willful misconduct, except that:

(i) prior to the occurrence of an Event of Default and after the curing or waiving of all such Events of Default that may have occurred:

(A) the duties and obligations of the Institutional Trustee shall be determined solely by the express provisions of this Declaration and the Institutional Trustee shall not be liable except for the performance of such duties and obligations as are specifically set forth in this Declaration, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Declaration against the Institutional Trustee; and

(B) in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Institutional Trustee, the Institutional Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon any certificates or opinions furnished to the Institutional Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Declaration; but in the case of any such certificates or opinions that by any provision hereof are specifically required to be furnished to the Institutional Trustee, the Institutional Trustee shall be under a duty to examine the same to determine whether or not they conform to the requirements of this Declaration;

(ii) the Institutional Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Responsible Officer of the Institutional Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Institutional Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts;

(iii) the Institutional Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Holders of not less than a Majority in liquidation amount of the Securities relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Institutional Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Institutional Trustee under this Declaration;

(iv) no provision of this Declaration shall require the Institutional Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur personal financial liability in the performance of any of its duties or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that the repayment of such funds or liability is not reasonably assured to it under the terms of this Declaration or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Institutional Trustee against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it;

(v) the Institutional Trustee's sole duty with respect to the custody, safe keeping and physical preservation of the Debentures and the Institutional Trustee Account shall be to deal with such property in a similar manner as the Institutional Trustee deals with similar property for its fiduciary accounts generally, subject to the protections and limitations on liability afforded to the Institutional Trustee under this Declaration, the Business Trust Act and the Trust Indenture Act;

(vi) the Institutional Trustee shall have no duty or liability for or with respect to the value, genuineness, existence or sufficiency of the Debentures or the payment of any taxes or assessments levied thereon or in connection therewith;

(vii) the Institutional Trustee shall not be liable for any interest on any money received by it except as it may otherwise agree with the Sponsor. Money held by the Institutional Trustee need not be segregated from other funds held by it except in relation to the Institutional Trustee Account maintained by the Institutional Trustee pursuant to Section 3.8(c)(i) and except to the extent otherwise required by law; and (viii) the Institutional Trustee shall not be responsible for monitoring the compliance by the Regular Trustees or the Sponsor with their respective duties under this Declaration, nor shall the Institutional Trustee be liable for any default or misconduct of the Regular Trustees or the Sponsor.

SECTION 5.10 CERTAIN RIGHTS OF INSTITUTIONAL TRUSTEE.

(a) Subject to the provisions of Section 3.9:

(i) the Institutional Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be fully protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or presented by the proper party or parties;

The Institutional Trustee shall have the right at any time to seek instructions concerning the administration of this Declaration from any court of competent jurisdiction;

(vi) the Institutional Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Declaration at the request or direction of any Holder, unless such Holder shall have provided to the Institutional Trustee security and indemnity, reasonably satisfactory to the Institutional Trustee, against the costs, expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses and the expenses of the Institutional Trustee's agents, nominees or custodians) and liabilities that might be incurred by it in complying with such request or direction, including such reasonable advances as may be requested by the Institutional Trustee provided, that, nothing contained in this Section 3.10(a)(vi) shall be taken to relieve the Institutional Trustee, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, of its obligation to exercise the rights and powers vested in it by this Declaration;

(vii) investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document, but the

Institutional Trustee, in its discretion, may make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit;

(viii) the Institutional Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, custodians, nominees or attorneys and the Institutional Trustee shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it hereunder;

(ix) any action taken by the Institutional Trustee or its agents hereunder shall bind the Trust and the Holders of the Securities, and the signature of the Institutional Trustee or its agents alone shall be sufficient and effective to perform any such action and no third party shall be required to inquire as to the authority of the Institutional Trustee to so act or as to its compliance with any of the terms and provisions of this Declaration, both of which shall be conclusively evidenced by the Institutional Trustee's or its agent's taking such action;

(x) whenever in the administration of this Declaration the Institutional Trustee shall deem it desirable to receive instructions with respect to enforcing any remedy or right or taking any other action hereunder, the Institutional Trustee (i) may request instructions from the Holders of the Securities which instructions may only be given by the Holders of the same proportion in liquidation amount of the Securities as would be entitled to direct the Institutional Trustee under the terms of the Securities in respect of such remedy, right or action, (ii) may refrain from enforcing such remedy or right or taking such other action until such instructions are received, and (iii) shall be protected in conclusively relying on or acting in or accordance with such instructions; and

(xi) except as otherwise expressly provided by this Declaration, the Institutional Trustee shall not be under any obligation to take any action that is discretionary under the provisions of this Declaration.

(b) No provision of this Declaration shall be deemed to impose any duty or obligation on the Institutional Trustee to perform any act or acts or exercise any right, power, duty or obligation conferred or imposed on it, in any jurisdiction in which it shall be illegal, or in which the Institutional Trustee shall be unqualified or incompetent in accordance with applicable law, to perform any such act or acts, or to exercise any such right, power, duty or obligation. (a) The Regular Trustees shall, on behalf of the Trust, issue one class of preferred securities representing undivided beneficial interests in the assets of the Trust having such terms as are set forth in Annex I (the "Preferred Securities") and one class of common securities representing undivided beneficial interests in the assets of the Trust having such terms as are set forth in Annex I (the "Common Securities"). The Trust shall issue no securities or other interests in the assets of the Trust other than the Preferred Securities and the Common Securities.

(b) The Certificates shall be signed on behalf of the Trust by a Regular Trustee. Such signature shall be the manual or facsimile signature of any present or any future Regular Trustee. In case any Regular Trustee who shall have signed any of the Securities shall cease to be such Regular Trustee before the Certificates so signed shall be delivered by the Trust, such Certificates nevertheless may be delivered as though the person who signed such Certificates had not ceased to be such Regular Trustee; and any Certificate may be signed on behalf of the Trust by such persons who, at the actual date of execution of such Certificate, shall be the Regular Trustees of the Trust, although at the date of the execution and delivery of the Declaration any such person was not such a Regular Trustee. Certificates shall be printed, lithographed or engraved or may be produced in any other manner as is reasonably acceptable to the Regular Trustees, as evidenced by their execution thereof, and may have such letters, numbers or other marks of identification or designation and such legends or endorsements as the Regular Trustees may deem appropriate, or as may be required to comply with any law or with any rule or regulation of any stock exchange on which Securities may be listed, or to conform to usage.

(c) The consideration received by the Trust for the issuance of the Securities shall constitute a contribution to the capital of the Trust and shall not constitute a loan to the Trust.

(d) Upon issuance of the Securities as provided in this Declaration, the Securities so issued shall be deemed to be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

(e) Every Person, by virtue of having become a Holder or a Preferred Security Beneficial Owner in accordance with the terms of this Declaration, shall be deemed to have expressly assented and agreed to the terms of, and shall be bound by, this Declaration.

SECTION 13.2 PAYING AGENT.

In the event that the Preferred Securities are not in book-entry only form, the Trust shall maintain in the borough of Manhattan, City of New York, State of New York, an office or agency where the Preferred Securities may be presented for payment ("Paying Agent"), and any such Paying Agent shall comply with Section 317(b) of the Trust Indenture Act. The Trust may appoint the Paying Agent and may appoint one or more additional paying agents in such other locations as it shall determine. The term "Paying Agent" includes any additional paying agent. The Trust may change any Paying Agent without prior notice to any Holder. The Trust shall notify the Institutional Trustee of the name and address of any Paying Agent not a party to this Declaration. If the Trust fails to appoint or maintain another entity as Paying Agent, the Institutional Trustee shall act as such. The Trust or any of its Affiliates (including the Sponsor) may act as Paying Agent. The Institutional Trustee shall initially act as Paying Agent for the Preferred Securities and the Common Securities.

ARTICLE XV TERMINATION OF TRUST

SECTION 15.1 TERMINATION OF TRUST.

(a) The Trust shall terminate:

(i) upon a Termination Event;

(ii) upon the filing of a certificate of dissolution or its equivalent with respect to the Sponsor; or the revocation of the Sponsor's charter and the expiration of 90 days after the date of revocation without a reinstatement thereof;

(iii) upon the entry of a decree of judicial dissolution of the Holder of the Common Securities, the Sponsor or the Trust;

(iv) upon the occurrence and continuation of an Investment Company Event pursuant to which the Trust shall have been dissolved in accordance with the terms of the Securities and all of the Debentures endorsed thereon shall have been distributed to the Holders of Securities in exchange for all of the Securities;

(v) when all the Securities shall have been called for redemption and the amounts necessary for redemption thereof shall have been paid to the Holders in accordance with the terms of the Securities; or

(vi) before the issuance of any Securities, with the consent of all of the Regular Trustees and the Sponsor.

(b) As soon as is practicable after the occurrence of an event referred to in Section 8.1(a) and upon completion of the winding-up of the Trust and its termination, the Trustees shall file a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.

(c) The provisions of Section 4.4 and Article X shall survive the termination of the Trust.

ARTICLE XVII
TRANSFER OF INTERESTS

SECTION 17.1 TRANSFER OF SECURITIES.

(a) Securities may only be transferred, in whole or in part, in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Declaration and in the terms of the Securities. Any transfer or purported transfer of any Security not made in accordance with this Declaration shall be null and void.

(b) Subject to this Article IX, Preferred Securities shall be freely transferable.

(c) Subject to this Article IX, the Sponsor and any Related Party may only transfer Common Securities to the Sponsor or a Related Party of the Sponsor; provided that, any such transfer is subject to the condition precedent that the transferor obtain the written opinion of nationally recognized independent counsel experienced in such matters that such transfer would not cause more than an insubstantial risk that:

(i) the Trust would not be classified for United States federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust; and

(ii) the Trust would be an Investment Company or the transferee would become an Investment Company.

SECTION 17.2 TRANSFER OF CERTIFICATES.

The Regular Trustees shall provide for the registration of Certificates and of transfers of Certificates, which will be effected without charge but only upon payment (with such indemnity as the Regular Trustees may require) in respect of any tax or other government charges that may be imposed in relation to it. Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Certificate, the Regular Trustees shall cause one or more new Certificates to be issued in the name of the designated transferee or transferees. Every Certificate surrendered for registration of transfer shall be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Regular Trustees duly executed by the Holder or such Holder's attorney duly authorized in writing. Each Certificate surrendered for registration of transfer shall be canceled by the Regular Trustees. A transferee of a Certificate shall be entitled to the rights and subject to the obligations of a Holder hereunder upon the receipt by such transferee of a Certificate. By acceptance of a Certificate, each transferee shall be deemed to have agreed to be bound by this Declaration.

SECTION 17.3 DEEMED SECURITY HOLDERS.

The Trustees may treat the Person in whose name any Certificate shall be registered on the books and records of the Trust as the sole holder of such Certificate and of the Securities represented by such Certificate for purposes of receiving Distributions and for all other purposes whatsoever and, accordingly, shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such Certificate or in the Securities represented by such Certificate on the part of any Person, whether or not the Trust shall have actual or other notice thereof.

SECTION 17.4 BOOK ENTRY INTERESTS.

The Preferred Securities Certificates, on original issuance, in addition to being issued in the form of one or more definitive, fully registered Preferred Securities Certificate (each a "Definitive Preferred Securities Certificate") registered initially in the books and records of the Trust in the name of [NAME], as Purchase Contract Agent, will be issued in the form of one or more, fully registered, global Preferred Security Certificates (each a "Global Certificate"), to be delivered to DTC, the initial Clearing Agency, by, or on behalf of, the Trust. Such Global Certificate(s) shall initially be registered on the books and records of the Trust in the name of Cede & Co., the nominee of DTC, and no Preferred Security Beneficial Owner will receive a definitive Preferred Security Certificate representing such Preferred Security Beneficial Owner's interests in such Global Certificate(s), except as provided in Section 9.7. Except for the Definitive Preferred Security Certificates as specified herein and the definitive, fully registered Preferred Securities Certificates that have been issued to the Preferred Security Beneficial Owners pursuant to Section 9.7:

(a) the provisions of this Section 9.4 shall be in full force and effect;

(b) the Trust and the Trustees shall be entitled to deal with the Clearing Agency for all purposes of this Declaration (including the payment of Distributions on the Global Certificate(s) and receiving approvals, votes or consents hereunder) as the Holder of the Preferred Securities and the sole holder of the Global Certificate(s) and shall have no obligation to the Preferred Security Beneficial Owners;

(c) to the extent that the provisions of this Section 9.4 conflict with any other provisions of this Declaration, the provisions of this Section 9.4 shall control; and

(d) the rights of the Preferred Security Beneficial Owners shall be exercised only through the Clearing Agency and shall be limited to those established by law and agreements between such Preferred Security Beneficial Owners and the Clearing Agency and/or the Clearing Agency Participants to receive and transmit payments of Distributions on the Global Certificates to such Clearing Agency Participants. DTC will make book entry transfers among the Clearing Agency Participants; provided, that, solely for the purposes of determining whether the Holders of the requisite amount of Preferred Securities have voted on any matter provided for in this Declaration, so long as Definitive Preferred Security Certificates have not been issued, the Trustees may conclusively rely on, and shall be protected in relying on, any written instrument (including a proxy) delivered to the Trustees by the Clearing Agency setting forth the Preferred Security Beneficial Owners' votes or assigning the right to vote on any matter to any other Persons either in whole or in part.

SECTION 17.5 NOTICES TO CLEARING AGENCY.

Whenever a notice or other communication to the Preferred Security Holders is required under this Declaration, unless and until definitive fully registered Preferred Security Certificates shall have been issued to the Preferred Security Beneficial Owners pursuant to Section 9.7 or otherwise, the Regular Trustees shall give all such notices and communications specified herein to be given to the Preferred Security Holders to the Clearing Agency, and shall have no notice obligations to the Preferred Security Beneficial Owners.

SECTION 17.6 APPOINTMENT OF SUCCESSOR CLEARING AGENCY.

If any Clearing Agency elects to discontinue its services as securities depository with respect to the Preferred Securities, the Regular Trustees may, in their sole discretion, appoint a successor Clearing Agency with respect to such Preferred Securities.

SECTION 17.7 DEFINITIVE PREFERRED SECURITY CERTIFICATES.

If:

(a) a Clearing Agency elects to discontinue its services as securities depository with respect to the Preferred Securities and a successor Clearing Agency is not appointed within 90 days after such discontinuance pursuant to Section 9.6; or

(b) the Regular Trustees elect after consultation with the Sponsor to terminate the book entry system through the Clearing Agency with respect to the Preferred Securities, then:

(c) definitive fully registered Preferred Security Certificates shall be prepared by the Regular Trustees on behalf of the Trust with respect to such Preferred Securities; and

(d) upon surrender of the Global Certificate(s) by the Clearing Agency, accompanied by registration instructions, the Regular Trustees shall cause definitive fully registered Preferred Securities Certificates to be delivered to Preferred Security Beneficial Owners in accordance with the instructions of the Clearing Agency. Neither the Trustees nor the Trust shall be liable for any delay in delivery of such instructions and each of them may conclusively rely on and shall be protected in relying on, said instructions of the Clearing Agency. The definitive fully registered Preferred Security Certificates shall be printed, lithographed or engraved or may be produced in any other manner as is reasonably acceptable to the Regular Trustees, as evidenced by their execution thereof, and may have such letters, numbers or other marks of identification or designation and such legends or endorsements as the Regular Trustees may deem appropriate, or as may be required to comply with any law or with any rule or regulation made pursuant thereto or with any rule or regulation of any stock exchange on which Preferred Securities may be listed, or to conform to usage.

SECTION 17.8 MUTILATED, DESTROYED, LOST OR STOLEN CERTIFICATES.

If:

(a) any mutilated Certificate should be surrendered to the Regular Trustees, or if the Regular Trustees shall receive evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Certificate; and

(b) there shall be delivered to the Regular Trustees such security or indemnity as may be required by them to keep each of them and the Trust harmless, then, in the absence of notice that such Certificate shall have been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, any Regular Trustee on behalf of the Trust shall execute and deliver, in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Certificate, a new Certificate of like denomination. In connection with the issuance of any new Certificate under this Section 9.8, the Regular Trustees may require the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection therewith. Any duplicate Certificate issued pursuant to this Section shall constitute conclusive evidence of an ownership interest in the relevant Securities, as if originally issued, whether or not the lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate shall be found at any time.

ARTICLE XIX

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY OF HOLDERS OF SECURITIES, TRUSTEES OR OTHERS

SECTION 19.1 LIABILITY.

(a) Except as expressly set forth in this Declaration, the Debentures, the Securities Guarantees and the terms of the Securities, the Sponsor shall not be:

(i) personally liable for the return of any portion of the capital contributions (or any return thereon) of the Holders of the Securities, which shall be made solely from assets of the Trust; or

(ii) required to pay to the Trust or to any Holder of Securities any deficit upon dissolution of the Trust or otherwise.

(b) The Holder of the Common Securities shall be liable for all of the debts and obligations of the Trust (other than with respect to the Securities) to the extent not satisfied out of the Trust's assets.

(c) Pursuant to ss. 3803(a) of the Business Trust Act, the Holders of the Preferred Securities shall be entitled to the same limitation of personal liability extended to stockholders of private corporations for profit organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

SECTION 19.2 EXCULPATION.

(a) No Indemnified Person shall be liable, responsible or accountable in damages or otherwise to the Trust or any Covered Person for any loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Indemnified Person in good faith on behalf of the Trust and in a manner such Indemnified Person reasonably believed to be within the scope of the authority conferred on such Indemnified Person by this Declaration or by law, except that an Indemnified Person shall be liable for any such loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of such Indemnified Person's gross negligence or willful misconduct with respect to such acts or omissions.

(b) An Indemnified Person shall be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the Trust and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the Trust by any Person as to matters the Indemnified Person reasonably believes are within such other Person's professional or expert competence and who has been selected with reasonable care by or on behalf of the Trust, including information, opinions, reports or statements as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities, profits, losses, or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of assets from which Distributions to Holders of Securities might properly be paid.

SECTION 19.3 FIDUCIARY DUTY.

(a) To the extent that, at law or in equity, an Indemnified Person has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the Trust or to any other Covered Person, an Indemnified Person acting under this Declaration shall not be liable to the Trust or to any other Covered Person for its good faith reliance on the provisions of this Declaration. The provisions of this Declaration, to the extent that they restrict the duties and liabilities of an Indemnified Person otherwise existing at law or in equity (other than the duties imposed on the Institutional Trustee under the Trust Indenture Act), are agreed by the parties hereto to replace such other duties and liabilities of such Indemnified Person.

(b) Unless otherwise expressly provided herein:

(i) whenever a conflict of interest exists or arises between any Covered Persons; or

(ii) whenever this Declaration or any other agreement contemplated herein or therein provides that an Indemnified Person shall act in a manner that is, or provides terms that are, fair and reasonable to the Trust or any Holder of Securities, the Indemnified Person shall resolve such conflict of interest, take such action or provide such terms, considering in each case the relative interest of each party (including its own interest) to such conflict, agreement, transaction or situation and the benefits and burdens relating to such interests, any customary or accepted industry practices, and any applicable generally accepted accounting practices or principles. In the absence of bad faith by the Indemnified Person, the resolution, action or term so made, taken or provided by the Indemnified Person shall not constitute a breach of this Declaration or any other agreement contemplated herein or of any duty or obligation of the Indemnified Person at law or in equity or otherwise.

(c) Whenever in this Declaration an Indemnified Person is permitted or required to make a decision:

(i) in its "discretion" or under a grant of similar authority, the Indemnified Person shall be entitled to consider such interests and factors as it desires, including its own interests, and shall have no duty or obligation to give any consideration to any interest of or factors affecting the Trust or any other Person; or

(ii) in its "good faith" or under another express standard, the Indemnified Person shall act under such express standard and shall not be subject to any other or different standard imposed by this Declaration or by applicable law.

SECTION 19.4 INDEMNIFICATION.

(a) (i) The Sponsor shall indemnify, to the full extent permitted by law, any Company Indemnified Person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Trust) by reason of the fact that he is or was a Company Indemnified Person against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Trust, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the Company Indemnified Person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Trust, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(ii) The Sponsor shall indemnify, to the full extent permitted by law, any Company Indemnified Person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Trust to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a Company Indemnified Person against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Trust and except that no such indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such Company Indemnified Person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Trust unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery of Delaware or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

(iii) Any indemnification under paragraphs (i) and (ii) of this Section 10.4(a) (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Sponsor only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Company Indemnified Person is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in paragraphs (i) and (ii). Such determination shall be made (1) by the Regular Trustees by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of such Regular Trustees who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, (2) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested Regular Trustees so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (3) by the Common Security Holder of the Trust.

(iv) Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by a Company Indemnified Person in defending a civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding referred to in paragraphs (i) and (ii) of this Section 10.4(a) shall be paid by the Debenture Issuer in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such Company Indemnified Person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Debenture Issuer as authorized in this Section 10.4(a). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no advance shall be made by the Debenture Issuer if a determination is reasonably and promptly made (i) by the Regular Trustees by a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested Regular Trustees, (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested Regular Trustees so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion or (iii) the Common Security Holder of the Trust, that, based upon the facts known to the Regular Trustees, independent legal counsel or Common Security Holder at the time such determination is made, such person acted in bad faith or in a manner that such person did not believe to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Trust, or, with respect to any criminal proceeding, that such Company Indemnified Person believed or had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. In no event shall any advance be made in instances where the Regular Trustees, independent legal counsel or Common Security Holder reasonably determine that such person deliberately breached such person's duty to the Trust or its Common or Preferred Security Holders.

(v) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the other paragraphs of this Section 10.4(a) shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification and advancement of expenses may be entitled under any agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors of the Sponsor or Preferred Security Holders of the Trust or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. All rights to indemnification under this Section 10.4(a) shall be deemed to be provided by a contract between the Sponsor and each Company Indemnified Person who serves in such capacity at any time while this Section 10.4(a) is in effect. Any repeal or modification of this Section 10.4(a) shall not affect any rights or obligations then existing.

(vi) The Sponsor or the Trust may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a Company Indemnified Person against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Sponsor would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Section 10.4(a).

(vii) For purposes of this Section 10.4(a), references to "the Trust" shall include, in addition to the resulting or surviving entity, any constituent entity (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger, so that any person who is or was a director, trustee, officer or employee of such constituent entity, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent entity as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another entity, shall stand in the same position under the provisions of this Section 10.4(a) with respect to the resulting or surviving entity as such person would have with respect to such constituent entity if its separate existence had continued.

(viii) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this Section 10.4(a) shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a Company Indemnified Person and shall inure to the benefit of the successors, heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(b) The Sponsor agrees to indemnify the (i) Institutional Trustee, (ii) the Delaware Trustee, (iii) any Affiliate of the Institutional Trustee or the Delaware Trustee, and (iv) any officers, directors, shareholders, members, partners, employees, representatives, custodians, nominees or agents of the Institutional Trustee or the Delaware Trustee (each of the Persons in (i) through (iv) being referred to as a "Fiduciary Indemnified Person") for, and to hold each Fiduciary Indemnified Person harmless against, any loss, liability or expense incurred without gross negligence and, in the case of the Institutional Trustee, pursuant to Section 3.9, negligence or bad faith on its part, arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of the trust or trusts hereunder, including the costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) of defending itself against or investigating any claim or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder. The provisions of this Section 10.4(b) shall survive the satisfaction and discharge of this Declaration or the resignation or removal of the Institutional Trustee or the Delaware Trustee, as the case may be.

SECTION 19.5 OUTSIDE BUSINESSES.

Any Covered Person, the Sponsor, the Delaware Trustee and the Institutional Trustee may engage in or possess an interest in other business ventures of any nature or description, independently or with others, similar or dissimilar to the business of the Trust, and the Trust and the Holders of Securities shall have no rights by virtue of this Declaration in and to such independent ventures or the income or profits derived therefrom, and the pursuit of any such venture, even if competitive with the business of the Trust, shall not be deemed wrongful or improper. No Covered Person, the Sponsor, the Delaware Trustee or the Institutional Trustee shall be obligated to present any particular investment or other opportunity to the Trust even if such opportunity is of a character that, if presented to the Trust, could be taken by the Trust, and any Covered Person, the Sponsor, the Delaware Trustee and the Institutional Trustee shall have the right to take for its own account (individually or as a partner or fiduciary) or to recommend to others any such particular investment or other opportunity. Any Covered Person, the Delaware Trustee and the Institutional Trustee may engage or be interested in any financial or other transaction with the Sponsor or any Affiliate of the Sponsor, or may act as depositary for, trustee or agent for, or act on any committee or body of holders of, securities or other obligations of the Sponsor or its Affiliates.

ARTICLE XXI ACCOUNTING

SECTION 21.1 FISCAL YEAR.

The fiscal year ("Fiscal Year") of the Trust shall be the calendar year, or such other year as is required by the Code.

SECTION 21.2 CERTAIN ACCOUNTING MATTERS.

(a) At all times during the existence of the Trust, the Trust shall keep, or cause to be kept, full books of account, records and supporting documents, which shall reflect in reasonable detail, each transaction of the Trust. The books of account shall be maintained on the accrual method of accounting, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, consistently applied. The Trust shall use the accrual method of accounting for United States federal income tax purposes. The books of account and the records of the Trust shall be examined by and reported upon as of the end of each Fiscal Year of the Trust by a firm of independent certified public accountants selected by the Regular Trustees.

(b) The Trust shall cause to be duly prepared and delivered to each of the Holders of Securities, any annual United States federal income tax information statement required by the Code, containing such information with regard to the Securities held by each Holder as is required by the Code and the Treasury Regulations. Notwithstanding any right under the Code to deliver any such statement at a later date, the Trust shall endeavor to deliver all such statements within 30 days after the end of each Fiscal Year of the Trust.

(c) The Trust shall cause to be duly prepared and filed with the appropriate taxing authority an annual United States federal income tax return, on a Form 1041 or such other form required by United States federal income tax law, and any other annual income tax returns required to be filed by the Trust on behalf of the Trust with any state or local taxing authority.

SECTION 21.3 BANKING.

The Trust shall maintain one or more bank accounts in the name and for the sole benefit of the Trust; provided however, that all payments of funds in respect of the Debentures held by the Institutional Trustee shall be made directly to the Institutional Trustee Account and no other funds of the Trust shall be deposited in the Institutional Trustee Account. The sole signatories for such accounts shall be designated by the Regular Trustees; provided, however, that the Institutional Trustee shall designate the signatories for the Institutional Trustee Account.

SECTION 21.4 WITHHOLDING.

The Trust shall comply with all withholding requirements under United States federal, state and local law. The Trust shall request, and the Holders shall provide to the Trust, such forms or certificates as are necessary to establish an exemption from withholding with respect to each Holder, and any representations and forms as shall reasonably be requested by the Trust to assist it in determining the extent of, and in fulfilling, its withholding obligations. The Trust shall file required forms with applicable jurisdictions and, unless an exemption from withholding is properly established by a Holder, shall remit amounts withheld with respect to the Holder to applicable jurisdictions. To the extent that the Trust is required to withhold and pay over any amounts to any authority with respect to distributions or allocations to any Holder, the amount withheld shall be deemed to be a distribution in the amount of the withholding to the Holder. In the event of any claimed over withholding, Holders shall be limited to an action against the applicable jurisdiction. If the amount required to be withheld was not withheld from actual Distributions made, the Trust may reduce subsequent Distributions by the amount of such withholding.

ARTICLE XXIII AMENDMENTS AND MEETINGS

SECTION 23.1 AMENDMENTS.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Declaration or by any applicable terms of the Securities, this Declaration may only be amended by a written instrument approved and executed by the Regular Trustees (or, if there are more than two Regular Trustees, a majority of the Regular Trustees); and

(i) if the amendment affects the rights, powers, duties, obligations or immunities of the Institutional Trustee, also by the Institutional Trustee; and

(A) an Officer's Certificate from each of the Trust and the Sponsor that such amendment is permitted by, and conforms to, the terms of this Declaration (including the terms of the Securities); and

(B) an opinion of counsel (who may be counsel to the Sponsor or the Trust) that such amendment is permitted by, and conforms to, the terms of this Declaration (including the terms of the Securities); and

(iii) to the extent the result of such amendment would be to:

(A) cause the Trust to fail to continue to be classified for purposes of United States federal income taxation as a grantor trust;

(B) reduce or otherwise adversely affect the powers of the Institutional Trustee in contravention of the Trust Indenture Act; or

(C) cause the Trust to be deemed to be an Investment Company required to be registered under the Investment Company Act;

(c) at such time after the Trust has issued any Securities that remain outstanding, any amendment that would materially and adversely affect the rights, privileges or preferences of any Holder of Securities may be effected only with such additional requirements as may be set forth in the terms of such Securities;

(d) Section 9.1(c) and this Section 12.1 shall not be amended without the consent of all of the Holders of the Securities;

(v) to modify, eliminate and add to any provision of the Declaration to such extent as may be necessary; and

(vi) cause the Trust to continue to be classified for United States federal income tax purposes as a grantor trust.

SECTION 23.2 MEETINGS OF THE HOLDERS OF SECURITIES; ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT.

(a) Meetings of the Holders of any class of Securities may be called at any time by the Regular Trustees (or as provided in the terms of the Securities) to consider and act on any matter on which Holders of such class of Securities are entitled to act under the terms of this Declaration, the terms of the Securities or the rules of any stock exchange on which the Preferred Securities are listed or admitted for trading. The Regular Trustees shall call a meeting of the Holders of such class if directed to do so by the Holders of at least 10% in liquidation amount of such class of Securities.

Such direction shall be given by delivering to the Regular Trustees one or more calls in a writing stating that the signing Holders of Securities wish to call a meeting and indicating the general or specific purpose for which the meeting is to be called. Any Holders of Securities calling a meeting shall specify in writing the Security Certificates held by the Holders of Securities exercising the right to call a meeting and only those Securities specified shall be counted for purposes of determining whether the required percentage set forth in the second sentence of this paragraph has been met.

(b) Except to the extent otherwise provided in the terms of the Securities, the following provisions shall apply to meetings of Holders of Securities:

(i) notice of any such meeting shall be given to all the Holders of Securities having a right to vote thereat at least 7 days and not more than 60 days before the date of such meeting. Whenever a vote, consent or approval of the Holders of Securities is permitted or required under this Declaration, the terms of the Securities or the rules of any stock exchange on which the Preferred Securities are listed or admitted for trading, such vote, consent or approval may be given at a meeting of the Holders of Securities. Any action that may be taken at a meeting of the Holders of Securities may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken is signed by the Holders of Securities owning not less than the minimum amount of Securities in liquidation amount that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all Holders of Securities having a right to vote thereon were present and voting. Prompt notice of the taking of action without a meeting shall be given to the Holders of Securities entitled to vote who have not consented in writing. The Regular Trustees may specify that any written ballot submitted to the Security Holder for the purpose of taking any action without a meeting shall be returned to the Trust within the time specified by the Regular Trustees;

(ii) each Holder of a Security may authorize any Person to act for it by proxy on all matters in which a Holder of Securities is entitled to participate, including waiving notice of any meeting, or voting or participating at a meeting. No proxy shall be valid after the expiration of 11 months from the date thereof unless otherwise provided in the proxy. Every proxy shall be revocable at the pleasure of the Holder of Securities executing it. Except as otherwise provided herein, all matters relating to the giving, voting or validity of proxies shall be governed by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware relating to proxies, and judicial interpretations thereunder, as if the Trust were a Delaware corporation and the Holders of the Securities were stockholders of a Delaware corporation;

(iii) each meeting of the Holders of the Securities shall be conducted by the Regular Trustees or by such other Person that the Regular Trustees may designate; and

(iv) unless the Business Trust Act, this Declaration, the terms of the Securities, the Trust Indenture Act or the listing rules of any stock exchange on which the Preferred Securities are then listed or trading otherwise provides, the Regular Trustees, in their sole discretion, shall establish all other provisions relating to meetings of Holders of Securities, including notice of the time, place or purpose of any meeting at which any matter is to be voted on by any Holders of Securities, waiver of any such notice, action by consent without a meeting, the establishment of a record date, quorum requirements, voting in person or by proxy or any other matter with respect to the exercise of any such right to vote.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF
6.45% TRUST ORIGINATED PREFERRED SECURITIES
6.45% TRUST ORIGINATED COMMON SECURITIES

Pursuant to Section 7.1 of the Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust, dated as of (as amended from time to time, the "Declaration"), the designation, rights, privileges, restrictions, preferences and other terms and provisions of the Preferred Securities and the Common Securities are set out below (each capitalized term used but not defined herein has the meaning set forth in the Declaration or, if not defined in the Declaration, as defined in the Prospectus referred to below):

1. Designation and Number.

(a) Preferred Securities. Preferred Securities of the Trust, with an aggregate liquidation amount with respect to the assets of the Trust of $50 per preferred security, are hereby designated for the purposes of identification only as "6.45% Trust Originated Preferred Securities" (the "Preferred Securities"). The Preferred Security Certificates evidencing the Preferred Securities shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit A-1 to the Declaration, with such changes and additions thereto or deletions therefrom as may be required by applicable law or the rules of any stock exchange on which the Preferred Securities are listed or to conform to ordinary usage, custom or practice.

(b) Common Securities. Common Securities of the Trust, with an aggregate liquidation amount with respect to the assets of the Trust of [] Dollars ($) and a liquidation amount with respect to the assets of the Trust of $50 per common security, are hereby designated for the purposes of identification only as "6.45% Trust Originated Common Securities" (the "Common Securities"). The Common Security Certificates evidencing the Common Securities shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit A-2 to the Declaration, with such changes and additions thereto or deletions therefrom as may be required by applicable law or to conform to ordinary usage, custom or practice.

2. Distributions.

(a) Distributions payable on each Security will be fixed initially at a rate per annum of 6.45% (the "Coupon Rate") of the stated liquidation amount of $50 per Security until February 15, 2001, and at the Reset Rate thereafter, such rates being the rates of interest payable on the Debentures to be held by the Institutional Trustee. Distributions in arrears for more than one quarter will bear interest thereon compounded quarterly at the rate of 7.5% until February 15, 2001, and at the Reset Rate thereafter (to the extent permitted by applicable law). The term "Distributions" as used herein includes such cash distributions and any such interest payable unless otherwise stated. A Distribution is payable only to the extent that payments are made in respect of the Debentures held by the Institutional Trustee and to the extent the Institutional Trustee has funds available therefor. The amount of Distributions payable for any period will be computed for any full quarterly Distribution period on the basis of a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months, and for any period shorter than a full quarterly Distribution period for which Distributions are computed, Distributions will be computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed per 30-day month.

(b) Distributions on the Securities will be cumulative, will accrue from , and will be payable quarterly in arrears, on February 16, May 16, August 16 and November 16 of each year, commencing on , except as otherwise described below. The Debenture Issuer has the right under the Indenture to defer payments of interest by extending the interest payment period from time to time on the Debentures for a period not extending, in the aggregate, beyond the maturity date of the Debentures (each an "Extension Period"). During such Extension Period no interest shall be due and payable on the Debentures. As a consequence of such deferral, Distributions will also be deferred. Despite such deferral, quarterly Distributions will continue to accrue with interest thereon at the rate of 7.5% until February 15, 2001, and at the Reset Rate thereafter, compounded quarterly during any such Extension Period (to the extent permitted by applicable law). Payments of accrued Distributions will be payable to Holders as they appear on the books and records of the Trust on the first record date after the end of the Extension Period. Upon the termination of any Extension Period and the payment of all amounts then due, the Debenture Issuer may commence a new Extension Period; provided that such Extension Period together with all such previous and further extensions thereof may not exceed beyond the maturity date of the Debentures.

(c) Distributions on the Securities will be payable to the Holders thereof as they appear on the books and records of the Trust at the close of business on the Business Day immediately preceding each of the relevant payment dates on the Securities. Subject to any applicable laws and regulations and the provisions of the Declaration, each such payment in respect of the Preferred Securities will be made as described under the heading "Description of the Trust Preferred Securities -- Book Entry Only Issuance -The Depository Trust Company" in the Prospectus dated , the "Prospectus") of the Trust relating to the Registration Statement on Form S-3 (file no. 333-78447) of the Sponsor and the Trust. The relevant record dates for the Common Securities shall be the same record date as for the Preferred Securities. If the Preferred Securities shall not continue to remain in book-entry only form or are not in book-entry only form at issuance, the relevant record dates for the Preferred Securities, shall conform to the rules of any securities exchange on which the securities are listed and, if none, as shall be selected by the Regular Trustees, which dates shall be at least more than one, but less than 60 Business Days before the relevant payment dates, which payment dates correspond to the interest payment dates on the Debentures. Distributions payable on any Securities that are not punctually paid on any Distribution payment date, as a result of the Debenture Issuer having failed to make a payment under the Debentures, will cease to be payable to the Person in whose name such Securities are registered on the relevant record date, and such defaulted Distribution will instead be payable to the Person in whose name such Securities are registered on the special record date or other specified date determined in accordance with the Indenture. If any date on which Distributions are payable on the Securities is not a Business Day, then payment of the Distribution payable on such date will be made on the next succeeding day that is a Business Day (and without any interest or other payment in respect of any such delay) except that, if such Business Day is in the next succeeding calendar year, such payment shall be made on the immediately preceding Business Day, in each case with the same force and effect as if made on such date. So long as the Holder of any Preferred Securities is the Collateral Agent, the payment of Distributions on such Preferred Securities held by the Collateral Agent will be made at such place and to such account as may be designated by the Collateral Agent.

(d) The Coupon Rate on the Securities (as well as the interest rate on the Debentures) will be reset on the third Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date to the Reset Rate (which reset Rate will be in effect on and after the Purchase Contract Settlement Date). On the Reset Announcement Date, the Reset Spread and the Two-Year Benchmark Treasury to be used to determine the Reset Rate will be announced by the Sponsor. On the Business Day immediately following the Reset Announcement Date, the Holders of Securities will be notified of such Reset Spread and Two-Year Benchmark Treasury by the Sponsor. Such notice shall be sufficiently given to Holders of Securities if published in an Authorized Newspaper.

(e) Not later than 10 calendar days nor more than 15 calendar days prior to the Reset Announcement Date, the Sponsor will notify DTC (as defined herein) or its nominee (or any successor Clearing Agency or its nominee) by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to notify the Preferred Security Beneficial Owner or Clearing Agency Participants holding Preferred Securities, Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, of such Reset Announcement Date and the procedures to be followed by such Holders of Income PRIDES who intend to settle their obligation under the Purchase Contract with separate cash.

(f) In the event that there is any money or other property held by or for the Trust that is not accounted for hereunder, such property shall be distributed Pro Rata (as defined herein) among the Holders of the Securities.

3. Liquidation Distribution Upon Dissolution.

In the event of any voluntary or involuntary dissolution of the Trust (unless a Tax Event Redemption has occurred), the Holders of the Securities on the date of the dissolution will be entitled to receive out of the assets of the Trust, after satisfaction of liabilities to creditors, Debentures in an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of such Securities, with an interest rate equal to the rate of 6.45%, if on or prior to February 15, 2001, and the Reset Rate thereafter, and bearing accrued and unpaid interest in an amount equal to the accrued and unpaid Distributions on such Securities and which shall be distributed on a Pro Rata basis to the Holders of the Securities in exchange for such Securities (such amount being "Liquidation Distribution").

If, upon any such dissolution, the Liquidation Distribution can be paid only in part because the Trust has insufficient assets available to pay in full the aggregate Liquidation Distribution, then the amounts payable directly by the Trust on the Securities shall be paid on a Pro Rata basis.

4. Redemption and Distribution.

(a) Upon the redemption of the Debentures in whole (but not in part), at maturity, the proceeds from such redemption shall, after satisfaction of liabilities to creditors, be simultaneously applied to redeem Securities having an aggregate liquidation amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Debentures so redeemed at a redemption price of $50 per Security plus an amount equal to accrued and unpaid Distributions thereon at the date of the repayment, payable in cash.

(b) If an Investment Company Event (as defined herein) shall occur and be continuing the Regular Trustees shall dissolve the Trust and, after satisfaction of liabilities to creditors, cause Debentures held by the Institutional Trustee, having an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of, with an interest rate the rate of 6.45%, if on or prior to February 15, 2001, and the Reset Rate thereafter, and accrued and unpaid interest equal to accrued and unpaid Distributions on, and having the same record date for payment as the Securities, to be distributed to the Holders of the Securities in liquidation of such Holders' interests in the Trust on a Pro Rata basis, within 90 days following the occurrence of such Investment Company Event (the "90 Day Period"); provided, however, that, if at the time there is available to the Trust the opportunity to eliminate, within the 90 Day Period, the Investment Company Event by taking some ministerial action, such as filing a form or making an election, or pursuing some other similar reasonable measure that will have no adverse effect on the Trust, the Debenture Issuer, the Sponsor or the Holders of the Securities and will involve no material cost ("Ministerial Action"), the Regular Trustees will pursue such Ministerial Action in lieu of dissolution.

"Investment Company Event" means that the Regular Trustees shall have received an opinion of independent counsel experienced in practice under the Investment Company Act (an "Investment Company Event Opinion") to the effect that, as a result of the occurrence of a change in law or regulation or a written change in interpretation or application of law or regulation by any legislative body, court, governmental agency or regulatory authority (a "Change in 1940 Act Law"), which Change in 1940 Act Law becomes effective on or after the date of the Prospectus, there is a more than an insubstantial risk that the Trust is or will be considered an Investment Company which is required to be registered under the Investment Company Act.

(c) If a Tax Event shall occur and be continuing, the Debentures are redeemable at the option of the Debenture Issuer, in whole but not in part, on not less than 30 days nor more than 60 days notice ("Tax Event Redemption"). If the Debenture Issuer redeems the Debentures upon the occurrence and continuance of a Tax Event, the proceeds from such redemption shall simultaneously be applied by the Trust to redeem the Securities having an aggregate stated liquidation amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Debentures so redeemed at a redemption price (the "Redemption Price"), per Security, equal to the Redemption Amount plus any accumulated and unpaid distributions thereon to the date of such redemption. If, following the occurrence of a Tax Event, the Debenture Issuer exercises its option to redeem the Debentures, the Debenture Issuer shall appoint the Quotation Agent to assemble the Treasury Portfolio in consultation with the Company. To the extent the Redemption Price is received by the Institutional Trustee, the Institutional Trustee will distribute, to the record Holder of the Securities the Redemption Price payable in liquidation of such Holder's interests in the Trust.

"Tax Event" means the receipt by the Regular Trustees of an opinion of a nationally recognized independent tax counsel experienced in such matters to the effect that, as a result of (a) any amendment to, or change (including any announced prospective change) in, the laws (or any regulations thereunder) of the United States or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein affecting taxation, (b) any amendment to or change in an interpretation or application of such laws or regulations by any legislative body, court, governmental agency or regulatory authority or (c) any interpretation or pronouncement that provides for a position with respect to such laws or regulations that differs from the generally accepted position on the date the Securities are issued, which amendment or change is effective or which interpretation or pronouncement is announced on or after the date of issuance of the Securities under the Declaration, there is more than an insubstantial risk that (i) interest payable by the Debenture Issuer on the Debentures would not be deductible, in whole or in part, by the Debenture Issuer for federal income tax purposes or (ii) the Trust would be subject to more than a de minimis amount of other taxes, duties or other governmental charges.

"Treasury Portfolio" means, with respect to the Applicable Principal Amount of Debentures (a) if the Tax Event Redemption Date occurs prior to February 16, 2001, a portfolio of zero-coupon U.S. Treasury Securities consisting of (i) U.S. Treasury Securities each in the amount of $1,000 payable on February 15, 2001 in an aggregate amount equal to the Applicable Principal Amount and (ii) with respect to each scheduled interest payment date on the Debentures that occurs after the Tax Event Redemption Date, principal or interest strips of U.S. Treasury Securities which mature on or prior to such date in an aggregate amount equal to the aggregate interest payment that would be due on the Applicable Principal Amount of the Debentures on such date, and (b) if the Tax Event Redemption Date occurs after February 16, 2001, a portfolio of zero-coupon U.S. Treasury Securities consisting of (i) principal or interest strips of U.S. Treasury Securities which mature on or prior to February 15, 2003 in an aggregate amount equal to the Applicable Principal Amount and (ii) with respect to each scheduled interest payment date on the Debentures that occurs after the Tax Event Redemption Date, principal or interest strips of such U.S. Treasury Securities which mature on or prior to such date in an aggregate amount equal to the aggregate interest payment that would be due on the Applicable Principal Amount of the Debentures on such date.

"Applicable Ownership Interest" means, with respect to an Income PRIDES and the U.S. Treasury Securities in the Treasury Portfolio, (A) a 1/20, or 5%, undivided beneficial ownership interest in a U.S. Treasury Security in the amount of $1,000 included in such Treasury Portfolio payable on February 15, 2001 and (B) for each scheduled interest payment date on the Debentures that occurs after the Tax Event Redemption Date, a [5]% undivided beneficial ownership interest in a $1,000 face amount of such U.S. Treasury Security which is a principal or interest strip maturing on such date.

"Applicable Principal Amount" means either (i) if the Tax Event Redemption Date occurs prior to February 16, 2001, the aggregate principal amount of the Debentures corresponding to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the Preferred Securities which are components of Income PRIDES on the Tax Event Redemption Date or (ii) if the Tax Event Redemption occurs on or after February 16, 2001, the aggregate principal amount of the Debentures corresponding to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the Preferred Securities outstanding on such Tax Event Redemption Date.

"Redemption Amount" means for each Debenture, the product of (i) the principal amount of such Debenture and (ii) a fraction whose numerator is the Treasury Portfolio Purchase Price and whose denominator is the Applicable Principal Amount.

"Treasury Portfolio Purchase Price" means the lowest aggregate price quoted by a primary U.S. government securities dealer in New York City (a "Primary Treasury Dealer") to the Quotation Agent on the third Business Day immediately preceding the Tax Event Redemption Date for the purchase of the Treasury Portfolio for settlement on the Tax Event Redemption Date.

"Quotation Agent" means (i) Merrill Lynch Government Securities, Inc. and its respective successors, provided, however, that if the foregoing shall cease to be a Primary Treasury Dealer, the Sponsor shall substitute therefor another Primary Treasury Dealer and (ii) any other Primary Treasury Dealer selected by the Sponsor.

On and from the date fixed by the Regular Trustees for a Tax Event Redemption or any distribution of Debentures and dissolution of the Trust: (i) the Securities will no longer be deemed to be outstanding, (ii) The Depository Trust Company ("DTC") or its nominee (or any successor Clearing Agency or its nominee) or the record Holder of the Preferred Securities, will receive a registered global certificate or certificates representing the Debentures to be delivered upon such distribution and any certificates representing Securities, except for certificates representing Preferred Securities held by DTC or its nominee (or any successor Clearing Agency or its nominee), will be deemed to represent beneficial interests in the Debentures having an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of $50, with an interest rate of 6.45% if on or prior to February 15, 2001, and at the Reset Rate thereafter, and accrued and unpaid interest equal to accrued and unpaid Distributions on such Securities until such certificates are presented to the Debenture Issuer or its agent for transfer or reissue.

(a) Notice of any redemption (other than in connection with the maturity of the Debentures) of, or notice of distribution of Debentures in exchange for, the Securities (a "Redemption/Distribution Notice") will be given by the Trust by mail to each Holder of Securities to be redeemed or exchanged not fewer than 30 nor more than 60 days before the date fixed for redemption or exchange thereof which, in the case of a redemption, will be the Tax Event Redemption Date. For purposes of the calculation of the date of redemption or exchange and the dates on which notices are given pursuant to this Section 5(a), a Redemption/Distribution Notice shall be deemed to be given on the day such notice is first mailed by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to Holders of Securities. Each Redemption/Distribution Notice shall be addressed to the Holders of Securities at the address of each such Holder appearing in the books and records of the Trust. No defect in the Redemption/Distribution Notice or in the mailing of either thereof with respect to any Holder shall affect the validity of the redemption or exchange proceedings with respect to any other Holder.

(b) If Securities are to be redeemed and the Trust gives a Redemption/Distribution Notice, which notice may only be issued if the Debentures are redeemed as set out in this Section 5 (such notice will be irrevocable), then (A) while the Preferred Securities are in book-entry only form, with respect to the Preferred Securities, by 12:00 noon, New York City time, on the redemption date, provided that the Debenture Issuer has paid the Institutional Trustee a sufficient amount of cash in connection with the related redemption or maturity of the Debentures by 10:00 a.m. New York City time on such Redemption Date, the Institutional Trustee will deposit irrevocably with DTC or its nominee (or any successor Clearing Agency or its nominee) funds sufficient to pay the applicable Redemption Price with respect to the Preferred Securities and will give DTC irrevocable instructions and authority to pay the Redemption Price to the Holders of the Preferred Securities so called for redemption, and (B) with respect to Preferred Securities issued in definitive form and Common Securities, provided that the Debenture Issuer has paid the Institutional Trustee a sufficient amount of cash in connection with the related redemption or maturity of the Debentures, the Institutional Trustee will pay the relevant Redemption Price to the Holders of such Securities by check mailed to the address of the relevant Holder appearing on the books and records of the Trust. Notwithstanding the foregoing, so long as the Holder of any Preferred Securities is the Collateral Agent or the Purchase Contract Agent, the payment of the Redemption Price in respect of such Preferred Securities held by the Collateral Agent or the Purchase Contract Agent shall be made no later than 12:00 noon, New York City time, on the Tax Event Redemption Date by check or wire transfer in immediately available funds at such place and to such account as may be designated by the Collateral Agent or the Purchase Contract Agent. If a Redemption/Distribution Notice shall have been given and funds deposited as required, if applicable, then immediately prior to the close of business on the date of such deposit, or on the redemption date, as applicable, distributions will cease to accrue on the Securities so redeemed and all rights of Holders of such Securities so called for redemption will cease, except the right of the Holders of such Securities to receive the Redemption Price, but without interest on such Redemption Price. Neither the Regular Trustees nor the Trust shall be required to register or cause to be registered the transfer of any Securities that have been so called for redemption. If any date fixed for redemption of Securities is not a Business Day, then payment of the Redemption Price payable on such date will be made on the next succeeding day that is a Business Day (without any interest or other payment in respect of any such delay) except that, if such Business Day falls in the next calendar year, such payment will be made on the immediately preceding Business Day, in each case with the same force and effect as if made on such date fixed for repayment. If payment of the Redemption Price in respect of any Securities is improperly withheld or refused and not paid either by the Institutional Trustee or by the Sponsor as guarantor pursuant to the relevant Securities Guarantee, Distributions on such Securities will continue to accrue from the original redemption date to the actual date of payment, in which case the actual payment date will be considered the date fixed for repayment for purposes of calculating the Redemption Price and such Securities shall cease to be outstanding.

(c) Redemption/Distribution Notices shall be sent by the Trust to (A) in respect of the Preferred Securities, the DTC or its nominee (or any successor Clearing Agency or its nominee) if the Global Certificates have been issued or, if Definitive Preferred Security Certificates have been issued, to the Holder thereof, and (B) in respect of the Common Securities, to the Holder thereof.

(d) Subject to the foregoing and applicable law (including, without limitation, United States federal securities laws) the Sponsor or any of its subsidiaries may at any time and from time to time purchase outstanding Preferred Securities by tender, in the open market or by private agreement.

6. Repayment at Option of Holders.

(a) If a Failed Remarketing (as described in Section 5.4(b) of the Purchase Contract Agreement and incorporated herein by reference) has occurred, each holder of Securities who holds such Securities on the day immediately following the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, shall have the right on or after the Business Day immediately following February 16, 2001 to require the Trust to repay all or a portion of such Securities owned by such holder (the "Put Option") on March 2, 2001 (the "Put Option Exercise Date"), upon at least three Business Days' prior notice, at a repayment price of $50 per Security plus an amount equal to the accrued and unpaid Distributions (including deferred distributions if any) thereon to the date of payment (the "Put Option Repayment Price").

(b) The Trust shall obtain funds to pay the Put Option Repayment Price of Securities being repaid under the Put Option through presentation by the Institutional Trustee, on behalf of the Trust, to the Debenture Issuer, pursuant to the right of the holder of the Debentures to require the Debenture Issuer to repay all or a portion of the Debentures on the Put Option Exercise Date, Debentures in an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of such Securities for repayment on the Put Option Exercise Date at the Debenture Repayment Price.

(c) In order for the Securities to be repaid on the Put Option Exercise Date, the Trust must receive on or prior to 4:00 p.m. on the third Business Day immediately preceding the Put Option Exercise Date, at the Corporate Trust Office of the Institutional Trustee, the Securities to be repaid with the form entitled "Option to Elect Repayment" on the reverse thereof or otherwise accompanying such Security duly completed. Any such notice received by the Trust shall be irrevocable. All questions as to the validity, eligibility (including time of receipt) and acceptance of the Securities for repayment shall be determined by the Trust, whose determination shall be final and binding.

(d) Payment of the Put Option Repayment Price to Holders of Securities shall be made at the Corporate Trust Office of the Institutional Trustee, provided that the Institutional Trustee has received from the Debenture Issuer a sufficient amount of cash in connection with the related repayment of the Debenture no later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Put Option Exercise Date by check or wire transfer in immediately available funds at such place and to such account as may be designated by such Holders. If the Institutional Trustee holds immediately available funds sufficient to pay the Put Option Repayment Price of such Securities, then, immediately prior to the close of business on the Put Option Exercise Date, such Securities will cease to be outstanding and distributions thereon will cease to accrue, whether or not Securities are delivered to the Institutional Trustee, and all other rights of the Holder in respect of the Securities, including the Holder's right to require the Trust to repay such Securities, shall terminate and lapse (other than the right to receive the Put Option Repayment Price but without interest on such Put Option Repayment Price). Neither the Regular Trustees nor the Trust shall be required to register or cause to be registered the transfer of any Securities for which repayment has been elected. If payment of the Put Option Repayment Price in respect of Securities is (i) improperly withheld or refused and not paid either by the Institutional Trustee or by the Sponsor as guarantor pursuant to the Securities Guarantee, or (ii) not paid by the Institutional Trustee as the result of an Event of Default with respect to the Debentures presented for repayment as described in paragraph 6(b), Distributions on such Securities will continue to accrue, from the original Put Option Exercise Date to the actual date of payment, in which case the actual payment date will be considered the Put Option Exercise Date for purposes of calculating the Put Option Repayment Price.

(e) The Debenture Issuer will request, not later than 10 nor more than 15 calendar days prior to February 13, 2001 (the date on which some or all of the Preferred Securities could be remarketed in the manner described in Section 5.4(b) of the Purchase Contract Agreement and incorporated herein by reference) that DTC notify the Preferred Securities Holders as well as the Income PRIDES and Growth PRIDES holders of such remarketing and of the procedures that must be followed if a Holder of Preferred Securities wishes to exercise such Holder's rights with respect to the Put Option.

7. Voting Rights - Preferred Securities.

(a) Except as provided under Sections 7(b) and 9 and as otherwise required by law and the Declaration, the Holders of the Preferred Securities will have no voting rights.

(b) Subject to the requirements set forth in this paragraph the Holders of a Majority in liquidation amount of the Preferred Securities, voting separately as a class may direct the time, method, and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Institutional Trustee, or the exercise of any trust or power conferred upon the Institutional Trustee under the Declaration, including (i) directing the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Debenture Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Debenture Trustee with respect to the Debentures, (ii) waiving any past default and its consequences that is waivable under the Indenture, (iii) exercising any right to rescind or annul a declaration that the principal of all the Debentures shall be due and payable, or (iv) consenting to any amendment, modification or termination of the Indenture or the Debentures where such consent shall be required, provided, however, that, where a consent under the Indenture specifically would require the consent or act of the Holders of greater than a majority of the Holders in principal amount of Debentures affected thereby (a "Super Majority"), the Institutional Trustee may only give such consent or take such action at the written direction of the Holders of at least the proportion in liquidation amount of the Preferred Securities which the relevant Super Majority represents of the aggregate principal amount of the Debentures outstanding. The Institutional Trustee shall not revoke any action previously authorized or approved by a vote of the Holders of the Preferred Securities. Other than with respect to directing the time, method and place of conducting any remedy available to the Institutional Trustee or the Debenture Trustee as set forth above, the Institutional Trustee shall not take any action in accordance with the directions of the Holders of the Preferred Securities under this paragraph unless the Institutional Trustee has obtained an opinion of tax counsel to the effect that for the purposes of United States federal income tax the Trust will not be classified as other than a grantor trust on account of such action. If the Institutional Trustee fails to enforce its rights under the Debentures after a Holder of Preferred Securities has made a written request, such Holder of Preferred Securities may, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, institute a legal proceeding directly against the Debenture Issuer to enforce the Institutional Trustee's rights under the Debentures without first instituting a legal proceeding against the Institutional Trustee or any other Person. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and such event is attributable to the failure of the Debenture Issuer to pay interest or principal on the Debentures on the date such interest or principal is otherwise payable (or in the case of redemption, on the redemption date), then a Holder of Preferred Securities may directly institute a proceeding for enforcement of payment to such Holder of the principal of or interest on the Debentures having a principal amount equal to the aggregate liquidation amount of the Preferred Securities of such Holder on or after the respective due date specified in the Debentures. Except as provided in the preceding sentence, the Holders of Preferred Securities shall not exercise directly any other remedy available to the holders of the Debentures.

Any approval or direction of Holders of Preferred Securities may be given at a separate meeting of Holders of Preferred Securities convened for such purpose, at a meeting of all of the Holders of Securities in the Trust or pursuant to written consent. The Regular Trustees will cause a notice of any meeting at which Holders of Preferred Securities are entitled to vote, or of any matter upon which action by written consent of such Holders is to be taken, to be mailed to each Holder of record of Preferred Securities. Each such notice will include a statement setting forth (i) the date of such meeting or the date by which such action is to be taken, (ii) a description of any resolution proposed for adoption at such meeting on which such Holders are entitled to vote or of such matter upon which written consent is sought and (iii) instructions for the delivery of proxies or consents.

No vote or consent of the Holders of the Preferred Securities will be required for the Trust to repay and cancel Preferred Securities or to distribute the Debentures in accordance with the Declaration and the terms of the Securities. Notwithstanding that Holders of Preferred Securities are entitled to vote or consent under any of the circumstances described above, any of the Preferred Securities that are owned by the Sponsor or any Affiliate of the Sponsor shall not be entitled to vote or consent and shall, for purposes of such vote or consent, be treated as if they were not outstanding.

8. Voting Rights - Common Securities.

(a) Except as provided under Sections 7(b) and (c) and Section 9 and as otherwise required by law and the Declaration, the Holders of the Common Securities will have no voting rights.

(b) The Holders of the Common Securities are entitled, in accordance with Article V of the Declaration, to vote to appoint, remove or replace any Trustee or to increase or decrease the number of Trustees.

(c) Subject to Section 2.6 of the Declaration and only after any Event of Default with respect to the Preferred Securities has been cured, waived, or otherwise eliminated and subject to the requirements of the second to last sentence of this paragraph, the Holders of a Majority in liquidation amount of the Common Securities, voting separately as a class, may direct the time, method, and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Institutional Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Institutional Trustee under the Declaration, including (i) directing the time, method, and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Debenture Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Debenture Trustee with respect to the Debentures, (ii) waive any past default and its consequences that is waivable under the Indenture, or (iii) exercise any right to rescind or annul a declaration that the principal of all the Debentures shall be due and payable, provided that, where a consent or action under the Indenture specifically would require the consent or act of the Holders of a Super Majority, the Institutional Trustee may only give such consent or take such action at the written direction of the Holders of at least the proportion in liquidation amount of the Common Securities which the relevant Super Majority represents of the aggregate principal amount of the Debentures outstanding. Pursuant to this Section 7(c), the Institutional Trustee shall not revoke any action previously authorized or approved by a vote of the Holders of the Preferred Securities. Other than with respect to directing the time, method and place of conducting any remedy available to the Institutional Trustee or the Debenture Trustee as set forth above, the Institutional Trustee shall not take any action in accordance with the directions of the Holders of the Common Securities under this paragraph unless the Institutional Trustee has obtained an opinion of tax counsel to the effect that for the purposes of United States federal income tax the Trust will not be classified as other than a grantor trust on account of such action. If the Institutional Trustee fails to enforce its rights under the Declaration, any Holder of Common Securities may institute a legal proceeding directly against any Person to enforce the Institutional Trustee's rights under the Declaration, without first instituting a legal proceeding against the Institutional Trustee or any other Person.

Any approval or direction of Holders of Common Securities may be given at a separate meeting of Holders of Common Securities convened for such purpose, at a meeting of all of the Holders of Securities in the Trust or pursuant to written consent. The Regular Trustees will cause a notice of any meeting at which Holders of Common Securities are entitled to vote, or of any matter upon which action by written consent of such Holders is to be taken, to be mailed to each Holder of record of Common Securities. Each such notice will include a statement setting forth (i) the date of such meeting or the date by which such action is to be taken, (ii) a description of any resolution proposed for adoption at such meeting on which such Holders are entitled to vote or of such matter upon which written consent is sought and (iii) instructions for the delivery of proxies or consents.

No vote or consent of the Holders of the Common Securities will be required for the Trust to redeem and cancel Common Securities or to distribute the Debentures in accordance with the Declaration and the terms of the Securities.

9. Amendments to Declaration and Indenture.

(a) In addition to any requirements under Section 12.1 of the Declaration, if any proposed amendment to the Declaration provides for, or the Regular Trustees otherwise propose to effect, (i) any action that would materially adversely affect the powers, preferences or special rights of the Securities, whether by way of amendment to the Declaration or otherwise, or (ii) the dissolution of the Trust, other than as described in Section 8.1 of the Declaration, then the Holders of outstanding Securities as a class will be entitled to vote on such amendment or proposal (but not on any other amendment or proposal) and such amendment or proposal shall not be effective except with the approval of the Holders of at least a Majority in liquidation amount of the Securities, voting together as a single class; provided, however, if any amendment or proposal referred to in clause (i) above would adversely affect only the Preferred Securities or only the Common Securities, then only the affected class will be entitled to vote on such amendment or proposal and such amendment or proposal shall not be effective except with the approval of a Majority in liquidation amount of such class of Securities.

(b) In the event the consent of the Institutional Trustee as the holder of the Debentures is required under the Indenture with respect to any amendment, modification or termination on the Indenture or the Debentures, the Institutional Trustee shall request the written direction of the Holders of the Securities with respect to such amendment, modification or termination and shall vote with respect to such amendment, modification or termination as directed by a Majority in liquidation amount of the Securities voting together as a single class; provided, however, that where a consent under the Indenture specifically would require a Super Majority, the Institutional Trustee may only give such consent at the direction of the Holders of at least the proportion in liquidation amount of the Securities which the relevant Super Majority represents of the aggregate principal amount of the Debentures outstanding; provided, further, that the Institutional Trustee shall not take any action in accordance with the directions of the Holders of the Securities under this Section 8(b) unless (i) the Institutional Trustee has obtained an opinion of tax counsel to the effect that for the purposes of United States federal income tax the Trust will not be classified as other than a grantor trust on account of such action or (ii) such action would not reduce or otherwise adversely affect powers of the Institutional Trustee or cause the Trust to be deemed an "investment company" which is required to be registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

10. Pro Rata.

A reference in these terms of the Securities to any payment, distribution or treatment as being "Pro Rata" shall mean pro rata to each Holder of Securities according to the aggregate liquidation amount of the Securities held by the relevant Holder in relation to the aggregate liquidation amount of all Securities outstanding unless, in relation to a payment, an Event of Default under the Declaration has occurred and is continuing, in which case any funds available to make such payment shall be paid first to each Holder of the Preferred Securities pro rata according to the aggregate liquidation amount of Preferred Securities held by the relevant Holder relative to the aggregate liquidation amount of all Preferred Securities outstanding, and only after satisfaction of all amounts owed to the Holders of the Preferred Securities, to each Holder of Common Securities pro rata according to the aggregate liquidation amount of Common Securities held by the relevant Holder relative to the aggregate liquidation amount of all Common Securities outstanding.

11. Ranking.

The Preferred Securities rank pari passu and payment thereon shall be made Pro Rata with the Common Securities except that, where an Event of Default occurs and is continuing under the Indenture in respect of the Debentures held by the Institutional Trustee, the rights of Holders of the Common Securities to payment in respect of Distributions and payments upon liquidation, redemption and otherwise are subordinated to the rights to payment of the Holders of the Preferred Securities.

12. Acceptance of Securities Guarantee and Indenture.

Each Holder of Preferred Securities and Common Securities by the acceptance thereof, agrees to the provisions of the Preferred Securities Guarantee and the Common Securities Guarantee, respectively.

13. No Preemptive Rights.

The Holders of the Securities shall have no preemptive rights to subscribe for any additional securities.

14. Miscellaneous.

These terms constitute a part of the Declaration.

The Sponsor will provide a copy of the Declaration, the Preferred Securities Guarantee or the Common Securities Guarantee (as may be appropriate), and the Indenture to a Holder without charge on written request to the Sponsor at its principal place of business.

Distributions payable on each Preferred Security will be fixed at a rate per annum of 6.45% (the "Coupon Rate") of the stated liquidation amount of $50 per Preferred Security, such rate being the rate of interest payable on the Debentures to be held by the Institutional Trustee. Despite such deferral, quarterly Distributions will continue to accrue with interest thereon at the rate of % until February 15, 2001, and at the Reset Rate thereafter, compounded quarterly during any such Extension Period (to the extent permitted by applicable law). Payments of accrued Distributions will be payable to Holders as they appear on the books and records of the Trust on the first record date after the end of the Extension Period. The right, title and interest of the Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall automatically vest in any Successor Preferred Guarantee Trustee, and such vesting and cessation of title shall be effective whether or not conveyancing documents have been executed and delivered pursuant to the appointment of such Successor Preferred Guarantee Trustee.

(b) If an Event of Default actually known to a Responsible Officer of the Preferred Guarantee Trustee has occurred and is continuing, the Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall enforce this Preferred Securities Guarantee for the benefit of the Holders of the Preferred Securities.

(c) The Preferred Guarantee Trustee, before the occurrence of any Event of Default and after the curing or waiver of all Events of Default that may have occurred, shall undertake to perform only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Preferred Securities Guarantee, and no implied covenants shall be read into this Preferred Securities Guarantee against the Preferred Guarantee Trustee. (i) prior to the occurrence of any Event of Default and after the curing or waiving of such Events of Default that may have occurred:

(A) the duties and obligations of the Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall be determined solely by the express provisions of this Preferred Securities Guarantee, and the Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall not be liable except for the performance of such duties and obligations as are specifically set forth in this Preferred Securities Guarantee, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Preferred Securities Guarantee against the Preferred Guarantee Trustee; and

(B) in the absence of bad faith on the part of the Preferred Guarantee Trustee, the Preferred Guarantee Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon any certificates or opinions furnished to the Preferred Guarantee Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Preferred Securities Guarantee; but in the case of any such certificates or opinions that by any provision hereof are specifically required to be furnished to the Preferred Guarantee Trustee, the Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall be under a duty to examine the same to determine whether or not they conform to the requirements of this Preferred Securities Guarantee;

(ii) the Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Responsible Officer of the Preferred Guarantee Trustee, unless it shall be proved that the Preferred Guarantee Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts upon which such judgment was made;

(iii) the Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with the direction of the Holders of not less than a Majority in liquidation amount of the Preferred Securities relating to the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Preferred Guarantee Trustee, or exercising any trust or power conferred upon the Preferred Guarantee Trustee under this Preferred Securities Guarantee; and

(iv) no provision of this Preferred Securities Guarantee shall require the Preferred Guarantee Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur personal financial liability in the performance of any of its duties or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if the Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall have reasonable grounds for believing that the repayment of such funds or liability is not reasonably assured to it under the terms of this Preferred Securities Guarantee or indemnity, reasonably satisfactory to the Preferred Guarantee Trustee, against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

(a) Subject to the provisions of Section 3.1:

(i) The Preferred Guarantee Trustee may conclusively rely, and shall be fully protected in acting or refraining from acting upon, any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or presented by the proper party or parties.

(ii) Any direction or act of the Guarantor contemplated by this Preferred Securities Guarantee shall be sufficiently evidenced by a Direction or an Officers' Certificate.

(iii) Whenever, in the administration of this Preferred Securities Guarantee, the Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established before taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder, the Preferred Guarantee Trustee (unless other evidence is herein specifically prescribed) may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, request and conclusively rely upon an Officers' Certificate which, upon receipt of such request, shall be promptly delivered by the Guarantor.

(iv) The Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall have no duty to see to any recording, filing or registration of any instrument (or any rerecording, refiling or reregistration thereof).

(v) The Preferred Guarantee Trustee may consult with competent legal counsel, and the written advice or opinion of such counsel with respect to legal matters shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or opinion. Such counsel may be counsel to the Guarantor or any of its Affiliates and may include any of its employees. The Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall have the right at any time to seek instructions concerning the administration of this Preferred Securities Guarantee from any court of competent jurisdiction.

(vi) The Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Preferred Securities Guarantee at the request or direction of any Holder, unless such Holder shall have provided to the Preferred Guarantee Trustee such Security and indemnity, reasonably satisfactory to the Preferred Guarantee Trustee, against the costs, expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses and the expenses of the Preferred Guarantee Trustees, agents, nominees or custodians) and liabilities that might be incurred by it in complying with such request or direction, including such reasonable advances as may be requested by the Preferred Guarantee Trustee; provided that, nothing contained in this Section 3.2 (a) (vi) shall be taken to relieve the Preferred Guarantee Trustee, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, of its obligation to exercise the rights and powers vested in it by this Preferred Securities Guarantee.

(vii) The Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document, but the Preferred Guarantee Trustee, in its discretion, may make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit.

(viii) The Preferred Guarantee Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, nominees, custodians or attorneys, and the Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by it hereunder.

(ix) Any action taken by the Preferred Guarantee Trustee or its agents hereunder shall bind the Holders of the Preferred Securities, and the signature of the Preferred Guarantee Trustee or its agents alone shall be sufficient and effective to perform any such action. No third party shall be required to inquire as to the authority of the Preferred Guarantee Trustee to so act or as to its compliance with any of the terms and provisions of this Preferred Securities Guarantee, both of which shall be conclusively evidenced by the Preferred Guarantee Trustee's or its agent's taking such action.

(x) Whenever in the administration of this Preferred Securities Guarantee the Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall deem it desirable to receive instructions with respect to enforcing any remedy or right or taking any other action hereunder, the Preferred Guarantee Trustee (i) may request instructions from the Holders of a Majority in liquidation amount of the Preferred Securities, (ii) may refrain from enforcing such remedy or right or taking such other action until such instructions are received, and (iii) shall be protected in conclusively relying on or acting in accordance with such instructions.

(b) No provision of this Preferred Securities Guarantee shall be deemed to impose any duty or obligation on the Preferred Guarantee Trustee to perform any act or acts or exercise any right, power, duty or obligation conferred or imposed on it in any jurisdiction in which it shall be illegal, or in which the Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall be unqualified or incompetent in accordance with applicable law, to perform any such act or acts or to exercise any such right, power, duty or obligation. No permissive power or authority available to the Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall be construed to be a duty.

SECTION 3.3 Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Guarantee

The Preferred Guarantee Trustee makes no representation as to the validity or sufficiency of this Preferred Securities Guarantee.

(b) If at any time the Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall cease to be eligible to so act under Section 4.1(a), the Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall immediately resign in the manner and with the effect set out in Section 4.2(c).

(a) Subject to Section 4.2(b), the Preferred Guarantee Trustee may be appointed or removed without cause at any time by the Guarantor.

(c) The Preferred Guarantee Trustee appointed to office shall hold office until a Successor Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall have been appointed or until its removal or resignation. The Preferred Guarantee Trustee may resign from office (without need for prior or subsequent accounting) by an instrument in writing executed by the Preferred Guarantee Trustee and delivered to the Guarantor, which resignation shall not take effect until a Successor Preferred Guarantee Trustee has been appointed and has accepted such appointment by instrument in writing executed by such Successor Preferred Guarantee Trustee and delivered to the Guarantor and the resigning Preferred Guarantee Trustee.

Such court may thereupon, after prescribing such notice, if any, as it may deem proper, appoint a Successor Preferred Guarantee Trustee.

(e) No Preferred Guarantee Trustee shall be liable for the acts or omissions to act of any Successor Preferred Guarantee Trustee.

(f) Upon termination of this Preferred Securities Guarantee or removal or resignation of the Preferred Guarantee Trustee pursuant to this Section 4.2, the Guarantor shall pay to the Preferred Guarantee Trustee all amounts accrued to the date of such termination, removal or resignation.

The Guarantor irrevocably and unconditionally agrees to pay in full to the Holders the Guarantee Payments (without duplication of amounts theretofore paid by the Issuer), as and when due, regardless of any defense, right of set-off or counterclaim that the Issuer may have or assert. The Guarantor's obligation to make a Guarantee Payment may be satisfied by direct payment of the required amounts by the Guarantor to the Holders or by causing the Issuer to pay such amounts to the Holders.

SECTION 5.2 Waiver of Notice and Demand

The Guarantor hereby waives notice of acceptance of this Preferred Securities Guarantee and of any liability to which it applies or may apply, presentment, demand for payment, any right to require a proceeding first against the Issuer or any other Person before proceeding against the Guarantor, protest, notice of nonpayment, notice of dishonor, notice of redemption and all other notices and demands.

SECTION 5.3 Obligations Not Affected

The obligations, covenants, agreements and duties of the Guarantor under this Preferred Securities Guarantee shall in no way be affected or impaired by reason of the happening from time to time of any of the following:

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Guarantor has failed to make a Guarantee Payment, a holder of Preferred Securities may directly institute a proceeding against the Guarantor for enforcement of the Preferred Security Guarantee for such payment. If any amount shall be paid to the Guarantor in violation of the preceding sentence, the Guarantor agrees to hold such amount in trust for the Holders and to pay over such amount to the Holders.

SECTION 5.7 Independent Obligations

The Guarantor acknowledges that its obligations hereunder are independent of the obligations of the Issuer with respect to the Preferred Securities, and that the Guarantor shall be liable as principal and as debtor hereunder to make Guarantee Payments pursuant to the terms of this Preferred Securities Guarantee notwithstanding the occurrence of any event referred to in subsections (a) through (g), inclusive, of Section 5.3 hereof.

SECTION 8.2 Indemnification

(a) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Guarantor shall indemnify and hold harmless each Indemnified Person from and against any loss, damage or claim incurred by such Indemnified Person by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Indemnified Person in good faith in accordance with this Guarantee Agreement and in a manner such Indemnified Person reasonably believed to be within the scope of authority conferred on such Indemnified Person by this Guarantee Agreement, except that no Indemnified Person shall be entitled to be indemnified in respect of any loss, damage or claim incurred by such Indemnified Person by reason of negligence or willful misconduct with respect to such acts or omissions.

If any record date is set pursuant to this paragraph, the Holders of the Outstanding Income PRIDES and the Outstanding Growth PRIDES, as the case may be, on such record date, and no other Holders, shall be entitled to take the relevant action with respect to the Income PRIDES or the Growth PRIDES, as the case may be, whether or not such Holders remain Holders after such record date; provided that no such action shall be effective hereunder unless taken on or prior to the applicable Expiration Date by Holders of the requisite number of Outstanding Securities on such record date. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prevent the Company from setting a new record date for any action for which a record date has previously been set pursuant to this paragraph (whereupon the record date previously set shall automatically and with no action by any Person be cancelled and of no effect), and nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to render ineffective any action taken by Holders of the requisite number of Outstanding Securities on the date such action is taken. Promptly after any record date is set pursuant to this paragraph, the Company, at its own expense, shall cause notice of such record date, the proposed action by Holders and the applicable Expiration Date to be given to the Agent in writing and to each Holder of Securities in the manner set forth in Section 1.6.

With respect to any record date set pursuant to this Section, the Company may designate any date as the "Expiration Date" and from time to time may change the Expiration Date to any earlier or later day; provided that no such change shall be effective unless notice of the proposed new Expiration Date is given to the Agent in writing, and to each Holder of Securities in the manner set forth in Section 1.6, on or prior to the existing Expiration Date. If an Expiration Date is not designated with respect to any record date set pursuant to this Section, the Company shall be deemed to have initially designated the 180th day after such record date as the Expiration Date with respect thereto, subject to its right to change the Expiration Date as provided in this paragraph. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Expiration Date shall be later than the 180th day after the applicable record date.

In any case where notice to Holders is given by mail, neither the failure to mail such notice, nor any defect in any notice so mailed to any particular Holder shall affect the sufficiency of such notice with respect to other Holders. Where this Agreement provides for notice in any manner, such notice may be waived in writing by the Person entitled to receive such notice, either before or after the event, and such waiver shall be the equivalent of such notice. Waivers of notice by Holders shall be filed with the Agent, but such filing shall not be a condition precedent to the validity of any action taken in reliance upon such waiver.

In case by reason of the suspension of regular mail service or by reason of any other cause it shall be impracticable to give such notice by mail, then such notification as shall be made with the approval of the Agent shall constitute a sufficient notification for every purpose hereunder.

Section 3.3. Execution, Authentication, Delivery and Dating.

Subject to the provisions of Sections 3.13 and 3.14 hereof, upon the execution and delivery of this Agreement, and at any time and from time to time thereafter, the Company may deliver Certificates executed by the Company to the Agent for authentication, execution on behalf of the Holders and delivery, together with its Issuer Order for authentication of such Certificates, and the Agent in accordance with such Issuer Order shall authenticate, execute on behalf of the Holders and deliver such Certificates.

attorney-in-fact. Such signature by an authorized signatory of the Agent shall be conclusive evidence that the Holder of such Certificate has entered into the Purchase Contracts evidenced by such Certificate.

Each Certificate shall be dated the date of its authentication.

No Certificate shall be entitled to any benefit under this Agreement or be valid or obligatory for any purpose unless there appears on such Certificate a certificate of authentication substantially in the form provided for herein executed by an authorized signatory of the Agent by manual signature, and such certificate upon any Certificate shall be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Certificate has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder.

Section 3.4. Temporary Certificates.

Pending the preparation of definitive Certificates, the Company shall execute and deliver to the Agent, and the Agent shall authenticate, execute on behalf of the Holders, and deliver, in lieu of such definitive Certificates, temporary Certificates which are in substantially the form set forth in Exhibit A or Exhibit B hereto, as the case may be, with such letters, numbers or other marks of identification or designation and such legends or endorsements printed, lithographed or engraved thereon as may be required by the rules of any securities exchange on which the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES are listed, or as may, consistently herewith, be determined by the officers of the Company executing such Certificates, as evidenced by their execution of the Certificates.

If temporary Certificates are issued, the Company will cause definitive Certificates to be prepared without unreasonable delay. After the preparation of definitive Certificates, the temporary Certificates shall be exchangeable for definitive Certificates upon surrender of the temporary Certificates at the Corporate Trust Office, at the expense of the Company and without charge to the Holder. Upon surrender for cancellation of any one or more temporary Certificates, the Company shall execute and deliver to the Agent, and the Agent shall authenticate, execute on behalf of the Holder, and deliver in exchange therefor, one or more definitive Certificates of like tenor and denominations and evidencing a like number of Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, as the case may be, as the temporary Certificate or Certificates so surrendered. Until so exchanged, the temporary Certificates shall in all respects evidence the same benefits and the same obligations with respect to the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, as the case may be, evidenced thereby as definitive Certificates.

Section 3.5. Registration; Registration of Transfer and Exchange.

The Agent shall keep at the Corporate Trust Office a register (the "Income PRIDES Register") in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Agent shall provide for the registration of Income PRIDES Certificates and of transfers of Income PRIDES Certificates (the Agent, in such capacity, the "Income PRIDES Registrar") and a Register (the "Growth PRIDES Register") in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, the Agent shall provide for the registration of the Growth PRIDES Certificates and transfers of Growth PRIDES Certificates (the Agent, in such capacity, the "Growth PRIDES Registrar").

Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Certificate at the Corporate Trust Office, the Company shall execute and deliver to the Agent, and the Agent shall authenticate, execute on behalf of the designated transferee or transferees, and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Certificates of any authorized denominations, like tenor, and evidencing a like number of Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, as the case may be.

At the option of the Holder, Certificates may be exchanged for other Certificates, of any authorized denominations and evidencing a like number of Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, as the case may be, upon surrender of the Certificates to be exchanged at the Corporate Trust Office. Whenever any Certificates are so surrendered for exchange, the Company shall execute and deliver to the Agent, and the Agent shall authenticate, execute on behalf of the Holder, and deliver the Certificates which the Holder making the exchange is entitled to receive.

All Certificates issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of a Certificate shall evidence the ownership of the same number of Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, as the case may be, and be entitled to the same benefits and subject to the same obligations, under this Agreement as the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, as the case may be, evidenced by the Certificate surrendered upon such registration of transfer or exchange.

Every Certificate presented or surrendered for registration of transfer or for exchange shall (if so required by the Agent) be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Company and the Agent duly executed, by the Holder thereof or its attorney duly authorized in writing.

No service charge shall be made for any registration of transfer or exchange of a Certificate, but the Company and the Agent may require payment from the Holder of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any registration of transfer or exchange of Certificates, other than any exchanges pursuant to Sections 3.6 and 8.5 not involving any transfer.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be obligated to execute and deliver to the Agent, and the Agent shall not be obligated to authenticate, execute on behalf of the Holder and deliver any Certificate presented or surrendered for registration of transfer or for exchange on or after the Business Day immediately preceding the earlier of the Purchase Contract Settlement Date or the Termination Date. In lieu of delivery of a new Certificate, upon satisfaction of the applicable conditions specified above in this Section and receipt of appropriate registration or transfer instructions from such Holder, the Agent shall (i) if the Purchase Contract Settlement Date has occurred, deliver the shares of Common Stock issuable in respect of the Purchase Contracts forming a part of the Securities evidenced by such Certificate, (ii) in the case of Income PRIDES, if a Termination Event shall have occurred prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, transfer the aggregate Stated Amount of the Preferred Securities or the Treasury Portfolio, as applicable, evidenced thereby, or (iii) in the case of Growth PRIDES, if a Termination Event shall have occurred prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, transfer the Treasury Securities evidenced thereby, in each case subject to the applicable conditions and in accordance with the applicable provisions of Article Five hereof.

Section 3.6. Book-Entry Interests.

The Certificates, on original issuance, will be issued in the form of one or more, fully registered Global Certificates, to be delivered to the Depository by, or on behalf of, the Company. Such Global Certificate shall initially be registered on the books and records of the Company in the name of Cede & Co., the nominee of the Depository, and no Beneficial Owner will receive a definitive Certificate representing such Beneficial Owner's interest in such Global Certificate, except as provided in Section 3.9. The Agent shall enter into an agreement with the Depository if so requested by the Company. Unless and until definitive, fully registered Certificates have been issued to Beneficial Owners pursuant to Section 3.9:

(a) the provisions of this Section 3.6 shall be in full force and effect;

(b) the Company shall be entitled to deal with the Clearing Agency for all purposes of this Agreement (including the payment of Contract Adjustment Payments, if any, and receiving approvals, votes or consents hereunder) as the Holder of the Securities and the sole holder of the Global Certificate(s) and shall have no obligation to the Beneficial Owners;

(c) to the extent that the provisions of this Section 3.6 conflict with any other provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of this Section 3.6 shall control; and

(d) the rights of the Beneficial Owners shall be exercised only through the Clearing Agency and shall be limited to those established by law and agreements between such Beneficial Owners and the Clearing Agency and/or the Clearing Agency Participants. The Clearing Agency will make book entry transfers among Clearing Agency Participants and receive and transmit payments of Contract Adjustment Payments to such Clearing Agency Participants.

Section 3.7. Notices to Holders.

Whenever a notice or other communication to the Holders is required to be given under this Agreement, the Company or the Company's agent shall give such notices and communications to the Holders and, with respect to any Securities registered in the name of a Clearing Agency or the nominee of a Clearing Agency, the Company or the Company's agent shall, except as set forth herein, have no obligations to the Beneficial Owners.

Section 3.8. Appointment of Successor Clearing Agency.

If any Clearing Agency elects to discontinue its services as securities depository with respect to the Securities, the Company may, in its sole discretion, appoint a successor Clearing Agency with respect to the Securities.

Section 3.9. Definitive Certificates.

If (i) a Clearing Agency elects to discontinue its services as securities depository with respect to the Securities and a successor Clearing Agency is not appointed within 90 days after such discontinuance pursuant to Section 3.8, (ii) the Company elects to terminate the book-entry system through the Clearing Agency with respect to the Securities, or (iii) there shall have occurred and be continuing a default by the Company in respect of its obligations under one or more Purchase Contracts, then upon surrender of the Global Certificates representing the Book-Entry Interests with respect to the Securities by the Clearing Agency, accompanied by registration instructions, the Company shall cause definitive Certificates to be delivered to Beneficial Owners in accordance with the instructions of the Clearing Agency. The Company shall not be liable for any delay in delivery of such instructions and may conclusively rely on and shall be protected in relying on, such instructions.

Section 3.10. Mutilated, Destroyed, Lost and Stolen Certificates.

If any mutilated Certificate is surrendered to the Agent, the Company shall execute and deliver to the Agent, and the Agent shall authenticate, execute on behalf of the Holder, and deliver in exchange therefor, a new Certificate at the cost of the Holder, evidencing the same number of Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, as the case may be, and bearing a Certificate number not contemporaneously outstanding.

If there shall be delivered to the Company and the Agent (i) evidence to their satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Certificate, and (ii) such security or indemnity at the cost of the Holder as may be required by them to hold each of them and any agent of any of them harmless, then, in the absence of notice to the Company or the Agent that such Certificate has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the Company shall execute and deliver to the Agent, and the Agent shall authenticate, execute on behalf of the Holder, and deliver to the Holder, in lieu of any such destroyed, lost or stolen Certificate, a new Certificate, evidencing the same number of Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, as the case may be, and bearing a Certificate number not contemporaneously outstanding.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be obligated to execute and deliver to the Agent, and the Agent shall not be obligated to authenticate, execute on behalf of the Holder, and deliver to the Holder, a Certificate on or after the Business Day immediately preceding the earlier of the Purchase Contract Settlement Date or the Termination Date. In lieu of delivery of a new Certificate, upon satisfaction of the applicable conditions specified above in this Section and receipt of appropriate registration or transfer instructions from such Holder, the Agent shall (i) if the Purchase Contract Settlement Date has occurred, deliver the shares of Common Stock issuable in respect of the Purchase Contracts forming a part of the Securities evidenced by such Certificate, or (ii) if a Termination Event shall have occurred prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, transfer the Preferred Securities, the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio or the Treasury Securities, as the case may be, evidenced thereby, in each case subject to the applicable conditions and in accordance with the applicable provisions of Article Five hereof.

Upon the issuance of any new Certificate under this Section, the Company and the Agent may require the payment by the Holder of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other expenses (including the fees and expenses of the Agent) connected therewith.

Every new Certificate issued pursuant to this Section in lieu of any destroyed, lost or stolen Certificate shall constitute an original additional contractual obligation of the Company and of the Holder in respect of the Security evidenced thereby, whether or not the destroyed, lost or stolen Certificate (and the Securities evidenced thereby) shall be at any time enforceable by anyone, and shall be entitled to all the benefits and be subject to all the obligations of this Agreement equally and proportionately with any and all other Certificates delivered hereunder.

The provisions of this Section are exclusive and shall preclude (to the extent lawful) all other rights and remedies with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Certificates.

Section 3.11. Persons Deemed Owners.

Prior to due presentment of a Certificate for registration of transfer, the Company and the Agent, and any agent of the Company or the Agent, may treat the Person in whose name such Certificate is registered as the owner of the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES evidenced thereby, for the purpose of receiving distributions on the Preferred Securities or on the maturing quarterly interest strips of the Treasury Portfolio, as applicable, receiving payments of Contract Adjustment Payments, performance of the Purchase Contracts and for all other purposes whatsoever, whether or not any distributions on the Preferred Securities or the Contract Adjustment Payments payable in respect of the Purchase Contracts constituting a part of the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES evidenced thereby shall be overdue and notwithstanding any notice to the contrary, and neither the Company nor the Agent, nor any agent of the Company or the Agent, shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to any Global Certificate, nothing herein shall prevent the Company, the Agent or any agent of the Company or the Agent, from giving effect to any written certification, proxy or other authorization furnished by any Clearing Agency (or its nominee), as a Holder, with respect to such Global Certificate or impair, as between such Clearing Agency and owners of beneficial interests in such Global Certificate, the operation of customary practices governing the exercise of rights of such Clearing Agency (or its nominee) as Holder of such Global Certificate.

Section 3.12. Cancellation.

All Certificates surrendered for delivery of shares of Common Stock on or after the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, upon the transfer of Preferred Securities, the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio or Treasury Securities, as the case may be, after the occurrence of a Termination Event or pursuant to an Early Settlement, or upon the registration of a transfer or exchange of a Security, or a Collateral Substitution or the re-establishment of an Income PRIDES shall, if surrendered to any Person other than the Agent, be delivered to the Agent and, if not already cancelled, shall be promptly cancelled by it. The Company may at any time deliver to the Agent for cancellation any Certificates previously authenticated, executed and delivered hereunder which the Company may have acquired in any manner whatsoever, and all Certificates so delivered shall, upon Issuer Order, be promptly cancelled by the Agent. No Certificates shall be authenticated, executed on behalf of the Holder and delivered in lieu of or in exchange for any Certificates cancelled as provided in this Section, except as expressly permitted by this Agreement. All cancelled Certificates held by the Agent shall be destroyed by the Agent unless otherwise directed by Issuer Order.

If the Company or any Affiliate of the Company shall acquire any Certificate, such acquisition shall not operate as a cancellation of such Certificate unless and until such Certificate is delivered to the Agent cancelled or for cancellation.

Section 3.13. Establishment or Reestablishment of Growth PRIDES

A Holder may separate the Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as applicable, from the related Purchase Contracts in respect of an Income PRIDES by substituting for such Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, Treasury Securities in an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate Stated Amount of such Preferred Securities or for the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest (as specified in clause (A) of the definition of such term) of the Treasury Portfolio, as applicable (a "Collateral Substitution"), at any time from and after the date of this Agreement and on or prior to the fifth Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date in the case of the Preferred Securities and on or prior to the second Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date in the case of the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, in each case by (a) depositing with the Collateral Agent Treasury Securities having an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate Stated Amount of the Preferred Securities comprising part of such Income PRIDES or for the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest (as specified in clause (A) of the definition of such term) of the Treasury Portfolio comprising part of such Income PRIDES, as the case may be, and (b) (i) in the event that Contract Adjustment Payments are at a higher rate for Income PRIDES than for Growth PRIDES, by delivering cash in an amount equal to the excess of the Contract Adjustment Payments that would have accrued since the last Payment Date through the date of substitution on the Growth PRIDES being created by the holder, over the Contract Adjustment Payments that have accrued over the same time period on the related Income PRIDES, which amount the Agent shall promptly remit to the Company, and (ii) transferring the related Income PRIDES to the Agent accompanied by a notice to the Agent, substantially in the form of Exhibit D hereto, stating that the Holder has transferred the relevant amount of Treasury Securities to the Collateral Agent and requesting that the Agent instruct the Collateral Agent to release the Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, underlying such Income PRIDES, whereupon the Agent shall promptly give such instruction to the Collateral Agent, substantially in the form of Exhibit C hereto. Upon receipt of the Treasury Securities described in clause (a) above and the instruction described in clause (b) above, in accordance with the terms of the Pledge Agreement, the Collateral Agent will release to the Agent, on behalf of the Holder, Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, having a corresponding aggregate Stated Amount of such Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest (as specified in clause (A) of the definition of such term) of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, from the Pledge, free and clear of the Company's security interest therein, and upon receipt thereof the Agent shall promptly:

(i) cancel the related Income PRIDES;

(ii) transfer the Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, to the Holder; and

(iii) authenticate, execute on behalf of such Holder and deliver a Growth PRIDES Certificate executed by the Company in accordance with Section 3.3 evidencing the same number of Purchase Contracts as were evidenced by the cancelled Income PRIDES.

Holders who elect to separate the Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, from the related Purchase Contract and to substitute Treasury Securities for such Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, shall be responsible for any fees or expenses payable to the Collateral Agent for its services as Collateral Agent in respect of the substitution, and the Company shall not be responsible for any such fees or expenses.

Holders may make Collateral Substitutions (i) only in integral multiples of 20 Income PRIDES if Preferred Securities are being substituted by Treasury Securities, or (ii) only in integral multiples of 160,000 Income PRIDES if the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interests of the Treasury Portfolio are being substituted by Treasury Securities.

In the event a Holder making a Collateral Substitution pursuant to this Section 3.13 fails to effect a book-entry transfer of the Income PRIDES or fails to deliver an Income PRIDES Certificate(s) to the Agent after depositing Treasury Securities with the Collateral Agent, the Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, constituting a part of such Income PRIDES, and any distributions on such Preferred Security or the Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, shall be held in the name of the Agent or its nominee in trust for the benefit of such Holder, until such Income PRIDES is so transferred or the Income PRIDES Certificate is so delivered, as the case may be, or, with respect to an Income PRIDES Certificate, such Holder provides evidence satisfactory to the Company and the Agent that such Income PRIDES Certificate has been destroyed, lost or stolen, together with any indemnity that may be required by the Agent and the Company.

Except as described in this Section 3.13, for so long as the Purchase Contract underlying an Income PRIDES remains in effect, such Income PRIDES shall not be separable into its constituent parts, and the rights and obligations of the Holder in respect of the Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, and Purchase Contract comprising such Income PRIDES may be acquired, and may be transferred and exchanged, only as an Income PRIDES.

Section 3.14. Establishment or Reestablishment of Income PRIDES.

A Holder of a Growth PRIDES may create or recreate Income PRIDES at any time (i) on or prior to the fifth Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, if a Tax Event Redemption has not occurred, and (ii) on or prior to the second Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, if a Tax Event Redemption has occurred, in each case by (a) depositing with the Collateral Agent Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, having an aggregate Stated Amount in the case of the Preferred Securities, or an appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest (as defined in clause (A) of the definition of such term) of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Treasury Securities comprising part of the Growth PRIDES and (b) (i) in the event that Contract Adjustment Payments are at a higher rate for Income PRIDES than for Growth PRIDES, by delivering to the Agent cash in an amount equal to the excess of the Contract Adjustment Payments that would have accrued since the last payment date through the date of substitution on the Income PRIDES being created or recreated by such holders, over the Contract Adjustment Payments that have accrued over the same time period on the related Growth PRIDES transferring the related Growth PRIDES to the Agent accompanied by a notice to the Agent, substantially in the form of Exhibit D hereto, stating that the Holder has transferred the relevant amount of Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, to the Collateral Agent and requesting that the Agent instruct the Collateral Agent to release the Treasury Securities underlying such Growth PRIDES, whereupon the Agent shall promptly give such instruction to the Collateral Agent, substantially in the form of Exhibit C hereto. Upon receipt of the Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, described in clause (a) above and the instruction described in clause (b) above, in accordance with the terms of the Pledge Agreement, the Collateral Agent will effect the release of the Treasury Securities having a corresponding aggregate principal amount from the Pledge to the Agent free and clear of the Company's security interest therein, and upon receipt thereof the Agent shall promptly:

- (i) cancel the related Growth PRIDES;
- (ii) transfer the Treasury Securities to the Holder; and

- (iii) authenticate, execute on behalf of such Holder and deliver an Income PRIDES Certificate executed by the Company in accordance with Section 3.3 evidencing the same number of Purchase Contracts as were evidenced by the cancelled Growth PRIDES.

Holders of Growth PRIDES may establish or reestablish Income PRIDES in integral multiples of 20 Growth PRIDES for 20 Income PRIDES if a Tax Event Redemption has not occurred, and in integral multiples of 160,000 Growth PRIDES for 160,000 Income PRIDES if a Tax Event Redemption has occurred.

Except as provided in this Section 3.14, for so long as the Purchase Contract underlying a Growth PRIDES remains in effect, such Growth PRIDES shall not be separable into its constituent parts and the rights and obligations of the Holder of such Growth PRIDES in respect of the Treasury Security and Purchase Contract comprising such Growth PRIDES may be acquired, and may be transferred and exchanged only as a Growth PRIDES.

Section 3.15. Transfer of Collateral upon Occurrence of Termination Event.

Upon the occurrence of a Termination Event and the transfer to the Agent of the Preferred Securities, the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio or the Treasury Securities, as the case may be, underlying the Income PRIDES and the Growth PRIDES pursuant to the terms of the Pledge Agreement, the Agent shall request transfer instructions with respect to such Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio or Treasury Securities, as the case may be, from each Holder by written request mailed to such Holder at its address as it appears in the Income PRIDES Register or the Growth PRIDES Register, as the case may be. Upon book-entry transfer of the Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES or delivery of an Income PRIDES Certificate or Growth PRIDES Certificate to the Agent with such transfer instructions, the Agent shall transfer the Preferred Securities, the Treasury Portfolio or Treasury Securities, as the case may be, underlying such Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, as the case may be, to such Holder by book-entry transfer, or other appropriate procedures, in accordance with such instructions. In the event a Holder of Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES fails to effect such transfer or delivery, the Preferred Securities, the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio or Treasury Securities, as the case may be, underlying such Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, as the case may be, and any distributions thereon, shall be held in the name of the Agent or its nominee in trust for the benefit of such Holder, until such Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES are transferred or the Income PRIDES Certificate or Growth PRIDES Certificate is surrendered or such Holder provides satisfactory evidence that such Income PRIDES Certificate or Growth PRIDES Certificate has been destroyed, lost or stolen, together with any indemnity that may be required by the Agent and the Company.

Section 3.16. No Consent to Assumption.

Each Holder of a Security, by acceptance thereof, shall be deemed expressly to have withheld any consent to the assumption under Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, of the Purchase Contract by the Company, receiver, liquidator or a person or entity performing similar functions, its trustee in the event that the Company becomes the debtor under the Bankruptcy Code or subject to other similar state or federal law providing for reorganization or liquidation.

ARTICLE IV The Preferred Securities

Section 4.1. Payment of Distribution; Rights to Distributions Preserved; Distribution Rate Reset; Notice.

A distribution on any Preferred Security or on the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest in the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, which is paid on any Payment Date shall, subject to receipt thereof by the Agent from the Collateral Agent as provided by the terms of the Pledge Agreement, be paid to the Person in whose name the Income PRIDES Certificate (or one or more Predecessor Income PRIDES Certificates) of which such Preferred Security or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, is a part is registered at the close of business on the Record Date for such Payment Date.

Each Income PRIDES Certificate evidencing Preferred Securities delivered under this Agreement upon registration of transfer of or in exchange for or in lieu of any other Income PRIDES Certificate shall carry the rights to distributions accrued and unpaid, and to accrue distributions, which were carried by the Preferred Securities underlying such other Income PRIDES Certificate.

In the case of any Income PRIDES with respect to which Cash Settlement of the underlying Purchase Contract is effected on the Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date pursuant to prior notice, or with respect to which Early Settlement of the underlying Purchase Contract is effected on a Early Settlement Date, or with respect to which a Collateral Substitution is effected, in each case on a date that is after any Record Date and on or prior to the next succeeding Payment Date, distributions on the Preferred Securities or on the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, underlying such Income PRIDES otherwise payable on such Payment Date shall be payable on such Payment Date notwithstanding such Cash Settlement or Early Settlement or Collateral Substitution, and such distributions shall, subject to receipt thereof by the Agent, be payable to the Person in whose name the Income PRIDES Certificate (or one or more Predecessor Income PRIDES Certificates) was registered at the close of business on the Record Date. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the immediately preceding sentence, in the case of any Income PRIDES with respect to which Cash Settlement or Early Settlement of the underlying Purchase Contract is effected on the Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date or an Early Settlement Date, as the case may be, or with respect to which a Collateral Substitution has been effected, distributions on the related Preferred Securities or on the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, that would otherwise be payable after the Purchase Contract Settlement Date or Early Settlement Date shall not be payable hereunder to the Holder of such Income PRIDES; provided, however, that to the extent that such Holder continues to hold the separated Preferred Securities that formerly comprised a part of such Holder's Income PRIDES, such Holder shall be entitled to receive the distributions on such separated Preferred Securities.

The applicable Coupon Rate on the Preferred Securities on and after the Purchase Contract Settlement Date will be reset on the third Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date to the Reset Rate (such Reset Rate to be in effect on and after the purchase Contract Settlement Date). On the Reset Announcement Date the Reset Spread and the Two-Year Benchmark Treasury to be used to determine the Reset Rate will be announced by the Company. On the Business Day immediately following the Reset Announcement Date, the Preferred Securities Holders will be notified of such Reset Spread and Two-Year Benchmark Treasury by the Company. Such notice shall be sufficiently given to Holders of Preferred Securities if published in an Authorized Newspaper in The City of New York.

Not later than 10 calendar days nor more than 15 calendar days prior to the Reset Announcement Date, the Company will notify the DTC or its nominee (or any successor Clearing Agency or its nominee) by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to notify the Beneficial Owners or Clearing Agency Participants holding Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, of such Reset Announcement Date and the procedures to be followed by such Holders of Income PRIDES who intend to settle their obligation under the Purchase Contract with separate cash on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date.

Section 4.2. Notice and Voting.

Under the terms of the Pledge Agreement, the Agent will be entitled to exercise the voting and any other consensual rights pertaining to the Preferred Securities pledged with the Collateral Agent but only to the extent instructed by the Holders as described below. Upon receipt of notice of any meeting at which holders of Preferred Securities are entitled to vote or upon any solicitation of consents, waivers or proxies of holders of Preferred Securities, the Agent shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, mail to the Holders of Income PRIDES a notice (a) containing such information as is contained in the notice or solicitation, (b) stating that each Holder on the record date set by the Agent therefor (which, to the extent possible, shall be the same date as the record date for determining the holders of Preferred Securities entitled to vote) shall be entitled to instruct the Agent as to the exercise of the voting rights pertaining to the Preferred Securities underlying their Income PRIDES and (c) stating the manner in which such instructions may be given. Upon the written request of the Holders of Income PRIDES on such record date, the Agent shall endeavor insofar as practicable to vote or cause to be voted, in accordance with the instructions set forth in such requests, the maximum number of Preferred Securities as to which any particular voting instructions are received. In the absence of specific instructions from the Holder of an Income PRIDES, the Agent shall abstain from voting the Preferred Security underlying such Income PRIDES. The Company hereby agrees, if applicable, to solicit Holders of Income PRIDES to timely instruct the Agent in order to enable the Agent to vote such Preferred Securities and the Trust shall covenant to such effect in the Declaration.

Section 4.3. Distribution of Debentures; Tax Event Redemption

Upon the occurrence of an Investment Company Event or a liquidation of the Trust in accordance with the Declaration, a principal amount of Debentures constituting the assets of the Trust and underlying the Preferred Securities equal to the aggregate Stated Amount of the Pledged Preferred Securities shall be delivered to the Collateral Agent in exchange for the Pledged Preferred Securities. Thereafter, the Debentures will be substituted for the Pledged Preferred Securities, and will be held by the Collateral Agent in accordance with the terms of the Pledge Agreement to secure the obligations of each Holder of an Income PRIDES to purchase the Common Stock of the Company under the Purchase Contracts constituting a part of such Income PRIDES. Following the occurrence of an Investment Company Event or a liquidation of the Trust, the Holders and the Collateral Agent shall have such security interests, rights and obligations with respect to the Debentures as the Holders and the Collateral Agent had in respect of the Preferred Securities subject to the Pledge thereof as provided in Articles II, III, IV, V and VI of the Pledge Agreement, and any reference herein to the Preferred Securities shall be deemed to be a reference to such Debentures. The Company may cause to be made in any Income PRIDES Certificates thereafter to be issued such change in phraseology and form (but not in substance) as may be appropriate to reflect the liquidation of the Trust and the substitution of Debentures for Preferred Securities as Collateral.

Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event Redemption prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, the Redemption Price payable on the Tax Event Redemption Date with respect to the Applicable Principle Amount of Debentures shall be delivered to the Collateral Agent in exchange for the Pledged Preferred Securities. Thereafter, pursuant to the terms of the Pledge Agreement, the Collateral Agent will apply an amount equal to the Redemption Amount of such Redemption Price to purchase on behalf of the Holders of Income PRIDES the Treasury Portfolio and promptly remit the remaining portion of such Redemption Price to the Agent for payment to the Holders of such Income PRIDES. The Treasury Portfolio will be substituted for the Pledged Preferred Securities, and will be held by the Collateral Agent in accordance with the terms of the Pledge Agreement to secure the obligation of each Holder of an Income PRIDES to purchase the Common Stock of the Company under the Purchase Contract constituting a part of such Income PRIDES. Following the occurrence of a Tax Event Redemption prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, the Holders of Income PRIDES and the Collateral Agent shall have such security interests, rights and obligations with respect to the Treasury Portfolio as the Holder of Income PRIDES and the Collateral Agent had in respect of the Preferred Security or Debentures, as the case may be, subject to the Pledge thereof as provided in Articles II, III, IV, V, and VI of the Pledge Agreement, and any reference herein to the Preferred Security or the Debenture shall be deemed to be reference to such Treasury Portfolio. The Company may cause to be made in any Income PRIDES Certificates thereafter to be issued such change in phraseology and form (but not in substance) as may be appropriate to reflect the liquidation of the Trust and the substitution of the Treasury Portfolio for Preferred Securities or Debentures as collateral.

ARTICLE V The Purchase Contracts

Section 5.1. Purchase of Shares of Common Stock.

Each Purchase Contract shall, unless an Early Settlement has occurred in accordance with Section 5.9 hereof, obligate the Holder of the related Security to purchase, and the Company to sell, on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date at a price equal to the Stated Amount (the "Purchase Price"), a number of newly issued shares of Common Stock equal to the Settlement Rate unless, on or prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, there shall have occurred a Termination Event with respect to the Security of which such Purchase Contract is a part. The "Settlement Rate" is equal to (a) if the Applicable Market Value (as defined below) is equal to or greater than $_____ (the "Threshold Appreciation Price"), _____ shares of Common Stock per Purchase Contract, (b) if the Applicable Market Value is less than the Threshold Appreciation Price, but is greater than $_____, the number of shares of Common Stock equal to the Stated Amount divided by the Applicable Market Value and (c) if the Applicable Market Value is less than or equal to $_____, _____ shares of Common Stock per Purchase Contract, in each case subject to adjustment as provided in Section 5.6 (and in each case rounded upward or downward to the nearest 1/10,000th of a share). As provided in Section 5.10, no fractional shares of Common Stock will be issued upon settlement of Purchase Contracts.

The "Applicable Market Value" means the average of the Closing Price per share of Common Stock on each of the 20 consecutive Trading Days ending on the third Trading Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date. The "Closing Price" of the Common Stock on any date of determination means the closing sale price (or, if no closing price is reported, the last reported sale price) of the Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") on such date or, if the Common Stock is not listed for trading on the NYSE on any such date, as reported in the composite transactions for the principal United States securities exchange on which the Common Stock is so listed, or if the Common Stock is not so listed on a United States national or regional securities exchange, as reported by The Nasdaq Stock Market, or, if the Common Stock is not so reported, the last quoted bid price for the Common Stock in the over-the-counter market as reported by the National Quotation Bureau or similar organization, or, if such bid price is not available, the market value of the Common Stock on such date as determined by a nationally recognized independent investment banking firm retained for this purpose by the Company. A "Trading Day" means a day on which the Common Stock (A) is not suspended from trading on any national or regional securities exchange or association or over-the-counter market at the close of business and (B) has traded at least once on the national or regional securities exchange or association or over-the-counter market that is the primary market for the trading of the Common Stock.

Each Holder of an Income PRIDES or a Growth PRIDES, by its acceptance thereof, irrevocably authorizes the Agent to enter into and perform the related Purchase Contract on its behalf as its attorney-in-fact (including the execution of Certificates on behalf of such Holder), agrees to be bound by the terms and provisions thereof, covenants and agrees to perform its obligations under such Purchase Contracts, and consents to the provisions hereof, irrevocably authorizes the Agent as its attorney-in-fact to enter into and perform the Pledge Agreement on its behalf as its attorney-in-fact, and consents to and agrees to be bound by the Pledge of the Preferred Securities, the Treasury Portfolio or the Treasury Securities pursuant to the Pledge Agreement; provided that upon a Termination Event, the rights of the Holder of such Security under the Purchase Contract may be enforced without regard to any other rights or obligations. Each Holder of an Income PRIDES or a Growth PRIDES, by its acceptance thereof, further covenants and agrees, that, to the extent and in the manner provided in Section 5.4 and the Pledge Agreement, but subject to the terms thereof, payments in respect of the Stated Amount of the Preferred Securities or the Proceeds of the Treasury Securities or the Treasury Portfolio on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date shall be paid by the Collateral Agent to the Company in satisfaction of such Holder's obligations under such Purchase Contract and such Holder shall acquire no right, title or interest in such payments.

Upon registration of transfer of a Certificate, the transferee shall be bound (without the necessity of any other action on the part of such transferee), under the terms of this Agreement, the Purchase Contracts underlying such Certificate and the Pledge Agreement and the transferor shall be released from the obligations under this Agreement, the Purchase Contracts underlying the Certificates so transferred and the Pledge Agreement. The Company covenants and agrees, and each Holder of a Certificate, by its acceptance thereof, likewise covenants and agrees, to be bound by the provisions of this paragraph.

Section 5.2. Contract Adjustment Payments.

Subject to Section 5.3 herein, the Company shall pay, on each Payment Date, the Contract Adjustment Payments payable in respect of each Purchase Contract to the Person in whose name a Certificate (or one or more Predecessor Certificates) is registered at the close of business on the Record Date next preceding such Payment Date. The Contract Adjustment Payments will be payable at the office of the Agent in The City of New York maintained for that purpose or, at the option of the Company, by check mailed to the address of the Person entitled thereto at such Person's address as it appears on the Income PRIDES Register or Growth PRIDES Register.

Upon the occurrence of a Termination Event, the Company's obligation to pay Contract Adjustment Payments (including any accrued or Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments) shall cease.

Each Certificate delivered under this Agreement upon registration of transfer of or in exchange for or in lieu of (including as a result of a Collateral Substitution or the re-establishment of an Income PRIDES) any other Certificate shall carry the rights to Contract Adjustment Payments accrued and unpaid, and to accrue Contract Adjustment Payments, which were carried by the Purchase Contracts underlying such other Certificates.

Subject to Section 5.9, in the case of any Security with respect to which Early Settlement of the underlying Purchase Contract is effected on an Early Settlement Date that is after any Record Date and on or prior to the next succeeding Payment Date, Contract Adjustment Payments, if any, otherwise payable on such Payment Date shall be payable on such Payment Date notwithstanding such Early Settlement, and such Contract Adjustment Payments shall be paid to the Person in whose name the Certificate evidencing such Security (or one or more Predecessor Certificates) is registered at the close of business on such Record Date. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the immediately preceding sentence, in the case of any Security with respect to which Early Settlement of the underlying Purchase Contract is effected on an Early Settlement Date, Contract Adjustment Payments that would otherwise be payable after the Early Settlement Date with respect to such Purchase Contract shall not be payable.

The Company's obligations with respect to Contract Adjustment Payments, will be subordinated and junior in right of payment to the Company's obligations under any Senior Indebtedness.

Section 5.3. Deferral of Payment Dates For Contract Adjustment Payments.

The Company shall have the right, at any time prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, to defer the payment of any or all of the Contract Adjustment Payments otherwise payable on any Payment Date, but only if the Company shall give the Holders and the Agent written notice of its election to defer such payment (specifying the amount to be deferred) at least ten Business Days prior to the earlier of (i) the next succeeding Payment Date or (ii) the date the Company is required to give notice of the Record Date or Payment Date with respect to payment of such Contract Adjustment Payments to the New York Stock Exchange or other applicable self-regulatory organization or to Holders of the Securities, but in any event not less than one Business Day prior to such Record Date. Any Contract Adjustment Payments so deferred shall bear additional Contract Adjustment Payments thereon at the rate of ____% per annum (computed on the basis of 360 day year of twelve 30 day months), compounding on each succeeding Payment Date, until paid in full (such deferred installments of Contract Adjustment Payments together with the additional Contract Adjustment Payments accrued thereon, being referred to herein as the "Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments"). Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments shall be due on the next succeeding Payment Date except to the extent that payment is deferred pursuant to this Section. No Contract Adjustment Payments may be deferred to a date that is after the Purchase Contract Settlement Date. If the Purchase Contracts are terminated upon the occurrence of a Termination Event, the Holder's right to receive Contract Adjustment Payments and Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments will terminate.

In the event that the Company elects to defer the payment of Contract Adjustment Payments on the Purchase Contracts until the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, each Holder will receive on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date in lieu of a cash payment a number of shares of Common Stock (in addition to a number of shares of Common Stock equal to the Settlement Rate) equal to (x) the aggregate amount of Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments payable to such Holder divided by (y) the Applicable Market Value.

In the event the Company exercises its option to defer the payment of Contract Adjustment Payments, then, until the Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments have been paid, the Company shall not declare or pay dividends on, make distributions with respect to, or redeem, purchase or acquire, or make a liquidation payment with respect to, any of its capital stock or make guarantee payments with respect to the foregoing (other than (i) purchases or acquisitions of shares of capital stock of the Company in connection with the satisfaction by the Company of its obligations under any employee or agent benefit plans or the satisfaction by the Company of its obligations pursuant to any contract or security outstanding on the date of such event requiring the Company to purchase capital stock of the Company, (ii) as a result of a reclassification of the Company's capital stock or the exchange or conversion of one class or series of the Company's capital stock for another class or series of the Company's capital stock, (iii) the purchase of fractional interests in shares of the Company's capital stock pursuant to the conversion or exchange provisions of such capital stock or the security being converted or exchanged, (iv) dividends or distributions in capital stock of the Company (or rights to acquire capital stock) or repurchases or redemptions of capital stock solely from the issuance or exchange of capital stock or (v) redemptions or repurchases of any rights outstanding under a shareholder rights plan and the declaration thereunder of a dividend of rights in the future).

No fractional shares of Common Stock will be issued by the Company with respect to the payment of Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date. In lieu of fractional shares otherwise issuable with respect to such payment of Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments, the Holder will be entitled to receive an amount in cash as provided in Section 5.10.

Section 5.4. Payment of Purchase Price.

(a) (i) Unless a Tax Event Redemption has occurred or a Holder settles the underlying Purchase Contract through the early delivery of cash to the Purchase Contract Agent in the manner described in Section 5.9, each Holder of an Income PRIDES must notify the Agent by use of a notice in substantially the form of Exhibit E hereto of its intention to pay in cash ("Cash Settlement") the Purchase Price for the shares of Common Stock to be purchased pursuant to a Purchase Contract. Such notice shall be made on or prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the fifth Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date. The Agent shall promptly notify the Collateral Agent of the receipt of such a notice from a Holder intending to make a Cash Settlement.

(ii) A Holder of an Income PRIDES who has so notified the Agent of its intention to make a Cash Settlement is required to pay the Purchase Price to the Collateral Agent prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date in lawful money of the United States by certified or cashiers' check or wire transfer, in each case in immediately available funds payable to or upon the order of the Company. Any cash received by the Collateral Agent will be invested promptly by the Collateral Agent in Permitted Investments and paid to the Company on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date in settlement of the Purchase Contract in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Pledge Agreement. Any funds received by the Collateral Agent in respect of the investment earnings from the investment in such Permitted Investments, will be distributed to the Agent when received for payment to the Holder.

(iii) If a Holder of an Income PRIDES fails to notify the Agent of its intention to make a Cash Settlement in accordance with paragraph (a)(i) above, such failure shall constitute an event of default and the Holder shall be deemed to have consented to the disposition of the pledged Preferred Securities pursuant to the Remarketing as described in paragraph (b) below. If a Holder of an Income PRIDES does notify the Agent as provided in paragraph (a)(i) above of its intention to pay the Purchase Price in cash, but fails to make such payment as required by paragraph (a)(ii) above, such failure shall also constitute a default; however, the Preferred Securities of such a Holder will not be remarketed but instead the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Company, will exercise its rights as a secured party with respect to such Preferred Securities, including those rights specified in paragraph (c) below.

(b) In order to dispose of the Preferred Securities of Income PRIDES Holders who have not notified the Agent of their intention to effect a Cash Settlement as provided in paragraph (a)(i) above, the Company shall engage a nationally recognized investment bank (the "Remarketing Agent") pursuant to the Remarketing Agreement to sell such Preferred Securities. In order to facilitate the remarketing, the Agent shall notify, by 10:00 a.m., New York City time, on the fourth Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, the Remarketing Agent of the aggregate number of Preferred Securities to be remarketed. Concurrently, the Collateral Agent, pursuant to the terms of the Pledge Agreement, will present for remarketing such Preferred Securities to the Remarketing Agent. Upon receipt of such notice from the Agent and such Preferred Securities from the Collateral Agent, the Remarketing Agent will, on the third Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, use its reasonable efforts to remarket such Preferred Securities on such date at a price of approximately 100.5% (but not less than 100%) of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of such Preferred Securities, plus accrued and unpaid distributions (including deferred distributions), if any, thereon. After deducting as the remarketing fee ("Remarketing Fee") an amount not exceeding 25 basis points (.25%) of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the remarketed Preferred Securities from any amount of such proceeds in excess of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of the remarketed Preferred Securities plus accrued and unpaid distributions (including any deferred distributions), if any, then the Remarketing Agent will remit the entire amount of the proceeds from such remarketing to the Collateral Agent. Such portion of the proceeds, equal to the aggregate stated liquidation amount of such Preferred Securities, will automatically be applied by the Collateral Agent, in accordance with the Pledge Agreement to satisfy in full such Income PRIDES holders' obligations to pay the Purchase Price for the Common Stock under the related Purchase Contracts on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date. Any proceeds in excess of those required to pay the Purchase Price and the Remarketing Fee will be remitted to the Agent for payment to the Holders of the related Income PRIDES. Income PRIDES Holders whose Preferred Securities are so remarketed will not otherwise be responsible for the payment of any Remarketing Fee in connection therewith. If, in spite of using its reasonable efforts, the Remarketing Agent cannot remarket the related Preferred Securities of such Holders of Income PRIDES at a price not less than 100% of the aggregate stated liquidation amount of such Preferred Securities plus accrued and unpaid distributions (including deferred distributions), if any, the remarketing will be deemed to have failed (a "Failed Remarketing") and in accordance with the terms of the Pledge Agreement the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Company will exercise its rights as a secured party with respect to such Preferred Securities, including those actions specified in paragraph (c) below; provided, that if upon a Failed Remarketing the Collateral Agent exercises such rights for the benefit of the Company with respect to such Preferred Securities, any accrued and unpaid distributions (including any deferred distributions) on such Preferred Securities will become payable by the Company to the Agent for payment to the Beneficial Owner of the Income PRIDES to which such Preferred Securities relates. Such payment will be made by the Company on or prior to 11 a.m. New York City time on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date in lawful money of the United States by certified or cashiers' check or wire transfer in immediately available funds payable to or upon the order of the Agent. The Company will cause a notice of such Failed Remarketing to be published on the Second Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date in a daily newspaper in the English language of general circulation in The City of New York, which is expected to be The Wall Street Journal.

(c) With respect to any Preferred Securities beneficially owned by Holders who have elected Cash Settlement but failed to deliver cash as required in (a)(ii) above, or with respect to Preferred Securities which are subject to a Failed Remarketing, the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Company reserves all of its rights as a secured party with respect thereto and, subject to applicable law and paragraph (h) below, may, among other things, (i) retain the Preferred Securities in full satisfaction of the Holders obligations under the Purchase Contracts or (ii) sell the Preferred Securities in one or more public or private sales.

(d) (i) Unless a Holder of Growth PRIDES or Income PRIDES (if a Tax Event Redemption has occurred) settles the underlying Purchase Contract through the early delivery of cash to the Purchase Contract Agent in the manner described in Section 5.9, each Holder of a Growth PRIDES or Income PRIDES (if a Tax Event Redemption has occurred) must notify the Agent by use of a notice in substantially the form of Exhibit E hereto of its intention to pay in cash the Purchase Price for the shares of Common Stock to be purchased pursuant to a Purchase Contract on or prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the second Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date.

(ii) A Holder of a Growth PRIDES or Income PRIDES (if a Tax Event Redemption has occurred) who has so notified the Agent of its intention to make a Cash Settlement in accordance with paragraph (d)(i) above is required to pay the Purchase Price to the Collateral Agent prior to 11:00 a.m., New York City time, on the Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date in lawful money of the United States by certified or cashiers' check or wire transfer, in each case in immediately available funds payable to or upon the order of the Company. Any cash received by the Collateral Agent will be invested promptly by the Collateral Agent in Permitted Investments and paid to the Company on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date in settlement of the Purchase Contract in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Pledge Agreement. Any funds received by the Collateral Agent in respect of the investment earnings from the investment in such Permitted Investments will be distributed to the Agent when received for payment to the Holder.

(iii) If a Holder of a Growth PRIDES fails to notify the Agent of its intention to make a Cash Settlement in accordance with paragraph (d)(i) above, or if a Holder of an Income PRIDES (if a Tax Event Redemption has occurred) does not notify the Agent as provided in paragraph (d)(i) above its intention to pay the Purchase Price in cash, but fails to make such payment as required by paragraph (d)(ii) above, then upon the maturity of the Pledged Treasury Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, held by the Collateral Agent on the Business Day immediately prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, the principal amount of the Treasury Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, received by the Collateral Agent will be invested promptly in overnight Permitted Investments. On the Purchase Contract Settlement Date an amount equal to the Purchase Price will be remitted to the Company as payment thereof without receiving any instructions from the Holder. In the event the sum of the proceeds from the related Pledged Treasury Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, and the investment earnings earned from such investments is in excess of the aggregate Purchase Price of the Purchase Contracts being settled thereby, the Collateral Agent will distribute such excess to the Agent for the benefit of the Holder of the related Growth PRIDES or Income PRIDES when received.

(e) Any distribution to Holders of excess funds and interest described above, shall be payable at the office of the Agent in The City of New York maintained for that purpose or, at the option of the Holder, by check mailed to the address of the Person entitled thereto at such address as it appears on the Register.

(f) Unless a Holder settles the underlying Purchase Contract through the early delivery of cash to the Collateral Agent in the manner described herein, the Company shall not be obligated to issue any shares of Common Stock in respect of a Purchase Contract or deliver any certificate therefor to the Holder unless it shall have received payment in full of the Purchase Price for the shares of Common Stock to be purchased thereunder in the manner herein set forth.

(g) Upon Cash Settlement of any Purchase Contract, (i) the Collateral Agent will in accordance with the terms of the Pledge Agreement cause the Pledged Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, or the Pledged Treasury Securities underlying the relevant Security to be released from the Pledge by the Collateral Agent free and clear of any security interest of the Company and transferred to the Agent for delivery to the Holder thereof or its designee as soon as practicable and (ii) subject to the receipt thereof from the Collateral Agent, the Agent shall, by book-entry transfer, or other appropriate procedures, in accordance with instructions provided by the Holder thereof, transfer such Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, or such Treasury Securities (or, if no such instructions are given to the Agent by the Holder, the Agent shall hold such Preferred Securities or the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, or such Treasury Securities, and any distribution thereon, in the name of the Agent or its nominee in trust for the benefit of such Holder).

(h) The obligations of the Holders to pay the Purchase Price are non-recourse obligations and are payable solely out of any Cash Settlement or the proceeds of any Collateral Pledged to secure the obligations of the Holders and in no event will Holders be liable for any deficiency between the proceeds of Collateral disposition and the Purchase Price.

Unless a Termination Event shall have occurred on or prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date or an Early Settlement shall have occurred, on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, upon its receipt of payment in full of the Purchase Price for the shares of Common Stock purchased by the Holders pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Article and subject to Section 5.6(b), the Company shall issue and deposit with the Agent, for the benefit of the Holders of the Outstanding Securities, one or more certificates representing the newly issued shares of Common Stock registered in the name of the Agent (or its nominee) as custodian for the Holders (such certificates for shares of Common Stock, together with any dividends or distributions for which a record date and payment date for such dividend or distribution has occurred after the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, being hereinafter referred to as the "Purchase Contract Settlement Fund") to which the Holders are entitled hereunder. Subject to the foregoing, upon surrender of a Certificate to the Agent on or after the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, together with settlement instructions thereon duly completed and executed, the Holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a certificate representing that number of whole shares of Common Stock which such Holder is entitled to receive pursuant to the provisions of this Article Five (after taking into account all Securities then held by such Holder) together with cash in lieu of fractional shares as provided in Section 5.10 and any dividends or distributions with respect to such shares constituting part of the Purchase Contract Settlement Fund, but without any interest thereon, and the Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled. Such shares shall be registered in the name of the Holder or the Holder's designee as specified in the settlement instructions provided by the Holder to the Agent. If any shares of Common Stock issued in respect of a Purchase Contract are to be registered to a Person other than the Person in whose name the Certificate evidencing such Purchase Contract is registered, no such registration shall be made unless the Person requesting such registration has paid any transfer and other taxes required by reason of such registration in a name other than that of the registered Holder of the Certificate evidencing such Purchase Contract or has established to the satisfaction of the Company that such tax either has been paid or is not payable.

Section 5.6. Adjustment of Settlement Rate.

(a) Adjustments for Dividends, Distributions, Stock Splits, Etc.

(1) In case the Company shall pay or make a dividend or other distribution on the Common Stock in Common Stock, the Settlement Rate, as in effect at the opening of business on the day following the date fixed for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive such dividend or other distribution shall be increased by dividing such Settlement Rate by a fraction of which the numerator shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding at the close of business on the date fixed for such determination and the denominator shall be the sum of such number of shares and the total number of shares constituting such dividend or other distribution, such increase to become effective immediately after the opening of business on the day following the date fixed for such determination. For the purposes of this paragraph (1), the number of shares of Common Stock at time outstanding shall not include shares held in the treasury of the Company but shall include any shares issuable in respect of any scrip certificates issued in lieu of fractions of shares of Common Stock. The Company will not pay any dividend or make any distribution on shares of Common Stock held in the treasury of the Company.

(2) In case the Company shall issue rights, options or warrants to all holders of its Common Stock (not being available on an equivalent basis to Holders of the Securities upon settlement of the Purchase Contracts underlying such Securities) entitling them, for a period expiring within 45 days after the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive such rights, options or warrants, to subscribe for or purchase shares of Common Stock at a price per share less than the Current Market Price per share of the Common Stock on the date fixed for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive such rights, options or warrants (other than pursuant to a dividend reinvestment plan), the Settlement Rate, in effect at the opening of business on the day following the date fixed for such determination shall be increased by dividing such Settlement Rate, by a fraction of which the numerator shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding at the close of business on the date fixed for such determination plus the number of shares of Common Stock which the aggregate of the offering price of the total number of shares of Common Stock so offered for subscription or purchase would purchase at such Current Market Price and the denominator shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding at the close of business on the date fixed for such determination plus the number of shares of Common Stock so offered for subscription or purchase, such increase to become effective immediately after the opening of business on the day following the date fixed for such determination. For the purposes of this paragraph (2), the number of shares of Common Stock at any time outstanding shall not include shares held in the treasury of the Company but shall include any shares issuable in respect of any scrip certificates issued in lieu of fractions of shares of Common Stock. The Company shall not issue any such rights, options or warrants in respect of shares of Common Stock held in the treasury of the Company.

(3) In case outstanding shares of Common Stock shall be subdivided or split into a greater number of shares of Common Stock, the Settlement Rate, in effect at the opening of business on the day following the day upon which such subdivision or split becomes effective shall be proportionately increased, and, conversely, in case outstanding shares of Common Stock shall each be combined into a smaller number of shares of Common Stock, the Settlement Rate, in effect at the opening of business on the day following the day upon which such combination becomes effective shall be proportionately reduced, such increase or reduction, as the case may be, to become effective immediately after the opening of business on the day following the day upon which such subdivision, split or combination becomes effective.

(4) In case the Company shall, by dividend or otherwise, distribute to all holders of its Common Stock evidences of its indebtedness or assets (including securities, but excluding any rights or warrants referred to in paragraph (2) of this Section, any dividend or distribution paid exclusively in cash and any dividend or distribution referred to in paragraph (1) of this Section), the Settlement Rate, shall be adjusted so that the same shall equal the rate determined by dividing the Settlement Rate in effect immediately prior to the close of business on the date fixed for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive such distribution by a fraction of which the numerator shall be the Current Market Price per share of the Common Stock on the date fixed for such determination less the then fair market value (as determined by the Board of Directors, whose determination shall be conclusive and described in a Board Resolution filed with the Agent) of the portion of the assets or evidences of indebtedness so distributed applicable to one share of Common Stock and the denominator shall be such Current Market Price per share of the Common Stock, such adjustment to become effective immediately prior to the opening of business on the day following the date fixed for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive such distribution. In any case in which this paragraph (4) is applicable, paragraph (2) of this Section shall not be applicable.

(5) In case the Company shall, (I) by dividend or otherwise, distribute to all holders of its Common Stock cash (excluding any cash that is distributed in a Reorganization Event to which Section 5.6(b) applies or as part of a distribution referred to in paragraph (4) of this Section) in an aggregate amount that, combined together with (II) the aggregate amount of any other distributions to all holders of its Common Stock made exclusively in cash within the 12 months preceding the date of payment of such distribution and in respect of which no adjustment pursuant to this paragraph (5) or paragraph (6) of this Section has been made and (III) the aggregate of any cash plus the fair market value (as determined by the Board of Directors, whose determination shall be conclusive and described in a Board Resolution) of consideration payable in respect of any tender or exchange offer by the Company or any of its subsidiaries for all or any portion of the Common Stock concluded within the 12 months preceding the date of payment of the distribution described in clause (I) above and in respect of which no adjustment pursuant to this paragraph (5) or paragraph (6) of this Section has been made, exceeds 15% of the product of the Current Market Price per share of the Common Stock on the date for the determination of holders of shares of Common Stock entitled to receive such distribution times the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding on such date, then, and in each such case, immediately after the close of business on such date for determination, the Settlement Rate, shall be increased so that the same shall equal the rate determined by dividing the Settlement Rate in effect immediately prior to the close of business on the date fixed for determination of the stockholders entitled to receive such distribution by a fraction (i) the numerator of which shall be equal to the Current Market Price per share of the Common Stock on the date fixed for such determination less an amount equal to the quotient of (x) the combined amount distributed or payable in the transactions described in clauses (I), (II) and (III) above and (y) the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding on such date for determination and (ii) the denominator of which shall be equal to the Current Market Price per share of the Common Stock on such date for determination.

(6) In case (I) a tender or exchange offer made by the Company or any subsidiary of the Company for all or any portion of the Common Stock shall expire and such tender or exchange offer (as amended upon the expiration thereof) shall require the payment to stockholders (based on the acceptance (up to any maximum specified in the terms of the tender or exchange offer) of Purchased Shares) of an aggregate consideration having a fair market value (as determined by the Board of Directors, whose determination shall be conclusive and described in a Board Resolution) that combined together with (II) the aggregate of the cash plus the fair market value (as determined by the Board of Directors, whose determination shall be conclusive and described in a Board Resolution), as of the expiration of such tender or exchange offer, of consideration payable in respect of any other tender or exchange offer, by the Company or any subsidiary of the Company for all or any portion of the Common Stock expiring within the 12 months preceding the expiration of such tender or exchange offer and in respect of which no adjustment pursuant to paragraph (5) of this Section or this paragraph (6) has been made and (III) the aggregate amount of any distributions to all holders of the Company's Common Stock made exclusively in cash within the 12 months preceding the expiration of such tender or exchange offer and in respect of which no adjustment pursuant to paragraph (5) of this Section or this paragraph (6) has been made, exceeds 15% of the product of the Current Market Price per share of the Common Stock as of the last time (the "Expiration Time") tenders could have been made pursuant to such tender or exchange offer (as it may be amended) times the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding (including any tendered shares) on the Expiration Time, then, and in each such case, immediately prior to the opening of business on the day after the date of the Expiration Time, the Settlement Rate, shall be adjusted so that the same shall equal the rate determined by dividing the Settlement Rate immediately prior to the close of business on the date of the Expiration Time by a fraction (i) the numerator of which shall be equal to (A) the product of (I) the Current Market Price per share of the Common Stock on the date of the Expiration Time and (II) the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding (including any tendered shares) on the Expiration Time less (B) the amount of cash plus the fair market value (determined as aforesaid) of the aggregate consideration payable to stockholders based on the transactions described in clauses (I), (II) and (III) above (assuming in the case of clause (I) the acceptance, up to any maximum specified in the terms of the tender or exchange offer, of Purchased Shares), and (ii) the denominator of which shall be equal to the product of (A) the Current Market Price per share of the Common Stock as of the Expiration Time and (B) the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding (including any tendered shares) as of the Expiration Time less the number of all shares validly tendered and not withdrawn as of the Expiration Time (the shares deemed so accepted, up to any such maximum, being referred to as the "Purchased Shares").

(7) The reclassification of Common Stock into securities including securities other than Common Stock (other than any reclassification upon a Reorganization Event to which Section 5.6(b) applies) shall be deemed to involve (a) a distribution of such securities other than Common Stock to all holders of Common Stock (and the effective date of such reclassification shall be deemed to be "the date fixed for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive such distribution" and the "date fixed for such determination" within the meaning of paragraph (4) of this Section), and (b) a subdivision, split or combination, as the case may be, of the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to such reclassification into the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately thereafter (and the effective date of such reclassification shall be deemed to be "the day upon which such subdivision or split becomes effective" or "the day upon which such combination becomes effective", as the case may be, and "the day upon which such subdivision, split or combination becomes effective" within the meaning of paragraph (3) of this Section).

(8) The "Current Market Price" per share of Common Stock on any day means the average of the daily Closing Prices for the 5 consecutive Trading Days selected by the Company commencing not more than 30 Trading Days before, and ending not later than, the earlier of the day in question and the day before the "ex date" with respect to the issuance or distribution requiring such computation. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "ex date", when used with respect to any issuance or distribution, shall mean the first date on which the Common Stock trades regular way on such exchange or in such market without the right to receive such issuance or distribution.

(9) All adjustments to the Settlement Rate, shall be calculated to the nearest 1/10,000th of a share of Common Stock (or if there is not a nearest 1/10,000th of a share to the next lower 1/10,000th of a share). No adjustment in the Settlement Rate shall be required unless such adjustment would require an increase or decrease of at least one percent therein; provided, however, that any adjustments which by reason of this subparagraph are not required to be made shall be carried forward and taken into account in any subsequent adjustment. If an adjustment is made to the Settlement Rate pursuant to paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7) or (10) of this Section 5.6(a), an adjustment shall also be made to the Applicable Market Value solely to determine which of clauses (a), (b) or (c) of the definition of Settlement Rate in Section 5.1 will apply on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date. Such adjustment shall be made by multiplying the Applicable Market Value by a fraction of which the numerator shall be the Settlement Rate immediately after such adjustment pursuant to paragraph (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7) or (10) of this Section 5.6(a) and the denominator shall be the Settlement Rate immediately before such adjustment; provided, however, that if such adjustment to the Settlement Rate is required to be made pursuant to the occurrence of any of the events contemplated by paragraph (1) (2) (3) (4) (5) (7) or (10) of this Section 5.6(a) during the period taken into consideration for determining the Applicable Market Value, appropriate and customary adjustments shall be made to the Settlement Rate.

(10) The Company may make such increases in the Settlement Rate, in addition to those required by this Section, as it considers to be advisable in order to avoid or diminish any income tax to any holders of shares of Common Stock resulting from any dividend or distribution of stock or issuance of rights or warrants to purchase or subscribe for stock or from any event treated as such for income tax purposes or for any other reasons.

(b) Adjustment for Consolidation, Merger or Other Reorganization Event. In the event of (i) any consolidation or merger of the Company with or into another Person (other than a merger or consolidation in which the Company is the continuing corporation and in which the Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the merger or consolidation is not exchanged for cash, securities or other property of the Company or another corporation), (ii) any sale, transfer, lease or conveyance to another Person of the property of the Company as an entirety or substantially as an entirety, (iii) any statutory exchange of securities of the Company with another Person (other than in connection with a merger or acquisition) or (iv) any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company other than as a result of or after the occurrence of a Termination Event (any such event, a "Reorganization Event"), the Settlement Rate will be adjusted to provide that each Holder of Securities will receive on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date with respect to each Purchase Contract forming a part thereof, the kind and amount of securities, cash and other property receivable upon such Reorganization Event (without any interest thereon, and without any right to dividends or distribution thereon which have a record date that is prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date) by a Holder of the number of shares of Common Stock issuable on account of each Purchase Contract if the Purchase Contract Settlement Date had occurred immediately prior to such Reorganization Event assuming such Holder of Common Stock is not a Person with which the Company consolidated or into which the Company merged or which merged into the Company or to which such sale or transfer was made, as the case may be (any such Person, a "Constituent Person"), or an Affiliate of a Constituent Person to the extent such Reorganization Event provides for different treatment of common Stock held by Affiliates of the Company and non-affiliates and such Holder failed to exercise his rights of election, if any, as to the kind or amount of securities, cash and other property receivable upon such Reorganization Event (provided that if the kind or amount of securities, cash and other property receivable upon such Reorganization Event is not the same for each share of Common Stock held immediately prior to such Reorganization Event by other than a Constituent Person or an Affiliate thereof and in respect of which such rights of election shall not have been exercised ("non-electing share"), then for the purpose of this Section the kind and amount of securities, cash and other property receivable upon such Reorganization Event by each non-electing share shall be deemed to be the kind and amount so receivable per share by a plurality of the non-electing shares). In the event of such a Reorganization Event, the Person formed by such consolidation, merger or exchange or the Person which acquires the assets of the Company or, in the event of a liquidation or dissolution of the Company, the Company or a liquidating trust created in connection therewith, shall execute and deliver to the Agent an agreement supplemental hereto providing that the Holders of each Outstanding Security shall have the rights provided by this Section 5.6. Such supplemental agreement shall provide for adjustments which, for events subsequent to the effective date of such supplemental agreement, shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the adjustments provided for in this Section. The above provisions of this Section shall similarly apply to successive Reorganization Events.

Section 5.7. Notice of Adjustments and Certain Other Events.

(a) Whenever the Settlement Rate is adjusted as herein provided, the Company shall:

(i) forthwith compute the Settlement Rate in accordance with Section 5.6 and prepare and transmit to the Agent an Officer's Certificate setting forth the Settlement Rate, the method of calculation thereof in reasonable detail, and the facts requiring such adjustment and upon which such adjustment is based; and

(ii) within 10 Business Days following the occurrence of an event that requires an adjustment to the Settlement Rate pursuant to Section 5.6 (or if the Company is not aware of such occurrence, as soon as practicable after becoming so aware), provide a written notice to the Holders of the Securities of the occurrence of such event and a statement in reasonable detail setting forth the method by which the adjustment to the Settlement Rate was determined and setting forth the adjusted Settlement Rate.

(b) The Agent shall not at any time be under any duty or responsibility to any Holder of Securities to determine whether any facts exist which may require any adjustment of the Settlement Rate, or with respect to the nature or extent or calculation of any such adjustment when made, or with respect to the method employed in making the same. The Agent shall not be accountable with respect to the validity or value (or the kind or amount) of any shares of Common Stock, or of any securities or property, which may at the time be issued or delivered with respect to any Purchase Contract; and the Agent makes no representation with respect thereto. The Agent shall not be responsible for any failure of the Company to issue, transfer or deliver any shares of Common Stock pursuant to a Purchase Contract or to comply with any of the duties, responsibilities or covenants of the Company contained in this Article.

Section 5.8. Termination Event; Notice.

The Purchase Contracts and all obligations and rights of the Company and the Holders thereunder, including, without limitation, the rights of the Holders to receive and the obligation of the Company to pay any Contract Adjustment Payments or Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments, if the Company shall have such obligation, and the rights and obligations of Holders to purchase Common Stock, shall immediately and automatically terminate, without the necessity of any notice or action by any Holder, the Agent or the Company, if, on or prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, a Termination Event shall have occurred. Upon and after the occurrence of a Termination Event, the Securities shall thereafter represent the right to receive the Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, forming a part of such Securities in the case of Income PRIDES, or Treasury Securities in the case of Growth PRIDES, in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.3 of the Pledge Agreement. Upon the occurrence of a Termination Event, the Company shall promptly but in no event later than two Business Days thereafter give written notice to the Agent, the Collateral Agent and to the Holders, at their addresses as they appear in the Register.

Section 5.9. Early Settlement.

(a) Subject to and upon compliance with the provisions of this Section 5.9, at the option of the Holder thereof, Purchase Contracts underlying Securities, having an aggregate Stated Amount equal to $1,000 or an integral multiple thereof, may be settled early ("Early Settlement") in the case of Income PRIDES (unless a Tax Event Redemption has occurred) on or prior to the fifth Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date and in the case of Growth PRIDES on or prior to the second Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, in each case, as provided herein; provided however, that if a Tax Event Redemption has occurred and the Treasury Portfolio has become a component of the Income PRIDES Purchase Contracts, underlying Income PRIDES may be settled early, on or prior to the second Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, but only in an aggregate amount of $160,000 or in an integral multiple thereof. In order to exercise the right to effect Early Settlement with respect to any Purchase Contracts, the Holder of the Certificate evidencing Securities shall deliver such Certificate to the Agent at the Corporate Trust Office duly endorsed for transfer to the Company or in blank with the form of Election to Settle Early on the reverse thereof duly completed and accompanied by payment (payable to the Company in immediately available funds in an amount (the "Early Settlement Amount") equal to (i) the product of (A) the Stated Amount times (B) the number of Purchase Contracts with respect to which the Holder has elected to effect Early Settlement plus (ii) if such delivery is made with respect to any Purchase Contracts during the period from the close of business on any Record Date next preceding any Payment Date to the opening of business on such Payment Date, an amount equal to the sum of (x) the Contract Adjustment Payments payable on such Payment Date with respect to such Purchase Contracts plus (y) in the case of Income PRIDES Certificate, the distributions on the related Preferred Securities payable on such Payment Date. Except as provided in the immediately preceding sentence and subject to the second to last paragraph of Section 5.2, no payment or adjustment shall be made upon Early Settlement of any Purchase Contract on account of any Contract Adjustment Payments accrued on such Purchase Contract or on account of any dividends on the Common Stock issued upon such Early Settlement. If the foregoing requirements are first satisfied with respect to Purchase Contracts underlying any Securities at or prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on a Business Day, such day shall be the "Early Settlement Date" with respect to such Securities and if such requirements are first satisfied after 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on a Business Day or on a day that is not a Business Day, the "Early Settlement Date" with respect to such Securities shall be the next succeeding Business Day.

(b) Upon Early Settlement of Purchase Contracts by a Holder of the related Securities, the Company shall issue, and the Holder shall be entitled to receive, _____ shares of Common Stock on account of each Purchase Contract as to which Early Settlement is effected (the "Early Settlement Rate"); provided, however, that upon the Early Settlement of the Purchase Contracts, the Holder of such related Securities will forfeit the right to receive any Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments. The Early Settlement Rate shall be adjusted in the same manner and at the same time as the Settlement Rate is adjusted. As promptly as practicable after Early Settlement of Purchase Contracts in accordance with the provisions of this Section 5.9, the Company shall issue and shall deliver to the Agent at the Corporate Trust Office a certificate or certificates for the full number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon such Early Settlement together with payment in lieu of any fraction of a share, as provided in Section 5.10.

(c) No later than the third Business Day after the applicable Early Settlement Date the Company shall cause (i) the shares of Common Stock issuable upon Early Settlement of Purchase Contracts to be issued and delivered, and (ii) the related Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, in the case of Income PRIDES, or the related Treasury Securities, in the case of Growth PRIDES, to be released from the Pledge by the Collateral Agent and transferred, in each case to the Agent for delivery to the Holder thereof or its designee.

(d) Upon Early Settlement of any Purchase Contracts, and subject to receipt of shares of Common Stock from the Company and the Preferred Securities, the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio or Treasury Securities, as the case may be, from the Collateral Agent, as applicable, the Agent shall, in accordance with the instructions provided by the Holder thereof on the applicable form of Election to Settle Early on the reverse of the Certificate evidencing the related Securities, (i) transfer to the Holder the Preferred Securities, Treasury Portfolio or Treasury Securities, as the case may be, forming a part of such Securities, and (ii) deliver to the Holder a certificate or certificates for the full number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon such Early Settlement together with payment in lieu of any fraction of a share, as provided in Section 5.10.

(e) In the event that Early Settlement is effected with respect to Purchase Contracts underlying less than all the Securities evidenced by a Certificate, upon such Early Settlement the Company shall execute and the Agent shall authenticate, countersign and deliver to the Holder thereof, at the expense of the Company, a Certificate evidencing the Securities as to which Early Settlement was not effected.

Section 5.10. No Fractional Shares.

No fractional shares or scrip representing fractional shares of Common Stock shall be issued or delivered upon settlement on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date or upon Early Settlement of any Purchase Contracts. If Certificates evidencing more than one Purchase Contract shall be surrendered for settlement at one time by the same Holder, the number of full shares of Common Stock which shall be delivered upon settlement shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate number of Purchase Contracts evidenced by the Certificates so surrendered. Instead of any fractional share of Common Stock which would otherwise be deliverable upon settlement of any Purchase Contracts on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date or upon Early Settlement, the Company, through the Agent, shall make a cash payment in respect of such fractional interest in an amount equal to the value of such fractional shares times the Applicable Market Value. The Company shall provide the Agent from time to time with sufficient funds to permit the Agent to make all cash payments required by this Section 5.10 in a timely manner.

Section 5.11. Charges and Taxes.

The Company will pay all stock transfer and similar taxes attributable to the initial issuance and delivery of the shares of Common Stock pursuant to the Purchase Contracts and in payment of any Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments; provided, however, that the Company shall not be required to pay any such tax or taxes which may be payable in respect of any exchange of or substitution for a Certificate evidencing a Security or any issuance of a share of Common Stock in a name other than that of the registered Holder of a Certificate surrendered in respect of the Securities evidenced thereby, other than in the name of the Agent, as custodian for such Holder, and the Company shall not be required to issue or deliver such share certificates or Certificates unless or until the Person or Persons requesting the transfer or issuance thereof shall have paid to the Company the amount of such tax or shall have established to the satisfaction of the Company that such tax has been paid.

ARTICLE VI Remedies

Section 6.1. Unconditional Right of Holders to Receive Contract Adjustment

Payments and to Purchase Common Stock.

In the event that Contract Adjustment Payments shall constitute a component of Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, the Holder of any Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES shall have the right, which is absolute and unconditional (subject to the right of the Company to defer payment thereof pursuant to Section 5.3, the prepayment of Contract Adjustment Payments pursuant to Section 5.9(a) and to the forfeiture of any Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments upon Early Settlement pursuant to Section 5.9(b) or upon the occurrence of a Termination Event), to receive payment of each installment of the Contract Adjustment Payments with respect to the Purchase Contract constituting a part of such Security on the respective Payment Date for such Security and to purchase Common Stock pursuant to such Purchase Contract and, in each such case, to institute suit for the enforcement of any such payment and right to purchase Common Stock, and such rights shall not be impaired without the consent of such Holder.

Section 6.2. Restoration of Rights and Remedies.

If any Holder has instituted any proceeding to enforce any right or remedy under this Agreement and such proceeding has been discontinued or abandoned for any reason, or has been determined adversely to such Holder, then and in every such case, subject to any determination in such proceeding, the Company and such Holder shall be restored severally and respectively to their former positions hereunder and thereafter all rights and remedies of such Holder shall continue as though no such proceeding had been instituted.

Section 6.3. Rights and Remedies Cumulative.

Except as otherwise provided with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Certificates in the last paragraph of Section 3.10, no right or remedy herein conferred upon or reserved to the Holders is intended to be exclusive of any other right or remedy, and every right and remedy shall, to the extent permitted by law, be cumulative and in addition to every other right and remedy given hereunder or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The assertion or employment of any right or remedy hereunder, or otherwise, shall not prevent the concurrent assertion or employment of any other appropriate right or remedy.

Section 6.4. Delay or Omission Not Waiver.

No delay or omission of any Holder to exercise any right or remedy upon a default shall impair any such right or remedy or constitute a waiver of any such right. Every right and remedy given by this Article or by law to the Holders may be exercised from time to time, and as often as may be deemed expedient, by such Holders.

Section 6.5. Undertaking for Costs.

All parties to this Agreement agree, and each Holder of Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES, by its acceptance of such Income PRIDES or Growth PRIDES shall be deemed to have agreed, that any court may in its discretion require, in any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Agreement, or in any suit against the Agent for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it as Agent, the filing by any party litigant in such suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of such suit, and that such court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in such suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by such party litigant; provided that the provisions of this Section shall not apply to any suit instituted by the Company, to any suit instituted by the Agent, to any suit instituted by any Holder, or group of Holders, holding in the aggregate more than 10% of the Outstanding Securities, or to any suit instituted by any Holder for the enforcement of distributions on any Preferred Securities or Contract Adjustment Payments, if any, on any Purchase Contract on or after the respective Payment Date therefor in respect of any Security held by such Holder, or for enforcement of the right to purchase shares of Common Stock under the Purchase Contracts constituting part of any Security held by such Holder.

Section 6.6. Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws.

The Company covenants (to the extent that it may lawfully do so) that it will not at any time insist upon, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, which may affect the covenants or the performance of this Agreement; and the Company (to the extent that it may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waives all benefit or advantage of any such law and covenants that it will not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Agent or the Holders, but will suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such law had been enacted.

ARTICLE VII
The Agent

Section 7.1. Certain Duties and Responsibilities.

(a) (1) The Agent undertakes to perform, with respect to the Securities, such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Agreement and the Pledge Agreement, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Agreement against the Agent; and

(2) in the absence of bad faith or negligence on its part, the Agent may, with respect to the Securities, conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Agent and conforming to the requirements of this Agreement, but in the case of any certificates or opinions which by any provision hereof are specifically required to be furnished to the Agent, the Agent shall be under a duty to examine the same to determine whether or not they conform to the requirements of this Agreement.

(b) No provision of this Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Agent from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act, or its own wilful misconduct, except that

(1) this Subsection shall not be construed to limit the effect of Subsection (a) of this Section;

(2) the Agent shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Responsible Officer, unless it shall be proved that the Agent was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts; and

(3) no provision of this Agreement shall require the Agent to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers, if adequate indemnity is not provided to it.

(c) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Agreement relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Agent shall be subject to the provisions of this Section.

(d) The Agent is authorized to execute and deliver the Pledge Agreement in its capacity as Agent.

Section 7.2. Notice of Default.

Within 30 days after the occurrence of any default by the Company hereunder of which a Responsible Officer of the Agent has actual knowledge, the Agent shall transmit by mail to the Company and the Holders of Securities, as their names and addresses appear in the Register, notice of such default hereunder, unless such default shall have been cured or waived.

Section 7.3. Certain Rights of Agent.

Subject to the provisions of Section 7.1:

(a) the Agent may rely and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties;

(b) any request or direction of the Company mentioned herein shall be sufficiently evidenced by an Officer's Certificate, Issuer

Order or Issuer Request, and any resolution of the Board of Directors of the Company may be sufficiently evidenced by a Board Resolution;

(c) whenever in the administration of this Agreement the Agent shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking, suffering or omitting any action hereunder, the Agent (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) may, in the absence of bad faith on its part, rely upon an Officer's Certificate of the Company;

(d) the Agent may consult with counsel and the written advice of such counsel or any Opinion of Counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in reliance thereon;

(e) the Agent shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, debenture, note, other evidence of indebtedness or other paper or document, but the Agent, in its discretion, may make reasonable further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters related to the execution, delivery and performance of the Purchase Contracts as it may see fit, and, if the Agent shall determine to make such further inquiry or investigation, it shall be given a reasonable opportunity to examine the books, records and premises of the Company, personally or by agent or attorney; and

(f) the Agent may execute any of the powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents or attorneys or an Affiliate and the Agent shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney or an Affiliate appointed with due care by it hereunder.

Section 7.4. Not Responsible for Recitals or Issuance of Securities.

The recitals contained herein and in the Certificates shall be taken as the statements of the Company and the Agent assumes no responsibility for their accuracy. The Agent makes no representations as to the validity or sufficiency of either this Agreement or of the Securities, or of the Pledge Agreement or the Pledge. The Agent shall not be accountable for the use or application by the Company of the proceeds in respect of the Purchase Contracts.

Section 7.5. May Hold Securities.

Any Registrar or any other agent of the Company, or the Agent and its Affiliates, in their individual or any other capacity, may become the owner or pledgee of Securities and may otherwise deal with the Company, the Collateral Agent or any other Person with the same rights it would have if it were not Registrar or such other agent, or the Agent.

Section 7.6. Money Held in Custody.

Money held by the Agent in custody hereunder need not be segregated from the other funds except to the extent required by law or provided herein. The Agent shall be under no obligation to invest or pay interest on any money received by it hereunder except as otherwise agreed in writing with the Company.

Section 7.7. Compensation and Reimbursement.

The Company agrees:

(1) to pay to the Agent from time to time reasonable compensation for all services rendered by it hereunder;

(2) except as otherwise expressly provided herein, to reimburse the Agent upon its request for all reasonable expenses, disbursements and advances incurred or made by the Agent in accordance with any provision of this Agreement (including the reasonable compensation and the expenses and disbursements of its agents and counsel), except any such expense, disbursement or advance as may be attributable to its negligence or bad faith; and

(3) to indemnify the Agent and any predecessor Agent for, and to hold it harmless against, any loss, liability or expense incurred without negligence or bad faith on its part, arising out of or in connection with the acceptance or administration of its duties hereunder, including the costs and expenses of defending itself against any claim or liability in connection with the exercise or performance of any of its powers or duties hereunder.

Section 7.8. Corporate Agent Required; Eligibility.

There shall at all times be an Agent hereunder which shall be a corporation organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America, any State thereof or the District of Columbia, authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers, having (or being a member of a bank holding company having) a combined capital and surplus of at least $50,000,000, subject to supervision or examination by Federal or State authority and having a Corporate Trust Office in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, if there be such a corporation in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, qualified and eligible under this Article and willing to act on reasonable terms. If such corporation publishes reports of condition at least annually, pursuant to law or to the requirements of said supervising or examining authority, then for the purposes of this Section, the combined capital and surplus of such corporation shall be deemed to be its combined capital and surplus as set forth in its most recent report of condition so published. If at any time the Agent shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect hereinafter specified in this Article.

Section 7.9. Resignation and Removal; Appointment of Successor.

(a) No resignation or removal of the Agent and no appointment of a successor Agent pursuant to this Article shall become effective until the acceptance of appointment by the successor Agent in accordance with the applicable requirements of Section 7.10.

(b) The Agent may resign at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Company 60 days prior to the effective date of such resignation. If the instrument of acceptance by a successor Agent required by Section 7.10 shall not have been delivered to the Agent within 30 days after the giving of such notice of resignation, the resigning Agent may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Agent.

(c) The Agent may be removed at any time by Act of the Holders of a majority in number of the Outstanding Securities delivered to the Agent and the Company.

(d) if at any time

(1) the Agent fails to comply with Section 310(b) of the TIA, as if the Agent were an indenture trustee under an indenture qualified under the TIA, after written request therefor by the Company or by any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Security for at least six months, or

(2) the Agent shall cease to be eligible under Section 7.8 and shall fail to resign after written request therefor by the Company or by any such Holder, or

(3) the Agent shall become incapable of acting or shall be adjudged a bankrupt or insolvent or a receiver of the Agent or of its property shall be appointed or any public officer shall take charge or control of the Agent or of its property or affairs for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, then, in any such case, (i) the Company by a Board Resolution may remove the Agent, or (ii) any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Security for at least six months may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Agent and the appointment of a successor Agent.

(e) If the Agent shall resign, be removed or become incapable of acting, or if a vacancy shall occur in the office of Agent for any cause, the Company, by a Board Resolution, shall promptly appoint a successor Agent and shall comply with the applicable requirements of Section 7.10. If no successor Agent shall have been so appointed by the Company and accepted appointment in the manner required by Section 7.10, any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Security for at least six months may, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Agent.

(f) The Company shall give, or shall cause such successor Agent to give, notice of each resignation and each removal of the Agent and each appointment of a successor Agent by mailing written notice of such event by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to all Holders as their names and addresses appear in the applicable Register. Each notice shall include the name of the successor Agent and the address of its Corporate Trust Office.

Section 7.10. Acceptance of Appointment by Successor.

(a) In case of the appointment hereunder of a successor Agent, every such successor Agent so appointed shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the Company and to the retiring Agent an instrument accepting such appointment, and thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Agent shall become effective and such successor Agent, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the rights, powers, agencies and duties of the retiring Agent; but, on the request of the Company or the successor Agent, such retiring Agent shall, upon payment of its charges, execute and deliver an instrument transferring to such successor Agent all the rights, powers and trusts of the retiring Agent and shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to such successor Agent all property and money held by such retiring Agent hereunder.

(b) Upon request of any such successor Agent, the Company shall execute any and all instruments for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to such successor Agent all such rights, powers and agencies referred to in paragraph (a) of this Section.

(c) No successor Agent shall accept its appointment unless at the time of such acceptance such successor Agent shall be qualified and eligible under this Article.

Section 7.11. Merger, Conversion, Consolidation or Succession to Business.

Any corporation into which the Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Agent shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to all or substantially all the corporate trust business of the Agent, shall be the successor of the Agent hereunder, provided such corporation shall be otherwise qualified and eligible under this Article, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto. In case any Certificates shall have been authenticated and executed on behalf of the Holders, but not delivered, by the Agent then in office, any successor by merger, conversion or consolidation to such Agent may adopt such authentication and execution and deliver the Certificates so authenticated and executed with the same effect as if such successor Agent had itself authenticated and executed such Securities.

Section 7.12. Preservation of Information; Communications to Holders.

(a) The Agent shall preserve, in as current a form as is reasonably practicable, the names and addresses of Holders received by the Agent in its capacity as Registrar.

(b) If three or more Holders (herein referred to as "applicants") apply in writing to the Agent, and furnish to the Agent reasonable proof that each such applicant has owned a Security for a period of at least six months preceding the date of such application, and such application states that the applicants desire to communicate with other Holders with respect to their rights under this Agreement or under the Securities and is accompanied by a copy of the form of proxy or other communication which such applicants propose to transmit, then the Agent shall, mail to all the Holders copies of the form of proxy or other communication which is specified in such request, with reasonable promptness after a tender to the Agent of the materials to be mailed and of payment, or provision for the payment, of the reasonable expenses of such mailing.

Section 7.13. No Obligations of Agent.

Except to the extent otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Agent assumes no obligations and shall not be subject to any liability under this Agreement, the Pledge Agreement or any Purchase Contract in respect of the obligations of the Holder of any Security thereunder. The Company agrees, and each Holder of a Certificate, by his acceptance thereof, shall be deemed to have agreed, that the Agent's execution of the Certificates on behalf of the Holders shall be solely as agent and attorney-in-fact for the Holders, and that the Agent shall have no obligation to perform such Purchase Contracts on behalf of the Holders, except to the extent expressly provided in Article Five hereof.

Section 7.14. Tax Compliance.

(a) The Agent, on its own behalf and on behalf of the Company, will comply with all applicable certification, information reporting and withholding (including "backup" withholding) requirements imposed by applicable tax laws, regulations or administrative practice with respect to (i) any payments made with respect to the Securities or (ii) the issuance, delivery, holding, transfer, redemption or exercise of rights under the Securities. Such compliance shall include, without limitation, the preparation and timely filing of required returns and the timely payment of all amounts required to be withheld to the appropriate taxing authority or its designated agent.

(b) The Agent shall comply with any written direction received from the Company with respect to the application of such requirements to particular payments or Holders or in other particular circumstances, and may for purposes of this Agreement rely on any such direction in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.1(a)(2) hereof.

(c) The Agent shall maintain all appropriate records documenting compliance with such requirements, and shall make such records available, on written request, to the Company or its authorized representative within a reasonable period of time after receipt of such request.

ARTICLE VIII Supplemental Agreements

Section 8.1. Supplemental Agreements Without Consent of Holders.

Without the consent of any Holders, the Company and the Agent, at any time and from time to time, may enter into one or more agreements supplemental hereto, in form satisfactory to the Company and the Agent, for any of the following purposes:

(1) to evidence the succession of another Person to the Company, and the assumption by any such successor of the covenants of the Company herein and in the Certificates; or

(2) to add to the covenants of the Company for the benefit of the Holders, or to surrender any right or power herein conferred upon the Company; or

(3) to evidence and provide for the acceptance of appointment hereunder by a successor Agent; or

(4) to make provision with respect to the rights of Holders pursuant to the requirements of Section 5.6(b); or

(5) to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provisions herein which may be inconsistent with any other provisions herein, or to make any other provisions with respect to such matters or questions arising under this Agreement, provided such action shall not adversely affect the interests of the Holders.

Section 8.2. Supplemental Agreements with Consent of Holders.

With the consent of the Holders of not less than a majority of the outstanding Purchase Contracts voting together as one Class, by Act of said Holders delivered to the Company and the Agent, the Company, when authorized by a Board Resolution, and the Agent may enter into an agreement or agreements supplemental hereto for the purpose of modifying in any manner the terms of the Purchase Contracts, or the provisions of this Agreement or the rights of the Holders in respect of the Securities; provided, however, that, except as contemplated herein, no such supplemental agreement shall, without the consent of the Holder of each Outstanding Security affected thereby,

(1) change any Payment Date;

(2) change the amount or the type of Collateral required to be Pledged to secure a Holder's Obligations under the Purchase Contract, impair the right of the Holder of any Purchase Contract to receive distributions on the related Collateral (except for the rights of Holders of Income PRIDES to substitute the Treasury Securities for the Pledge Preferred Securities or the rights of holders of Growth PRIDES to substitute Preferred Securities for the Pledged Treasury Securities) or otherwise adversely affect the Holder's rights in or to such Collateral or adversely alter the rights in or to such Collateral;

(3) reduce any Contract Adjustment Payments or any Deferred Contract Adjustment Payment, or change any place where, or the coin or currency in which, any Contract Adjustment Payments is payable;

(4) impair the right to institute suit for the enforcement of any Purchase Contract;

(5) reduce the number of shares of Common Stock to be purchased pursuant to any Purchase Contract, increase the price to purchase shares of Common Stock upon settlement of any Purchase Contract, change the Purchase Contract Settlement Date or otherwise adversely affect the Holder's rights under any Purchase Contract; or provided, that if any amendment or proposal referred to above would adversely affect only the Income PRIDES or the Growth PRIDES, then only the affected class of Holder as of the record date for the Holders entitled to vote thereon will be entitled to vote on such amendment or proposal, and such amendment or proposal shall not be effective except with the consent of Holders of not less than a majority of such class.

(6) reduce the percentage of the outstanding Purchase Contracts the consent of whose Holders is required for any such supplemental agreement;

It shall not be necessary for any Act of Holders under this Section to approve the particular form of any proposed supplemental agreement, but it shall be sufficient if such Act shall approve the substance thereof.

Section 8.3. Execution of Supplemental Agreements.

In executing, or accepting the additional agencies created by, any supplemental agreement permitted by this Article or the modifications thereby of the agencies created by this Agreement, the Agent shall be entitled to receive and (subject to Section 7.1) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Opinion of Counsel stating that the execution of such supplemental agreement is authorized or permitted by this Agreement. The Agent may, but shall not be obligated to, enter into any such supplemental agreement which affects the Agent's own rights, duties or immunities under this Agreement or otherwise.

Section 8.4. Effect of Supplemental Agreements.

Upon the execution of any supplemental agreement under this Article, this Agreement shall be modified in accordance therewith, and such supplemental agreement shall form a part of this Agreement for all purposes; and every Holder of Certificates theretofore or thereafter authenticated, executed on behalf of the Holders and delivered hereunder shall be bound thereby.

Section 8.5. Reference to Supplemental Agreements.

Certificates authenticated, executed on behalf of the Holders and delivered after the execution of any supplemental agreement pursuant to this Article may, and shall if required by the Agent, bear a notation in form approved by the Agent as to any matter provided for in such supplemental agreement. If the Company shall so determine, new Certificates so modified as to conform, in the opinion of the Agent and the Company, to any such supplemental agreement may be prepared and executed by the Company and authenticated, executed on behalf of the Holders and delivered by the Agent in exchange for Outstanding Certificates.

Section 9.1. Covenant Not to Merge, Consolidate, Sell or Convey Property Except Under Certain Conditions.

The Company covenants that it will not merge or consolidate with any other Person or sell, assign, transfer, lease or convey all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person or group of affiliated Persons in one transaction or a series of related transactions, unless (i) either the Company shall be the continuing corporation, or the successor (if other than the Company) shall be a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America or a State thereof or the District of Columbia and such corporation shall expressly assume all the obligations of the Company under the Purchase Contracts, this Agreement and the Pledge Agreement by one or more supplemental agreements in form reasonably satisfactory to the Agent and the Collateral Agent, executed and delivered to the Agent and the Collateral Agent by such corporation, and (ii) the Company or such successor corporation, as the case may be, shall not, immediately after such merger or consolidation, or such sale, assignment, transfer, lease or conveyance, be in default in the performance of any covenant or condition hereunder, under any of the Securities or under the Pledge Agreement.

Section 9.2. Rights and Duties of Successor Corporation.

In case of any such consolidation, merger, sale, assignment, transfer, lease or conveyance and upon any such assumption by a successor corporation in accordance with Section 9.1, such successor corporation shall succeed to and be substituted for the Company with the same effect as if it had been named herein as the Company. Such successor corporation thereupon may cause to be signed, and may issue either in its own name or in the name of Cendant Corporation any or all of the Certificates evidencing Securities issuable hereunder which theretofore shall not have been signed by the Company and delivered to the Agent; and, upon the order of such successor corporation, instead of the Company, and subject to all the terms, conditions and limitations in this Agreement prescribed, the Agent shall authenticate and execute on behalf of the Holders and deliver any Certificates which previously shall have been signed and delivered by the officers of the Company to the Agent for authentication and execution, and any Certificate evidencing Securities which such successor corporation thereafter shall cause to be signed and delivered to the Agent for that purpose. All the Certificates so issued shall in all respects have the same legal rank and benefit under this Agreement as the Certificates theretofore or thereafter issued in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as though all of such Certificates had been issued at the date of the execution hereof.

In case of any such consolidation, merger, sale, assignment, transfer, lease or conveyance such change in phraseology and form (but not in substance) may be made in the Certificates evidencing Securities thereafter to be issued as may be appropriate.

Section 9.3. Opinion of Counsel Given to Agent.

The Agent, subject to Sections 7.1 and 7.3, shall receive an Opinion of Counsel as conclusive evidence that any such consolidation, merger, sale, assignment, transfer, lease or conveyance, and any such assumption, complies with the provisions of this Article and that all conditions precedent to the consummation of any such consolidation, merger, sale, assignment, transfer, lease or conveyance have been met.

ARTICLE X

Covenants

Section 10.1. Performance Under Purchase Contracts.

The Company covenants and agrees for the benefit of the Holders from time to time of the Securities that it will duly and punctually perform its obligations under the Purchase Contracts in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Contracts and this Agreement.

Section 10.2. Maintenance of Office or Agency.

The Company will maintain in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York an office or agency where Certificates may be presented or surrendered for acquisition of shares of Common Stock upon settlement of the Purchase Contracts on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date or Early Settlement and for transfer of Collateral upon occurrence of a Termination Event, where Certificates may be surrendered for registration of transfer or exchange, for a Collateral Substitution or re-establishment of an Income PRIDES and where notices and demands to or upon the Company in respect of the Securities and this Agreement may be served. The Company will give prompt written notice to the Agent of the location, and any change in the location, of such office or agency. If at any time the Company shall fail to maintain any such required office or agency or shall fail to furnish the Agent with the address thereof, such presentations, surrenders, notices and demands may be made or served at the Corporate Trust Office, and the Company hereby appoints the Agent as its agent to receive all such presentations, surrenders, notices and demands.

The Company may also from time to time designate one or more other offices or agencies where Certificates may be presented or surrendered for any or all such purposes and may from time to time rescind such designations; provided, however, that no such designation or rescission shall in any manner relieve the Company of its obligation to maintain an office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York for such purposes. The Company will give prompt written notice to the Agent of any such designation or rescission and of any change in the location of any such other office or agency. The Company hereby designates as the place of payment for the Securities the Corporate Trust Office and appoints the Agent at its Corporate Trust Office as paying agent in such city.

Section 10.3. Company to Reserve Common Stock.

The Company shall at all times prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date reserve and keep available, free from preemptive rights, out of its authorized but unissued Common Stock the full number of shares of Common Stock issuable against tender of payment in respect of all Purchase Contracts constituting a part of the Securities evidenced by Outstanding Certificates.

Section 10.4. Covenants as to Common Stock.

The Company covenants that all shares of Common Stock which may be issued against tender of payment in respect of any Purchase Contract constituting a part of the Outstanding Securities will, upon issuance, be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

Section 10.5. Statements of Officer of the Company as to Default.

The Company will deliver to the Agent, within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year of the Company ending after the date hereof, an Officer's Certificate, stating whether or not to the best knowledge of the signer thereof the Company is in default in the performance and observance of any of the terms, provisions and conditions hereof, and if the Company shall be in default, specifying all such defaults and the nature and status thereof of which such Officer may have knowledge.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be duly executed as of the day and year first above written.

AGENT'S CERTIFICATE OF AUTHENTICATION

By: THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF CHICAGO, as Purchase Contract Agent

Authorized Officer

(Form of Reverse of Income PRIDES Certificate)

Each Purchase Contract evidenced hereby is governed by a Purchase Contract Agreement, dated as of _____, (as may be supplemented from time to time, the "Purchase Contract Agreement"), between the Company and The First National Bank of Chicago, as Purchase Contract Agent (herein called the "Agent"), to which Purchase Contract Agreement and supplemental agreements thereto reference is hereby made for a description of the respective rights, limitations of rights, obligations, duties and immunities thereunder of the Agent, the Company, and the Holders and of the terms upon which the Income PRIDES Certificates are, and are to be, executed and delivered.

Each Purchase Contract evidenced hereby obligates the Holder of this Income PRIDES Certificate to purchase, and the Company to sell, on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date at a price equal to the Stated Amount (the "Purchase Price"), a number of shares of Common Stock of the Company equal to the Settlement Rate, unless, on or prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, there shall have occurred a Termination Event with respect to the Security of which such Purchase Contract is a part or an Early Settlement shall have occurred. The "Settlement Rate" is equal to (a) if the Applicable Market Value (as defined below) is equal to or greater than $ (the "Threshold Appreciation Price"), shares of Common Stock per Purchase Contract, (b) if the Applicable Market Value is less than the Threshold Appreciation Price but is greater than $, the number of shares of Common Stock per Purchase Contract equal to the Stated Amount divided by the Applicable Market Value and (c) if the Applicable Market Amount is less than or equal to $, shares of Common Stock per Purchase Contract, in each case subject to adjustment as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement. No fractional shares of Common Stock will be issued upon settlement of Purchase Contracts, as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement.

Each Purchase Contract evidenced hereby, which is settled either through Early Settlement or Cash Settlement, shall obligate the Holder of the related Income PRIDES to purchase at the Purchase Price, and the Company to sell, a number of newly issued shares of Common Stock equal to the Early Settlement Rate or the Settlement Rate, as applicable.

ending on the third Trading Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date.

The "Closing Price" of the Common Stock on any date of determination means the closing sale price (or, if no closing price is reported, the last reported sale price) of the Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") on such date or, if the Common Stock is not listed for trading on the NYSE on any such date, as reported in the composite transactions for the principal United States securities exchange on which the Common Stock is so listed, or if the Common Stock is not so listed on a United States national or regional securities exchange, as reported by The Nasdaq Stock Market, or, if the Common Stock is not so reported, the last quoted bid price for the Common Stock in the over-the-counter market as reported by the National Quotation Bureau or similar organization, or, if such bid price is not available, the market value of the Common Stock on such date as determined by a nationally recognized independent investment banking firm retained for this purpose by the Company. A "Trading Day" means a day on which the Common Stock (A) is not suspended from trading on any national or regional securities exchange or association or over-the-counter market at the close of business and (B) has traded at least once on the national or regional securities exchange or association or over-the-counter market that is the primary market for the trading of the Common Stock.

In accordance with the terms of the Purchase Contract Agreement, the Holder of this Income PRIDES Certificate shall pay the Purchase Price for the shares of Common Stock purchased pursuant to each Purchase Contract evidenced hereby by effecting a Cash Settlement, or an Early Settlement or from the proceeds of a remarketing of the related Pledged Preferred Securities of such holders. A Holder of Income PRIDES who does not elect, on or prior to 5:00 p.m. New York City time on the fifth Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, to make an effective Cash Settlement or an Early Settlement, shall pay the Purchase Price for the shares of Common Stock to be issued under the related Purchase Contract from the Proceeds of the sale of the related Pledged Preferred Securities held by the Collateral Agent. Such sale will be made by the Remarketing Agent pursuant to the terms of the Remarketing Agreement and the Remarketing Underwriting Agreement on the third Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date. If, as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement, upon the occurrence of a Failed Remarketing the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Company, exercises its rights as a secured creditor with respect to the Pledged Preferred Securities related to this Income PRIDES certificate, any accrued and unpaid distributions (including deferred distributions) on such Pledged Preferred Securities will become payable by the Company to the holder of this Income PRIDES Certificate in the manner provided for in the Purchase Contract Agreement.

The Company shall not be obligated to issue any shares of Common Stock in respect of a Purchase Contract or deliver any certificates therefor to the Holder unless it shall have received payment in full of the aggregate purchase price for the shares of Common Stock to be purchased thereunder in the manner herein set forth.

Each Purchase Contract evidenced hereby and all obligations and rights of the Company and the Holder thereunder shall terminate if a Termination Event shall have occurred. Upon the occurrence of a Termination Event, the Company shall give written notice to the Agent and to the Holders, at their addresses as they appear in the Income PRIDES Register. Upon and after the occurrence of a Termination Event, the Collateral Agent shall release the Pledged Preferred Security (as defined in the Pledge Agreement) or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio forming a part of each Income PRIDES, or the Liquidation Distribution received in respect of such Pledged Preferred Security, from the Pledge. An Income PRIDES shall thereafter represent the right to receive the Preferred Security or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio forming a part of such Income PRIDES, or the Liquidation Distribution received in respect of such Preferred Security, in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Contract Agreement and the Pledge Agreement.

Under the terms of the Pledge Agreement, the Agent will be entitled to exercise the voting and any other consensual rights pertaining to the Pledged Preferred Securities. Upon receipt of notice of any meeting at which holders of Preferred Securities are entitled to vote or upon the solicitation of consents, waivers or proxies of holders of Preferred Securities, the Agent shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, mail to the Income PRIDES holders a notice (a) containing such information as is contained in the notice or solicitation, (b) stating that each Income PRIDES holder on the record date set by the Agent therefor (which, to the extent possible, shall be the same date as the record date for determining the holders of Preferred Securities entitled to vote) shall be entitled to instruct the Agent as to the exercise of the voting rights pertaining to the Preferred Securities constituting a part of such holder's Income PRIDES and (c) stating the manner in which such instructions may be given. Upon the written request of the Income PRIDES Holders on such record date, the Agent shall endeavor insofar as practicable to vote or cause to be voted, in accordance with the instructions set forth in such requests, the maximum number of Preferred Securities as to which any particular voting instructions are received. In the absence of specific instructions from the Holder of an Income PRIDES, the Agent shall abstain from voting the Preferred Security evidenced by such Income PRIDES.

Upon the occurrence of an Investment Company Event or liquidation of the Trust, a principal amount of the Debentures constituting the assets of the Trust and underlying the Preferred Securities equal to the aggregate Stated Amount of the Pledged Preferred Securities shall be delivered to the Collateral Agent in exchange for Pledged Preferred Securities. Thereafter, the Debentures shall be held by the Collateral Agent to secure the obligations of each Holder of Income PRIDES to purchase shares of Common Stock under the Purchase Contracts constituting a part of such Income PRIDES. Following the liquidation of the Trust, the Holders and the Collateral Agent shall have such security interests, rights and obligations with respect to the Debentures as the Holders and the Collateral Agent had in respect of the Pledged Preferred Securities, and any reference in the Purchase Contract Agreement or Pledge Agreement to the Preferred Securities shall be deemed to be a reference to the Debentures.

Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event Redemption prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, the Redemption Price payable on the Tax Event Redemption Date with respect to the Applicable Principal Amount of Debentures shall be delivered to the Collateral Agent in exchange for the Pledged Preferred Securities. Thereafter, pursuant to the terms of the Pledge Agreement, the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Company will apply an amount equal to the Redemption Amount of such Redemption Price to purchase, the Treasury Portfolio and promptly remit the remaining portion of such Redemption Price to the Agent for payment to the Holders of such Income PRIDES.

Following the occurrence of a Tax Event Redemption prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, the Holders of Income PRIDES and the Collateral Agent shall have such security interests rights and obligations with respect to the Treasury Portfolio as the Holder of Income PRIDES and the Collateral Agent had in respect of the Preferred Security or Debentures, as the case may be, subject to the Pledge thereof as provided in Articles II, III, IV, V and VI, of the Pledge Agreement and any reference herein to the Preferred Security or the Debenture shall be deemed to be reference to such Treasury Portfolio.

The Income PRIDES Certificates are issuable only in registered form and only in denominations of a single Income PRIDES and any integral multiple thereof. The transfer of any Income PRIDES Certificate will be registered and Income PRIDES Certificates may be exchanged as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement. The Income PRIDES Registrar may require a Holder, among other things, to furnish appropriate endorsements and transfer documents permitted by the Purchase Contract Agreement. No service charge shall be required for any such registration of transfer or exchange, but the Company and the Agent may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith. A holder who elects to substitute a Treasury Security for Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, thereby creating Growth PRIDES, shall be responsible for any fees or expenses payable in connection therewith. Except as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement, for so long as the Purchase Contract underlying an Income PRIDES remains in effect, such Income PRIDES shall not be separable into its constituent parts, and the rights and obligations of the Holder of such Income PRIDES in respect of the Preferred Security or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, and Purchase Contract constituting such Income PRIDES may be transferred and exchanged only as an Income PRIDES. The holder of an Income PRIDES may substitute for the Pledged Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio securing its obligation under the related Purchase Contract Treasury Securities in an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate Stated Amount of the Pledged Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest (as specified in clause (A) of the definition of such term) in the Treasury Portfolio in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Contract Agreement and the Pledge Agreement. From and after such Collateral Substitution, the Security for which such Pledged Treasury Securities secures the holder's obligation under the Purchase Contract shall be referred to as a "Growth PRIDES." A Holder may make such Collateral Substitution only in integral multiples of 20 Income PRIDES for 20 Growth PRIDES; provided, however, that if a Tax Event Redemption has occurred and the Treasury Portfolio has become a component of the Income PRIDES, a Holder may make such Collateral Substitutions only in integral multiples of 160,000 Income PRIDES for 160,000 Growth PRIDES. Such Collateral Substitution may cause the equivalent aggregate principal amount of this Certificate to be increased or decreased; provided, however, the equivalent aggregate principal amount outstanding under this Income PRIDES Certificate shall not exceed $200,000,000. All such adjustments to the equivalent aggregate principal amount of this Income PRIDES Certificate shall be duly recorded by placing an appropriate notation on the Schedule attached hereto.

A Holder of Growth PRIDES may create or recreate Income PRIDES by delivering to the Collateral Agent Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, with a Stated Amount, in the case of such Preferred Securities, or with the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest (as specified in clause (A) of the definition of such term) of the Treasury Portfolio, in the case of such appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Pledged Treasury Securities in exchange for the release of such Pledged Treasury Securities in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Contract Agreement and the Pledge Agreement.

Subject to the next succeeding paragraph, the Company shall pay, on each Payment Date, the Contract Adjustment Payments payable in respect of each Purchase Contract to the Person in whose name the Income PRIDES Certificate evidencing such Purchase Contract is registered at the close of business on the Record Date for such Payment Date. Contract Adjustment Payments will be payable at the office of the Agent in The City of New York or, at the option of the Company, by check mailed to the address of the Person entitled thereto at such address as it appears on the Income PRIDES Register.

The Company shall have the right, at any time prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, to defer the payment of any or all of the Contract Adjustment Payments otherwise payable on any Payment Date, but only if the Company shall give the Holders and the Agent written notice of its election to defer such payment (specifying the amount to be deferred) as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement. Any Contract Adjustment Payments so deferred shall bear additional Contract Adjustment Payments thereon at the rate of ____% per annum (computed on the basis of a 360 day year of twelve 30 day months), compounding on each succeeding Payment Date, until paid in full (such deferred installments of Contract Adjustment Payments, if any, together with the additional Contract Adjustment Payments accrued thereon, are referred to herein as the "Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments"). Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments, if any, shall be due on the next succeeding Payment Date except to the extent that payment is deferred pursuant to the Purchase Contract Agreement. No Contract Adjustment Payments may be deferred to a date that is after the Purchase Contract Settlement Date.

In the event that the Company elects to defer the payment of Contract Adjustment Payments on the Purchase Contracts until the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, the Holder of this Income PRIDES Certificate will receive on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, in lieu of a cash payment, a number of shares of Common Stock equal to (x) the aggregate amount of Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments payable to the Holder of this Income PRIDES Certificate divided by (y) the Applicable Market Value.

In the event the Company exercises its option to defer the payment of Contract Adjustment Payments, then until the Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments have been paid, the Company shall not declare or pay dividends on, make distributions with respect to, or redeem, purchase or acquire, or make a liquidation payment with respect to, any of its capital stock or make guarantee payments with respect to the foregoing (other than (i) purchases or acquisitions of capital stock of the Company in connection with the satisfaction by the Company of its obligations under any employee or agent benefit plans or the satisfaction by the Company of its obligations pursuant to any contract or security outstanding on the date of such event requiring the Company to purchase capital stock of the Company, (ii) as a result of a reclassification of the Company's capital stock or the exchange or conversion of one class or series of the Company's capital stock for another class or series of the Company's capital stock, (iii) the purchase of fractional interests in shares of the Company's capital stock pursuant to the conversion or exchange provisions of such capital stock or the security being converted or exchanged, (iv) dividends or distributions in capital stock of the Company (or rights to acquire capital stock) or repurchases or redemptions of capital stock solely from the issuance or exchange of capital stock or (v) redemptions or repurchases of any rights outstanding under a shareholder rights plan and a declaration thereunder of a dividend of rights in the future).

The Purchase Contracts and all obligations and rights of the Company and the Holders thereunder, including, without limitation, the rights of the Holders to receive and the obligation of the Company to pay any Contract Adjustment Payments or any Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments, shall immediately and automatically terminate, without the necessity of any notice or action by any Holder, the Agent or the Company, if, on or prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, a Termination Event shall have occurred. Upon the occurrence of a Termination Event, the Company shall promptly but in no event later than two Business Days thereafter give written notice to the Agent, the Collateral Agent and to the Holders, at their addresses as they appear in the Income PRIDES Register. Upon and after the occurrence of a Termination Event, the Collateral Agent shall release the Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, from the Pledge in accordance with the provisions of the Pledge Agreement.

Subject to and upon compliance with the provisions of the Purchase Contract Agreement, at the option of the Holder thereof, Purchase Contracts underlying Securities having an aggregate amount equal to $1,000 or an integral multiple thereof may be settled early ("Early Settlement") as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement; provided, however, that if a Tax Event Redemption has occurred and the Treasury Portfolio has become a component of the Income PRIDES, Holders may early settle Income PRIDES only in integral multiples of 160,000 Income PRIDES. In order to exercise the right to effect Early Settlement with respect to any Purchase Contracts evidenced by this Income PRIDES Certificate, the Holder of this Income PRIDES Certificate shall deliver this Income PRIDES Certificate to the Agent at the Corporate Trust Office duly endorsed for transfer to the Company or in blank with the form of Election to Settle Early set forth below duly completed and accompanied by payment in the form of immediately available funds payable to the order of the Company in an amount (the "Early Settlement Amount") equal to (i) the product of (A) the Stated Amount times (B) the number of Purchase Contracts with respect to which the Holder has elected to effect Early Settlement, plus (ii) if such delivery is made with respect to any Purchase Contracts during the period from the close of business on any Record Date for any Payment Date to the opening of business on such Payment Date, an amount equal to the Contract Adjustment Payments payable on such Payment Date with respect to such Purchase Contracts. Upon Early Settlement of Purchase Contracts by a Holder of the related Securities, the Pledged Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio underlying such Securities shall be released from the Pledge as provided in the Pledge Agreement and the Holder shall be entitled to receive a number of shares of Common Stock on account of each Purchase Contract forming part of a Income PRIDES as to which Early Settlement is effected equal to the Early Settlement Rate; provided however, that upon the Early Settlement of the Purchase Contracts, the Holder thereof will forfeit the right to receive any Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments, if any, on such Purchase Contracts. The Early Settlement Rate shall initially be equal to shares of Common Stock and shall be adjusted in the same manner and at the same time as the Settlement Rate is adjusted as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement.

Upon registration of transfer of this Income PRIDES Certificate, the transferee shall be bound (without the necessity of any other action on the part of such transferee, except as may be required by the Agent pursuant to the Purchase Contract Agreement), under the terms of the Purchase Contract Agreement and the Purchase Contracts evidenced hereby and the transferor shall be released from the obligations under the Purchase Contracts evidenced by this Income PRIDES Certificate. The Company covenants and agrees, and the Holder, by its acceptance hereof, likewise covenants and agrees, to be bound by the provisions of this paragraph.

The Holder of this Income PRIDES Certificate, by its acceptance hereof, authorizes the Agent to enter into and perform the related Purchase Contracts forming part of the Income PRIDES evidenced hereby on his behalf as his attorney-in-fact, expressly withholds any consent to the assumption (i.e., affirmation) of the Purchase Contracts by the Company or its trustee in the event that the Company becomes the subject of a case under the Bankruptcy Code, agrees to be bound by the terms and provisions thereof, covenants and agrees to perform his obligations under such Purchase Contracts, consents to the provisions of the Purchase Contract Agreement, authorizes the Agent to enter into and perform the Pledge Agreement on his behalf as its attorney-in-fact, and consents to the Pledge of the Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, underlying this Income PRIDES Certificate pursuant to the Pledge Agreement. The Holder further covenants and agrees, that, to the extent and in the manner provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement and the Pledge Agreement, but subject to the terms thereof, payments in respect to the Stated Amount of the Pledged Preferred Securities, or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest (as specified in clause (A) of the definition of such term) of the Treasury Portfolio, on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date shall be paid by the Collateral Agent to the Company in satisfaction of such Holder's obligations under such Purchase Contract and such Holder shall acquire no right, title or interest in such payments.

Subject to certain exceptions, the provisions of the Purchase Contract Agreement may be amended with the consent of the Holders of a majority of the Purchase Contracts.

The Purchase Contracts shall for all purposes be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York.

The Company, the Agent and its Affiliates and any agent of the Company or the Agent may treat the Person in whose name this Income PRIDES Certificate is registered as the owner of the Income PRIDES evidenced hereby for the purpose of receiving payments of distributions payable quarterly on the Preferred Securities, receiving payments of Contract Adjustment Payments and any Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments, performance of the Purchase Contracts and for all other purposes whatsoever, whether or not any payments in respect thereof be overdue and notwithstanding any notice to the contrary, and neither the Company, the Agent nor any such agent shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

The Purchase Contracts shall not, prior to the settlement thereof, entitle the Holder to any of the rights of a holder of shares of Common Stock.

A copy of the Purchase Contract Agreement is available for inspection at the offices of the Agent.

No. Number of Growth PRIDES Cusip No.

Form of Face of Growth PRIDES Certificate

This Growth PRIDES Certificate certifies that _____ is the registered Holder of the number of Growth PRIDES set forth above. Each Growth PRIDES represents (i) a 1/20 undivided beneficial ownership interest, of a Treasury Security having a principal amount at maturity equal to $1,000, subject to the Pledge of such Treasury Security by such Holder pursuant to the Pledge Agreement, and (ii) the rights and obligations of the Holder under one Purchase Contract with Cendant Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"). All capitalized terms used herein which are defined in the Purchase Contract Agreement have the meaning set forth therein.

Pursuant to the Pledge Agreement, the Treasury Securities constituting part of each Growth PRIDES evidenced hereby have been pledged to the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Company, to secure the obligations of the Holder under the Purchase Contract comprising a portion of such Growth PRIDES.

Each Purchase Contract evidenced hereby obligates the Holder of this Growth PRIDES Certificate to purchase, and the Company, to sell, on February 16, 2001 (the "Purchase Contract Settlement Date"), at a price equal to $50 (the "Stated Amount"), a number of shares of Common stock, no par value per share ("Common Stock"), of the Company equal to the Settlement Rate, unless on or prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date there shall have occurred a Termination Event or an Early Settlement with respect to the Growth PRIDES of which such Purchase Contract is a part, all as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement and more fully described on the reverse hereof. The purchase price for the shares of Common Stock purchased pursuant to each Purchase Contract evidenced hereby will be paid by application of the Proceeds from the Treasury Securities pledged to secure the obligations under such Purchase Contract in accordance with the terms of the Pledge Agreement.

The Company shall pay on each Payment Date in respect of each Purchase Contract evidenced hereby an amount (the "Contract Adjustment Payments") equal to % per annum of the Stated Amount, computed on the basis of the actual number of days elapsed in a year of 360 day year of twelve 30 day months, as the case may be, subject to deferral at the option of the Company as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement and more fully described on the reverse hereof. Such Contract Adjustment Payments shall be payable to the Person in whose name this Growth PRIDES Certificate (or a Predecessor Growth PRIDES Certificate) is registered at the close of business on the Record Date for such Payment Date.

Contract Adjustment Payments will be payable at the office of the Agent in The City of New York or, at the option of the Company, by check mailed to the address of the Person entitled thereto as such address appears on the Growth PRIDES Register.

Reference is hereby made to the further provisions set forth on the reverse hereof, which further provisions shall for all purposes have the same effect as if set forth at this place.

Unless the certificate of authentication hereon has been executed by the Agent by manual signature, this Growth PRIDES Certificate shall not be entitled to any benefit under the Pledge Agreement or the Purchase Contract Agreement or be valid or obligatory for any purpose.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company has caused this instrument to be duly executed.

This is one of the Income PRIDES Certificates referred to in the within mentioned Purchase Contract Agreement.

By: THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF CHICAGO, as Purchase Contract Agent

By:
Authorized Officer

(Form of Reverse of Income PRIDES Certificate)

Each Purchase Contract evidenced hereby is governed by a Purchase Contract Agreement, dated as of _____, (as may be supplemented from time to time, the "Purchase Contract Agreement"), between the Company and The First National Bank of Chicago, as Purchase Contract Agent (herein called the "Agent"), to which Purchase Contract Agreement and supplemental agreements thereto reference is hereby made for a description of the respective rights, limitations of rights, obligations, duties and immunities thereunder of the Agent, the Company, and the Holders and of the terms upon which the Income PRIDES Certificates are, and are to be, executed and delivered.

Each Purchase Contract evidenced hereby obligates the Holder of this Income PRIDES Certificate to purchase, and the Company to sell, on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date at a price equal to the Stated Amount (the "Purchase Price"), a number of shares of Common Stock of the Company equal to the Settlement Rate, unless, on or prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, there shall have occurred a Termination Event with respect to the Security of which such Purchase Contract is a part or an Early Settlement shall have occurred. The "Settlement Rate" is equal to (a) if the Applicable Market Value (as defined below) is equal to or greater than $ (the "Threshold Appreciation Price"), shares of Common Stock per Purchase Contract, (b) if the Applicable Market Value is less than the Threshold Appreciation Price but is greater than $, the number of shares of Common Stock per Purchase Contract equal to the Stated Amount divided by the Applicable Market Value and (c) if the Applicable Market Amount is less than or equal to $, shares of Common Stock per Purchase Contract, in each case subject to adjustment as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement. No fractional shares of Common Stock will be issued upon settlement of Purchase Contracts, as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement.

Each Purchase Contract evidenced hereby, which is settled either through Early Settlement or Cash Settlement, shall obligate the Holder of the related Income PRIDES to purchase at the Purchase Price, and the Company to sell, a number of newly issued shares of Common Stock equal to the Early Settlement Rate or the Settlement Rate, as applicable.

The "Applicable Market Value" means the average of the Closing Price per share of Common Stock on each of the 20 consecutive Trading Days ending on the third Trading Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date.

The "Closing Price" of the Common Stock on any date of determination means the closing sale price (or, if no closing price is reported, the last reported sale price) of the Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") on such date or, if the Common Stock is not listed for trading on the NYSE on any such date, as reported in the composite transactions for the principal United States securities exchange on which the Common Stock is so listed, or if the Common Stock is not so listed on a United States national or regional securities exchange, as reported by The Nasdaq Stock Market, or, if the Common Stock is not so reported, the last quoted bid price for the Common Stock in the over-the-counter market as reported by the National Quotation Bureau or similar organization, or, if such bid price is not available, the market value of the Common Stock on such date as determined by a nationally recognized independent investment banking firm retained for this purpose by the Company. A "Trading Day" means a day on which the Common Stock (A) is not suspended from trading on any national or regional securities exchange or association or over-the-counter market at the close of business and (B) has traded at least once on the national or regional securities exchange or association or over-the-counter market that is the primary market for the trading of the Common Stock.

In accordance with the terms of the Purchase Contract Agreement, the Holder of this Income PRIDES Certificate shall pay the Purchase Price for the shares of Common Stock purchased pursuant to each Purchase Contract evidenced hereby by effecting a Cash Settlement, or an Early Settlement or from the proceeds of a remarketing of the related Pledged Preferred Securities of such holders. A Holder of Income PRIDES who does not elect, on or prior to 5:00 p.m. New York City time on the fifth Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, to make an effective Cash Settlement or an Early Settlement, shall pay the Purchase Price for the shares of Common Stock to be issued under the related Purchase Contract from the Proceeds of the sale of the related Pledged Preferred Securities held by the Collateral Agent. Such sale will be made by the Remarketing Agent pursuant to the terms of the Remarketing Agreement and the Remarketing Underwriting Agreement on the third Business Day immediately preceding the Purchase Contract Settlement Date. If, as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement, upon the occurrence of a Failed Remarketing the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Company, exercises its rights as a secured creditor with respect to the Pledged Preferred Securities related to this Income PRIDES certificate, any accrued and unpaid distributions (including deferred distributions) on such Pledged Preferred Securities will become payable by the Company to the holder of this Income PRIDES Certificate in the manner provided for in the Purchase Contract Agreement.

The Company shall not be obligated to issue any shares of Common Stock in respect of a Purchase Contract or deliver any certificates therefor to the Holder unless it shall have received payment in full of the aggregate purchase price for the shares of Common Stock to be purchased thereunder in the manner herein set forth.

Each Purchase Contract evidenced hereby and all obligations and rights of the Company and the Holder thereunder shall terminate if a Termination Event shall have occurred. Upon the occurrence of a Termination Event, the Company shall give written notice to the Agent and to the holders, at their addresses as they appear in the Income PRIDES Register. Upon and after the occurrence of a Termination Event, the Collateral Agent shall release the Pledged Preferred Security (as defined in the Pledge Agreement) or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio forming a part of each Income PRIDES, or the Liquidation Distribution received in respect of such Pledged Preferred Security, from the Pledge. An Income PRIDES shall thereafter represent the right to receive the Preferred Security or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio forming a part of such Income PRIDES, or the Liquidation Distribution received in respect of such Preferred Security, in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Contract Agreement and the Pledge Agreement.

Under the terms of the Pledge Agreement, the Agent will be entitled to exercise the voting and any other consensual rights pertaining to the Pledged Preferred Securities. Upon receipt of notice of any meeting at which holders of Preferred Securities are entitled to vote or upon the solicitation of consents, waivers or proxies of holders of Preferred Securities, the Agent shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, mail to the Income PRIDES holders a notice (a) containing such information as is contained in the notice or solicitation, (b) stating that each Income PRIDES holder on the record date set by the Agent therefor (which, to the extent possible, shall be the same date as the record date for determining the holders of Preferred Securities entitled to vote) shall be entitled to instruct the Agent as to the exercise of the voting rights pertaining to the Preferred Securities constituting a part of such holder's Income PRIDES and (c) stating the manner in which such instructions may be given. Upon the written request of the Income PRIDES Holders on such record date, the Agent shall endeavor insofar as practicable to vote or cause to be voted, in accordance with the instructions set forth in such requests, the maximum number of Preferred Securities as to which any particular voting instructions are received. In the absence of specific instructions from the Holder of an Income PRIDES, the Agent shall abstain from voting the Preferred Security evidenced by such Income PRIDES.

Upon the occurrence of an Investment Company Event or liquidation of the Trust, a principal amount of the Debentures constituting the assets of the Trust and underlying the Preferred Securities equal to the aggregate Stated Amount of the Pledged Preferred Securities shall be delivered to the Collateral Agent in exchange for Pledged Preferred Securities. Thereafter, the Debentures shall be held by the Collateral Agent to secure the obligations of each Holder of Income PRIDES to purchase shares of Common Stock under the Purchase Contracts constituting a part of such Income PRIDES. Following the liquidation of the Trust, the Holders and the Collateral Agent shall have such security interests, rights and obligations with respect to the Debentures as the Holders and the Collateral Agent had in respect of the Pledged Preferred Securities, and any reference in the Purchase Contract Agreement or Pledge Agreement to the Preferred Securities shall be deemed to be a reference to the Debentures.

Upon the occurrence of a Tax Event Redemption prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, the Redemption Price payable on the Tax Event Redemption Date with respect to the Applicable Principal Amount of Debentures shall be delivered to the Collateral Agent in exchange for the Pledged Preferred Securities. Thereafter, pursuant to the terms of the Pledge Agreement, the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Company will apply an amount equal to the Redemption Amount of such Redemption Price to purchase the Treasury Portfolio and promptly remit the remaining portion of such Redemption Price to the Agent for payment to the Holders of such Income PRIDES.

Following the occurrence of a Tax Event Redemption prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, the Holders of Income PRIDES and the Collateral Agent shall have such security interests rights and obligations with respect to the Treasury Portfolio as the Holder of Income PRIDES and the Collateral Agent had in respect of the Preferred Security or Debentures, as the case may be, subject to the Pledge thereof as provided in Articles II, III, IV, V and VI, of the Pledge Agreement and any reference herein to the Preferred Security or the Debenture shall be deemed to be reference to such Treasury Portfolio.

The Income PRIDES Certificates are issuable only in registered form and only in denominations of a single Income PRIDES and any integral multiple thereof. The transfer of any Income PRIDES Certificate will be registered and Income PRIDES Certificates may be exchanged as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement. The Income PRIDES Registrar may require a Holder, among other things, to furnish appropriate endorsements and transfer documents permitted by the Purchase Contract Agreement. No service charge shall be required for any such registration of transfer or exchange, but the Company and the Agent may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge payable in connection therewith. A holder who elects to substitute a Treasury Security for Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, thereby creating Growth PRIDES, shall be responsible for any fees or expenses payable in connection therewith. Except as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement, for so long as the Purchase Contract underlying an Income PRIDES remains in effect, such Income PRIDES shall not be separable into its constituent parts, and the rights and obligations of the Holder of such Income PRIDES in respect of the Preferred Security or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, and Purchase Contract constituting such Income PRIDES may be transferred and exchanged only as an Income PRIDES. The holder of an Income PRIDES may substitute for the Pledged Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio securing its obligation under the related Purchase Contract Treasury Securities in an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate Stated Amount of the Pledged Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable

Ownership Interest (as specified in clause (A) of the definition of such term) in the Treasury Portfolio in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Contract Agreement and the Pledge Agreement. From and after such Collateral Substitution, the Security for which such Pledged Treasury Securities secures the holder's obligation under the Purchase Contract shall be referred to as a "Growth PRIDES." A Holder may make such Collateral Substitution only in integral multiples of 20 Income PRIDES for 20 Growth PRIDES; provided, however, that if a Tax Event Redemption has occurred and the Treasury Portfolio has become a component of the Income PRIDES, a Holder may make such Collateral Substitutions only in integral multiples of 160,000 Income PRIDES for 160,000 Growth PRIDES. Such Collateral Substitution may cause the equivalent aggregate principal amount of this Certificate to be increased or decreased; provided, however, the equivalent aggregate principal amount outstanding under this Income PRIDES Certificate shall not exceed $200,000,000. All such adjustments to the equivalent aggregate principal amount of this Income PRIDES Certificate shall be duly recorded by placing an appropriate notation on the Schedule attached hereto.

A Holder of Growth PRIDES may create or recreate Income PRIDES by delivering to the Collateral Agent Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, with a Stated Amount, in the case of such Preferred Securities, or with the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest (as specified in clause (A) of the definition of such term) of the Treasury Portfolio, in the case of such appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Pledged Treasury Securities in exchange for the release of such Pledged Treasury Securities in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Contract Agreement and the Pledge Agreement.

Subject to the next succeeding paragraph, the Company shall pay, on each Payment Date, the Contract Adjustment Payments payable in respect of each Purchase Contract to the Person in whose name the Income PRIDES Certificate evidencing such Purchase Contract is registered at the close of business on the Record Date for such Payment Date. Contract Adjustment Payments will be payable at the office of the Agent in The City of New York or, at the option of the Company, by check mailed to the address of the Person entitled thereto at such address as it appears on the Income PRIDES Register.

The Company shall have the right, at any time prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, to defer the payment of any or all of the Contract Adjustment Payments otherwise payable on any Payment Date, but only if the Company shall give the Holders and the Agent written notice of its election to defer such payment (specifying the amount to be deferred) as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement. Any Contract Adjustment Payments so deferred shall bear additional Contract Adjustment Payments thereon at the rate of ____% per annum (computed on the basis of a 360 day year of twelve 30 day months), compounding on each succeeding Payment Date, until paid in full (such deferred installments of Contract Adjustment Payments, if any, together with the additional Contract Adjustment Payments accrued thereon, are referred to herein as the "Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments"). Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments, if any, shall be due on the next succeeding Payment Date except to the extent that payment is deferred pursuant to the Purchase Contract Agreement. No Contract Adjustment Payments may be deferred to a date that is after the Purchase Contract Settlement Date.

In the event that the Company elects to defer the payment of Contract Adjustment Payments on the Purchase Contracts until the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, the Holder of this Income PRIDES Certificate will receive on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, in lieu of a cash payment, a number of shares of Common Stock equal to (x) the aggregate amount of Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments payable to the Holder of this Income PRIDES Certificate divided by (y) the Applicable Market Value.

In the event the Company exercises its option to defer the payment of Contract Adjustment Payments, then until the Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments have been paid, the Company shall not declare or pay dividends on, make distributions with respect to, or redeem, purchase or acquire, or make a liquidation payment with respect to, any of its capital stock or make guarantee payments with respect to the foregoing (other than (i) purchases or acquisitions of capital stock of the Company in connection with the satisfaction by the Company of its obligations under any employee or agent benefit plans or the satisfaction by the Company of its obligations pursuant to any contract or security outstanding on the date of such event requiring the Company to purchase capital stock of the Company, (ii) as a result of a reclassification of the Company's capital stock or the exchange or conversion of one class or series of the Company's capital stock for another class or series of the Company's capital stock, (iii) the purchase of fractional interests in shares of the Company's capital stock pursuant to the conversion or exchange provisions of such capital stock or the security being converted or exchanged, (iv) dividends or distributions in capital stock of the Company (or rights to acquire capital stock) or repurchases or redemptions of capital stock solely from the issuance or exchange of capital stock or (v) redemptions or repurchases of any rights outstanding under a shareholder rights plan and a declaration thereunder of a dividend of rights in the future).

The Purchase Contracts and all obligations and rights of the Company and the Holders thereunder, including, without limitation, the rights of the Holders to receive and the obligation of the Company to pay any Contract Adjustment Payments or any Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments, shall immediately and automatically terminate, without the necessity of any notice or action by any Holder, the Agent or the Company, if, on or prior to the Purchase Contract Settlement Date, a Termination Event shall have occurred. Upon the occurrence of a Termination Event, the Company shall promptly but in no event later than two Business Days thereafter give written notice to the Agent, the Collateral Agent and to the Holders, at their addresses as they appear in the Income PRIDES Register. Upon and after the occurrence of a Termination Event, the Collateral Agent shall release the Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, from the Pledge in accordance with the provisions of the Pledge Agreement.

Subject to and upon compliance with the provisions of the Purchase Contract Agreement, at the option of the Holder thereof, Purchase Contracts underlying Securities having an aggregate amount equal to $1,000 or an integral multiple thereof may be settled early ("Early Settlement") as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement; provided, however, that if a Tax Event Redemption has occurred and the Treasury Portfolio has become a component of the Income PRIDES, Holders may early settle Income PRIDES only in integral multiples of 160,000 Income PRIDES. In order to exercise the right to effect Early Settlement with respect to any Purchase Contracts evidenced by this Income PRIDES Certificate, the Holder of this Income PRIDES Certificate shall deliver this Income PRIDES Certificate to the Agent at the Corporate Trust Office duly endorsed for transfer to the Company or in blank with the form of Election to Settle Early set forth below duly completed and accompanied by payment in the form of immediately available funds payable to the order of the Company in an amount (the "Early Settlement Amount") equal to (i) the product of (A) the Stated Amount times (B) the number of Purchase Contracts with respect to which the Holder has elected to effect Early Settlement, plus (ii) if such delivery is made with respect to any Purchase Contracts during the period from the close of business on any Record Date for any Payment Date to the opening of business on such Payment Date, an amount equal to the Contract Adjustment Payments payable on such Payment Date with respect to such Purchase Contracts. Upon Early Settlement of Purchase Contracts by a Holder of the related Securities, the Pledged Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio underlying such Securities shall be released from the Pledge as provided in the Pledge Agreement and the Holder shall be entitled to receive a number of shares of Common Stock on account of each Purchase Contract forming part of a Income PRIDES as to which Early Settlement is effected equal to the Early Settlement Rate; provided however, that upon the Early Settlement of the Purchase Contracts, the Holder thereof will forfeit the right to receive any Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments, if any, on such Purchase Contracts. The Early Settlement Rate shall initially be equal to shares of Common Stock and shall be adjusted in the same manner and at the same time as the Settlement Rate is adjusted as provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement.

Upon registration of transfer of this Income PRIDES Certificate, the transferee shall be bound (without the necessity of any other action on the part of such transferee, except as may be required by the Agent pursuant to the Purchase Contract Agreement), under the terms of the Purchase Contract Agreement and the Purchase Contracts evidenced hereby and the transferor shall be released from the obligations under the Purchase Contracts evidenced by this Income PRIDES Certificate. The Company covenants and agrees, and the Holder, by its acceptance hereof, likewise covenants and agrees, to be bound by the provisions of this paragraph.

The Holder of this Income PRIDES Certificate, by its acceptance hereof, authorizes the Agent to enter into and perform the related Purchase Contracts forming part of the Income PRIDES evidenced hereby on his behalf as his attorney-in-fact, expressly withholds any consent to the assumption (i.e., affirmation) of the Purchase Contracts by the Company or its trustee in the event that the Company becomes the subject of a case under the Bankruptcy Code, agrees to be bound by the terms and provisions thereof, covenants and agrees to perform his obligations under such Purchase Contracts, consents to the provisions of the Purchase Contract Agreement, authorizes the Agent to enter into and perform the Pledge Agreement on his behalf as its attorney-in-fact, and consents to the Pledge of the Preferred Securities or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest of the Treasury Portfolio, as the case may be, underlying this Income PRIDES Certificate pursuant to the Pledge Agreement. The Holder further covenants and agrees, that, to the extent and in the manner provided in the Purchase Contract Agreement and the Pledge Agreement, but subject to the terms thereof, payments in respect to the Stated Amount of the Pledged Preferred Securities, or the appropriate Applicable Ownership Interest (as specified in clause (A) of the definition of such term) of the Treasury Portfolio, on the Purchase Contract Settlement Date shall be paid by the Collateral Agent to the Company in satisfaction of such Holder's obligations under such Purchase Contract and such Holder shall acquire no right, title or interest in such payments.

Subject to certain exceptions, the provisions of the Purchase Contract Agreement may be amended with the consent of the Holders of a majority of the Purchase Contracts.

The Purchase Contracts shall for all purposes be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York.

The Company, the Agent and its Affiliates and any agent of the Company or the Agent may treat the Person in whose name this Income PRIDES Certificate is registered as the owner of the Income PRIDES evidenced hereby for the purpose of receiving payments of distributions payable quarterly on the Preferred Securities, receiving payments of Contract Adjustment Payments and any Deferred Contract Adjustment Payments, performance of the Purchase Contracts and for all other purposes whatsoever, whether or not any payments in respect thereof be overdue and notwithstanding any notice to the contrary, and neither the Company, the Agent nor any such agent shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

The Purchase Contracts shall not, prior to the settlement thereof, entitle the Holder to any of the rights of a holder of shares of Common Stock.

A copy of the Purchase Contract Agreement is available for inspection at the offices of the Agent.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am acting as counsel for (1) Cendant Corporation, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware (the "Company") and (2) Cendant Capital II, Cendant Capital III, Cendant Capital IV and Cendant Capital V, each a statutory business trust formed under the Business Trust Act of the State of Delaware (each, a "Trust"), in connection with the preparation of a Registration Statement on Form S-3 (File No. 333-78447) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on May 14, 1999 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), Amendment No. 1 thereto filed with the Commission on July 12, 1999 and Amendment No. 2 thereto, filed with the Commission on October 13, 1999 (such Registration Statement, as so amended, being hereinafter referred to as the "Registration Statement") in connection with the public offering of the Company's (i) debentures due 2003 (the "Debentures"), (ii) shares of common stock, $.01 par value per share (collectively, the "Common Stock"), (iii) additional FELINE PRIDES (the "Additional FELINE PRIDES"), consisting of additional Income PRIDES (the "Additional Income PRIDES") and additional Growth PRIDES (the "Additional Growth PRIDES"). Each Additional Growth PRIDES will consist of a Purchase Contract and a 1/20 interest in a U.S. Treasury Security maturing on February 15, 2001, with a face amount at maturity of $1,000 (each 1/20 interest, a "Treasury Security") and (iv) new FELINE PRIDES (the "New FELINE PRIDES") consisting of new Income PRIDES (the "New Income PRIDES") and new Growth PRIDES (the "New Growth PRIDES"). Each New Income PRIDES will consist of a Purchase Contract and a Preferred Security. Each New Growth PRIDES will consist of a Purchase Contract and a Treasury Security. The Registration Statement also relates to the registration under the Act of Trust Originated Preferred Securities (the "Preferred Securities"), having a stated liquidation amount per Preferred Security equal to $50, representing a preferred undivided beneficial interest in the assets of the applicable Trust and guarantee of the Preferred Securities by the Company (the "Preferred Securities Guarantee"). Capitalized terms used but not defined herein are used as defined in the Registration Statement.

This opinion is being delivered in accordance with the requirements of Item 601(b)(5) of Regulation S-K under the Act.

In connection with this opinion, I have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to my satisfaction, of (i) the certificate of trust of Cendant Capital II dated February 5, 1998, the certificate of trust of Cendant Capital III, dated February 5, 1998, the certificate of trust of Cendant Capital IV, dated August 20, 1999 and the Certificate of Trust of Cendant Capital V, dated August 20, 1999, each as filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware; (ii) the Declaration for each of the Trusts (including the designation of the terms of the Preferred Securities annexed thereto); and (iii) the Preferred Securities. I have also examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to my satisfaction, of such other documents, certificates and records as I have deemed necessary or appropriate as a basis for the opinions set forth herein.

In my examination, I have assumed the legal capacity of all natural persons, the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to me as originals, the conformity to original documents of all documents submitted to me as certified or photostatic copies and the authenticity of the originals of such copies. In making my examination of documents executed by parties other than the Trust, I have assumed that such parties had the power, corporate or other, to enter into and perform all obligations thereunder and have also assumed the due authorization by all requisite action, corporate or other, and execution and delivery by such parties of such documents and that such documents constitute valid and binding obligations of such parties. In addition, I have assumed that Preferred Securities when executed, will be substantially in the form reviewed by me. As to any facts material to the opinions expressed herein which were not independently established or verified, I have relied upon oral or written statements and representations of officers, trustees and other representatives of the Company, the Trusts and others.

I am admitted to the bar in the States of New York and New Jersey, and I express no opinion as to the laws of any other jurisdiction.

Based on the above, upon and subject to the foregoing, I am of the opinion that:

1. The Company is a corporation duly incorporated and validly existing pursuant to the laws of the State of Delaware.
2. The Debentures, the Common Stock, the Purchase Contracts relating to the Additional Income PRIDES and Additional Growth PRIDES and the Purchase Contracts relating to the New Income PRIDES and the New Growth PRIDES , which are covered by the Registration Statement, when sold will be legally issued by the Company, duly authorized, fully paid and non-assessable and, in the case of the Debentures, will constitute valid and binding obligations of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with their terms except as such enforcement is subject to any applicable bankruptcy insolvency, reorganization or other laws relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and general principles of equity.

3. Upon issuance, the Preferred Securities Guarantee will constitute the legal, valid and binding obligation of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, except as such enforcement is subject to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other law relating to or affecting creditors' rights generally and general principles of equity.

I hereby consent to the filing of this opinion with the Commission as an exhibit to the Registration Statement. I also consent to the use of my name under the heading "Legal Opinions" in the prospectus included in the Registration Statement. In giving this consent, I do not thereby admit that I am within the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Act or the rules and regulations of the Commission promulgated thereunder. This opinion is expressed as of the date hereof unless otherwise expressly stated and I disclaim any undertaking to advise you of any subsequent changes in the facts stated or assumed herein or of any subsequent changes in applicable law.

Very truly yours,

Re: Cendant Corporation; Cendant Capital II;
Cendant Capital III; Cendant Capital IV; Cendant
Capital V, Registration Statement on Form S-3

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as special counsel to (1) Cendant Corporation (the "Company"), a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, and (2) Cendant Capital II, Cendant Capital III, Cendant Capital IV and Cendant Capital V (each, a "Trust" and collectively, the "Trusts"), each a statutory business trust formed under the Business Trust Act of the State of Delaware, in connection with the preparation of a Registration Statement on Form S-3 (File No. 333-78447), filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") on May 14, 1999 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), Amendment No. 1, thereto, filed with the Commission on July 12, 1999, and Amendment No. 2 thereto, filed with the Commission on October 13, 1999 (such Registration Statement, as so amended, being hereinafter referred to as the "Registration Statement") in connection with the public offering of certain securities of the Company and the Trusts. Each Additional Growth PRIDES will consist of a Purchase Contract and a 1/20 interest in a U.S. Treasury Security maturing on February 15, 2001, with a face amount at maturity of $1,000 (each 1/20 interest, a "Treasury Security") Each New Income PRIDES will consist of a Purchase Contract and a Preferred Security. Each New Growth PRIDES will consist of a Purchase Contract and a Treasury Security. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein are used as defined in the Registration Statement.

The Preferred Securities of each Trust are to be issued pursuant to an Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust of such Trust, a form of which is attached as an exhibit to the Registration Statement (the "Declaration"), among the Company, as sponsor, Wilmington Trust Company, as the institutional trustee (in such capacity, the "Institutional Trustee") and as the Delaware trustee, and Michael P. Monaco and James E. Buckman, as regular trustees.

This opinion is being delivered in accordance with the requirements of Item 601(b)(5) of Regulation S-K under the Act.

In connection with this opinion, we have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of (i) the certificate of trust of Cendant Capital II, dated February 5, 1998, the certificate of trust of Cendant Capital III, dated February 5, 1998, the certificate of trust of Cendant Capital IV, dated August 20, 1999, and the certificate of trust of Cendant Capital V, dated August 20, 1999, each as filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware; (ii) the Declarations (including the designation of the terms of the Preferred Securities annexed thereto) for each of the Trusts; and (iii) specimen certificates of each of the Preferred Securities. We have also examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such other documents, certificates and records as we have deemed necessary or appropriate as a basis for the opinions set forth herein.

In our examination, we have assumed the legal capacity of all natural persons, the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to original documents of all documents submitted to us as certified or photo static copies and the authenticity of the originals of such copies. In making our examination of documents executed by parties other than the Trusts, we have assumed that such parties had the power, corporate or other, to enter into and perform all obligations thereunder and have also assumed the due authorization by all requisite action, corporate or other, and execution and delivery by such parties of such documents and that such documents constitute valid and binding obligations of such parties. As to any facts material to the opinions expressed herein which were not independently established or verified, we have relied upon oral or written statements and representations of officers, trustees and other representatives of the Company, the Trusts and others.

Members of our firm are admitted to the bar in the States of New York and Delaware, and we express no opinion as to the laws of any other jurisdiction.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing and to the other qualifications and limitations set forth herein, we are of the opinion that the Preferred Securities have been duly authorized for issuance and, when issued, executed and authenticated in accordance with the terms of the applicable Declaration and delivered and paid for as contemplated by the prospectus supplement included in the Registration Statement, will be validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable, representing undivided beneficial interests in the assets of the applicable Trust. We bring to your attention, however, that the Preferred Securities holders may be obligated, pursuant to the applicable Declaration, to (i) provide indemnity and/or security in connection with and pay taxes or governmental charges arising from transfers of Preferred Securities and (ii) provide security and indemnity in connection with the requests of or directions to the Institutional Trustee to exercise its rights and powers under the applicable Declaration.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion with the Commission as an exhibit to the Registration Statement. We also consent to the use of our name under the heading "Legal Matters" in the prospectus supplement included in the Registration Statement. In giving this consent, we do not thereby admit that we are within the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Act or the rules and regulations of the Commission promulgated thereunder. This opinion is expressed as of the date hereof unless otherwise expressly stated and we disclaim any undertaking to advise you of any subsequent changes in the facts stated or assumed herein or of any subsequent changes in applicable law.

Re: Offering of Trust Preferred Securities and FELINE
PRIDES(sm) (Registration Statement No. 333-78447)

Ladies and gentlemen:

We have acted as tax counsel to Cendant corporation, a corporation organized under the laws of the state of Delaware (the "Company"), and Cendant Corporation II, a statutory business trust formed under the Business Trust Act of the State of Delaware (the "Trust"), in connection with above-captioned registration statement on Form S-3, as amended (the "Registration Statement"), filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") for the purpose of registering (i) Trust Originated Preferred Securities representing undivided beneficial interests in the assets of the Trust (the "Preferred Securities"), (ii) Debentures issued by the Company to the Trust in connection with the sale of the Preferred Securities (the "Debentures"), and (iii) FELINE PRIDES(sm) consisting of (A) units (referred to as Income PRIDES(sm)) initially comprised of stock purchase contracts (the "Purchase Contracts") and beneficial ownership of Preferred Securities and (B) units (referred to as Growth PRIDES(sm)) initially comprised of Purchase Contracts and beneficial ownership of zero-coupon U.S. Treasury Securities, as described in the Prospectus forming a part of such Registration Statement (the "Prospectus").

In rendering our opinion, we have participated in the preparation of the Registration Statement and the Prospectus. Our opinion is conditioned on, among other things, the initial and continuing accuracy of the facts, information, covenants and representations set forth in the Registration Statement, the Prospectus and certain other documents and the statements and representations made by officers of the Company. In our examination, we have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the legal capacity of natural persons, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to original documents of all documents submitted to us as certified or photostatic copies and the authenticity of the originals of such documents. We also have assumed that the transactions related to the issuance of the Preferred Securities, the Debentures, and the FELINE PRIDES will be consummated in the manner contemplated by the Registration Statement and the Prospectus.

In rendering our opinion, we have considered the current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial decisions and Internal Revenue Service rulings, all of which are subject to change, which changes may be retroactively applied. A change in the authorities upon which our opinion is based could affect our conclusions. There can be no assurance, moreover, that any of the opinions expressed herein will be accepted by the Internal Revenue Service or, if challenged, by a court.

Based solely upon the foregoing, we are of the opinion that, under current United States federal income tax law, although the discussion set forth in the Prospectus Supplement under the heading "CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES" does not purport to discuss all possible United States federal income tax consequences of the purchase, ownership, and disposition of Preferred Securities and FELINE PRIDES, such discussion constitutes, in all material respects, a fair and accurate summary of the United States federal income tax consequences of the purchase, ownership, and disposition of Preferred Securities and FELINE PRIDES.

Except as set forth above, we express no opinion to any party as to the tax consequences, whether federal, state, local, or foreign, of the issuance of the Preferred Securities, the Debentures, or the FELINE PRIDES or of any transaction related to or contemplated by such issuance. This opinion is furnished to you solely for your benefit in connection with the offering of the Preferred Securities and the FELINE PRIDES and is not to be used, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any other purpose or relied upon by any other person without our prior written consent. We consent to the use of our name under the heading "Legal Matters" in the Prospectus. We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion with the Commission as Exhibit 8 to the Registration Statement. In giving this consent, we do not thereby admit that we are within the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act of 1933 or the rules and regulations of the Commission promulgated thereunder. This opinion is expressed as of the date hereof, unless otherwise expressly stated, and we disclaim any undertaking to advise you of any subsequent changes of the facts stated or assumed herein or any subsequent changes in applicable law.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP

stockholders shall elect a successor to such director to hold office until the next election of the class for which such director shall have been chosen and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. No decrease in the number of directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

(2) After distribution in full of the preferential amount, if any, (fixed in accordance with the provisions of section (b) of this Article FOURTH), to be distributed to the holders of Preferred Stock in the event of voluntary or involuntary liquidation, distribution or sale of assets, dissolution or winding-up, of the Corporation, the holders of the Common Stock shall be entitled to receive all of the remaining assets of the Corporation, tangible and intangible, of whatever kind available for distribution to stockholders ratably in proportion to the number of shares of Common Stock held by them respectively.

(e) The relative powers, preferences and rights of each series of Preferred Stock in relation to the relative powers, preferences and rights of each other series of Preferred Stock shall, in each case, be as fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors in the resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to authority granted in section (b) of this Article FOURTH and the consent, by class or series vote or otherwise, of the holders of such of the series of Preferred Stock as are from time to time outstanding shall not be required for the issuance by the Board of Directors of any other series of Preferred Stock whether or not the powers, preferences and rights of such other series shall be fixed by the Board of Directors as senior to, or on a parity with, the powers, preferences and rights of such outstanding series, or any of them; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may provide in the resolution or resolutions as to any series of Preferred Stock adopted pursuant to section (b) of this Article FOURTH that the consent of the holders of a majority (or such greater proportion as shall be therein fixed) of the outstanding shares of such series voting thereon shall be required for the issuance of any or all other series of Preferred Stock.

(f) Subject to the provisions of section (e), shares of any series of Preferred Stock may be issued from time to time as the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall determine and on such terms and for such consideration as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

(g) Shares of Common Stock may be issued from time to time as the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall determine and on such terms and for such consideration as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

(h) The authorized amount of shares of Common Stock and of Preferred Stock may, without a class or series vote, be increased or decreased from time to time by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the stock of the Corporation entitled to vote thereon.

FIFTH: - (a) The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be conducted and managed by a Board of Directors. The number of directors constituting the entire Board shall be not less than five nor more than twenty-five as fixed from time to time by vote of a majority of the whole Board, provided, however, that the number of directors shall not be reduced so as to shorten the term of any director at the time in office, and provided further, that the number of directors constituting the whole Board shall be twenty-four until otherwise fixed by a majority of the whole Board.

(b) The Board of Directors shall be divided into three classes, as nearly equal in number as the then total number of directors constituting the whole Board permits, with the term of office of one class expiring each year. meeting and directors of the third class shall be elected to hold office for a term expiring at the third succeeding annual meeting. Any vacancies in the Board of Directors for any reason, and any newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the directors, may be filled by the Board of Directors, acting by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, and any directors so chosen shall hold office until the next annual election of directors. At such election, the stockholders shall elect a successor to such director to hold office until the next election of the class for which such director shall have been chosen and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. No decrease in the number of directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Charter or Act of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation (and notwithstanding the fact that some lesser percentage may be specified by law, this Charter or Act of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation), any director or the entire Board of Directors of the Corporation may be removed at any time without cause, but only by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds or more of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (considered for this purpose as one class) cast at a meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose.

(d) Nominations for the election of directors may be made by the Board of Directors or by any stockholder entitled to vote for the election of directors. Such nominations shall be made by notice in writing, delivered or mailed by first class United States mail, postage prepaid, to the Secretary of the Corporation not less than 14 days nor more than 50 days prior to any meeting of the stockholders called for the election of directors; provided, however, that if less than 21 days' notice of the meeting is given to stockholders, such written notice shall be delivered or mailed, as prescribed, to the Secretary of the Corporation not later than the close of the seventh day following the day on which notice of the meeting was mailed to stockholders. Notice of nominations which are proposed by the Board of Directors shall be given by the Chairman on behalf of the Board.

(e) Each notice under subsection (d) shall set forth (i) the name, age, business address and, if known, residence address of each nominee proposed in such notice, (ii) the principal occupation or employment of such nominee and (iii) the number of shares of stock of the Corporation which are beneficially owned by each such nominee.

(f) The Chairman of the meeting may, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that a nomination was not made in accordance with the foregoing procedure, and if he should so determine, he shall so declare to the meeting and the defective nomination shall be disregarded.

(g) No action required to be taken or which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation may be taken without a meeting, and the power of stockholders to consent in writing, without a meeting, to the taking of any action is specifically denied.

SIXTH: - The Directors shall choose such officers, agents and servants as may be provided in the By-Laws as they may from time to time find necessary or proper.

SEVENTH: - The Corporation hereby created is hereby given the same powers, rights and privileges as may be conferred upon corporations organized under the Act entitled "An Act Providing a General Corporation Law", approved March 10, 1899, as from time to time amended.

EIGHTH: - This Act shall be deemed and taken to be a private Act.

NINTH: - This Corporation is to have perpetual existence.

TENTH: - The Board of Directors, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole Board, may designate any of their number to constitute an Executive Committee, which Committee, to the extent provided in said resolution, or in the By-Laws of the Company, shall have and may exercise all of the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, and shall have power to authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it.

ELEVENTH: - The private property of the stockholders shall not be liable for the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatever.

TWELFTH: - The Corporation may transact business in any part of the world.

THIRTEENTH: - The Board of Directors of the Corporation is expressly authorized to make, alter or repeal the By-Laws of the Corporation by a vote of the majority of the entire Board. The stockholders may make, alter or repeal any By-Law whether or not adopted by them, provided however, that any such additional By-Laws, alterations or repeal may be adopted only by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds or more of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (considered for this purpose as one class).

FOURTEENTH: - Meetings of the Directors may be held outside of the State of Delaware at such places as may be from time to time designated by the Board, and the Directors may keep the books of the Company outside of the State of Delaware at such places as may be from time to time designated by them.

FIFTEENTH: - (a) (1) In addition to any affirmative vote required by law, and except as otherwise expressly provided in sections (b) and (c) of this Article FIFTEENTH:

(A) any merger or consolidation of the Corporation or any Subsidiary (as hereinafter defined) with or into (i) any Interested Stockholder (as hereinafter defined) or (ii) any other corporation (whether or not itself an Interested Stockholder), which, after such merger or consolidation, would be an Affiliate (as hereinafter defined) of an Interested Stockholder, or

(B) any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition (in one transaction or a series of related transactions) to or with any Interested Stockholder or any Affiliate of any Interested Stockholder of any assets of the Corporation or any Subsidiary having an aggregate fair market value of $1,000,000 or more, or

(C) the issuance or transfer by the Corporation or any Subsidiary (in one transaction or a series of related transactions) of any securities of the Corporation or any Subsidiary to any Interested Stockholder or any Affiliate of any Interested Stockholder in exchange for cash, securities or other property (or a combination thereof) having an aggregate fair market value of $1,000,000 or more, or

(D) the adoption of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of the Corporation, or

(E) any reclassification of securities (including any reverse stock split), or recapitalization of the Corporation, or any merger or consolidation of the Corporation with any of its Subsidiaries or any similar transaction (whether or not with or into or otherwise involving an Interested Stockholder) which has the effect, directly or indirectly, of increasing the proportionate share of the outstanding shares of any class of equity or convertible securities of the Corporation or any Subsidiary which is directly or indirectly owned by any Interested Stockholder, or any Affiliate of any Interested Stockholder, shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, considered for the purpose of this Article FIFTEENTH as one class ("Voting Shares"). Such affirmative vote shall be required notwithstanding the fact that no vote may be required, or that some lesser percentage may be specified, by law or in any agreement with any national securities exchange or otherwise.

(2) The term "business combination" as used in this Article FIFTEENTH shall mean any transaction which is referred to in any one or more of clauses (A) through (E) of paragraph 1 of the section (a).

(e) The relative powers, preferences and rights of each series of Preferred Stock in relation to the relative powers, preferences and rights of each other series of Preferred Stock shall, in each case, be as fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors in the resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to authority granted in section (b) of this Article FOURTH and the consent, by class or series vote or otherwise, of the holders of such of the series of Preferred Stock as are from time to time outstanding shall not be required for the issuance by the Board of Directors of any other series of Preferred Stock whether or not the powers, preferences and rights of such other series shall be fixed by the Board of Directors as senior to, or on a parity with, the powers, preferences and rights of such outstanding series, or any of them; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may provide in the resolution or resolutions as to any series of Preferred Stock adopted pursuant to section (b) of this Article FOURTH that the consent of the holders of a majority (or such greater proportion as shall be therein fixed) of the outstanding shares of such series voting thereon shall be required for the issuance of any or all other series of Preferred Stock.

(f) Subject to the provisions of section (e), shares of any series of Preferred Stock may be issued from time to time as the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall determine and on such terms and for such consideration as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

(g) Shares of Common Stock may be issued from time to time as the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall determine and on such terms and for such consideration as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

The number of directors constituting the entire Board shall be not less than five nor more than twenty-five as fixed from time to time by vote of a majority of the whole Board, provided, however, that the number of directors shall not be reduced so as to shorten the term of any director at the time in office, and provided further, that the number of directors constituting the whole Board shall be twenty-four until otherwise fixed by a majority of the whole Board.

next annual election of directors. At such election, the stockholders shall elect a successor to such director to hold office until the next election of the class for which such director shall have been chosen and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. The voting powers and the preferences and relative, participating, optional and other special rights of each such series, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, if any, may differ from those of any and all other series at any time outstanding; and, subject to the provisions of subparagraph 1 of Paragraph (c) of this Article FOURTH, the Board of Directors of the Corporation is hereby expressly granted authority to fix by resolution or resolutions adopted prior to the issuance of any shares of a particular series of Preferred Stock, the voting powers and the designations, preferences and relative, optional and other special rights, and the qualifications, limitations and restrictions of such series, including, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following:

(1) The distinctive designation of, and the number of shares of Preferred Stock which shall constitute such series, which number may be increased (except where otherwise provided by the Board of Directors) or decreased (but not below the number of shares thereof then outstanding) from time to time by like action of the Board of Directors;

(c) (1) After the requirements with respect to preferential dividends on the Preferred Stock (fixed in accordance with the provisions of section (b) of this Article FOURTH), if any, shall have been met and after the Corporation shall have complied with all the requirements, if any, with respect to the setting aside of sums as sinking funds or redemption or purchase accounts (fixed in accordance with the provisions of section (b) of this Article FOURTH), and subject further to any conditions which may be fixed in accordance with the provisions of section (b) of this Article FOURTH, then and not otherwise the holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to receive such dividends as may be declared from time to time by the Board of Directors.

(2) After distribution in full of the preferential amount, if any, (fixed in accordance with the provisions of section (b) of this Article FOURTH), to be distributed to the holders of Preferred Stock in the event of voluntary or involuntary liquidation, distribution or sale of assets, dissolution or winding-up, of the Corporation, the holders of the Common Stock shall be entitled to receive all of the remaining assets of the Corporation, tangible and intangible, of whatever kind available for distribution to stockholders ratably in proportion to the number of shares of Common Stock held by them respectively.

(3) Except as may otherwise be required by law or by the provisions of such resolution or resolutions as may be adopted by the Board of Directors pursuant to section (b) of this Article FOURTH, each holder of Common Stock shall have one vote in respect of each share of Common Stock held on all matters voted upon by the stockholders.

(d) No holder of any of the shares of any class or series of stock or of options, warrants or other rights to purchase shares of any class or series of stock or of other securities of the Corporation shall have any preemptive right to purchase or subscribe for any unissued stock of any class or series or any additional shares of any class or series to be issued by reason of any increase of the authorized capital stock of the Corporation of any class or series, or bonds, certificates of indebtedness, debentures or other securities convertible into or exchangeable for stock of the Corporation of any class or series, or carrying any right to purchase stock of any class or series, but any such unissued stock, additional authorized issue of shares of any class or series of stock or securities convertible into or exchangeable for stock, or carrying any right to purchase stock, may be issued and disposed of pursuant to resolution of the Board of Directors to such persons, firms, corporations or associations, whether such holders or others, and upon such terms as may be deemed advisable by the Board of Directors in the exercise of its sole discretion.

(e) The relative powers, preferences and rights of each series of Preferred Stock in relation to the relative powers, preferences and rights of each other series of Preferred Stock shall, in each case, be as fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors in the resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to authority granted in section (b) of this Article FOURTH and the consent, by class or series vote or otherwise, of the holders of such of the series of Preferred Stock as are from time to time outstanding shall not be required for the issuance by the Board of Directors of any other series of Preferred Stock whether or not the powers, preferences and rights of such other series shall be fixed by the Board of Directors as senior to, or on a parity with, the powers, preferences and rights of such outstanding series, or any of them; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may provide in the resolution or resolutions as to any series of Preferred Stock adopted pursuant to section (b) of this Article FOURTH that the consent of the holders of a majority (or such greater proportion as shall be therein fixed) of the outstanding shares of such series voting thereon shall be required for the issuance of any or all other series of Preferred Stock.

(f) Subject to the provisions of section (e), shares of any series of Preferred Stock may be issued from time to time as the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall determine and on such terms and for such consideration as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

(g) Shares of Common Stock may be issued from time to time as the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall determine and on such terms and for such consideration as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

(h) The authorized amount of shares of Common Stock and of Preferred Stock may, without a class or series vote, be increased or decreased from time to time by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the stock of the Corporation entitled to vote thereon.

The number of directors constituting the entire Board shall be not less than five nor more than twenty-five as fixed from time to time by vote of a majority of the whole Board, provided, however, that the number of directors shall not be reduced so as to shorten the term of any director at the time in office, and provided further, that the number of directors constituting the whole Board shall be twenty-four until otherwise fixed by a majority of the whole Board.

(b) The Board of Directors shall be divided into three classes, as nearly equal in number as the then total number of directors constituting the whole Board permits, with the term of office of one class expiring each year. hold office for a term expiring at the second succeeding annual meeting and directors of the third class shall be elected to hold office for a term expiring at the third succeeding annual meeting. Any vacancies in the Board of Directors for any reason, and any newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the directors, may be filled by the Board of Directors, acting by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, and any directors so chosen shall hold office until the next annual election of directors. At such election, the stockholders shall elect a successor to such director to hold office until the next election of the class for which such director shall have been chosen and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. No decrease in the number of directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Charter or Act of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation (and notwithstanding the fact that some lesser percentage may be specified by law, this Charter or Act of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation), any director or the entire Board of Directors of the Corporation may be removed at any time without cause, but only by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds or more of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (considered for this purpose as one class) cast at a meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose.

(d) Nominations for the election of directors may be made by the Board of Directors or by any stockholder entitled to vote for the election of directors. SIXTEENTH: Notwithstanding any other provision of this Charter or Act of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation (and in addition to any other vote that may be required by law, this Charter or Act of Incorporation by the By-Laws), the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of the capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (considered for this purpose as one class) shall be required to amend, alter or repeal any provision of Articles FIFTH, THIRTEENTH, FIFTEENTH or SIXTEENTH of this Charter or Act of Incorporation.

At such election, the stockholders shall elect a successor to such director to hold office until the next election of the class for which such director shall have been chosen and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. No decrease in the number of directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Charter or Act of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation (and notwithstanding the fact that some lesser percentage may be specified by law, this Charter or Act of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation), any director or the entire Board of Directors of the Corporation may be removed at any time without cause, but only by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds or more of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (considered for this purpose as one class) cast at a meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose.

SIXTEENTH: Notwithstanding any other provision of this Charter or Act of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation (and in addition to any other vote that may be required by law, this Charter or Act of Incorporation by the By-Laws), the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of the capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (considered for this purpose as one class) shall be required to amend, alter or repeal any provision of Articles FIFTH, THIRTEENTH, FIFTEENTH or SIXTEENTH of this Charter or Act of Incorporation.

(c) (1) After the requirements with respect to preferential dividends on the Preferred Stock (fixed in accordance with the provisions of section (b) of this Article FOURTH), if any, shall have been met and after the Corporation shall have complied with all the requirements, if any, with respect to the setting aside of sums as sinking funds or redemption or purchase accounts (fixed in accordance with the provisions of section (b) of this Article FOURTH), and subject further to any conditions which may be fixed in accordance with the provisions of section (b) of this Article FOURTH, then and not otherwise the holders of Common Stock shall be entitled to receive such dividends as may be declared from time to time by the Board of Directors.

(2) After distribution in full of the preferential amount, if any, (fixed in accordance with the provisions of section (b) of this Article FOURTH), to be distributed to the holders of Preferred Stock in the event of voluntary or involuntary liquidation, distribution or sale of assets, dissolution or winding-up, of the Corporation, the holders of the Common Stock shall be entitled to receive all of the remaining assets of the Corporation, tangible and intangible, of whatever kind available for distribution to stockholders ratably in proportion to the number of shares of Common Stock held by them respectively.

(d) No holder of any of the shares of any class or series of stock or of options, warrants or other rights to purchase shares of any class or series of stock or of other securities of the Corporation shall have any preemptive right to purchase or subscribe for any unissued stock of any class or series or any additional shares of any class or series to be issued by reason of any increase of the authorized capital stock of the Corporation of any class or series, or bonds, certificates of indebtedness, debentures or other securities convertible into or exchangeable for stock of the Corporation of any class or series, or carrying any right to purchase stock of any class or series, but any such unissued stock, additional authorized issue of shares of any class or series of stock or securities convertible into or exchangeable for stock, or carrying any right to purchase stock, may be issued and disposed of pursuant to resolution of the Board of Directors to such persons, firms, corporations or associations, whether such holders or others, and upon such terms as may be deemed advisable by the Board of Directors in the exercise of its sole discretion.

(e) The relative powers, preferences and rights of each series of Preferred Stock in relation to the relative powers, preferences and rights of each other series of Preferred Stock shall, in each case, be as fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors in the resolution or resolutions adopted pursuant to authority granted in section (b) of this Article FOURTH and the consent, by class or series vote or otherwise, of the holders of such of the series of Preferred Stock as are from time to time outstanding shall not be required for the issuance by the Board of Directors of any other series of Preferred Stock whether or not the powers, preferences and rights of such other series shall be fixed by the Board of Directors as senior to, or on a parity with, the powers, preferences and rights of such outstanding series, or any of them; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may provide in the resolution or resolutions as to any series of Preferred Stock adopted pursuant to section (b) of this Article FOURTH that the consent of the holders of a majority (or such greater proportion as shall be therein fixed) of the outstanding shares of such series voting thereon shall be required for the issuance of any or all other series of Preferred Stock.

(f) Subject to the provisions of section (e), shares of any series of Preferred Stock may be issued from time to time as the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall determine and on such terms and for such consideration as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

(g) Shares of Common Stock may be issued from time to time as the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall determine and on such terms and for such consideration as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

(h) The authorized amount of shares of Common Stock and of Preferred Stock may, without a class or series vote, be increased or decreased from time to time by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the stock of the Corporation entitled to vote thereon.

FIFTH: - (a) The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be conducted and managed by a Board of Directors. The number of directors constituting the entire Board shall be not less than five nor more than twenty-five as fixed from time to time by vote of a majority of the whole Board, provided, however, that the number of directors shall not be reduced so as to shorten the term of any director at the time in office, and provided further, that the number of directors constituting the whole Board shall be twenty-four until otherwise fixed by a majority of the whole Board.

(b) The Board of Directors shall be divided into three classes, as nearly equal in number as the then total number of directors constituting the whole Board permits, with the term of office of one class expiring each year. Any vacancies in the Board of Directors for any reason, and any newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the directors, may be filled by the Board of Directors, acting by a majority of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, and any directors so chosen shall hold office until the next annual election of directors. At such election, the stockholders shall elect a successor to such director to hold office until the next election of the class for which such director shall have been chosen and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. No decrease in the number of directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Charter or Act of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation (and notwithstanding the fact that some lesser percentage may be specified by law, this Charter or Act of Incorporation or the By-Laws of the Corporation), any director or the entire Board of Directors of the Corporation may be removed at any time without cause, but only by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds or more of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (considered for this purpose as one class) cast at a meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose.

(d) Nominations for the election of directors may be made by the Board of Directors or by any stockholder entitled to vote for the election of directors. Such nominations shall be made by notice in writing, delivered or mailed by first class United States mail, postage prepaid, to the Secretary of the Corporation not less than 14 days nor more than 50 days prior to any meeting of the stockholders called for the election of directors; provided, however, that if less than 21 days' notice of the meeting is given to stockholders, such written notice shall be delivered or mailed, as prescribed, to the Secretary of the Corporation not later than the close of the seventh day following the day on which notice of the meeting was mailed to stockholders. Notice of nominations which are proposed by the Board of Directors shall be given by the Chairman on behalf of the Board.

(e) Each notice under subsection (d) shall set forth (i) the name, age, business address and, if known, residence address of each nominee proposed in such notice, (ii) the principal occupation or employment of such nominee and (iii) the number of shares of stock of the Corporation which are beneficially owned by each such nominee.

(f) The Chairman of the meeting may, if the facts warrant, determine and declare to the meeting that a nomination was not made in accordance with the foregoing procedure, and if he should so determine, he shall so declare to the meeting and the defective nomination shall be disregarded.

(g) No action required to be taken or which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation may be taken without a meeting, and the power of stockholders to consent in writing, without a meeting, to the taking of any action is specifically denied.

SIXTH: - The Directors shall choose such officers, agents and servants as may be provided in the By-Laws as they may from time to time find necessary or proper.

SEVENTH: - The Corporation hereby created is hereby given the same powers, rights and privileges as may be conferred upon corporations organized under the Act entitled "An Act Providing a General Corporation Law", approved March 10, 1899, as from time to time amended.

EIGHTH: - This Act shall be deemed and taken to be a private Act.

NINTH: - This Corporation is to have perpetual existence.

TENTH: - The Board of Directors, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole Board, may designate any of their number to constitute an Executive Committee, which Committee, to the extent provided in said resolution, or in the By-Laws of the Company, shall have and may exercise all of the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, and shall have power to authorize the seal of the Corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it.

ELEVENTH: - The private property of the stockholders shall not be liable for the payment of corporate debts to any extent whatever.

TWELFTH: - The Corporation may transact business in any part of the world.

THIRTEENTH: - The Board of Directors of the Corporation is expressly authorized to make, alter or repeal the By-Laws of the Corporation by a vote of the majority of the entire Board. The stockholders may make, alter or repeal any By-Law whether or not adopted by them, provided however, that any such additional By-Laws, alterations or repeal may be adopted only by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds or more of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors (considered for this purpose as one class).

FOURTEENTH: - Meetings of the Directors may be held outside of the State of Delaware at such places as may be from time to time designated by the Board, and the Directors may keep the books of the Company outside of the State of Delaware at such places as may be from time to time designated by them.

FIFTEENTH: - (a) (1) In addition to any affirmative vote required by law, and except as otherwise expressly provided in sections (b) and (c) of this Article FIFTEENTH:

(A) any merger or consolidation of the Corporation or any Subsidiary (as hereinafter defined) with or into (i) any Interested Stockholder (as hereinafter defined) or (ii) any other corporation (whether or not itself an Interested Stockholder), which, after such merger or consolidation, would be an Affiliate (as hereinafter defined) of an Interested Stockholder, or

(B) any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition (in one transaction or a series of related transactions) to or with any Interested Stockholder or any Affiliate of any Interested Stockholder of any assets of the Corporation or any Subsidiary having an aggregate fair market value of $1,000,000 or more, or

(C) the issuance or transfer by the Corporation or any Subsidiary (in one transaction or a series of related transactions) of any securities of the Corporation or any Subsidiary to any Interested Stockholder or any Affiliate of any Interested Stockholder in exchange for cash, securities or other property (or a combination thereof) having an aggregate fair market value of $1,000,000 or more, or

(D) the adoption of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of the Corporation, or

(E) any reclassification of securities (including any reverse stock split), or recapitalization of the Corporation, or any merger or consolidation of the Corporation with any of its Subsidiaries or any similar transaction (whether or not with or into or otherwise involving an Interested Stockholder) which has the effect, directly or indirectly, of increasing the proportionate share of the outstanding shares of any class of equity or convertible securities of the Corporation or any Subsidiary which is directly or indirectly owned by any Interested Stockholder, or any Affiliate of any Interested Stockholder, shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Corporation entitled to vote generally in the election of directors, considered for the purpose of this Article FIFTEENTH as one class ("Voting Shares"). Such affirmative vote shall be required notwithstanding the fact that no vote may be required, or that some lesser percentage may be specified, by law or in any agreement with any national securities exchange or otherwise.

(2) The term "business combination" as used in this Article FIFTEENTH shall mean any transaction which is referred to in any one or more of clauses (A) through (E) of paragraph 1 of the section (a).

(b) The provisions of section (a) of this Article FIFTEENTH shall not be applicable to any particular business combination and such business combination shall require only such affirmative vote as is required by law and any other provisions of the Charter or Act of Incorporation or By-Laws if such business combination has been approved by a majority of the whole Board.

(c) For the purposes of this Article FIFTEENTH:

(1) A "person" shall mean any individual, firm, corporation or other entity.

(2) "Interested Stockholder" shall mean, in respect of any business combination, any person (other than the Corporation or any Subsidiary) who or which as of the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote on such business combination, or immediately prior to the consummation of any such transaction:

5. Execution of Rights Certificates.

Rights Certificates shall be signed on behalf of the Company by its Chairman, President, a Vice President or its Treasurer and attested by its Secretary or Assistant Secretary. If the Rights Agent manually countersigns such Rights Certificates on behalf of the Company, each such signature upon the Rights Certificates may be in the form of a facsimile signature of the current or any future Chairman, President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary or Assistant Secretary and may be imprinted or otherwise reproduced on the Rights Certificates and for that purpose the Company may adopt and use the facsimile signature of any person who shall have been Chairman, President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary or Assistant Secretary, notwithstanding the fact that at the time the Rights Certificates shall be delivered or disposed of, such person shall have ceased to hold such office.

If any officer of the Company who shall have signed any of the Rights Certificates shall cease to be such officer before the Rights Certificates so signed shall have been delivered by the Rights Agent or disposed of by the Company, such Rights Certificates nevertheless may be delivered or disposed of as though such person had not ceased to be such officer of the Company; and any Rights Certificate may be signed on behalf of the Company by any person who, at the actual date of the execution of such Rights Certificate, shall be a proper officer of the Company to sign such Rights Certificate, notwithstanding that on the date of the execution of this Agreement any such person was not such officer.

6. Issue of Rights Certificates.

As soon as practicable after the Distribution Date, the Rights Agent will send by first-class, insured, postage prepaid mail, to each person set forth on the list provided by the Company, at the address of such holder as shown on the records of the Company, a Rights Certificate, evidencing the number of Rights set forth on such list. As of and after the Distribution Date, the Rights will be evidenced solely by such Rights Certificates.

7. Registration of Rights Certificate

The Rights Certificates shall be numbered and shall be registered in a register (the "Rights Register") to be maintained by the Rights Agent. The Company and the Rights Agent may deem and treat the registered holder of a Rights Certificate as the absolute owner thereof (notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing thereon made by anyone), for the purpose of any exercise thereof or any distribution to the holder thereof and for all other purposes, and neither the Company nor the Rights Agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.

8. Registration of Transfers and Exchanges.

Until the Close of Business on the Expiration Date (as hereinafter defined), the Rights Agent shall from time to time register the transfer of any outstanding Rights Certificates in the Rights Register, upon surrender of such Rights Certificates, duly endorsed, and, if not surrendered by or on behalf of an Original Holder of Rights Certificates accompanied by a written instrument or instruments of transfer in form satisfactory to the Rights Agent, duly signed by the registered holder or holders thereof or by the duly appointed legal representative thereof or by a duly authorized attorney, such signature to be guaranteed by an "eligible guarantor institution" as defined under Rule 17Ad-15 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Upon any such registration of transfer, a new Rights Certificate shall be issued to the transferee.

Rights Certificates may be exchanged at the option of the holder or holders thereof, when surrendered to the Rights Agent at its offices or agency maintained in [] (or at such other offices or agencies as may be designated by the Agent) for the purpose of exchanging, transferring and exercising the Rights, (a "Rights Agent Office,") or at the offices of any successor Rights Agent as provided in Section 20 hereof, for another Rights Certificate or other Rights Certificates of like tenor and representing in the aggregate a like number of Rights.

9. Duration and Exercise of Rights; Rights Price.

(a) The Rights shall expire at 5:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time (the "Close of Business") on February 14, 2001 (the "Expiration Date"). Until the Close of Business on the Expiration Date, the Rights may be exercised on any business day. After the Close of Business on the Expiration Date, the Rights will become void and of no value and all related Company obligations shall expire.

(b) (i) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, each holder of Rights shall have the right, from the time the Rights are distributed until the Close of Business on the Expiration Date, to purchase from the Company upon exercise of three Rights, for a consideration consisting of two Income PRIDES, two New Income PRIDES, upon surrender to the Company, at the principal office of the Rights Agent, of the instruments specified in paragraph (c) below. In order to exercise Rights, the record owner of the Rights and the Income PRIDES tendered in connection therewith must be identical.

(ii) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no holder of Rights will be entitled to exercise such Rights for New Growth PRIDES unless (i) such holder received Rights as part of the original distribution of the Rights, as evidenced by its inclusion on the list supplied by the Company pursuant to Section 6 and the number of Rights to be exercised for New Growth PRIDES do not exceed, together with all other Rights so exercised by such holder, the number of Rights originally distributed to such holder or (ii) the Company otherwise agrees. If a holder of Rights who is not entitled to exercise Rights for Growth PRIDES attempts to so exercise Rights, the Rights certificate shall be returned to such holder as soon as practicable with a notice of rejection.

(c) A Rights holder shall exercise such holder's right to exchange Rights and Current FELINE PRIDES for New FELINE PRIDES:

(i) by depositing with the Rights Agent at the Rights Agent Office the Rights Certificate evidencing such Rights with the form of election to purchase on the reverse thereof duly completed and signed by the registered holder or holders thereof or by the duly appointed legal representative thereof or by a duly authorized attorney. Such signature shall be guaranteed in the manner described in Section 8 hereof unless (1) the form of Election provides that the New FELINE PRIDES are to be delivered directly to the record owner of those Rights, or (2) the Rights Certificate is submitted for the account of a member firm of a registered national securities exchange or a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., or a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States, and

(ii) by depositing with the Rights Agent at a Rights Agent Office the FELINE PRIDES certificate representing the requisite amount of FELINE PRIDES or by effecting a book entry transfer of the requisite amount of FELINE PRIDES;

(d) Once a Rights holder exercises such holder's Rights, such exercise may not be revoked.

(e) The Rights evidenced by a Rights Certificate shall be exercisable, at the election of the registered holder thereof, in whole or in part from time to time up to an aggregate amount equal to the number of Rights specified in the Rights Certificate. If less than all of the Rights evidenced by a Rights Certificate surrendered upon the exercise of Rights are exercised at any time prior to the Expiration Date, a new Rights Certificate or Certificates shall be issued for the number of Rights evidenced by the Rights Certificate so surrendered that have not been exercised.

(f) The Rights Agent shall account promptly to the Company with respect to Rights exercised.

(g) If either the number of Rights being exercised is not specified on a Rights Certificate, or the number of FELINE PRIDES is not sufficient to pay the full aggregate consideration for all New FELINE PRIDES stated to be subscribed for, the Rights holder will be deemed to have exercised the maximum number of Rights that could be exercised for the consideration delivered by such Rights holder. If the consideration delivered by the Rights holder exceeds the aggregate consideration for the number of Rights evidenced by the Rights Certificate(s) delivered by such Rights holder, the consideration will be applied to subscribe for New FELINE PRIDES up to the maximum payment required for use of all evidenced Rights. Any excess consideration remaining after the foregoing allocation will be returned to the Rights holder.

(h) The consideration for the New FELINE PRIDES shall be paid as follows: (i) if the registered holder of Rights Certificates uses Current FELINE PRIDES as part of the consideration for the New FELINE PRIDES, the consideration shall be paid directly to the Rights Agent; (ii) if the registered holder of Rights Certificates uses Additional or Special FELINE PRIDES as part of the consideration for the New FELINE PRIDES, the consideration shall be paid to Merrill Lynch & Co., as broker-dealer, which shall forward such consideration to the Rights Agent. In either case, the Rights Agent shall deliver the New FELINE PRIDES directly to such registered holder of Rights Certificates.

(i) The Company covenants that all New FELINE PRIDES issued upon exercise of the Rights will, upon issuance in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, be fully paid and nonassessable and free from all liens, charges and security interests created by or imposed upon the Company with respect to the issuance thereof.

10. Cancellation of Rights.

If the Company shall purchase or otherwise acquire Rights, the Rights Certificates representing such Rights shall thereupon be delivered to the Rights Agent and be canceled by it and retired. The Rights Agent shall cancel all Rights Certificates surrendered for exchange, substitution, transfer or exercise in whole or in part.

11. Payment of Taxes.

The Company shall pay all documentary stamp taxes attributable to the initial issuance of Rights, New FELINE PRIDES, Additional FELINE PRIDES and Special FELINE PRIDES; provided, however, that the Company shall not be required to pay any tax or taxes which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issue of any Rights Certificates or any certificates for New FELINE PRIDES, Additional FELINE PRIDES or Special FELINE PRIDES in a name other than the registered Holder of a Rights Certificate surrendered upon the exercise of a Right, and the Company shall not be required to issue or deliver such certificates unless or until the person or persons requesting the issuance thereof shall have paid to the Company the amount of such tax or shall have established to the satisfaction of the Company that such tax has been paid or adequate provision has been made for the payment thereof.

12. Mutilated or Missing Rights Certificates.

If any of the Rights Certificates shall be mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed, the Company may in its discretion issue, and the Rights Agent shall deliver, in exchange and substitution for and upon cancellation of the mutilated Rights Certificate, or in lieu of and substitution for the Rights Certificate lost, stolen or destroyed, a new Rights Certificate of like tenor and representing an equivalent number of Rights, but only upon receipt of evidence satisfactory to the Company and the Rights Agent of such loss, theft or destruction of such Rights Certificate and indemnity or bond, if requested, also satisfactory to them. Applicants for such substitute Rights Certificates shall also comply with such other reasonable regulations and pay such other reasonable charges as the Company or the Rights Agent may prescribe.

13. Transfer, Split up, Combination and Exchange of Rights Certificate.

At any time after the close of business on the Distribution Date, and at or prior to the close of business on the Expiration Date, any Rights Certificate or Rights Certificates may be transferred, split up, combined or exchanged for another Rights Certificate or Rights Certificates, entitling the registered holder to exchange such Rights Certificate or Rights Certificates for the number of New FELINE PRIDES evidenced by such Rights Certificate or Rights Certificates. Any registered holder desiring to transfer, split up, combine or exchange any Rights Certificate shall make such request in writing delivered to the Rights Agent, and shall surrender the Rights Certificate or Rights Certificates to be transferred, split up, combined or exchanged at the principal office of the Rights Agent. Thereupon the Rights Agent shall deliver to the Persons entitled thereto the Rights Certificate or Rights Certificates, as the case may be, as so requested. The Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any transfer, split up, combination or exchange of Rights Certificates.

14. Registration of New FELINE PRIDES, Additional FELINE PRIDES and Special FELINE PRIDES.

The Company has filed with the SEC registration statements for the New FELINE PRIDES, the Additional FELINE PRIDES and Special FELINE PRIDES on Forms S-3, each of which have been or will be declared effective. The Company will use its best efforts to keep the registration statements continuously effective from the date hereof through the Close of Business ten (10) business days following the Expiration Date. So long as any unexpired Rights remain outstanding, the Company will take all necessary action to obtain and keep effective any and all permits, consents and approvals of government agencies and authorities and to make filings under federal and state securities acts and laws, which may be or become necessary in connection with the issuance, sale, transfer and delivery of the Rights Certificates, the exercise of the Rights and the issuance, sale, transfer and delivery of the Shares issued upon exercise of Rights.

15. Furnishing Prospectus to Registered Holders of Rights Certificates

The Rights Agent, on behalf of the Company, will furnish a copy of the prospectus included as part of the registration statement for the New FELINE PRIDES to (1) any person to whom Rights shall have been issued pursuant to the terms hereof, on or before the delivery of such Rights, and (2) every exercising registered holder of Rights Certificates with, or prior to, the delivery of the New FELINE PRIDES; provided, however, that, if such holder has been previously provided a prospectus, the Rights Agent will not be obligated to provide a prospectus to such holder. The Company will supply the Rights Agent with sufficient copies of the prospectus to perform its delivery duties as provided for in this Section 15.

The Rights Agent will also make available appropriately signed and countersigned New FELINE PRIDES upon the exchange of such Rights for the New FELINE PRIDES.

16. Merger, Consolidation or Change of Name of Rights Agent.

Any corporation into which the Rights Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Rights Agent shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to the shareholder services business of the Rights Agent, shall be the successor to the Rights Agent hereunder without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto, provided that such corporation would be eligible for appointment as a successor Rights Agent under the provisions of Section 20.

17. Rights Agent.

The Rights Agent undertakes the duties and obligations imposed by this Agreement upon the following terms and conditions, by all of which the Company and the holders of Rights Certificates, by their acceptance thereof, shall be bound:

(a) The Rights Agent shall not be responsible for any failure of the Company to comply with any of the covenants contained in this Agreement or in the Rights Certificates to be complied with by the Company nor shall it at any time be under any duty or responsibility to any holder of a Right to make or cause to be made any adjustment in the number of New FELINE PRIDES issuable upon exercise of any Rights, or in the consideration for the Additional FELINE PRIDES or Special FELINE PRIDES (except as instructed by the Company)

(b) The Company agrees to indemnify the Rights Agent and save it harmless against any and all losses, liabilities and expenses, including judgments, costs and reasonable counsel fees and expenses, for anything done or omitted by the Rights Agent arising out of or in connection with this Agreement except as a result of its negligence or bad faith.

(c) The Company agrees that it will perform, execute, acknowledge and deliver or cause to be performed, executed, acknowledged and delivered all such further and other acts, instruments and assurances as may reasonably be required by the Rights Agent for the carrying out or performing the provisions of this Agreement.

(d) The Rights Agent is hereby authorized and directed to accept instructions with respect to the performance of its duties hereunder from the Chairman, the President, any Vice President, the Controller, the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer, the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Company, and to apply to such officers for advice or instructions in connection with its duties, and shall not be liable for any action taken or suffered to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with instructions of any such officer or in good faith reliance upon any statement signed by any one of such officers of the Company with respect to any fact or matter (unless other evidence in respect thereof is herein specifically prescribed) which may be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by such signed statement.

18. Change of Rights Agent.

If the Rights Agent shall resign (such resignation to become effective not earlier than sixty (60) days after the giving of written notice thereof to the Company and the registered holders of Rights Certificates) or shall become incapable of acting as Rights Agent or if the Board of Directors of the Company shall by resolution remove the Rights Agent (such removal to become effective not earlier than thirty (30) days after the filing of a certified copy of such resolution with the Rights Agent and the giving of written notice of such removal to the registered holders of Rights Certificates), the Company shall appoint a successor to the Rights Agent. If the Company shall fail to make such appointment within a period of thirty (30) days after such removal or after it has been so notified in writing of such resignation or incapacity by the Rights Agent or by the registered holder of a Rights Certificate (in the case of incapacity), then the registered holder of any Rights Certificate may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor to the Rights Agent. Pending appointment of a successor to the Rights Agent, either by the Company or by such court, the duties of the Rights Agent shall be carried out by the Company. Any successor Rights Agent, whether appointed by the Company or by such court, shall be a bank or trust company, in good standing, incorporated under the laws of any state or of the United States of America. As soon as practicable after appointment of the successor Rights Agent, the Company shall cause written notice of the change in the Rights Agent to be given to each of the registered holders of the Rights Certificates at such holder's address as appears on the Rights Register. After appointment, the successor Rights Agent shall be vested with the same powers, rights, duties and responsibilities as if it had been originally named as Rights Agent without further act or deed. The former Rights Agent shall deliver and transfer to the successor Rights Agent any property at the time held by it hereunder and execute and deliver, at the expense of the Company, any further assurance, conveyance, act or deed necessary for the purpose. Failure to give any notice provided for in this Section 20 or any defect therein, shall not affect the legality or validity of the removal of the Rights Agent or the appointment of a successor Rights Agent, as the case may be.

19. Rights of Action.

All rights of action in respect of this Agreement are vested in the respective registered holders of the Rights Certificates; and any registered holder of any Rights Certificate without the consent of the Rights Agent or of the holder of any other Rights Certificate, may, on his own behalf and for his own benefit, enforce, and may institute and maintain any suit, action or proceeding against the Company to enforce, or otherwise act in respect of, his right to exercise the Rights evidenced by such Rights Certificate in the manner provided in such Rights Certificate in this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing or any remedies available to the holders of Rights, it is specifically acknowledged that the holders of Rights would not have an adequate remedy at law for any breach of this Agreement and shall be entitled to specific performance of the obligations hereunder and injunctive relief against actual or threatened violations of the obligations hereunder of any Person subject to this Agreement. Holders of Rights shall be entitled to recover the reasonable costs and expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by them in any action to enforce the provisions of this Agreement.

20. Right holder Not Deemed a Stockholder.

Nothing contained in this Agreement or in any of the Rights Certificates shall be construed as conferring upon the holders thereof the right to vote or to receive dividends or to consent or to receive notice as stockholders in respect of the meetings of stockholders or for the election of directors of the Company or any other matter, or any rights whatsoever as stockholders of the Company.

21. Notices to Company and Rights Agent.

Any notice or demand authorized by this Agreement to be given or made by the Rights Agent or by any registered holder of any Rights Certificate to or on the Company shall be sufficiently given or made if sent by mail, first-class or registered, postage prepaid, addressed (until another address is filed in writing by the Company with the Rights Agent), as follows:

22. Supplements and Amendments.

The Company and the Rights Agent may from time to time supplement or amend this Agreement without approval of any holders of Right Certificates in order (i) to cure any ambiguity, (ii) to correct or supplement any provision contained herein which may be defective or inconsistent with any other provisions herein or (iii) to change or supplement the provisions hereunder in any manner which shall not adversely affect the interests of the holders of Rights Certificates. Upon the delivery of a certificate from an appropriate officer of the Company which states that the proposed supplement or amendment is in compliance with the terms of this Section 24, the Rights Agent shall execute such supplement or amendment unless the Rights Agent shall have determined in good faith that such supplement or amendment would adversely affect its interests under this Agreement. Any supplement or amendment of this Rights Agreement shall be in writing and signed on behalf of the Company and the Rights Agent.

23. Successors.

All the covenants and provisions of this Agreement by or for the benefit of the Company and the Rights Agent shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and assigns hereunder.

24. Termination.

This Agreement shall terminate on the Close of Business on a date which is fifteen business days after the Expiration Date. Upon termination of this Agreement, the Rights Agent shall retain all canceled Rights Certificates and related documentation as required by applicable law.

25. Governing Law.

This Agreement and each Rights Certificate issued hereunder shall be deemed to be a contract made under the laws of the State of New York and for all purposes shall be construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York without regard to principles of conflict of law or choice of laws of the State of New York or any other jurisdiction which would cause the application of any laws other than of the State of New York.
